THE MUTINY OF BRAZILIAN SAILORS.

The Brazilian government yesterday took prompt steps to placate the leaders of the sailors' revolt on the warships in Rio de Janeiro.

The mutinous sailors, after seizing the battleships Sao Paulo and Minas Geraes, and the cruisers Floriano and Boba, killed several of the officers and then fired shells into the city. Not much damage was done.

Yesterday the mutineers offered to surrender if granted more pay and the abolition of corporal punishment. The Senate unanimously approved a proposition for amnesty.

The mutiny started on board the two battleships, the largest vessels in the Brazilian navy.

They turned their guns upon the loyal ships and also threw a few shells into the city. During the outbreak several officers were killed. The fighting ceased at night, but the revolvers remained in possession of the two vessels. Yesterday the ships with their mutinous crews were anchored outside the bar awaiting action by the government.

On Wednesday night the mutinous ships left the harbor in order to escape to torpedo-boat destroyers, which had been sent out by the rebels. The latter feared that the destroyers would attack them under cover of night and so put out to sea.

The government is trying its utmost to repress the ships without making an attack in which the new dreadnoughts might be damaged.

Reports of the mutiny are being received from the ships.

When Clyde East, of Fairmont, W. Va., lighted a natural gas stove early yesterday morning his family of four were shot out of his home by an explosion. His wife was killed and his 2-year-old son was thrown, bed and all, through the roof to the yard. Clyde, jr., landed safely on the bed. In all four persons were affected, but the others escaped. Mrs. Elizabeth East was suffocated.

Mr. East did not notice that gas had filled the rear portion of his house. Mr. East was one of the early risers to prepare the Thanksgiving breakfast. He had arranged all details and struck a match to light the kitchen stove. Instantly there was a terrific roar, and the house and tore away the walls and roof. Mrs. East was caught by falling bricks and a beam, and while she occupied the flames, she was suffocated by smoke.

Upstairs, at the same moment, the sleeping members of the family began their flight through the roof, the debris going with them. Bedroom articles and other furniture were scattered 75 yards.

Mr. East is now in the Miers Hospital, but his injuries are not considered serious by the physicians. He was hurt when he went back to the burning ruins in an effort to save his wife.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION. Revolutionists appear to be drawing the federal troops from Mexico City to distant points with the intention of attempting to take the capital.
