CROWDS ON THE STREETS.

The arrival of the John Robinson shows in Alexandria reproduced in a measure this morning some of the scenes on King street similar to those of last week.

WANTS DATA FROM COL. MOSBY.

The following communication from a London publishing house has been received by Col. John S. Mosby.

My Dear Sir: I am writing for a leading publishing house (Messrs Nelson & Sons) a book on famous guerilla leaders, and I am writing this letter to ask if you will be so kind as to favor me with a signed photograph of yourself and some facts of your career as a leader in the southern states army.

Very respectfully, P. S. The English papers have lately been full of complimentary references to yourself.

MR. CUVILLIER ILL.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Charles M. Cuvillier, who had recently been employed by the government in the construction of the Panama canal, will regret to read the following: Mr. Samuel Cuvillier, care of Mr. Smoot, Alexandria, Virginia.

ARRESTS.

Will Smith, colored, was arrested today and locked up on the charge of obtaining money and goods under false pretenses from Messrs. C. J. W. Summers, Owen Lynch and Matthew Spittle.
