Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form will witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label contain no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. For nursing mothers, or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening purgative nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments. Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

EPISCOPALIANS MAY UNITE.

At the closing exercises in Hartford, Conn., yesterday, of the Episcopal missionary conference of New England, which has been in session for several days in Trinity Church parish house, Bishop Hall, of Vermont, electrified his auditors by proposing a union of the Congregational and Episcopal churches in one catholic and apostolic faith.

Following Dr. Hall, many earnest speakers stressed their hearty enthusiasm over the proposed amalgamation, and it was decided to arrange conferences at many points throughout New England to consider the proposition and by getting local opinions in various places ascertain if the idea is feasible and likely to succeed.

The Episcopalians who were departing for their homes last night were almost unanimous in the belief that the question will be near adjustment before their next meeting.

Bishop Hall said that religion must have a definite meaning for people who are fast falling away from the churches, and to obviate this it would be necessary to unite under one creed and do everything possible to bring in other denominations rather than lose a valuable contribution by permitting separate sects to exist.

"In most cases there is no definite faith at all," said Dr. Hall, "and my idea will result in a revival of the endeavor of Christians to unite on just the one thing set up by the apostles of Christ as His creed. The Episcopal church stands ready to give up its 39 articles of religion and is willing to give up its name of 'Episcopal' and to sink its identity in return for truth, simple and definite. We must allow great freedom of worship in each church, providing the sacraments are observed. Creeds as statements of faith must be kept. One great difficulty in New England is the lack of authority over the churches of many denominations. Congregational churches are almost a law unto themselves. Has the idea of unity ever been realized? Truth must not be sacrificed to obtain unity."

Speaking of Bishop Hall's address in Hartford, Rev. Loring W. Bitten, rector of St. Mark's Church, New York, said last night: "The Episcopal clergy generally hold, with Bishop Hall, that something should be done to arouse a livelier interest in religion and will be glad to join with the Congregationalists. I do not know that all of them would be willing to see that the name of their own church abolished, but Bishop Hall is quite right in saying that the Episcopal Church would be willing to sacrifice its 39 articles. They are obsolete."

Rev. Percy S. Grant, rector of the Church of the Ascension, said that he, too, was in favor of the union proposed by Bishop Hall.

CATHOLIC WAR IN FRANCE. A new and interesting situation has been created by the French episcopate's declaration of war against the public schools of France, and the open attempt initiated by Archbishop Gorman, of Toulouse, to rally the Catholic voters at the general elections of 1910 in support of candidates committed to the defense of church interests.

Archbishop Gorman has formed an association of Catholic voters, the object of which is thus described: "We demand the re-establishment of religious peace; first, by a direct entrance between the sovereign and the pontiff or by new legislation acceptable to the latter and assuring full liberty to the church; second, the re-establishment of complete liberty of education."

The archbishop says that the situation of French Catholics is intolerable, and that they must adopt the attitude of Daniel O'Connell and their German brethren as assumed against Bismarck's "Kulturkampf." M. Doumergue, minister of education, yesterday afternoon issued a circular to school teachers instructing them to disregard the demand of the clergy and Catholic parents for the withdrawal of the text books placed under the ban by the episcopate.

The government is preparing a bill for the protection of teachers who are subjected to persecution by Catholic parents and religious committees, which are forming throughout the republic.

Everybody's Magazine for November has been received from its publishers in New York, who claim, that in this issue, the magazine reaches its highest water mark. Of course Judge Lindsey's "The beast and the jungle" is the prominent feature, increasing as it does each month in thrilling interest. "Spiking down an Empire" tells of the building of a railroad far north in Canada. "The president reports progress" gives Taft's first interview as president, and "The terror on Europe's threshold," "The king of finance," "The business side of the theatre" are among other good articles. The fiction is above the average, having George Madden Martin, Zona Gale, Bessie Hoover, Ernest Poole, etc., among the contributors.
