WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs came to a close last night, after a session lasting two days and nights, with the election of officers.

Meteorologically the ladies met with a cool reception in Alexandria, the weather being most unpropitious, but otherwise their greeting was warm and hospitable and it is hoped they enjoyed their stay well here.

The meeting opened last night with music selections being rendered by Mrs. E. F. Downham, of this city, and Mrs. Temple, of Danville.

The report from the board of directors was then submitted.

The secretary reported that an invitation of the Wednesday Afternoon Club, of Danville, to the Federation to meet in Danville next May had been received and the invitation was accepted.

The result of the election of officers was as follows:

President, Mrs. A. B. Carrington, Danville; first vice president, Mrs. Austin Quick, Lynchburg; second vice president, Miss Helen Norris Cummings, Alexandria; recording secretary, Mrs. Walter M. Ruan, Bedford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wm. T. Botwright, Danville; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. M. King, Staunton; auditor, Mrs. Cora Read, Montvale.

The unfinished business was then taken up. This consisted of the following recommendations in the president's report, which were all accepted:

That the Federation instruct the educational committee to make an effort at once to secure scholarships from both boys and girls schools throughout the state. These scholarships to be placed by our educational committee, the applicants to be recommended by the clubs.

That a committee on food sanitation be formed.

That the committee on literature and reciprocity be combined.

That some special work be assigned to the first vice president.

The report of the committee on resolutions was then submitted as follows:

In behalf of the delegates to the convention of the Virginia Federation we wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the Cameron Club, of Alexandria, for the gracious hospitality extended to us and for giving us the great privilege of visiting this interesting and historic town, for the lovely reception in Lee Camp Hall and for the opportunity of hearing so many lectures by experts along the line of work adopted by this federation. We also wish to thank Rev. Mr. Morton for the opening service in Christ Church and the excellent historical sketch given, and to the officers of the past year we give our grateful thanks for the splendid work done both for the federation and the state.

Respectfully submitted, Mrs. JENKINS, Mrs. SPANGLER, Mrs. PERKINSON.

The report was unanimously adopted. After the transaction of some minor business the convention adjourned after a most delightful session.

THE MARKET.

There was a tolerably good display of country produce in market this morning notwithstanding the inclement weather. There was an abundance of spring onions, radishes and green stuff which were offered at former prices. Fresh butter sold at 25 cents a pound and eggs at from 22 to 24 cents a dozen. Strawberries were scarce, and were held at 10 cents a box. During the week they sold at much lower prices, fair specimens a few days ago having been disposed of in stores at 6 cents a box.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Ego, colored, suspected of stealing rubber gloves, was dismissed. James Lewis, colored, charged with stealing clothing, had his case continued. Maggie Bell, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

The first showing of Regal Shoes in the city, John A. Marshall & Bro. 422 King street.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Arrangements for an appropriate observance of Confederate Memorial Day have been completed. On Monday morning the various committees of Lee Camp and of the different auxiliaries will visit the several cemeteries and strew flowers on the graves of the Confederate soldiers buried there. The Confederate monument at the intersection of Washington and Prince streets and the Confederate mound in Christ Church yard will also be decorated. At 4:30 o'clock in the evening the members of Lee Camp will assemble at their hall, and escorted by the Alexandria Light Infantry, headed by the drum corps, will march through some of the principal streets and then proceed to the monument where the exercises of the day will be held. Rev. W. J. Morton, of Christ Church, will offer prayer and a choir led by Miss Reichford will render several selections. Congressman Carlin will then deliver an address after which the line will reform and proceed to Christ Church where a salute will be fired over the Confederate mound and "taps" sounded.

Lee Camp Hall will be open all day on Monday for the reception of flowers, with which to decorate the monument, mound and graves of the Confederate dead. The work is in charge of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp assisted by the Daughters of the Confederacy, and it is earnestly requested that all interested in the work will contribute generously to this appeal as in former years.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

The degree team of Potomac Commandery, Knights Templar, of Washington, under Eminent Commander C. T. Lindsey, visited Old Dominion Commandery of this city last night and conferred the Red Cross degree upon several candidates. After work the visitors were escorted to the Hotel Rammel where a banquet was served and at which all enjoyed a delightful evening. Several impromptu speeches were made and the visitors returned to Washington at a late hour.

Old Dominion Commandery will hold their annual Ascension Day service tomorrow, Sunday, afternoon, at four o'clock, at the Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church South. The Sir Knights will assemble at their asylin at 3:15 o'clock and march to the church, under Eminent Commander Harry Hammond. The sermon on this occasion will be preached by Rev. Sir Charles D. Bulla, and special music will be rendered by the choir of the church and by the Old Dominion Commandery quartette, consisting of Sir Knights K. W. Ozden, S. F. Field, H. K. Field and M. L. Dinwiddie, assisted by Mr. George H. Evans. Mrs. George E. Warfield will preside at the organ and Mrs. T. A. Hufish will sing a solo.

The public is cordially invited to attend this most interesting service.

AMUSEMENTS.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather of last night the amusement houses were fairly well attended and the vaudeville performers played their parts and the usual pictures shown as if every seat was taken in the houses. The last night of the week will be the crowning one as far as a display of talent is concerned, and whether the weather be good or bad, the Opera House, Surprise and Alexandria Amusement Company will deliver the goods in an amusement line to the satisfaction of the crowds who will visit the three houses whose advertisements appear on this page. Read them and be convinced that the programmes mapped out for tonight are first class. "A Woman's Honor," the thrilling drama presented by the Johnson-Downey Stock Company at the Opera House this week, has received the most favorable criticism. It will be repeated tonight. The Surprise Theatre closes the week with one of the strongest and best shows ever seen in this city. The stars in vaudeville at this theatre never fail to please. When you have finished your day's work and wish to spend an hour in pleasurable recreation there is no better place to go than to the Alexandria Amusement Company. A fine selection of pictures for tonight.

HEAVY RAINS.

The rain which began to fall Thursday night continued throughout yesterday and last night and was falling this morning. The wind was holding to the northeast and at times it came in heavy flava. The temperature in the mesometeor has been uncomfortably cool, compelling housekeepers to rekindle fires. The steady downpour of rain last night, together with the heavy wind, kept most people in doors. The tide was abnormally high again today, being awash with most of the wharves and submerging others.

WRIT OF ERROR.

Mr. J. B. Caton today received a telegram from Richmond announcing that the Court of Appeals had granted a writ of error in the case of J. H. Trimyer vs. the W. A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co. In the February term of the Circuit Court for the city Mr. Trimyer was awarded damages in the sum of $2,500 for injuries he sustained the winter previous by a train on which he was riding being in collision with an engine on the Henry street track. An appeal was taken to the Court of Appeals by the defendant company.

ANOTHER CHARGE.

James Lewis, a one-legged negro, who was fined $20 in the Police Court yesterday morning for cutting Geralline Carter, a young colored woman, and who was sent to jail for 60 days for non-payment of the assessment, was made to face the bar again this morning on the charge of stealing clothing from two tailors of this city. It was decided to continue the cases until Lewis shall have served his two months' sentence on the chain gang.

George R., the little son of Mrs. Malcolm W. Hill, is convalescent after an illness of six weeks of scarlet fever.

It has been definitely announced that Judge C. E. Nicol, who is now living in Alexandria, will not move back to his place near town this summer.—[Massachusetts Journal.]

Mr. George L. Summers, jr., of Barnesville, Ga., is on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. Robert W. Adcock, who has been sick for several weeks, has recovered.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING.

There was a well-attended meeting of the Alexandria Medical Society at the Hotel Rammel last night. Dr. George T. Klipstein presided. Interesting papers were read by Drs. Delaney and Powell, and considerable business of interest to the society was transacted.

Whooping Cough.

"In February my daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane, of Hartland, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. G. Goss, of Durand, Mich. For sale by W. F. Orlington & Co., and Richard Gibson.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. John Cavanaugh will conduct services in the parlors of the Braddock House tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Southern Railway has just completed a new water tank near the Massachus depot to take the place of the one which burst several weeks ago.

A rehearsal of the choir that will take part in the Confederate memorial day exercises Monday afternoon was held last night in the Young People's building.

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, widow of Thomas O'Shaughnessy, died yesterday morning at her home near Bailey Cross Roads, Fairfax county, after a brief illness. The deceased was about eighty years old. Three sons and one daughter survive her.

There will be preaching in Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, tomorrow. At 11 o'clock services the subject will be "The man with the will gets the blessing." There will also be preaching at 8 p. m. Subject, "Spiritual insight of one's life." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., and Epworth League at 4:30 p. m.

Martin L. Bray, of Alexandria county, recently refused to appear before the chief examiner of pensions in Washington in the case of his application for a pension. Today he was brought before U. S. Commissioner Garnett in this city who took the testimony in the case and will submit the same to the department in Washington.

An obstreperous inmate of a public house was ejected by the proprietor about 9:30 o'clock last night, and in the scuffle the glass in the front door was smashed. The man pulled the damage and returned to the police to-day that a lady's hat and a pair of oars were found in her yard last night.

On account of the rain the baseball game to be played this evening between the Cole and Hill school grounds between the nine of that school and that of Woodberry Forest was postponed.

The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association who have been in session since last week adjourned yesterday.

You may not think that what we are going to tell you now is absolutely true, but honestly, we wouldn't mislead you for the world. It's indeed just history. Not many Saturdays ago, while we were rather busy at our Stand waiting on our customers, a wireless message was handed us by a winged messenger, postmarked "Elysian fields," and signed "George Washington." It was an order for a supply of the most irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages; Smoked Ham; Fresh Chipped Beef; Cooked House Tender; Breakfast Bacon; Imported Schweitzer, etc. etc. But of course, if you don't think this is the real, unadulterated truth, just ask Mr. Einstein. He'll tell you it's a "pipe," Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand, City Market.
