New Fall Suits

At $25.00 and $29.75

More styles, prettier styles than we have ever shown this early. The materials in these lines include whipcords, gabardines and Broadcloths. Of course, the higher quality materials are at the higher prices.

The styles are belted effects for the young woman or the woman with the youthful figure, straighter line models for the woman with more matronly figure. The straight line models are in great favor.

Electric Lights at Minimum Cost

Electric Light is no longer a luxury. Today it is within the easy reach of all. Furthermore, it is the best light for homes, offices, stores, factories, and other interiors, because it is the most convenient and safest light obtainable.

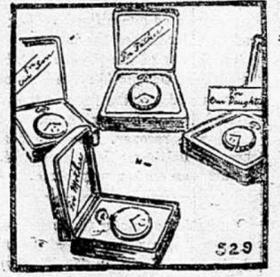

You can have it at a minimum cost by using

MAZDA LAMPS

These lamps give three times as much light as the old carbon lamps, for the same cost for electricity.

If you are not equipped with MAZDA Lamps, come in and let us show you the difference.

VIRGINIANS' BEST CAMP

Captain Scott, of U. S. Army, Commends Soldiers of the Old Dominion.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 28.—With their company camp pronounced by Captain Scott, of the army "the best by long odds," that he has seen during his inspection of Virginia troops stationed here members of the Alexandria Light Infantry are on edge now to keep their drills and other duties up to scratch, during the series of inspections which they are now standing.

The inspector's report was read to the men by Capt. Conrad Johnson as they stood in company formation at retreat, after supper yesterday. Besides general comments on the condition of their camp and equipment and showing at drill, the report contrasted in detail the showings made by the different squads. This has roused a feeling of competition among the men which will undoubtedly spur them on to deserve a still better report the next time a detailed inspection is made.

Sanitary conditions in the company's camp, Captain Scott reported were in general, satisfactory. He also picked out details of the camp's arrangement, which included the kitchen, for special commendation. Since the inspection, the new building for the kitchen with its new stove and ice-box, has been completed. It has been provided with a clean sand floor and will eventually be screened, which will probably draw down some more words of praise for Company G, from the inspectors.

Tents occupied by some of the squads were complimented by Captain Scott, for home-made gun racks and schemes for protecting their other equipment from the dirt and weather. These have been thought out by the men themselves and built "the best they can with the few tools they've got"—as the men say of anything they are criticised or complimented for.

Handling of the company in turn by Lieutenants Knight and McLean was rated "better than good." Captain Scott also called the company's parade drill better than the average, and its battle-formation drill good.

In addition to this complimentary report on the Alexandrians' showing at inspection, more words of praise for them are embraced in a report on how the troops handled themselves during the hurricane which raged on August 18.

The report was issued from the office of Brigadier-General Parker who commands all troops in the Brownsville district, and it was read to the men at his direction. General Parker congratulated his command "on the fine spirit shown by the officers and men during the hurricane." Though the wind swept the flat Texas country at a gait of 75 miles an hour, and swept tents and frame buildings before it like paper, the commands were preserved intact, without straggling or disorder, the report states.

All the troops remained under control of their commanders, and preserved the integrity of their regiments and brigades. Hardships incurred during the whole day that the hurricane lasted and during the night that followed it, were borne with the utmost cheerfulness and with no complaining. This behavior demonstrated a soldierly and martial spirit on the part of members of his command General Parker's report concluded.

Thirteen members of the Light Infantry have been given a rank of first-class private, dating from August 1. This entitles them to three dollars a month extra pay, and certain privileges in camp. "The least violation of their respective duties," however, will make them liable to be reduced to ordinary privates, it is pointed out in the order announcing their promotion.

The order which was published today, names the following privates chosen for the promotion:

C. E. Hayden, George H. Jones, John Greiner, Jr., Harvey Davis, Floyd Shinn, Raphael Birrell, J. Harris Pettis, T. A. Beuregard, James A. Ludlow, C. C. Nelson, H. L. Wise, James Thorp, and E. L. Hume.

William F. Boswell has been promoted to the position of company clerk, to assist First Sergeant Deahl in keeping the company records.

Robert Bitzer and Walter Heislip, have been promoted to company musicians. The latter succeeds B. H. Cook, who has been transferred to the band of the First regiment. The musicians' duties include use of the semaphore, wig-wag, and other signal systems used in the army.

William Nolan and O. Nightingale have been transferred from the Light Infantry to the supply company of the First regiment, as teamsters. Winship Moncreux has been detailed to the headquarters company which serves directly under Colonel Perry and William D. Meeks to the regimental exchange.

Alexandria's evangelistic campaign will be opened tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock by Gypsy Smith, Jr., of Haddon Heights, N. J., who is expected to arrive in this city tonight, as all arrangements have been completed by the various committees in charge. Tonight the joint choir of the Protestant churches meet for final rehearsal under Prof. Forest Cole, the musical director of the evangelist. Miss Laura Hoagland is the pianist.

Last night several hundred were present at the tent which has recently been erected on King street, between West and Peyton, at the first rehearsal of the choir in the tent.

The usher committee holds a meeting for final instructions in handling the crowds, which it is estimated, will attend the revivals, which will be held at 7:45 every evening except Mondays, until October 2. The tent will hold an audience of 2,000.

Everything has been done for the convenience of those who will hear the evangelist. In the Sunday school room of the Second Baptist Church, in the rear of which the tent is situated, a temporary hospital and dispensary has been established, with a nurse from the Alexandria hospital in charge. A private office and conference room has been also provided in the second Baptist church.

On one side of the big tent a small tent has been pitched, and here infants and small children may be "checked" by mothers and left to the care of young women appointed by the nursery committee of ladies.

ALEXANDRIA'S EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Will open at 7:45 Sunday evening, Sept. 3d, under the direction of Gypsy Smith Jr., the noted Evangelist of Haddon Heights, N. J.

Services will be held every night each week, excepting Monday, continuing until Oct. 2d, in a large tent with a seating capacity of 2,000 located on upper King Street, between West and Peyton Streets, on the site of the old fairgrounds.

Evangelist Smith is a direct, forcible speaker and it is earnestly hoped that every resident of Alexandria will arrange to attend the meetings and hear him.

The services will be of an entirely undenominational character, the campaign having the hearty endorsement of practically all the various churches in the city.

The singing will be a feature of the services, the evangelist bringing with him his own chorister and pianist.

Don't forget the time or place. Arrange your affairs so that you may attend each meeting.

GYPSY SMITH CAMPAIGN

Revival Meetings Will Begin Tomorrow Night in Tent on Upper King Street.

Not a single trace has been found to date in the search made by Mrs. Harry L. Litchford, who resides at 1105 Duke street, for her daughter, Marguerite Eareheart, who, it was reported, had eloped with Charles H. Baum, of Baltimore, on a motorcycle August 21. Hagerstown, Md., Baltimore, Washington, and Alexandria police have been on Baum's trail and have been keeping a strict lookout for his motorcycle, which is an Indian make, and is registered as No. 1734, under Maryland registration.

Mrs. Litchford told a reporter for the Gazette this morning that she suspected foul play or an accident, stating that Baum had a reputation as a very reckless driver. As the girl was taken from her home against her will, (so states Mrs. Litchford positively,) it is possible, that she might now be hidden in some place and kept from returning to her home by Baum.

Yesterday afternoon Chief of Police Goods, of the local police department, telephoned the Hagerstown chief giving a complete description of the eloping pair.

Mrs. Litchford told the Gazette reporter this morning that she had written several times to J. H. Eareheart, the girl's father, in Hagerstown, but had received no answer to date, and it may be that he is in possession of knowledge of the girl's whereabouts but is keeping them secret. At least that is the way it looks on the face of things, for otherwise it seems as if he would send the girl's mother, formerly his wife, some answer to her inquiry.

Mrs. Litchford is still positive in her belief that her daughter was taken away from her home here against her own volition, as she was clad only in riding clothes when she left, and Baum, who had visited Mrs. Litchford's father-in-law, J. W. Litchford, 318 south Patrick street, had taken other girls in the neighborhood out on his cycle for short spins but returned them all to their homes. It is supposed Miss Eareheart thought he would do the same with her, but things turned out differently.

Anent the report in the Gazette August 30 about the elopement, in which it was stated that Baum and Miss Eareheart were former sweethearts when Baum lived as a boy in this city, that is denied absolutely by Mrs. Litchford. She stated this morning that this report was untrue, as Marguerite had met the man only three days before the supposed elopement. Advice to that effect, had been taken substantially by the Gazette from a Baltimore paper, to which additions were made regarding the Alexandria end of the story by this paper.

Chief Goods expects a message from Hagerstown some time today and it is hoped that the mystery will be cleared up within a few days.
