SPENDS DAY IN BED
London, Sept. 11.—The wild, almost riotous welcome that swept Charlie Chaplin through the streets of London yesterday on his first return home since he left here a poor, knock-about comedian a decade ago, left him limp, listless and wanting sleep. Today he spent in bed.

A valet drew the blinds to just the proper depth to exclude the sun from Charlie's slumbers and then tip-toed out of the chamber. From the streets outside the Ritz there arose to mingle with the purring of hundreds of voices in conversational tone. The people were considerate of Charlie.

It is understood that hereafter when he ventures from the hotel Chaplin will be accompanied by a stalwart bodyguard to "protect" him from the thousands of people who would mob him in their eagerness to shake his hand.

THE PERFECT WOMAN

(For the Gazette.)

For a perfect woman the correct weight for 5 feet 8 inches height is 141 pounds; for a man, 146 pounds.

The perfect woman's foot should equal in length one-seventh of her height.

What is called a perfect "36" has a bust measure of 36 1-2 to 38 inches; but 37 is the ideal. Seventy-five per cent of the women are below the 36 inch standard.

In the hand of the perfect woman the third finger is longer than the first, or index finger, while in a man the perfect proportions are a longer first finger than the third.

Physical culture lectures say the perfect woman should be able to touch the floor with her hands without bursting a seam in her clothes.

In the foot of the perfect woman the line along the inside of the foot from the great toe to the heel is perfectly straight. The toes are very flexible. The foot has neither high arch nor narrow ball. It is free from callous and its twenty-six bones are in normal position.

The measurements as descriptive of the perfect woman, as approved by a New York sculptor, follow: Height 5 feet 7 inches; weight, 140 pounds; wrist, 6 1-2 inches; bust, 36 inches; waist, 24 1-2 inches; hips, 42 inches; thigh, 22 inches; knee 17 inches; calf, 15 inches; ankle 8 inches; size of glove, 6 1-4; size of shoe, 3 1-2; color of hair, chestnut brown; color of eyes, hazel.

MEN'S AUTUMN HATS
ARE NOW READY

In just one week from now the man wearing anything but a fall hat will be subjecting his knowledge of correct dress to very grave questioning. Custom has decreed that the Straw Hat be discarded on September 15.

We are ready now to offer men correct new styles in Autumn Headwear of the better kinds. And we are ready with a variety of styles and a largeness of selection that far outstrips any previous season.

Hats made for three distinct types of men, and each type with many different variations

Hats made especially for big men, for medium size men and for small men, and sufficient variety in each of these types to please every man.

The new shapes give preference to the narrow curl brim and medium crown, but there are others with rather straight brims. Some with bow in back, others at side; the wide pure silk grosgrain ribbon band is featured on nearly all our soft hats.

A particularly large showing at . . $3.50 and $4.00
