MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1910.

LIVED WITH TWO WIVES. The Jefferson county, Ohio, grand jury, which reported thirty-eight indictments Saturday, failed to indict Charles Spoonholz, of Warren township, who had been living with two wives for twenty-six years, on the ground that he had done a manly duty in supporting the wives and their children. The case is one of the strangest in the history of Ohio: Spoonholz married both young women about the same time, then told them what he had done. He promised to take care of both of them if they would be friendly with each other, and not ask who had been married first or raise other embarrassing questions. The wives lived in harmony twenty-six years before jealousy cropped out.

A CORPORATION PARTY. Major J. F. Hanson, president of the Central of Georgia Railroad Company and former republican national committee man from Georgia, says he believes the corporations of the United States should organize a political party. "There are four hundred thousand corporations in the United States," said Major Hanson. "They should have a political party of their own for the purpose of forcing the state and federal governments to treat with justice invested capital. If they do organize they will hold the balance of power in the country."
