POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. O'Connell presiding] The following cases were disposed of this morning: William Levell, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

STEAMER JAMESTOWN SAFE.

A dispatch from Buenos Aires, under date of January 23, states that the steamer Jamestown arrived there about a month ago, and under the name Oshel, is running on the river Plate, making daily trips from Buenos Aires to a point on the river about forty miles away.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.

The Washington Monument Association has purchased from the Golf Club the house known as the Golf Club house on George Washington Park.

OPERA HOUSE.

The famous western melodrama which has been in preparation by the Guy Johnson Company for some time past will be presented for the first time tonight.

THE BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT.

All the arrangements for the Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held tomorrow night at Armory Hall are perfected and every indication points towards a most enjoyable affair.

THE NEW COMET.

The new comet could be plainly seen low in the southwest heavens early last night, and many people were straining their optics to get a glimpse at the wanderer from the midst of profane.

ORIENTAL LODGE.

Oriental Lodge, No. 6, King's of Pythias, held an interesting meet'g last night. There was a full attendance of members and P. C., J. S. Pollard, of Executive Lodge, of Baltimore, and other visitors were present.

THE TOWN CLOCK.

The announcement that the clock in the steeple of the City Hall will soon be running again will be read with satisfaction by the entire community.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Miss Medora Wingfield took place this afternoon from the residence of her father on Wilkes street. The services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

PERSONAL.

Miss Dorsey Ashton last night very charmingly entertained a number of her friends at her home on Duke street.

THE REGAL STAGE FOR MEN.

The Regal Stage for men in all the new suits can be had of John A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street.

DEATH OF MR. K. KEMPER.

Mr. K. Kemper, whose illness had recently been announced in the Gazette, died at 1:15 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter in Washington.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first degree was conferred upon three candidates at the meeting last night of Sarapia Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. T. A. Stutenberg of 2465 18th street, northwest Washington was the winner of a handsome umbrella recently offered by Kenfick Council, C. W. B. L.

An interesting meeting of the junior assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was held at the Norton Memorial Hall, last night.

The oyster supper given at the Young People's building last night by the young ladies of Capt. George W. Keys' class was a very successful affair.

There was a fire drill at Washington school building this morning. Teachers and scholars made their way out to places of safety in 30 seconds.

A regular meeting of Fitzgerald council No. 459, K. of O., will be held tonight. The newly-elected officers will be installed after which a supper will be given.

In the Circuit Court today Mrs. Isabella Fornhill qualified as administratrix of Archie Fornhill; also as guardian of Marian R. and Kenneth D. B. Fornhill.

Herbert Wrenn, son of the late Robert Wrenn, a native of this city, died in Washington last night. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Miss Ida Breen will do artistic work as the Colonel's ward in 'A Modern Sensation by Eika Dramatic Club, at the Opera House January 25th, for the benefit of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten.

The meeting of a horse is shown by his arched head and high step. The mottle of a man is in the way he walks and the way he talks.

SEMINOLE TRIBE. The council chamber of Seminole Tribe, No. 35, I. O. E. M., now located in the Elks' Hall, was packed to the doors last night, the occasion being a visitation of the Great Sachem of the District of Columbia, Otto H. Fischer, accompanied by a degree team from Minneola Tribe, of Washington, D. C.

Princess Louise loses her suit. Paris, Jan. 26.—Princess Louise, eldest daughter of the late King Leopold of Belgium, lost her suit today to recover from Baroness Vaughan, the morganatic wife of the king, the latter's villa at Ballincour. The court decided that the villa was the property of the baroness and that it was not a royal residence.

Murderer Arrested. Courage, Ont., Jan. 26.—George Mercutio, an Italian laborer, was today lodged in jail on the charge of murdering one man and severely wounding two others. Mercutio was employed in the construction camp of the Canadian Northern Railroad. He got into an altercation early today with Frank Martio the foreman, and killed him. In his efforts to escape he shot two other Italians.

Indictments Quashed. New York, Jan. 26.—Judge House has granted the motion and ordered the indictment quashed charging criminal libel against the Press Publishing Company, publishers of the New York World, growing out of its publication of charges reflecting on a number of persons in connection with the Panama Canal purchase.

New York Stock Market. New York, Jan. 26.—Influenced by the favorable statement of the United States Steel Corporation the stock market opened strong with advances of 1 to 4 points. The character of Washington advice was reassuring.

Girls Attack Strike Breakers. New York, Jan. 26.—One of the most serious riots of the shirtwaist maker's strike, occurred today in Brooklyn, when a number of the striking girls boarded a street car and attacked several strike-breakers on their way to work.

Wedding. New York, Jan. 26.—Miss Blanche M. Oelrich, one of the best known of the society belles, and Leonard M. Thomas, of Philadelphia, were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Oelrich, on Park avenue. Mr. Lavella, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, officiated and the ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate families of the contracting parties.

The English Election. London, Jan. 26.—Complete returns from yesterday's voting bring to the total up to the following: Conservatives 254, Liberals 233, nationalists 72, laborites 37. The strong showing by the liberals makes it practically certain that they and the laborites will have a majority of forty over the conservatives without counting on the nationalists.

It is claimed that between four and five hundred infants die annually from neglect in Richmond.

A rare bargain and one that is lasting can be obtained at the shoe store of John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street. Look at the window display.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son GEORGE H. NORRIS, who departed this life January 26th, 1910, six years ago today.

God call'd him home, it was his will, But in our hearts we love him still, His memory is as dear today, As in the hour he passed away.

By His MOTHER AND FATHERS.

The Difference in Meats

(Butchers and Butchers) There is a cattle raised for eating purposes only handled by butchers at noon, and that cattle raised for other purpose until they come to yield a profit, and then it is killed for meat. Namely—old cows, oxen, bulls, stags, and half-bred stock. Why not buy from a butcher and get the first class kind?
