

TUESDAY EVENING AUGUST 10, 1910.

There appears to be a dearth of political issues in Louisville, Ky., the home of Col. Watterson, as a dispatch from that city says a cheap burlesque theatre is to be the paramount municipal issue in the fall election there.

In this age of high taxes and vast municipal improvements it is gratifying to find that some of our American cities are taking steps to lighten the taxpayers' burden.

Under the act it is unlawful to sell or store liquids containing more than 3 1/2 per cent alcohol.

The Fuller bill and the Ballard bill are still pending in the House. They are more radical than the Carmichael law and are designed to aid in the enforcement of the latter.

The contest over the bill submitting to the people in November an amendment to the constitution to exclude quorum from Alabama forever will come up in the Senate today or tomorrow.

The New York state commission of agriculture has undertaken to enforce the new law against the deception of the public by the use of butter substitutes.

In the big Denver convention of the Western Federation of Miners last week Charles H. Meyer was again chosen president.

The Treasury Department today issued the regulations to put into effect the provisions of the new tariff law by which free trade is established between this country and the Philippine Islands.

The cancer cure by mail is on the list of undesirable things at the Postoffice Department.

Relief from the intense heat was promised by the weather bureau today in a special bulletin announcing that in the middle, eastern and northern states the excessive heat of the last few days will give way today and tonight to comparatively moderate temperatures.

At his home, 427 Green street, at 6:30 Monday evening, JOHN T. BOYD, in the 71st year of his age, passed away.

News of the Day.

Orville Wright and his sister, Miss Katherine Wright, sailed from New York yesterday for a trip to Europe.

It is officially announced that 103 deaths from bubonic plague have occurred in Amoy, China, in the past two weeks.

Col. Charles Eaton Creecy, a well-known lawyer, and one of the oldest inhabitants of Washington, died early yesterday morning at the Hotel Dennis, Atlantic City, where he had gone to recuperate his health.

The sixth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pius was celebrated in Rome yesterday with great pomp.

The Greek flag which was run up over the fortress and the Oretan military barracks at Cana on July 27, the day after the evacuation of the island by the international troops, was lowered yesterday as a result of the protests of the four protecting powers.

The American Order of Owls opened its first annual convention at Reading, Pa., today.

Mrs. Mabel Jane Michael Brown, who recently filed a suit for an absolute divorce from her husband, Frank Brown, the son of ex Gov. Frank Brown, of Maryland, is to get her divorce without any contest.

Two men were killed by a live wire and the hands of a third were burned at a fire yesterday in a lumber yard in St. Paul.

Angered because her husband refused to accompany her to the theater, Mrs. C. C. Downs entered his office in Atlanta, Ga., yesterday afternoon and fired two shots at him.

The recent revolution in Barcelona, Spain, is at an end, it is evidenced by the announcement of the cable companies in New York today that messages for that point are now accepted without restriction.

The thirty-second annual meeting of the Evangelical Association of Loudoun county, Va., just ended at Purcellville, was pronounced a great success.

The annual meeting of the State Bar Association of Virginia began at Hot Springs today with an address by Professor Thornton of the University of Virginia.

A. A. Barnett, of Culpeper county, has a freak pig. The little animal has six feet, six knees and eighteen toes.

Today's Telegraphic News

Rioting in Sweden. Stockholm, Aug. 10.—Serious rioting is reported today from many county districts throughout Sweden where the strikers are trying to get farm-laborers to join the strike.

Troops hurried from the capital today to the most disturbed districts. Only meager details of the disturbances in the county are known, owing to the suspension of newspapers.

There is little likelihood of the railroad employes walking out tomorrow, the date originally determined upon.

Gothenburg, Sweden, Aug. 10.—Several ship-loads of strike-breakers arrived here today from England.

The Murder of Annie Schumacher. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 10.—What may prove a good clue to the murderer of pretty 17-year-old Annie Schumacher at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on Saturday afternoon was furnished today by a man who called with his wife at police headquarters and told the officers there that he and his wife on Saturday had seen the girl escorted by a man when she arose from prayer beside her sister's grave.

Effects of the Heat Wave. New York, Aug. 10.—Today the new York morgue houses 40 infant bodies, the greatest number of children there at any time since the General Slocum disaster.

All are direct or indirect victims of the heat wave, and physicians declare the number of deaths among infants has been appalling.

It is not alone the children, however, that are suffering from the blanket of heat that is literally making New York gasp for breath.

Sleep was practically impossible in any portion of Greater New York last night. The Coney Island police declare that 10,000 persons slept on the sands there last night.

The President at Beverly. Beverly, Mass., Aug. 10.—Hastening through such official work as demanded his attention early today, President Taft at once started for the Myopia golf links, where he will spend a greater part of the day.

Thrilling Balloon Trip. Paris, Aug. 10.—Captain Spelterini, who piloted the balloon Sirius in a thrilling trip across the Alps, sent word to friends today that he landed at Rascade, on the side of the Alps.

Count Zeppelin. Stuttgart, Aug. 10.—Count Zeppelin is so much alive that he will probably be able to make another airship record within a fortnight.

Affairs in Cuba. Havana, Aug. 10.—The fusion of the two factions of the Liberal party in Cuba is complete today and Alfredo Zayas, vice-president of the republic, is the new leader.

The Recent Revolution in Spain. Lisbon, Aug. 10.—Twelve thousand Spaniards lost their lives in the recent revolution in Barcelona and other parts of the Catalonia, according to today's Diario de Noticias.

Pugilistic. Chicago, Aug. 10.—Jack Johnson, who is journeying here for a few days, announced today that he has wired Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries at New York, to come on to discuss plans for the fight.

New York Stock Market. New York, Aug. 10.—There were some price concessions before the end of the first year of his age.

Denial from Evelyn.

New York, Aug. 10.—Although she admits being in stained circumstances, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw denied today that she had made a demand for $500,000 on the family of her husband who is in White Plains jail awaiting the decision of Justice Mills as to his sanity.

"I am absolutely penniless," Mrs. Thaw said, "I haven't even money to pay my maid or to satisfy the landlord who is besieging me for the rent. I do not know what I am going to do. It seems I am up against it."

"But there is absolutely no truth in the statement that I will see the Thaws for half a million dollars. If they would just send me the $200 I should have received on the first of August I'd be satisfied."

The Murder of Annie Schumacher. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 10.—What may prove a good clue to the murderer of pretty 17-year-old Annie Schumacher at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on Saturday afternoon was furnished today by a man who called with his wife at police headquarters and told the officers there that he and his wife on Saturday had seen the girl escorted by a man when she arose from prayer beside her sister's grave.

Effects of the Heat Wave. New York, Aug. 10.—Today the new York morgue houses 40 infant bodies, the greatest number of children there at any time since the General Slocum disaster.

All are direct or indirect victims of the heat wave, and physicians declare the number of deaths among infants has been appalling.

It is not alone the children, however, that are suffering from the blanket of heat that is literally making New York gasp for breath.

Sleep was practically impossible in any portion of Greater New York last night. The Coney Island police declare that 10,000 persons slept on the sands there last night.

The President at Beverly. Beverly, Mass., Aug. 10.—Hastening through such official work as demanded his attention early today, President Taft at once started for the Myopia golf links, where he will spend a greater part of the day.

Thrilling Balloon Trip. Paris, Aug. 10.—Captain Spelterini, who piloted the balloon Sirius in a thrilling trip across the Alps, sent word to friends today that he landed at Rascade, on the side of the Alps.

Count Zeppelin. Stuttgart, Aug. 10.—Count Zeppelin is so much alive that he will probably be able to make another airship record within a fortnight.

Affairs in Cuba. Havana, Aug. 10.—The fusion of the two factions of the Liberal party in Cuba is complete today and Alfredo Zayas, vice-president of the republic, is the new leader.

The Recent Revolution in Spain. Lisbon, Aug. 10.—Twelve thousand Spaniards lost their lives in the recent revolution in Barcelona and other parts of the Catalonia, according to today's Diario de Noticias.

Pugilistic. Chicago, Aug. 10.—Jack Johnson, who is journeying here for a few days, announced today that he has wired Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries at New York, to come on to discuss plans for the fight.

New York Stock Market. New York, Aug. 10.—There were some price concessions before the end of the first year of his age.

The Sutton Inquiry.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 10.—The general impression here today seems to be that the introduction of the Swarzik letters, which were read first in secret and then in open court, will not prove as popular as had been expected to the defense.

"I am absolutely penniless," Mrs. Thaw said, "I haven't even money to pay my maid or to satisfy the landlord who is besieging me for the rent. I do not know what I am going to do. It seems I am up against it."

"But there is absolutely no truth in the statement that I will see the Thaws for half a million dollars. If they would just send me the $200 I should have received on the first of August I'd be satisfied."

The Murder of Annie Schumacher. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 10.—What may prove a good clue to the murderer of pretty 17-year-old Annie Schumacher at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on Saturday afternoon was furnished today by a man who called with his wife at police headquarters and told the officers there that he and his wife on Saturday had seen the girl escorted by a man when she arose from prayer beside her sister's grave.

Effects of the Heat Wave. New York, Aug. 10.—Today the new York morgue houses 40 infant bodies, the greatest number of children there at any time since the General Slocum disaster.

All are direct or indirect victims of the heat wave, and physicians declare the number of deaths among infants has been appalling.

It is not alone the children, however, that are suffering from the blanket of heat that is literally making New York gasp for breath.

Sleep was practically impossible in any portion of Greater New York last night. The Coney Island police declare that 10,000 persons slept on the sands there last night.

The President at Beverly. Beverly, Mass., Aug. 10.—Hastening through such official work as demanded his attention early today, President Taft at once started for the Myopia golf links, where he will spend a greater part of the day.

Thrilling Balloon Trip. Paris, Aug. 10.—Captain Spelterini, who piloted the balloon Sirius in a thrilling trip across the Alps, sent word to friends today that he landed at Rascade, on the side of the Alps.

Count Zeppelin. Stuttgart, Aug. 10.—Count Zeppelin is so much alive that he will probably be able to make another airship record within a fortnight.

Affairs in Cuba. Havana, Aug. 10.—The fusion of the two factions of the Liberal party in Cuba is complete today and Alfredo Zayas, vice-president of the republic, is the new leader.

The Recent Revolution in Spain. Lisbon, Aug. 10.—Twelve thousand Spaniards lost their lives in the recent revolution in Barcelona and other parts of the Catalonia, according to today's Diario de Noticias.

Pugilistic. Chicago, Aug. 10.—Jack Johnson, who is journeying here for a few days, announced today that he has wired Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries at New York, to come on to discuss plans for the fight.

New York Stock Market. New York, Aug. 10.—There were some price concessions before the end of the first year of his age.

Denial from Evelyn.

New York, Aug. 10.—Although she admits being in stained circumstances, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw denied today that she had made a demand for $500,000 on the family of her husband who is in White Plains jail awaiting the decision of Justice Mills as to his sanity.

"I am absolutely penniless," Mrs. Thaw said, "I haven't even money to pay my maid or to satisfy the landlord who is besieging me for the rent. I do not know what I am going to do. It seems I am up against it."

"But there is absolutely no truth in the statement that I will see the Thaws for half a million dollars. If they would just send me the $200 I should have received on the first of August I'd be satisfied."

The Murder of Annie Schumacher. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 10.—What may prove a good clue to the murderer of pretty 17-year-old Annie Schumacher at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on Saturday afternoon was furnished today by a man who called with his wife at police headquarters and told the officers there that he and his wife on Saturday had seen the girl escorted by a man when she arose from prayer beside her sister's grave.

Effects of the Heat Wave. New York, Aug. 10.—Today the new York morgue houses 40 infant bodies, the greatest number of children there at any time since the General Slocum disaster.

All are direct or indirect victims of the heat wave, and physicians declare the number of deaths among infants has been appalling.

It is not alone the children, however, that are suffering from the blanket of heat that is literally making New York gasp for breath.

Sleep was practically impossible in any portion of Greater New York last night. The Coney Island police declare that 10,000 persons slept on the sands there last night.

The President at Beverly. Beverly, Mass., Aug. 10.—Hastening through such official work as demanded his attention early today, President Taft at once started for the Myopia golf links, where he will spend a greater part of the day.

Thrilling Balloon Trip. Paris, Aug. 10.—Captain Spelterini, who piloted the balloon Sirius in a thrilling trip across the Alps, sent word to friends today that he landed at Rascade, on the side of the Alps.

Count Zeppelin. Stuttgart, Aug. 10.—Count Zeppelin is so much alive that he will probably be able to make another airship record within a fortnight.

Affairs in Cuba. Havana, Aug. 10.—The fusion of the two factions of the Liberal party in Cuba is complete today and Alfredo Zayas, vice-president of the republic, is the new leader.

The Recent Revolution in Spain. Lisbon, Aug. 10.—Twelve thousand Spaniards lost their lives in the recent revolution in Barcelona and other parts of the Catalonia, according to today's Diario de Noticias.

Pugilistic. Chicago, Aug. 10.—Jack Johnson, who is journeying here for a few days, announced today that he has wired Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries at New York, to come on to discuss plans for the fight.

New York Stock Market. New York, Aug. 10.—There were some price concessions before the end of the first year of his age.

BILIOU SIMMONS LIVER REGULATO FOR SPEEDY RELIEF. DRY GOOLS.

Womens' Gowns, made of good quality materials; low neck and short sleeves; neatly trimmed with embroidery and lace. Regular $1 value. Sizes 15 to 17. Special... 79c

Womens' Long Skirts, made of fine quality materials; regular $2.50. Special... $1.98

Lansburgh & Bro. WASHINGTON, D. C. Wright's Claims. New York, Aug. 10.—In the statement made today by Orville Wright, just before sailing on the Kronprinzessin Ocelite, that the aeroplane invented by his brother and himself has now been perfected to the point that it can remain in the air for 25 hours and travel 1,000 miles, men interested in aeronautics see the dawning of a new era in methods of locomotion.

Death of an Actress. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Jane Germon, the venerable actress who has been in retirement in this city for some years, died this afternoon at the home of her brother, following an illness of several weeks.

Released on Bail. New York, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Neville Castle, who shot William B. O'Leary, the lawyer, was held for the grand jury by Magistrate Batts today.

Fear Boycott. Tokio, Aug. 10.—Has Japan sacrificed commerce for her political ascendancy, is being generally asked throughout Japan today in view of the alarming reports from China that a restrictive character of tone with the possibility of expression that will meet the most exacting demands of the musician.

THE SOUL OF MUSIC. A violin may be the most perfect piece of cabinet work and yet be entirely unsatisfactory as a musical instrument.

WEAVER ORGAN & PIANO CO. Manufacturers, York, Pa. W. J. Whitson, Sole Agent, 611-613 King Street, Alexandria.