For Evening Hours The Rayo Lamp

Some of the sweetest hours of home-life are passed under the gentle, kindly light of the evening lamp.

If it be the Rayo Lamp, the light contributes an added charm—makes reading and sewing easy. There are no aching eyes after reading or sewing under the rays of the Rayo Lamp.

The Rayo Lamp diffuses a steady white light. It is the least trying of any artificial light. Made of brass throughout—nickel plated—improved central draught burner.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price.

Once a Rayo user, always one Every Dealer Everywhere. If Not at Yours, Write for Descriptive Circular to the Nearest Agency of the TAUNT LED TO KILLING.

Because they taunted him about his clothing and beat him, Alphonse Brandner, a youth, fired a revolver into a crowd of boys in Olesco Wednesday night killing Hugo Peterson, 18 years old. The trouble started, it is said, when Brandner was stopped by Peterson, who demanded some money, and was beaten severely before he escaped.

"I'll teach you a lesson before morning," shouted Brandner, as he darted away.

Ten minutes later Brandner returned to the scene carrying a revolver.

"Stand where you are, for its my turn," he yelled.

Peterson sprang on him from behind and pinned his arms to his side. Brandner was almost thrown to the pavement, but released his arm and fired at Peterson. When Peterson fell dead his companions rushed upon Brandner and were on the point of lynching him when the police interfered.

Order Your Overland Now Delay Means Disappointment

Last season there were over 8,000 people whose orders for Overlands were received too late. Our factory can build only 20,000 cars this year. Every single car has been contracted for. When our allotment is filled we cannot get more at any price. Half the people who want to buy Overlands here will be unable to get them. Get yours now.

The tremendous demand for Overlands has practically swamped the factory. Orders are piling in at twice the rate of production. Even with five times the factory facilities of last year, the output is daily falling further behind the demand.

Every Overland put into an owner's hands sells four others like it. Sixteen thousand 1910 Overlands were contracted for last August, simply on the record of the four thousand 1909 cars. Every new Overland that appears on the road creates further demand for this wonder car.

The reason behind this unheard-of demand is sheer merit—nothing else. Up to January, 1910, the car was never even advertised. But the Overland proves so reliable, so simple, so trouble-proof, so economical that now everybody who learns the fact wants one of these matchless cars.

Men who never before thought of buying cars are trying Overlands. Men who have owned other cars are buying them for their mechanical correctness. Wealthy men buy them because of their handiness. Poor men buy Overlands because they are the first good cars at a moderate cost.
