HIGHWAYMAN AROUSES PITY.

Magistrate Harris, in the Adams Street Police Court, New York, took up a collection yesterday to relieve the distress of a highwayman's starving family, contributing $5 himself. The highwayman, William Clark, when arraigned before the magistrate, confessed that he had attacked Mrs. Jennie Demelle, on Tuesday, knocking her down in the snow and seizing her purse. He said that starvation and pitiable condition of his wife and two children were responsible for his act.

THE PASADENA INCIDENT.

"That was, indeed, unfortunate," exclaimed Ambassador Patrick J. O'Brien, who arrived at Los Angeles yesterday on his way from his home in Michigan to his post in Japan. He found himself in the midst of considerable excitement, due to the fact that the Pasadena society girls had just snubbed Admiral Yoshida and his officers of the fleet that lay in the harbor, and the admiral had sailed away very much offended.

"Of course, it is of no great importance," continued the ambassador, "but it might easily be construed into a breach of courtesy, to say the least. I don't suppose anything will come of it, but, knowing the Japanese as I do, I can imagine what the admiral, who, by the way, is an excellent chap, and his officers are thinking about American society in general."

"Ambassador O'Brien also said that he did not believe anything the Pacific coast states could do would bring war between the United States and Japan, but he said the anti-Japanese feeling at Los Angeles created a great deal of diplomatic difficulty."

That Japan must prepare for war with the United States is the text of an article published by the Tokyo Nippon and received at Victoria, B. C., yesterday by the steamer Namba Maru. "Japan must ask herself," says the Nippon, "what object an element of United States citizens have in view when they advocate the expenditure of enormous sums on furnishing the Pacific with a big fleet; of creating a powerful army on the Pacific slope; of building a huge coal depot and naval station in Hawaii, and of fortifying the Philippines, Hawaii, and Panama."

START THE FIGHT ON BAILEY The first gun in the fight against Senator Bailey, of Texas, who will be a candidate for re-election in his state next year, was fired in the House yesterday by some of the anti-Bailey Congressmen in the Texas delegation.

The shot came in the guise of a bill to put lumber on the free list, introduced by Mr. Robert Smith. There are in the delegation determined opponents of Bailey, who are helping to lead a state-wide movement to bring about his defeat. Yancey Lewis is suggested as a candidate against Bailey, and it is also understood that some of the Texas Congressmen themselves cherish ambitions to succeed the senator.

From now on every day or so will witness the introduction of a bill by a Texas member putting some raw material on the free list. These bills are to be telegraphed to Texas. During the debate on the appropriation bills the members will make speeches advocating their bills, and at the same time pointing out that Bailey when the Payne-Aldrich law was being voted on gave his ballots against free raw materials. Thus will the seeds of disunion be sown in Texas.

George L. Potter, third vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, resigned at the meeting of the new board of directors held in New York yesterday. A. W. Thompson, chief engineer of the company, was made general manager of the road and will take charge of the operating department, which was Mr. Potter's special work. The vacancies of second vice-president and third vice-president were not filled.

FIFTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE OF AN OLD NURSE Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Mulligan's story, the police say, is that Mule was one of the "committee," and that on his way back to the hall he boasted, while washing a bloody knife, "I got him twice."

In addition to the four arrests Wednesday, and that of Mule last night, a fifth arrest was made yesterday afternoon. The prisoner is Joseph Murphy who says he is a business agent, but the police described him as a walking delegate for the chauffeurs' union, which went out in sympathy with the express drivers. The evidence against Murphy was also furnished by Mulligan.
