

NEWS OF THE DAY

Two men are dead and two are badly injured as the result of an explosion in the engine room at the S. Kann, Sons & Company department store, Washington, yesterday.

Wearing a skirt lined with secret pockets, in one of which a burglar's "jimmy" was found, an attractive looking girl of 19, giving her name as Charlotte Paine, was arraigned in the Manhattan Avenue police court, Williamsburg, N. Y., as a burglar.

Officers with bloodhounds are searching for two robbers who Tuesday night poured hot grease on the bare feet of William Lyles, proprietor of a store near Cheneyville, La., in an effort to make him tell the combination of his safe.

Can you boil an egg on a cake of ice? Certainly. All you need to know is how to manipulate ultra violet rays of proper angstrom units on the egg.

The "White Wolf" the Chinese brigand, and his followers yesterday captured and sacked the city of Lung Chuhchai, in the province of Shensi.

President Wilson last night was warned of the departure for Washington of a second "Coxey's army" which, it is said, will start April 16 from Massillon, Ohio, the starting point for the first "army" twenty years ago.

MONTICELLO NOT FOR SALE.

Mr. Levy Denies He Will Part With Home of Jefferson.

Washington, March 25.—Representative Jefferson Levy denies that he had stated he was willing to sell Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, of which he is the present owner.

Reports had stated that Representative Levy had naved a price for the historic property to the Senate committee on Public Buildings. "Monticello is not for sale to the government or anybody else," said Mr. Levy.

There is a Great Difference in Tobaccos

Tuxedo is the Mildest, Sweetest, Most Pleasant Smoke in the World, Because—

First—No one but the makers of Tuxedo is willing to spend the money necessary to buy the mildest, choicest, most thoroughly aged, selected Burley tobacco.

Second—No one but the makers of Tuxedo knows how to treat this Burley tobacco so that every bit of pleasantness and goodness remains in the tobacco and every bit of unpleasantness and harshness is taken out.

Tuxedo The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have been born, and are clamoring for your patronage.

No imitation is ever as good as the original. No amount of advertising, no amount of bluster and bluff, can ever make an imitation tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

If you are not a pipe smoker, you are denying yourself the greatest smoking pleasure known to man. One week of Tuxedo will give you more enjoyment than you have ever had—and at the end of the week your nerves will be better and your general health will have improved. Try Tuxedo this week!
