TAFT OUT OF POLITICS

Doesn't Want to Revivify Corpse ofgressive Party.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Former President William Howard Taft delivered an address last night in Mandel Hall, University of Chicago...

"I am in favor of giving Cabinet officers seats in the House of Representatives without having votes."

"I think President Wilson did right in reviving the old custom of going before Congress and delivering his messages in person."

When asked if he would be a candidate for the Presidency again, Mr. Taft said:

"It would make the Progressive party turn in its grave if I said I was, and I don't want to revivify that corpse. I am out of politics."

ALLEGED MURDER

Unidentified Man Stabbed to Death in Richmond.

Richmond, Nov. 19.—A murder charge was Tuesday night preferred against A. Joseph Bowman 910 1-2 Beverly Street, at the Second Precinct Station by Policeman A. M. Smith, Leiss and Napier, who arrested the man at his home following the discovery of an unknown man's dead body in the street before 627 South First Street yesterday afternoon.

The coroner said death had been caused by a stab through the left breast, the pocket-knife blade penetrating the lung. At Billey's undertaking establishment early this morning it was learned that the body remained unidentified.

Patrolman A. M. Smith, who was off duty, learned of the killing, and immediately went to the scene of the crime. He succeeded in talking with Butler, and from him secured a second description of the man who had been with the dead man about a half hour before the body was discovered.

Johnson is said to have admitted being with the dead man, and to have informed Smith of the quarrel between him and Bowman. He said that the quarrel and fight took place near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway tracks, in the vicinity of Pine Street, and that Bowman must have stabbed the man when he hit him.
