A NOTORIOUS MISER.

Privy Councillor Albrecht Plant, the richest citizen of Berlin and also its most notorious miser, is dead. Herr Plant, who was 80 years old, was formerly head of a firm of stock brokers and at one time was a daring speculator. When he retired from business he was paying $50,000 a year in income taxes alone, but he lived in a small flat in west Berlin and kept no servants. He spent most of his days in the Zoological Gardens and there ate his lunch and dinner, both consisting of thinly buttered pieces of bread brought by himself from home. Many stories are told of Herr Plant's penuriousness. Once at a family reunion all present gave trifling gifts to the others. The millionaire laid before each guest a covered dish labelled "The gift of Privy Councillor Plant." On lifting the covers the guests found under each a quarter of an apple.

On another occasion he invested a penny in a glass of beer at the Zoological Gardens. The beer was not to his taste and next morning the manager of the restaurant received an unstamped letter demanding the penny back.

NEW DEPOTS.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, which in 1907 bought several lots lying on the north side of its track between Second and Fourth streets, east of Charlottesville, are razing the buildings and will soon begin the erection of a commodious freight depot, architecturally and in general arrangement repeating the freight depots in Richmond and at Newport News. This expansion and improvement of the company's property at Charlottesville has been in contemplation for several years, but was delayed by the panic of 1907. The land and building will cost $50,000, the structure to be of brick and stone, 300 feet long by 50 feet deep and will cover two full blocks and will be ready for occupancy by early fall. The office building will contain eight rooms. Bids for the contract for the erection of the new structure were taken today.

The Southern Railway has completed plans for the new passenger station at Lynchburg, and work will be started as soon as the excavation can be completed. This has been under way some weeks. The new station is to be located on the new route in the West End, and to cost at least $50,000.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

Charging that it has been defrauded of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years, the Illinois Central Railroad Company yesterday filed suit in the Circuit Court in Chicago for an accounting against four of its former officers.

The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men:

Orlando S. Keith, former superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Baker, former assistant superintendent of the car department; William Renshaw, former assistant superintendent of the machinery department; and John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper.

In connection with the charges the Illinois Central Road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in alleged overcharges on car repair work in the following amounts:

The International Car Company, the Blue Island Equipment Company, $400,000. The American Car and Equipment Company, $100,000; Acosterman Manufacturing Company, $750,000; the Memphis Car Company $300,000.

In addition to the suit filed against the four former officers the railroad also filed suit for an account against the West Pullman Car Company and against the American Car and Equipment Company.

The filing of the suit followed an investigation by the railroad company and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central Railroad. High officers of the road have stoutly denied that there existed any trouble of this character.

The bill against the four former department heads alleges that the men entered into a conspiracy in June, 1906, and that, from that date until April, 1910, the railroad company was defrauded of nearly $2,000,000. The defendants are alleged to have represented to the corporation that the company's repair work could be done more cheaply by independent concerns than at the railroad's own shops. When contracts were given to certain independent concerns, the bill charges, the railroad company began a long series of large overcharges, from which certain superintendents are declared to have obtained thousands of dollars.

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework. 'My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health."

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui.
See yours about it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Literature, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

A TRIPLE CRIME.

As was stated in the Gazette, James Hardy, wife and son, living sixteen miles south-west of Marshalltown, Iowa, were found in their home yesterday morning murdered.

The murder was committed some time Sunday night. The victims, James Hardy, a farmer, 65 years old; his wife, Lavina, 58, and son Earl, 28, were first shot and later their heads crushed with a gas pipe.

Raymond Hardy, 10 years old, the only surviving member of the family, is in jail, but claims innocence and that he had no knowledge of the crime until he made the discovery at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Hardy's body was found in the dining room, the younger Hardy in a basement of the cow barn. Wounds on their heads practically were the same.

A motive for the crime is lacking. Bureau drawers in the house were ransacked and pocketbooks opened, but small sums of money were found on the persons of both men, and a watch worn by young Hardy was not taken. Raymond Hardy was to have been married next Wednesday to Mabel Starnes. Miss Starnes claims the young man was with her from 8:30 o'clock Sunday night until after midnight.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL GIRL.

Sarah Serokin, a girl of 17, told a police magistrate in New York yesterday that Harry Cutler, a young man whom she had refused to marry, was looking for her with a revolver.

She swore to a warrant for Cutler's arrest and started for home, but before she got there she met the rejected suitor on the street. He had the revolver in his hand and started for her. Screaming, the girl attempted to escape. Several shots were fired, and she fell with a bullet in her back and another in her leg. William Klebalsky was hit by a stray bullet. Neither he nor Miss Serokin was injured seriously.

Almost before the shooting was over a mob was after Cutler. Men jumped on him, beat and kicked him, and tore off most of his clothing. Cutler was in bad shape when at last he was rescued by the police.
