

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING JULY 23, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table. Sun rises tomorrow at 4:53 and sets at 7:19.

Weather Probabilities. For this section showers tonight; Saturday partly cloudy; somewhat lower temperature.

THE ELECTRIC WORKS.

As will be seen elsewhere Mr. F. T. Lewis, who recently purchased the electric light plant property in this city has transferred the same to T. C. Coleman and others.

BASEBALL.

The Cardinal Athletic Club, one of the strongest amateur teams in this vicinity, will play the Fredericksburg nine tomorrow afternoon at Fredericksburg.

The Alexandria Athletic Club defeated the Fa's Church team yesterday in a well played game by the score of 3 to 2.

THE LIST OF OWNERS.

The city auditor has prepared in duplicate a list of the names of those persons who have paid their license tax on dogs.

ALL IS DARK.

Those who travel always welcome a well lighted depot. It shows that the patron is well cared for by the railroad company.

TRESPASSER IN A TREE.

About eleven o'clock last Wednesday night, when Mrs. Joseph Hawkins and her two daughters, living on the west side of Fairfax street, near Franklin, were preparing to retire, they saw a man in an apple tree in the yard.

A RECRUIT FOR THE WORK HOUSE.

Among the prisoners in the Police Court this morning was Cecelia Keys, colored, an old offender. She was the same old charge—drunk and disorderly and making last night hideous by her yells in the vicinity of the W. & O. depot.

DELEGATES ELECTED.

At a meeting of the Second Baptist Church, corner of Pendleton and Columbus streets, on Wednesday night the following were elected delegates to the Potomac Association which meets at Antioch Church in Prince William county, August 11, 1909: Messrs Jas. A. Hullish, H. K. Henderson, George K. Bender, John T. Nalls, Thos. Henderson and William Owens were elected alternates.

PROPERTY SALES.

Mary A. Foster has sold to J. B. Breen a house and lot at the northwest corner of Gibson and Patrick streets.

The Alexandria Electric Company has sold to Fred T. Lewis all the company's property on the wharf front between Wolfe and Wilkes streets and Mr. Lewis has transferred the property to T. C. Coleman and others.

Summer reduction on all low shoes at John A. Marshall & Bro's, 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Mr. T. S. Evans, formerly of this city but now of New York, has been here for the last three weeks purchasing crosses for New York parades.

Messrs. Lorenzo Wolford and George H. Schwarzmann left yesterday for New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Davidson have gone to Orkney Springs to spend the summer.

Mr. Wm. T. Emerson, superintendent of St. Paul's, Union and M. P. cemeteries, is ill at his home at Dal Ray.

Mr. C. B. Hooff, president of the First National Bank, continues quite ill at his home on Seminary Hill, but his condition was thought to have somewhat improved today.

Mrs. S. B. Stoutenburgh and family have moved to Washington where they will make their home.

Mr. Thos. T. Kelly and family have gone to Colonial Beach to spend several weeks.

WEST END NOTES.

Mrs. Nettie Rush and two sons have gone to Middleburg for the summer.

Mr. Wayne Lind, of West End, was bitten yesterday afternoon by a fox terrier belonging to Mr. Thomas Hall.

It is not quite certain whether the dog was suffering from rabies or not.

Mr. Joseph Pettit, who has been seriously ill for some time past with typhoid fever, is rapidly improving.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. R. M. McKeown, living near the Stone bridge, ran away yesterday with a boy on its back.

The horse was stopped by men in the road, but not until the boy was severely shaken up.

The little son of Mrs. J. M. Caton, of West End, was bitten in several places on the hand by a rat last night at his home.

The extent and seriousness of the bites could not be learned.

Mrs. Abner Ider, of Delaplane, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Nichols at her home, No. 1724 Duke street.

Complaint is made of the disagreeable odor which exists where the slaughter house is located.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Lucas, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Two white men, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

James Carson and T. J. Molineux, two soldiers, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Cecelia Keys, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was sent to the work house for 60 days.

A white man, charged with conducting a woman to this city, who is likely to become a public charge, was dismissed with the understanding that he would send the woman back to the place whence she came.

Mat Williams, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and with using threatening language, was sent to jail for 30 days.

DEATH OF MRS. GWYNN.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. B. C. Gwynn, who was well known in this city, were held at St. Stephen's Church in Washington this morning, the interment being in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

AN UNDESIRABLE ADDITION.

A resident of this city was brought before the Police Court this morning charged with bringing a woman from Baltimore to this city who is likely to become a public charge.

SOLDIERS FINED.

James Carson and T. J. Molineux, two soldiers, caused some excitement in a house on North Lee street last night by attacking a man whose name could not be learned.

THE RED CROSS SHOES FOR TENDER FEET.

The ladies who wear the Red Cross shoes always wear a smile. Sold only by J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.
