CARDINALS MAKE TRIPLE PLAY

One of the fastest games ever witnessed on the old fair grounds was played Saturday between the Georgetown Olives and the Cardinal Athletic Club, the latter winning by the score of 5 to 3.

The Cardinal nine put up a fast game of ball from start to finish, both in the field and at the bat.

One of the features of the game was a triple play in the seventh. With none out and the bases full, Callahan knocked out a hot liner to Dudley, who captured the ball, and shot it to Astyrke, who in turn threw it to Snowden, completing one of the most sensational plays ever pulled off by a nine of amateurs.

Trenary pitched a fine game for the winners, letting the Georgetown ball tossers down with four hits and striking out eleven. The score:

Score table for Cardinals vs Olives. Cardinals: RHOAE Olives: RHOAE. Score: 5-3.

Left on bases—C. A. C. 6; Olives, 9. Base on balls—Off Sullivan, 1; off Trenary, 4. Struck out—By Sullivan, 6; by Trenary, 11.

IMPORTANT CASE.

The case of Alice McMenamin against the Southern Railway Company which has been on trial in the Circuit Court for this city, since last Tuesday, will probably be concluded this afternoon.

The result of this litigation is of vital importance not only to the defendant, but to the community. The case has occupied a week, has been closely contested from start to finish, and the arguments have been of an unusually high order.

The plaintiffs are represented by Messrs. J. K. M. Norton, of this city, and Edmund Burke, of Washington, D. C.; and the defendants were represented by Messrs. Robert B. Tunstall, of Norfolk, and Francis L. Smith and Robley D. Brumbaek, of Alexandria. Mr. Tunstall, who is division counsel of the Southern Railway Company, is a fine lawyer and has by his genial disposition and attractive manners made many friends in this city during his stay here.

POLICE COURT

[Justice H. B. Oatso presiding] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Emma Carter, colored, charged with vagrancy, was sent to the work house for 60 days. Reuben Hicks, charged with being drunk on the street, was fined $10. Henry Callahan, charged with being drunk on the street, was ordered to be held until this afternoon when he was allowed to take a train for his home in Fauquier county.

THE TEMPLARS.

Members of Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar yesterday evening observed Ascension day by attending services at St. Paul's Church conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips. The members of the commandery met at their saylorn and in full uniform marched to the church in a body. The services were very impressive and were well attended.

YESTERDAY.

Rain fell early yesterday morning but by 11 o'clock the skies had partially cleared and later the sun came out and the temperature became warmer. The churches were fairly well attended and the pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy. The day was a quiet one. Several excursion steamers passed by the city going from and to Washington and many pleasure boats were on the river throughout the day. Rain fell again at night.

JURY SUMMONED.

A jury was summoned to meet in the Circuit Court for the city this afternoon in the case of J. H. Trimmer vs. the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, a suit for damages for injuries alleged to have been received in an accident at the intersection of Cameron and Henry streets some time ago.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO BRAKEMAN.

William A. Allison, a brakeman employed in the Potomac railroad yards north of this city, was the victim of a fatal accident while at work yesterday morning. The unfortunate man was standing on a flat car which was being backed when he lost his balance and fell on the track. The car passed over his body, and when he was picked up by fellow-workmen, life was extinct. The deceased was an old, well-known and esteemed resident.

DEATH OF MRS. CORSON.

Mrs. Eliza Corson, widow of Job Corson, died yesterday morning at the Alexandria hospital after a long illness. The deceased was an old, well-known and esteemed resident.

PURCHASED CHAPMAN FARM.

Louis E. Smoot, of this city, has purchased of Robert M. Boykin, of Glymont, Charles county, Md., the old Chapman farm on the Potomac, between Marshall Hall and Glymont, and in sight of Mount Vernon, on the opposite side of the river. The place now consists of about 125 acres, though years ago it was much larger, and at one time it was the best fishing shore on the river. The house is one of the largest along the river, was built over 100 years ago, and occupies a fine location a short distance back from the river, and when occupied by the Chapman family was the scene of many gay and fashionable gatherings from both Maryland and Virginia.

A. A. C. JUNIORS DEFEATED.

The Hobbins Juniors, a fast nine of this city, defeated the Alexandria Athletic Club Juniors in an interesting game of ball yesterday on the north Alfred street grounds by the score of 6 to 5. The battery for the winners were Manger and Edelen.

"They come high."

"The best are the cheapest." Our people want them and so we say to the ladies you can see J. T. Cousin's Exclusive Styles at 422 King street, J. A. Marshall & Bro.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Intelligence of the burning to death at an early hour yesterday morning of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Miller, at their home at Accokeek, in the Piscataway, Md., neighborhood, reached this city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Miller had recently conducted a store in that vicinity. The fire broke out about one o'clock yesterday morning and the building was practically consumed before the conflagration was stayed, and in the ruins the torso only of Mr. and Mrs. Miller were found, the heads and limbs having been consumed. The origin of the fire is a mystery, although there are no hints of incendiarism or foul play. The stock of goods in the store was valued at about $1,400 and it is said that there were upwards of $2,200 in the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller lived in rooms over the store, and Mr. Robert Miller, a brother, lived about 100 yards away.

Mr. Miller at one time conducted a store on the southeast corner of Prince and Lee streets, and later at the northeast corner. He was well and favorably known in Alexandria, and his many acquaintances will regret to learn of the sad fate which has befallen him and his wife.

BOY KICKED BY A HORSE.

Marshall Briscoe, twelve years old, son of Mr. Castino Briscoe, was painfully injured on the face and arm Saturday evening by being kicked by a horse. Young Briscoe, with several boys, was on upper King street when several cavalrymen came along. The youths ran up to them and begged for pictures of baseball players, and in the scramble one of the horses started to run away, throwing the driver to the ground in the meantime and kicking young Briscoe in the face. The cavalryman, mindful of his horse, arose and went to the assistance of the boy. He was taken to the office of Dr. E. L. Wilkins, where he received medical treatment and later conveyed to his home, 115 Prince street.

BRIGHTWOOD IS SHUT OUT.

The fast Alexandria Athletic Club displayed its true form yesterday by defeating the Brightwood Maccabees in a fast and interesting game by a score of 5 to 0. Doherty for the winners was in fine form, and with excellent support was in danger only in one inning. The Brightwood players nearly broke their backs trying to hit his curves, and failed whenever hits meant runs. Sullivan, Scrivener and Williams led the winners at the bat, while Hiser was the star for the losers.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Parker, wife of Mr. Roderick A. Parker, of Prince George's county, Md., who died Friday night at the Alexandria Hospital, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church and was attended by many relatives and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Oulter. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. G. L. Bache and A. D. Brockett, and the active Messrs. John S. Stephenson, C. O. Carlo, T. C. Smith, R. W. Fuller, F. F. Marbury and J. R. Caton, jr. The floral tributes were numerous. The funeral was one of the most generally attended of any held recently in St. Mary's Church.

OPERA HOUSE.

Frank Merritt, who was a feature for two consecutive seasons with A. G. Field's famous minstrel show, will head the bill at the Opera House the first half of this week together with Moore and Donnelly, sketch artists, who come from the Casino in Washington. The rule of presenting only pictures shown for the first time in Alexandria still prevails and has proven a great drawing card, inasmuch as it assures patrons against witnessing films which they may have seen elsewhere.

MAYFLIES.

A huge cloud of mayflies settled in Alexandria early last night, and in a short time millions had gathered around electric lights and equally as many more had settled on the intersections and pavements and were being trodden to death by pedestrians, most of whom were on their way to their homes from the churches.

YESTERDAY.

Rain fell early yesterday morning but by 11 o'clock the skies had partially cleared and later the sun came out and the temperature became warmer. The churches were fairly well attended and the pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy. The day was a quiet one. The Right Ones Will Understand.

Alexandria, April 23, 1910. After serving over one year in the city jail under the care of Warden Candler, I am glad to say that I received the best of treatment in every way. I would like to say a few words to the friends of the prisoners who were always ready to listen to the cry of the sick, even at midnight or in the early morning. While under the care of the warden of this prison I received a letter from a viper, who failed to sign his name. I also learn that some of the same vipers went to my white friends and told them I was a bad man. I would like to say a few things along this line without fear of contradiction.

1st. I have dealt with a majority of the business men of Alexandria and I think they have found me square.

2nd. I have never insulted a lady in my life; neither have my actions been such in the presence of ladies that they could consider my actions an affront.

3rd. Never have I invaded the house of those whom I promised to protect and taken advantage of those who could not protect themselves. If I had I would like to say a few things along this line without fear of contradiction.

4th. Even if I had worked for any one and they had found me to be a thief and dishonest man as a thief then I would fail to try to vindicate myself.

These few remarks are for the viper and his friends. He called himself a Mason in the letter I received with no signature.

Being always willing to bow in humble submission to the mandates of the law I shall still always be unwilling to bow to any set of self-styled Nebuchadnezzars.
