When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is got for the money spent. We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer.

Amending His Constitution. A well known attorney of heavy build and pompous to a degree that frequently reaches the state of being overbearing was leaving his office in a broad street building the other day.

Just then another attorney who enjoys an equal distinction in the legal world passed and laughed at the fallen lawyer. When the latter was trying to get up he remarked to the other: "I guess I am getting old. My constitution will not stand what it did years ago."

As he arose to his feet his friend facetiously remarked, "Well, then, Dick, you ought to get an amendment to your constitution."

Looking at his friend with a cold stare, as cold as the ice he had fallen upon, he asked: "Well, what kind of an amendment would you suggest, if you know so much?"

"I don't know exactly," was the reply. "I don't give advice to my clients without some kind of a retainer, but as you are an old friend of mine I would suggest a cushion or a mattress."—Minneapolis Journal.

Salt Water Cataracts. There are a good many salt water cataracts in existence. They may be found in Norway, southern Chile and British Columbia, where narrow fiords, or arms of the sea, are obstructed by barriers of rock. The rising tide flows over and filters through such reefs into the great natural reservoirs beyond, but the water is held back at the ebb until it breaks over the obstruction in an irresistible torrent.

In the Spring. The country schoolteacher had been telling her scholars about the seasons and their peculiarities, and to impress their minds with the facts she questioned them upon the points she had given. Several queries had been put, and finally she reached the stupid boy in the corner.

"Well, Johnny," she said, "have you been paying attention?" "Yes'm," he answered promptly. "I'm glad to hear it. Now, can you tell me what there is in the spring?" "Yes'm, I can, but I don't want to."

Sending a Man to Coventry. The expression "sending to Coventry" had a military origin. It arose, so it is said, in the days of Charles I., when the inhabitants of Coventry strongly objected to any intercourse with the military quartered in their town, and a woman known to speak to a man in a scarlet cloak was at once the subject of scandal.

Distances at Sea. That man was laughed at who on his first voyage said that the ocean did not look so large as he supposed it would, but he was not alone in experiencing disappointment. The horizon at sea gives no idea of the limitless water beyond.

The Free Riders. "A good many people get on this earth who aren't worth the room they take up," said the cynical sociologist. "Yes," replied the eminent astronomer. "It's a good thing for many of us that we are not obliged to get aboard this whirling planet on a pay as you enter basis."—Washington Star.

The Doctor's Viewpoint. Broom Widow—Do you understand the language of flowers, Dr. Crusty? Dr. Crusty (an old bachelor)—No, ma'am. Widow—You don't know if yellow means jealousy? Dr. Crusty—No, ma'am; yellow means biliousness.

The Dear Friends. Maud—You say Jack once proposed to you. I don't believe it. He said I was the only woman he ever loved. Ethel—Yes, dear, but he didn't class me among women. He used to call me his angel.

Happiness has a way of hovering near those whose first wish is to make others happy.—Chicago Record-Herald. Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
