SMITH TAKEN TO RICHMOND.

Guida Smith and Paulam, from the Richmond penitentiary, arrived at Fairfax Courthouse this morning and took charge of Henry Smith, colored, who was recently sentenced by the Corporation Court of this city to be electrocuted for being a party to the murder of Walter F. Smith. The grand jury also took charge of Fred. Hurst and William Moran, both colored, who have been sentenced by the Circuit Court of Fairfax to serve terms in the penitentiary, the former for assaulting a constable, and the latter for assaulting General Floyd King at Falls Church, some months since. The prisoners were placed on an electric train and taken to Washington where they were put on a train of the Washington-Southern Railway and later passed through this city on their way to Richmond. Smith made no statement concerning the Smith murder. The train reached the Union station about noon. Smith had expressed a wish to talk with Chief Good, and a telephone message was sent to the latter to come to the station. The train stopped but a few minutes, however, 2:14 the chief was unable to respond to the summons.

THE RAILROAD DEPOT AT FAIRFAX.

The W. & A. F. & C. R. Co., having filed a petition with the State Corporation Commission, showing that, instead of erecting a station building at its terminals on Main street, in this town, in accordance with the order of the commission of June 2, 1909, it desires to use certain rooms in the building known as Adams Hotel, which it has acquired, and praying that its plan as stated in the said petition be accepted in lieu of the new building required by the said order, the commission has so modified its order as to permit the use of the hotel building for such station, but requiring that it shall be ready for use and occupancy on or before the first day of February, 1910, all other questions being reserved.—[Herald.]

"A MODERN ANANIAS."

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the Opera House was well filled last night when the Elks' Dramatic Company presented for the benefit of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten the amusing little play "A Modern Ananias." All those in the cast published yesterday acquitted themselves very well and received generous applause. The house was sold out early in the day, and it is expected that a considerable sum will be realized. It is understood that the performance will be repeated in Fredericksburg, February 15, for the benefit of Fredericksburg Lodge of Elks.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR SALE.

Negotiations are in progress toward the purchase by Mr. M. L. Rishell of Mrs. Clarence French's residence on the west side of Washington street, near Wilkes. The proposed purchase is the outcome of injudicious proceedings recently instituted by Mrs. French to prevent Mr. Rishell from erecting a saw mill at the southeast corner of Wilkes and Columbia streets, a short distance from her property. It is said that should the injunction be dissolved upon the purchase of Mrs. French's property by Mr. Rishell, other contiguous property owners will protest against the erection of the mill.

PRICES OF MEAT.

Dispatches from certain cities state that the prices of meat are falling, and that this prime necessity of life is again getting within the reach of persons of limited exchequers. Quotations in the Alexandria market, however, show no marked variations from former rates. Beef was ailing at from 6 to 25 cents a pound this morning; veal at 12 to 25 cents; mutton, 10 to 18 cents; and pork 15 to 18 cents. Salt pork ranged from 15 to 18 cents; sausage 15 cents and puddings 10 cents.

Ladies.—For solid comfort, wear the Red Cross Shoe, John A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Among the names on the honor list in the junior class of the V. P. I. at Backlogg, of the first term of the session of 1909-10, are the following: W. G. Harris and A. N. Hodgson, of Alexandria. The congregation of the Great Presbyterian Church is considering the extending of a call to Dr. Theron Rice, a professor at the Theological Seminary in Richmond. It is said he has indicated that he might accept it. He has filled pastorates in Alexandria, Va., and Atlanta, Ga.—[Norfolk Leader.]

Rev. T. W. Hopper, of Calpeper, will preach at the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning. Rev. Mr. Steyer is at Waterford by order of Presbytery helping to install Rev. A. N. Perryman. The Misses Smoot, yesterday afternoon at their home on St. Asaph street, entertained a large number of their friends at cards, the occasion being one of the most charming and enjoyable of the social year. The spacious drawing rooms were adorned with pink carnations and ferns and the Misses Smoot were assisted in receiving their guests by their mother, Mrs. Susan Smoot. After an interesting game of six-hand eucher the exceptionally handsome prizes were awarded Mrs. Arthur Snowden, Miss Rose McDonald, Mrs. Frances Danenbower and Mrs. Lawrence Parry, of Braddock. Misses Clarence Snowden, Frances Danenbower, Mary Snowden, and Sibyl Smoot kept the score and also assisted in the dining room. Little Alice Lee Harding, daughter of Mr. W. A. Harding, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

GRAND LODGE.

The officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Virginia, who came here yesterday to conduct the services at the funeral of the late grand master, K. K. K. Kemper, brought their parishioners with them and held a session in Alexandria-Washington Lodge room, opening and closing in due form. This is the first time the Grand Lodge has held a session in Alexandria since the centennial anniversary of the death of George Washington, December 14, 1899.

A VARIETY OF WEATHER.

Rain, snow and hail have fallen in this city and vicinity during the past twenty-four hours. Light showers prevailed at times yesterday, and in the afternoon snow followed which continued to fall long after dark. Later there were rain and hail. Snow fell again this morning, making the day one of the most disagreeable of the winter. The streets are covered with slush rendering walking very difficult. About noon the snow ceased falling and the temperature lowered.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: William Robinson, colored, suspecting of stealing chickens from Charles A. Parker, had his case continued. William Levell, colored, charged with vagrancy, was sent to jail for 30 days.

OPERA HOUSE.

"Tatters" will be present for the last time tonight, by the Guy J. Hanson & Co. Co. This play has proven a great draw and is considered to be one of the best of the season. In view of this fact, patrons are advised to secure their seats early and avoid the usual Saturday night rush.

MEN'S MEETING.

Rev. Claude M. Hesser, of Brightwood, D. C., will make the address at the men's meeting, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Subject, "A Call for the Best." All men cordially invited.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There was but a limited supply of country produce in market this morning. The price of eggs has declined and were sold in market this morning at 55 to 58 cents per dozen.

The alarm of fire this afternoon was caused by the burning of a chimney of a house on Alfred street, between King and Prince streets. Revival services will be continued in the Free Methodist Church, next week. Rev. J. W. Motzfeldt preaches every night Preaching, 11 a. m., 7 and 8 p. m. All are invited.

At the First Baptist Church tomorrow morning the pastor, Rev. Mr. Watson's sermon will be "The True Principle of Character," and the evening sermon "The Best is Yet to Be." The Young Ladies' Basket Ball Team of this city this morning defeated the Young Ladies' Team of the Western High School of Washington by a score of 30 to 19. The game was played in Armory Hall.

Oil well examinations will be held on February 23, for a shoemaker at the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., and on March 3 for technical assistant in pharmacy, public health and marine service and for examiner of clothing, quartermaster's department.

Court Kavanagh, No. 51 Daughters of Isabella, will hold another of their very enjoyable entertainments and euchre, Tuesday February 16, at St. Mary's Hall, corner Wolf and Royal streets. A very pleasant evening is in store for all who may attend. Tickets can be procured from members, and at the door.

Several members of Lee Camp, of this city, will go to Washington to attend the reception to be tendered Mrs. Stoneman Jackson by the Confederate Associations of that city. Now getting down to cement foundation, you'll not pay little more for those your meat than you'll pay the cheaper kind that are an excellent source of strength and vigor. The Best Sausages are made of meat and most choice. Not inferior meat but the choice cuts of home killed beef, veal and pork. There's not the shadow of a doubt but that the people who come to the Best Sausages and the Best Market for those irresistibly delicious and nutritious life-conserving meats are the folks who think they are getting money by eating cheaper food. Sylvania Bloch, The Best Sausages, and The Best Market.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Riley's cafe on this page. This popular cafe will serve clean sandwiches and hot free lunch tonight.

FAIRFAX ROADS.

The board of supervisors held a special meeting on Wednesday to take definite action to secure the state appropriation for public roads. The road from the town of Fairfax to Tysons' Corner, on the Leesburg and Alexandria turnpike, was selected to be improved, the only competing road being the Little River turnpike east of this town. The sum of $5,000 to cover the State appropriation of 1909, and the sum of $2,000, to be appropriated by the county from Providence district road fund, was made for 1910 to duplicate a like sum to be appropriated by the state. The councils of the towns of Fairfax and Vienna have agreed to aid to the extent of $2,000, which, with private subscriptions, it is hoped, will result in the construction of a good, permanent highway.—[Herald.]

FIREMAN INJURED.

Mr. Oliver Stone, who lives at 216 North Fairfax street, was seriously injured on the head this afternoon while at work at H. K. Field & Co's planing mill on north Lee street. Mr. Stone is the fireman at the mill, and while engaged in his duties his head came in contact with some of the machinery. He was removed to his home where he was attended by Dr. Smith.

THE COMING AGE.

In the Braddock House mission rooms tomorrow night commencing at 7:30 o'clock, Dr. Bak-well will continue his lecture on "The Coming Age," which is to be wholly unlike all its predecessors.

News of the Day.

"Regulars" in the House are alarmed by the plan of the "insurgents" to take charge of the rules committee and exclude Speaker Cannon. The gunboat Padonah has reported to the Navy Department that the schooner George A. Madden, of Bath, Me., was wrecked off Cape Hatteras Thursday.

A dispatch from Heidelberg says a man who has been identified as Dr. Frederick A. Cook is in hiding at an asylum for imbeciles in the Valley of Nooks, twenty-five miles from here.

Before the Ballenger-Pinchof investigation committee yesterday L. R. Glavis testified that Mr. Ballenger asked him to postpone the Alaskan coal investigation until after election, as several of the claimants were heavy contributors to the republican campaign fund.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has ordered the destruction of the 2,000 Japanese cherry trees recently presented by the municipality of Tokyo to the government for decorative purposes in Potomac Park, Washington. It is said that the roots of the trees were diseased.

In the House yesterday Mr. Douglas made a speech in which he proposed the creation of a budget committee, to limit the appropriations of each committee according to the revenue in sight. He advocated turning over the money which would be required to build one battleship to the agricultural committee. Mr. Towner expressed his approval.

William O'Brien, who has been out of Irish politics for some time, was elected yesterday for the northeast division of Cork county. He is now a member of Parliament for two places. He was returned for Cork city some days ago. The reason he contested the Cork county division was to prevent the election of a follower of John Redmond, the leader of the nationalists.

A new attempt to secure the release of Onorato W. Morse, the New York banker, who is serving a 15 year sentence in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Georgia, was begun here today, when a corps of canvassers started through the city with petitions asking President Taft to pardon the banker. The petitions are being circulated widely, and the canvassers refuse to say who is behind the movement.

Gen. William Franklin Draper, distinguished civil war veteran, former representative from Massachusetts, one time minister to Italy, and brother of Gov. Eben S. Draper, of Massachusetts, died last night in Washington. Gen. Draper had been suffering from liver trouble for several months. The deceased came of a distinguished Massachusetts family. He was a son of George and Hannah Draper, and was born in Lowell, Mass., April 9, 1842.

The foundation in Paris covers are nine square miles, or one-quarter of the city. Great claims are opening in some of the most important boulevards, caused by the bursting sewers and rushing waters underneath the city. The Palace of the Legion of Honor and other important public buildings have been evacuated. All railway traffic in the city has been stopped. Thousands of Parisians are outside of Paris and prices of food are rapidly advancing.

Boys Elected on Storm Graves Eade died yesterday at Orzet from injuries sustained in a fall from his horse last Friday. When found unconscious along the road side Friday night he was removed to a sanatorium and for a week had been under the constant care of several physicians. Onot Edward Storm, of Boston, reached Orzet yesterday and was at his brother's bedside when he died. Ten years ago Storm came to Virginia from New Jersey and purchased a farm near Middle River. He was unmarried. The dead hero was related to Queen Wilhelmina.

Mr. Charles A. Frushow, of Stafford county, was yesterday elected doorkeeper of the House of Delegates in the place of Mr. Lippincott, recently deceased.

Another Bargain Opportunity Silk Petticoats $3.19 Worth $6, at $3.19. Will Not Submit to Federation. New York, Jan. 29.—That the trainmen and conductors on the 32 railroads centering in the east are thoroughly in earnest in their demands for increased wages and shorter hours, and that they intend to resist what they declare to be an intrusion on the part of the American Federation of Labor into their internal affairs, may be gathered from today's developments in the pending wage conference between committees representing the men and the general managers of the railroads. The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the order of Railroad Conductors are not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and that a bitter feud exists between these two great branches of labor was learned from a speech made at a secret session of the trainmen by International President Lee, who said: "We intend to support union labor, both financially and morally, at all times, but we don't propose to submit to dictation from the American Federation of Labor." In an interview President Lee said: "I know very little about the American Federation of Labor, and care less. But it is not to be expected that the few big brotherhoods are able to run their own affairs and will not be dictated to by any one." Lee refused to explain where the difficulty between the two big labor organizations started, but it is inferred that the recent strike of the shopmen of the Susquehanna brought matters to a crisis. It is charged that some of the officials of the American Federation of Labor, with whom the shopmen are affiliated, sought to get the trainmen and conductors, with whom they are affiliated, to strike in sympathy. This alleged "meddling" is said to have caused an open breach between the great orders.
