POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Police Commissioners was held last night in the mayor's office.

Mr. Barrett was called to the chair when the board met at 7:30 o'clock, but later Mr. F. F. Marbury, president of the Board of Aldermen, and acting mayor, entered and assumed the chairmanship.

Chief Goods submitted his report for the month of September. The chief alluded to the published report that the acting mayor and the commissioner from the Fourth ward had been unable to locate Officers Roland and Nicholson on the night of Sunday, October 9, and that those officers had given an account of their whereabouts in their report to Lieutenant Betts, which he submitted.

Mr. Bryan called attention to the recent action of the City Council in continuing former Chief James F. Webster on the pay roll of the police force, and thought the board should now proceed to the election of another member.

This would in no wise affect the case of the former chief. He was glad the Council had continued his pay and he believed all the members of the board were.

Mr. Marbury expressed himself in similar language, and thought the board could elect another member of the force.

Some interchange of opinion as to the power of the board to elect another man followed as council in continuing the pay of the former chief still recognized him as a member, and when the resolution was introduced it was stated that no additional appropriation would be required.

On motion of Mr. Barrett the matter was referred to the Corporation Attorney for his opinion.

Mr. Marbury, however, was still of the opinion that the board had the power to elect another member of the board without procuring an opinion from the Corporation Attorney.

A petition from a number of merchants and others requesting the board to appoint Alpheus Robey a special policeman in the place of William Mullin, deceased, was granted.

Mr. Bryan then proceeded to describe to the board his experience, together with that of the acting mayor, on Sunday night, October 9, and their failure to find Officers Nicholson and Roland, who were supposed to have been on duty in the Third ward at that time.

He also told of finding Officers Rawlett and Wilkison. Knight and Reed, who had been assigned to beats in the First and Fourth wards on that night, in a doorway on the south side of King street near Washington.

Mr. Bryan outlined the route taken by the acting mayor, himself and Lieutenant Betts, and stated that the lieutenant had sounded whistles at nine different intersections without receiving any answer. He had been told by Officer Knight that Officers Nicholson and Roland had followed him, the acting mayor and the lieutenant up to Asaph street, about half a square behind.

Mr. Bryan said he and his companions saw nothing of them, and had they been behind they would have been out of their beats at any rate.

Mr. Bryan, continuing, said he and the acting mayor finally got answers to their whistles from the men in the Fourth ward.

Mr. Fisher moved that the board proceed to make arrangements for investigating the charges made by the Fourth ward commissioner, and the men be cited to appear before the board for the purpose of answering the charges.

It was decided to investigate the case next Friday night, the 21st instant, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Barrett regretted the fact that the inspection of the beats had been made public before the matter had been reported to the board and formal action taken.

Mr. Bryan said the matter had become public property from the fact that the officers themselves had discussed it.

Mr. Barrett reiterated that the result of the midnight inspection had become public property before the board had time to act, and this gave the interested officers an opportunity to frame a defense.

Mr. Barrett read a paper in which he made suggestion concerning the greater utilization of the police force. He recommended the installation of nine call boxes at different points in the city for the use of the force, and the formulating of a rule requiring the officers to "call up" every half hour day and night.

He said arrangements could be made with the Capital City Telephone Company by which such boxes could be installed for $180. Mr. Barrett also recommended the purchase of a patrol wagon, and said a man could be procured at $40 a month to drive it who could also be sworn in as a policeman. He could also act as janitor at the station house.

Mr. Barrett said the horse and wagon could be purchased for about $500, and the additional cost to the city would be $480. He also favored a pension fund of $800. In order to meet this additional expenditure he suggested that the City Council be requested to pass an ordinance empowering the Police Justice to add 20 per cent. to all fines collected to meet this expenditure.

This could be added to the fines under head of costs. He had, he said, talked with the Police Justice and the Corporation Attorney on the subject and it had met with their approval.

Mr. Marbury thought Council would make the appropriation for the purposes set forth by Mr. Barrett.

It was suggested that $1,000 additional appropriation be made for the police department.

Mr. Bryan expressed his approval of the suggestions.

Mr. Fisher moved that a committee be appointed to present the paper to the finance committee of the City Council. This motion, however, gave place to one made by Mr. Barrett providing for the transmission of the paper to the City Council, and the board subsequently adjourned to meet again next Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

Third Annual Reunion of Alumnae Classes With a Banquet.

It was with the warm and heartfelt welcome of a mother for children homebound hours that St. Mary's opened wide her doors last night to receive her graduates and bid them take possession once more of the home ground of girlhood's happy days. And were any to question the joyousness of their response, the most convincing answer would be the ring of merry voices that echoed through the halls and the bright and happy faces that, in revisiting the cherished haunts of yore, said more eloquently than words, "How good it is to be here!"

For days, debt and willing hands were at work decorating the banquet and reception hall; and when last night fifty of the old girls came back, it was to find a new St. Mary's more beautiful, yet not more dear, than the simple home of their school days.

At six o'clock, Miss Mattie Crilly, the president, called the business meeting to order and for an hour, topics of interest to the well-being of the organization or their Alma Mater, were discussed. At seven o'clock, the formal greetings to the alumnae were tendered in an entertainment with the following programme, all the participants in which, with one or two exceptions, being children of the alumnae or of former St. Mary's students:

PROGRAMME. Greetings to Alumnae..... Miss Nellie Murphy "Little Lizette"..... Gula Puckett Piano Solo..... Miss Sallie Patterson

GARDEN SCENE FROM "MARY STUART." Queen Elizabeth Miss Katherine Waller Mary, Queen of Scots..... Kathryn Brill

Violin Solo..... Miss Alma Desio "Nobody's Child"..... Florence Evans Piano Solo..... Miss "DIXIE MEETING." H. Beall, Mrs. K. Crilly, M. Hill, I. Crilly, G. Lash, G. Davis, G. Adam, R. Gorman, A. Sweeney, W. Bayne, and B. Schuler.

The Informal Prayer, Winifred Bayne Vocal Duets..... Misses Waller and Brill "Brier Rose"..... Miss Madeline Bryne Piano Solo..... Miss Ella Hill

At eight, the Alumnae proceeded to the banquet hall which was resplendent with electric lights and so beautifully decorated that it seemed as if every-where else through the house, the color scheme in all the decorations was blue and white—the Alumnae and school colors. When the elegantly gowned women, gay with the gaiety of girlhood, entered and took seats at the bounteously laden tables, the scene with its nature setting of palms and flowers for a background, was one never to be forgotten. Rev. Father Cutler honored the gathering by his presence, and lent the charm of his ever ready wit to the other delights of the reunion.

At the conclusion of the banquet called by the Rameau Bros. with their usual elegance, Miss Mattie Crilly, president and toast mistress announced the following toasts:

"Our Guest of Honor, Rev. Father Cutler, Mrs. Guido Kengia; Address to the Alumnae, Rev. Father Cutler; "The Old School and the New," Sister Vincentia; "Alma Mater," Miss Sallie Harlow; Miss Mary Harlow made this response in the absence of the one named. "The Old Girls," Miss Bridget Greene; "St. Mary's Alumnae," Miss Bernadette Allen; Welcome to the class of 1910, Miss Mattie Crilly. Response, Miss Theresa Waters.

The favors were dainty booklets bearing on the cover a stamp of the pin worn by the alumnae, and containing a list of the toasts and the names of the eighty members of the organization. They as well as the menu cards carried out the color scheme, being blue and white.

At a late hour, goodbyes were said and all hurried into the storm, but the sunshine in their hearts made them forget the inclemency of the weather, to think only of the happy evening spent with Alma Mater and to look forward eagerly to the reunion in 1911.

The following were present at the banquet: Rev. Father Cutler, Miss Mattie Crilly, president; Mrs. James Bales, vice-president; Ella Hill, secretary; Agnes Gilroy, historian; Rosa Crilly, librarian; Mary Harlow, Mother M. Bethlehem, Sister M. Vincentia, Angela Nevitt, Bridget Greene, Mrs. Martin Greene, Mrs. James Quinn, Miss Mary Devitt, Mrs. Guido Kengia, Margaret Bashford, Mrs. Frank Quinn, Mrs. William Quinn, Mrs. Philip Warren, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Frank Beall, Mrs. Frank Adams, Katherine Ahern, Mrs. R. J. Echolls, Mrs. Henry Collins, Misses Mae McWilliams, Mary Walker, Emma Willis, Theresa Sullivan, Alice Treger, Nellie and Nettie Studds, Ethel McDonald and Mary Kavanagh.

LUNATIC AT LARGE.

A man hunt has excited the Oxon Hill region of Maryland, opposite this city, the man being a supposed lunatic from St. Elizabeth's Asylum, who is believed to have escaped Monday. The supposed lunatic first attracted the attention of Ernest Allen, an Anacostia youth, who tried to return him to the asylum, after a struggle the man escaped, slashed at the boy with a knife and ran down Wheeler road, followed by a crowd, but escaped. He took possession of a buggy belonging to Silas Foote, of Wheeler road. The supposed lunatic jumped into the buggy, frightening the woman, who leaped out, leaving him alone. He drove the team 100 yards, stole some bread from under the seat, abandoned the vehicle and disappeared over the border into Prince George's county.

SIMMONS ACQUITTED.

The jury in the Corporation Court last night brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Will Simmons, charged with a criminal assault on Violet McInter. The offense was alleged to have been committed several months ago on a gasoline boat operated by the accused. The verdict was in accordance with instructions from Judge Bailey, who told the members he would be compelled to set aside any other verdict. Henry A. Simmons, father of the defendant, who was charged with being an accessory to the crime, was also dismissed.

The accused were represented by Attorneys Robinson Moncure and Edmund Burke, and Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent conducted the prosecution.

A large crowd filled the court room to witness the proceedings.

The young girl was the only witness put on the stand by the prosecution.

Robt. A. Maddox, J. W. Sanders, Emory Morgan, Mrs. Annie Able, Miss Lucy Able, William Able, Mrs. Josephine Cator, Miss Nettie Cator, Mrs. Ida Sanders, Herbert Phillips, Mrs. Blanch Simmons and Rose Johnson, colored, testified as to the young girl's reputation for truth and veracity.

Wm. H. Sisson, Chas. A. Dean, Beauregard Foley, John Clapdore, Capt. Jas. H. Beach, Miss Frances Sisson, T. Alton Moore, Wm. Davis, W. L. Clark and Jas. R. Dove testified as to Simmons' reputation.

In rebuttal A. R. Jones, Wm. A. Williams, Ernest Perry, Ben. Skinner, Mrs. Ella McCuen and Geo. McCuen, testified to show the good reputation of the plaintiff.

Simmons finally took the stand and denied that he had been guilty of any improper conduct toward the girl.

RAIN LAST NIGHT. The rain which set in yesterday evening continued all night. There were heavy downpours at times. There were, however, no high winds, as had been predicted by the Weather Bureau. Capt. Phillips, of the steamer Newport News, which arrived at this port from Norfolk shortly after six o'clock this morning, reported heavy rains and high winds in the bay last night. The weather today has been partly cloudy with a northerly wind prevailing.

Hooft's run was very high this morning, and some of the trenches where sewers were being laid in this city were filled with water, but not much damage was done. The south Royal street sewer became clogged and choked many of the lateral sewers. The bridge over a culvert at Wythe and Washington streets was washed away. The rain a few miles west of Alexandria, it is said, was not heavy.

Today the weather has been alternately clear and cloudy, the mercury at 2 p. m. registered 76 degrees.

NEGROES IN A ROW. Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of Wolfe and Alfred streets about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a row between negroes of both sexes. A large crowd gathered, but it scattered when Officer Reed arrived. He took Haywood Spottswood, Edmund Smith, Clara Price and Cornelia Bailey in custody. Smith left collateral, but failed to appear when the case was called this morning. The evidence showed that Spottswood had been asleep in a nearby saloon which colored men and women frequent, and while in that condition it was alleged that the Bailey woman took $7 from his pocket. Spottswood became exasperated when he discovered his loss and went into the street in an excited state of mind. His actions brought the charge of larceny against the Bailey woman, but fined her and Spottswood $5 each for disorderly conduct. Clara Price was dismissed.

Hence Friday of each week is devoted to the selling of remnants—fragments, remainders, etc., and they are the genuine legitimate sorts, not remnants made for the occasion.
