KILLS HERSELF AND CHILDREN.

Separated for two months from her husband, Mrs. Annie Davis, thirty-one years old, killed her two children—Elsie, three years, and Ellis, five—and took her own life in her apartment in Brooklyn, early yesterday.

When the house was entered a tube attached to an open gas jet was lying on Mrs. Davis's pillow. The two children were clasped in her arms. All three were attired in night clothing. No cause is known for the triple tragedy beyond the woman's brooding over the separation. Mrs. Davis was declared by neighbors to be deeply interested in religion. An open Bible, which had apparently slipped from her hand as she succumbed to the fumes of the gas, lay half opened upon the floor by the bedside.

A note left by Mrs. Davis was addressed to her husband. It read: "Lizzie has the insurance book. I am sorry, but this is the easiest way out of it all. The children are asleep and won't know anything about it. I can't stand it any longer." "Annie."

Great interest is being shown by physicians in the suit brought in the District of Columbia Supreme Court by Mrs. Mary A. Thomas against Dr. Arthur C. Merriam for $5,000. Mrs. Thomas claims that she is suffering physical disability because of the failure of Dr. Merriam to attend her at the time the stork visited her home on April 1 last.

With impressive simplicity the new edifice of Union Methodist Church, in Washington, was dedicated yesterday morning by Bishop William A. Quayle, of Oklahoma, who preached the initial sermon before a large congregation. The church is one of the oldest of the city. Practically a new house of worship has been obtained by an expenditure of $23,000 for improvements. The old brick front has been hidden behind a new coating of stucco.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.
