THE GAZETTE FOR THE SUMMER.

Subscribers who leave the city temporarily should not fail to have the Gazette follow them. Addresses will be changed as often as requested without extra charge. Those who are not regular subscribers can have the Gazette mailed to them at the rate of 10 cents per week.

PROPERTY SALE.

Mr. John D. Normoyle, real estate agent, has sold for Mrs. Thomas Elliott to Mr. J. Wellington Entwistle the three-story brick store and dwelling at the southeast corner of King and Payne streets, and the deed for the same was placed on record in the clerk's office this morning.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Bernard Heath, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

James Lucas, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent to the workhouse for 60 days.

Gladys Howard, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Two white women charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

A junk dealer, charged with purchasing from alleged to have been stolen, was dismissed.

John Downey, colored, charged with assaulting Jennie Ferguson, also colored, was dismissed.

THE MARKET.

While the volume of offerings of country produce in market this morning was not quite so large as that of last Saturday, there was enough to meet all demands.

Butter was still selling at 25.50 cents per pound and eggs at 25 cents per dozen.

Vegetables were practically unchanged in prices. Seasonable fruit was abundant.

There was a profusion of peaches, plums, blackberries and huckleberries, and prices were weakening.

Good peaches sold at 15 cents per half peck. The market was seemingly glutted with plums and it was hard to move them at any price.

DELEGATES RETURNED.

Messrs. William Driscoll, Edward Warren, Ellsworth Nightingall and William Wells, of this city, delegates to the glassblowers' convention which has been in session at Atlantic City during the past ten days, have returned.

Their report having had an enjoyable time. A resolution was adopted by the convention continuing in operation the wage scale of last year.

Supposed Case of Smallpox. A colored man, who is believed to be suffering from smallpox was taken in custody in Washington last night and removed to the smallpox hospital.

The negro said he was Isaac Mendenhall, 27 years old, of White Oak, S. C. He said he had been in Alexandria, and had just walked from that city to Washington.

A Succession of Misfortunes. Thieves invaded the premises of Mr. George Young, near Gambrell, Fairfax county, a few nights ago and carried away eighty-five young and ten old chickens. A fine stallion belonging to Mr. Young, it will be remembered, dropped dead last week.

Colored Man Arrested. Fred Baker, colored, was arrested in Alexandria county this morning by Deputy U. S. Marshal Glover charged with disorderly conduct and flourishing a knife on an electric car while it was on a government reservation.

The accused will be brought before Commissioner Garnett in this city on Monday morning.

AL FRESCO PERFORMANCE. A open-air performance was given last night at the country home of Professor and Mrs. Andrews, on Seminary Hill, for the benefit of the little Episcopal Chapel of the Holy Spirit, at Howardsville.

The entertainment was both unique and beautiful and the children and those of older growth who took part acquitted themselves most admirably.

The "stage" setting reminded one of Ben Greys' performance, nature and art vying in making a lovely scene. After the performance Professor and Mrs. Andrews charmingly entertained a large number of their friends at supper.

THE POLICE VACANCIES. There is much speculation as to the action of the police commissioners when they will meet next Wednesday to fill vacancies in the police force. As stated yesterday, there are many candidates both for the vacancy caused by the death of Lieut. James Smith and for the position of policeman.

Several "slates" have been made, but the one it is said that will probably go through is this: Second Lieutenant Bettis to be made first lieutenant; Officer W. A. Ferguson to be made second lieutenant and William Schoeni to be elected a policeman.

Mr. Dolson is in charge of the carpenter department for the government at this reservation.

Mrs. James M. Rixey is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Trout, at Front Royal.

Mrs. Raymond Hulfish is spending a few weeks at Fauquier Springs.

Mrs. J. W. Burke and Miss Fannie Burke have returned from Woodberry Forest and are spending the remainder of the summer on Seminary Hill.

The condition of Mr. W. J. Boothe, who is seriously ill at the Alexandria Hospital, is thought to be more favorable this evening.

ELKS' DRAMATIC CLUB EXCURSION. At least once during the summer season those who wish to get away from the city and its heat will take a trip to the Potomac river's Atlantic City—Colonial Beach. When selecting a day for such an outing it is but natural to watch the various excursions announced and secure the most fun for the least money.

On Wednesday of next week the Elks' Dramatic Club will give its family excursion on the steamer Queen Anne and, from past experience, the entertaining qualities of this organization are unexcelled.

Amusement on the boat and grounds have been well provided by the committee and no stone will be left unturned in order to make this family excursion one long to be remembered. Remember the day—next Wednesday.

BASEBALL.

Next week the Cardinal A. C. will cross bats with some of the fastest teams in the District. On Monday they will line up against the Spartan A. C. and on Wednesday they will play the Swift A. C., none, a team that will be picked from some of the fastest amateur teams in the district.

On Saturday the Cardinals will try to down the Berry & Whitmore nine, another fast organization from Washington.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Joseph Carr, who died Thursday morning, took place from St. Mary's Church this morning.

The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly and the pallbearers were Messrs. Archie Simpson, William Bell, Theodore Dietrich, William Milstead, Royal Nevitt and Thomas Warnock.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A surprise party was given to Master Samuel Kennard at his residence on Queen street last night by a number of his friends.

In the Circuit Court for the City in vacation today E. L. Payne was appointed administrator of the estate of Luther Carter.

The weather has become warm again and at 2 o'clock this evening the mercury registered 93 degrees.

Rev. W. F. Watson, of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the sermon at the gospel wagon services at Gibson and Patrick streets tonight.

While Mr. Bedrup, a carpenter employed at the Southern Railway depot, was at work yesterday thieves entered a car occupied by him and stole a watch, gun and some money.

Mr. Robert N. Cook, employed at the shops of the Southern Railway in this city, had his right hand painfully injured this morning by a flying rivet. He was attended by Dr. Smith.

A horse attached to a surry containing a little girl ran off near the corner of Royal and Cameron streets today. It was stopped by Officer Knight before much damage had been done.

At the First Baptist Church tomorrow morning the subject of Rev. Mr. Watson's discourse will be "The Christian Disciple," and at night "The Clear Way."

Rev. John Rosebro, of Fredericksburg, will preach at the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow. The pulpits of the other churches will be occupied by the resident clergy.

The box party given last night at Odd Fellows' Hall, north Columbus street, under the auspices of George Washington Lodge, No. 191, Brotherhood Railway Carmen of America, was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Civil service examinations will be held on August 17 for plasterers and papier mache workers in the U. S. National Museum; on August 21 for historian, office of Indian affairs, and on August 24 for farm superintendent, Department of Agriculture, and tariff clerk, Interstate Commerce Commission.

Narrow Escape.

Baltimore, July 23.—Mayor Richardson, of Richmond, President Nimsen of the Baltimore City Council, and Mayor Mahool's private secretary, A. G. Goldsboro, had a narrow escape from serious injury in an automobile crash shortly before noon today.

Secretary Goldsboro was driving a big touring car along the boulevard on Broadway, when at Monument street, a woman stepped directly in front of the onrushing machine.

Goldsboro, in a heroic effort to prevent running down the woman, sheered the heavy car close to the curb and smashed into another car containing a party of Richmond City Councilmen. While no one received serious injury, all were badly choked and shaken up.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear mother, OPHELIA BEACH, who departed this life July 23, 1887—one year ago today.

God called her home, it was his will. But in our hearts we love her still. Her memory is as dear today. As in the hour she passed away.

By the loving daughter, Mrs. THO DREBUCK.

MRS. LONGWORTH DISCUSSED.

The report that Mrs. Alice Longworth, formerly Miss Alice Roosevelt, smokes cigarettes caused a lively discussion yesterday among members of well known Pittsburg women's clubs at a meeting of the Pittsburg Playground Association's flower committee.

"I look on a woman who smokes cigarettes as I do on one who bleaches her hair—with suspicion," was the statement of Mrs. J. H. Armstrong.

Mrs. Minnie O. Roberts and Mrs. George Kramer took leading parts in the discussion, which was listened to with great interest by the women present, among them being members of the following clubs: Winodausis, the Woman's Club of Pittsburg, Sorosis, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of 1812, the Daughters of Pioneers and the Women's Southern Society.

"The higher the position a woman holds the more womanly she should be," asserted Mrs. Roberts, and a number of others said they thought Mrs. Longworth ought to be ashamed of herself of setting such an example to the young women of the land.

One dissenter, a member of the Winodausis Club, said: "Any woman has a right to smoke cigarettes, if she wants to, so long as she doesn't tend on any one else's toes."

The spirited discussion was ended rather abruptly, when a prominent daughter of the American Revolution member arose and said:

"We needn't all get up our feathers simply because Mrs. Longworth smokes cigarettes. Why, one hundred years ago our great-grandmothers sat with their husbands and smoked corncob pipes."

More Love Letters Published. New York, July 23.—Despite the fact that Helen Woodruff Smith has threatened to compel Russell Griswold, who is suing her for $50,000 for breach of promise, to cease making public letters written to him by her, the young man gave out another batch today.

In an interview in his lawyer's office, today, young "Siegfried" Griswold reiterated his statement that he is still in love with his wealthy and handsome "Brunhilde" and would marry her. He defended his course in making public the letters, claiming that Miss Smith had "cast slurs" on his family, and had "called him names."

"But of course I still love her and always will," he said. "She was my first love. She was a married woman when first she made love to me. She captured my heart absolutely. I was only 18 years old. The second day I met her she spoke of my beautiful eyes, mouth and nose. Of course I was susceptible to the praise of a woman, as notable, wealthy and handsome as Helen was and is today. I fell for it; that's all there is to it."

"When Helen secured her divorce she was fearful that these same letters would fall into a third person's hands. She proposed a 'love bonfire,' at which she and I would be invited guests and burn the other letters. But I refused, as I wanted to preserve the letters to console me when I was away from her."

"Helen jilted me for another. Now she accuses me of trying to blackmail her. Never was money a consideration between us—she knows that. Always and always I loved her for herself and she loved me until I took sick and that man Harper came to Linden Lodge."

Most of the letters which Griswold made public today are addressed to "Dear Russell—My forget-me-not," "Dear little Ruzzie," and "Russell, my dear boy."

Ministers Accuse Mayors. Butler, Pa., July 23.—The Butler County Medical Society is greatly excited over charges made here by Rev. Robert B. Meller, at a mass meeting, that at least three doctors of Butler made their living selling booze prescriptions to men of known intemperate habits, who are on the black list at local bars.

"The physicians were named and prosecutions will likely follow. 'If there is no hell for these men who sell damnation to unfortunates at 50 cents a pint, I will help make one for them,'" said the Rev. Mr. Miller. The militant clergyman is pastor of the United Presbyterian Church.

Columbus, O., July 23.—Specific charges against Mayor A. H. Gorrell, of Zanesville, whose removal from office by Governor Harmon was asked last month, have been filed by Rev. D. M. Ross, specify 14 separate alleged violations of his oath of office. Misconduct, ignoring of the Rose law, aiding saloonkeepers and personal responsibility for alleged lawless conditions, are included. The charge is made that Gorrell "by his failure to enforce the laws has permitted to arise in Zanesville a condition of civic affairs bordering on anarchy."

Not Rawn's Murderer. Chicago, July 23.—Ernest Steven, the negro chauffeur arrested yesterday in connection with the killing of Ira Rawn, president of the Monon Railroad, was brought before Assistant Chief of Police Schuetler today and again questioned as to his whereabouts on the night of the killing. His statements have been proven in part and the police feel confident that he had nothing to do with the murder. He is still in custody.

Chicago, July 23.—The police this afternoon, satisfied with the alibi of Ernest Stevens, the negro, arrested on suspicion of knowing something of the death of I. G. Rawn, directed the release of Stevens proved to the satisfaction of the police that he could not have been near the Rawn home on the night Rawn met death. With the collapse of this clue the Chicago police are more convinced than before that Rawn died by his own hand.

Mr. Charles Deahl, jr., drew the free lot at the distribution of lots at Colonial Beach yesterday.

STIR UP AT GETTYSBURG.

When the residents of Gettysburg awoke yesterday morning they found the town's main thoroughfare converted into what looked like an abandoned picnic ground, the work of a band of militiamen from the United States camp of instruction, who invaded the town at an early hour on their return from a country dance. Chairs, tables and other articles of furniture had been removed from every porch for several blocks and were placed in the middle of the street, with numerous potted plants to add to the general effect. The affair was accompanied after the provost guard had left the town for the night, and the Gettysburg police failed to molest the soldiers. Business signs were placed in front of private residences, and many hours were spent by the owners of the property in recovering their belongings. The identity of the soldiers is unknown.

BIG JEWEL THEFT. It was reported at Hamburg that thieves on board the Hamburg-American Line steamer Amerika robbed Eva Stradford, of New Jersey, of jewelry worth $40,000.

The Hamburg police believe the thieves belong to an international band said to be working on transatlantic liners, members of which, it is alleged, committed a robbery on another Hamburg-American liner a few days ago.

One of the directors of the Hamburg-American Line, when questioned yesterday about the reported robbery on board the Amerika, said he knew nothing of it.

Alleging infidelity and naming a correspondent, Orta H. T. Haywood yesterday filed suit in Washington for absolute divorce from John Kerfoot Haywood. They were married February 12, 1898, in Warrenton, and there is one child, whose custody plaintiff requests.
