Electric Lights at Minimum Cost

Electric Light is no longer a luxury. Today it is within the easy reach of all. Furthermore, it is the best light for homes, offices, stores, factories, and other interiors, because it is the most convenient and safest light obtainable.

You can have it at a minimum cost by using

MAZDA LAMPS

These lamps give three times as much light as the old carbon lamps, for the same cost for electricity.

If you are not equipped with MAZDA Lamps, come in and let us show you the difference.

HENRY FAIRFAX DEAD

Former Alexandrian Succumbs in Leesburg After Operation for Appendicitis

Henry Fairfax chairman of the committee on finance and taxation in the Constitutional Convention of 1901 charter member of the State Corporation Commission and president of the Virginia State Fair Association died at the Leesburg Hospital about 10 o'clock last night. He was stricken with appendicitis several days ago, and an emergency operation was performed by Drs. George Ben Johnson and Murat Willis of Richmond. He had been in a critical condition all day yesterday, and his death last night was not unexpected.
Mr. Fairfax was sixty-six years of age, and was one of the best known men in public life in Virginia. Though of a retiring disposition, seldom seeking public office, he had served his district in the State Senate and was elected to the Constitutional Convention, where he readily came to the front as one of the leaders in matters of taxation and finance. Because of his record in that body, he was appointed by Governor Montague one of the charter members of the State Corporation Commission, serving with Governor Henry C. Stuart and Judge Beverly T. Crump for several years. He resigned from the commission and was succeeded by Colonel Joseph E. Willard, now ambassador to Spain.
Mr. Fairfax succeeded Governor Stuart as president of the Virginia State Fair Association.
Henry Fairfax was born in Alexandria, Va., on May 4, 1850. His father was Colonel John W. Fairfax, a farmer of Loudoun County, and his mother was Mary Jane Rodgers, daughter of Colonel Hamilton Rogers.

MEETING OF LAYMEN.
Decide to Erect Tent for Evangelic Revival on Old Fair Ground.

A well attended meeting of the committees of laymen of the various churches of this city in charge of the evangelic campaign to begin in this city the first week in September, met last night in the Westminster Building, when plans for the revivals were drawn up. It was decided to erect the large gospel tent to hold the audiences during the series of meetings on that portion of the old fair grounds situated back of the Second Baptist Church, on upper King street. Arrangements are being rapidly pushed to completion. Gypsy Smith, jr., will conduct the revivals.

Broker McQuade of New York has received $10,000 cash from the Pacific coast from men willing to put their money on Wilson at 1 to 2, but the Hughes men, who were so loudly proclaiming a desire to bet on Hughes at 2 to 1 show neither eagerness nor anxiety to cover the offerings.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS
By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.
Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.
I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and I do them more good than any medicine they ever tried.
We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."
Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to relieve indigestion, cold, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.
It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.
Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package 10-day.
