BRITAIN EXTENDS EMBARGO

Importation of all Knit Cotton Goods Now Prohibited.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Consul-General Skinner, at London, notified the Department of Commerce yesterday that Great Britain has extended her embargo against importations into the United Kingdom to include cotton knit goods, M. Skinner's cablegram said, in part:

"Proclamation of October 3, provides that from and after that date the importation into the United Kingdom of the following goods is prohibited: Aluminum powder, birds (live, other than poultry and game), bone, horn, ivory and celluloid and manufactures of cotton hosiery."

Officials of the department said the term cotton hosiery used in the English sense includes not only hosiery, as known in this country, but other knit cotton goods. Mr. Skinner said the prohibition was ordered because of "an active campaign of a protective nature." He added that the embargo against oranges had been lifted.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theford's Black-Draught is pure, vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Percy Evans, prominent sportsman of Warrenton, is recovering slowly from injuries received on Saturday when his horse stumbled and threw him in a steeplechase at Belmont park New York, terminal. He is still a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica where he was taken after the accident. Physicians at the hospital have satisfied themselves that no bones were broken by the fall.

The total taxable values for municipal purposes in Lynchburg for 1916, aggregate $35,743,703, an increase of $3,337,299 over the 1915 assessment. Added to that the income assessment, the State taxable values in Lynchburg for the year will total $37,632,755. The income includes 570 corporations and individuals. The total tax for the year for city purposes will be $447,720.90, an increase of $28,802.03 over 1915. The State taxes will total $114,059, a gain of $27,948 over 1915.

Announcement has been made at the Treasury Department that the contract for the erection of the post-office building at Warrenton, has been let to R. V. Richardson, Hampton, Va. The amount of the contract was $43,270.

The Federal Reserve Board has approved a rate of 3 1/2 per cent. on promissory notes of member banks running one to 15 days for the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

President Wilson discussed the European war, peace and American business in three speeches in Omaha yesterday. He declared America is ready to fight as any nation in the world, but that its cause must be just. After the war, he said, this nation must join a league of nations to preserve the peace of the world.

KAISER WANTS PEACE

New York, Oct. 6.—The president of one of the largest institutions in the financial district said yesterday that Germany had asked Ambassador Gerard to present a letter to President Wilson asking his good offices in bringing about peace.

He further stated that the Ambassador is now the bearer of this letter and would present it to the President immediately upon his arrival here. Mr. Gerard is a passenger on the Frederick VIII, which is due Tuesday.

Questioned as to the source of his information, the financier said:

"I would not make this statement if I were not absolutely sure of my facts. The news has come to me from the most authoritative sources imaginable. I know that Germany has requested the President to act. I know that the Ambassador is bearing Germany's overtures. That is all I can say for the present."

The standing of the financier is so unimpeachable and his sources of news so authoritative that Wall Street credited the statement without question. Immediately there was a sharp break in the so-called war stocks.

The statement caused a tremendous stir. It engaged the attention, not alone of the financial district, but of big business men in all parts of the city.

Within an hour after the statement was issued official Washington took heed of it. Denials were to be expected in the absence of any official communication that could be made public. These denials were instantly forthcoming.

But in spite of Washington's attitude the statement became more generally credited.

BROKER HELD FOR MURDER

Mountain View, N. H., Oct. 7.—Frederick L. Small, formerly a Boston stock broker, was held for the grand jury on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his wife, Mrs. Florence A. Small, after a hearing in the District Court yesterday.

William S. Matthews, Small's counsel, argued at length that the prisoner should be held for a grand jury inquiry, as the fact that Small would receive $20,000 insurance money through his wife's death was "only reasonable protection."

Attorney-General Tuttle, asserting that there was a motive for the crime in the $20,000 life insurance policy and a $3,000 policy on the house, said every one was satisfied that whoever committed the murder started the fire to destroy its traces.

DEATH NOTICE

Pepburn, On Friday, October 6, 1916, at 8 p. m., George E. Hepburn, beloved husband of Nellie Hepburn. Funeral from his late residence 403 south Fairfax street, Monday, Oct. 9, 1916, at 4 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Lodging in the throat of Mrs. Theresa Walther, of Willow Grove, near Philadelphia, several days ago, a small piece of tin caused her death Thursday. Mrs. Walther was eating salmon in her home on September 26 when she felt something in her throat. She tried to dislodge the tin with home remedies for the first two days. It annoyed, but did not hurt her. Her throat began to swell later, however, and she was taken to the St. Luke's Hospital, where physicians located the tin by means of an X-ray, but were unable to get it out.

The agitation in Germany for a renewal of drastic submarine warfare is daily growing stronger. The papers are demanding that Germany ignore the United States, calling that country "an enemy of Germany."

The body of Rev. Stephen MacGill, curate of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, of North Easton, Mass., was found yesterday in what is known as Hoe Shop Pond, which is used as a swimming pool by men and boys. His clothing was found on the bank. There were no marks of violence on the body. It is believed that Father MacGill went in for a swim and was seized with cramps when in the water.

Passengers and the crew of a Woodward avenue car in Atlanta, Ga., had a miraculous escape early yesterday when the car was wrecked by dynamite, believed to have been placed on the tracks by sympathizers of striking carmen. The windows of the cars were shattered and the heavy rails broken in several places, but no one was injured.

The Dominican army has revolted. Only the presence of the American marines and bluejackets has prevented another revolution. The situation now is in the hands of the American officers of the United States marine corps and peace is reestablished. One-time partisans of Gen. Desiderio Arias, who rose against President Juan Osidoro Jimenez and overthrew the Jimenez government, turned against him at Santiago, and for a few hours the situation there was critical.

Ispahan, one of the important cities of central Persia, has been liberated from Russian rule through an uprising of tribesmen in a holy war, says an official statement, issued in Constantinople, October 4, dealing with the situation in Persia. A Russian army, which attacked the Turks at Kinshar, northwest of Hamadan, is added, was routed by the Turks.

Kidnapped Wednesday night by a band of Greeks and held for $15,000 ransom, Robert Perry, 35 years old, manager of the Moffet coal mines at Oak Creek, Col., early yesterday, shot one of his captors, wounding him seriously, and escaped.

The Braddock Pa. police yesterday arrested James Floto who had thrown a skillet full of red-hot pennies to a crowd of children and then hued uproariously as the youngsters tried to pick up the coppers. The children had gathered around the home of a newly-married couple when Floto who lives nearby appeared bearing a skillet filled with several hundred red hot pennies. Floto tossed the coppers in the air and the children began a wild scramble for them. Soon the voices of the little ones turned to screams of agony. Floto was roughly handled by spectators.

A Federal jury yesterday in Trenton, N. J., awarded $20,000 damages to Mrs. Daisy James, of Newark, a former dancer at the Winter Garden, New York, against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, for the loss of both her feet. She was run down by a train of the company in June, 1915. She sued for $100,000.

Wireless communication between the United States and Japan was established at San Francisco. The Marconi operator picked up a strange call, followed by the salutation, "Hello, U. S. A.," from the Japanese station near Tokyo. He answered with a 600-meter "wave-length" apparatus. It is understood that a regular commercial service will be established within a fortnight. This feat of wireless breaks the long-distance record, 5,800 miles intervening between the two points.

Spurred on by the exhortations of "Mother" Jones, labor agitator, 300 wives and women relatives of striking street car men battled with the police in New York late yesterday afternoon in the most serious riot since the walk-out on the traction lines began a month ago. Night sticks were swung right and left by the police, and many of the women were bruised. Scores of the rioters carried babies in their arms.

Property left by James J. Hill, railroad builder, subject to probate in Minnesota courts, is valued at more than $52,000,000 by his son, Louis W. Hill, in an inventory furnished appraisers of the estate. The inventory does not include several parcels of real estate in the Northwest or Mr. Hill's properties in other States.

Cured Her Children of Colds.

"During the past winter I had occasion to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my two children, who were at the time suffering from severe colds. It proved to be the very medicine they needed," writes Mrs. Myron J. Pickard, Memphis, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.
