

We have been requested to state that Mr. JACOB HARTZEL, a member of the Grand Jury from Millville, was led into a support of the bill to erect fire-proof buildings at Danville, by misrepresentations; and that we may expect from him, and one or two others, a similar communication to that of Mr. SAMUEL KESSLER. The $2000, which are borrowed from the Bank of Northumberland, and for which the people are taxed to pay interest, is a humbug scheme, now completely exploded, and which will only arouse a large majority of the citizens of the county to a knowledge of the devices which are used by the "conservative" party to thwart their wishes, and operate against their interests.

We have not yet fixed upon a regular day of publication. Our next number, however, will be issued on Saturday, when we shall make such arrangements as will best correspond with the different mail and stage routes, and thus afford the greatest facilities for giving an early circulation to our paper. We shall spare no reasonable exertions to please our patrons; and should our list warrant the undertaking, we shall procure a Carrier to deliver the "Democrat" to all our County subscribers on the day of its publication.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.—The democratic members of the legislature held a meeting in the state capital at Harrisburg on the 30th of March. ISAAC LEET, Esq. presided, assisted by PETER NEWBARD, WILLIAM F. COPLAN, and HAMILTON ALDRICK, Esqrs. as Vice Presidents, and Messrs. W. T. ROGERS, William English, and William Garrettson, as secretaries. A committee was appointed to draft a preamble and resolutions, who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted, and signed by all the democratic members:

The democratic members of the legislature, in the capacity of citizens, and members of the party, being deeply impressed with the propriety and expediency of adopting measures to secure a co-operation and concert of action of the whole party, in relation to the approaching gubernatorial election, would, without adverting to the causes of the late unfortunate divisions, which resulted in placing a minority governor in the chair of state, deem it sufficient that the fact is known, to induce every member of the great democratic party to exert his influence to prevent a similar result. Therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the democratic citizens of the several counties of this commonwealth, to make choice of, and elect, according to the established rules and customs, a number of delegates equal to the number of the members of the senate and house of representatives, to which said county or counties may be entitled; and said delegates to meet in convention at Harrisburg, on the 4th day of March, 1838, to nominate a suitable candidate to be supported by the democratic party for the office of governor.

THE CROPS.—Our grain fields, owing to a cold and backward spring, have a very solid complexion; and unless warm rains and sunshine give a helping hand to vegetation, we cannot, from present appearances, anticipate much of a harvest for our farmers.

On Sunday last we had a severe snow storm, which continued from early in the morning until night. Some of our folks are almost despairing for warm weather.

The very large sum appropriated by the Legislature of Virginia, at its last session, in aid of works of the internal improvement, furnishes conclusive evidence that the "Old Dominion" is wide awake on the subject. We learn from the Richmond Whig that the total amount of appropriations in favour of various works is no less than four and a half millions of dollars! In the list given in the Whig we notice the following:

Richmond and Petersburg Rail Road Co.	$200,000
Lexington Rail Road Co.	120,000
Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road Co.	50,000
North Western Turnpike.	65,000
Jamestown, Danville and Junction Rail Road.	320,000
Disput Swamp Canal.	125,000
Falmouth and Alexandria Rail Road.	400,000
Lynchburg and Tennessee Rail Road.	200,000
City point Rail Road.	60,000
New Shenandoah Company.	45,000
Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road.	302,100
James River and Kanawha Co.	1,990,800

Resides smaller sums for various turnpike roads.—Balt. American.

The Intelligencer and Antimasonic State Democrat, have been consolidated, and is now issued under the title of the Pennsylvania Intelligencer and State Democrat, and conducted by Samuel H. Clark. The word "antimasonic," has been ceased off, to render the title a little more palatable to the Whigs, they having now, no paper, published with their avowed principles, at the seat of government.—Pa. Reporter.

An Irish Bank failed.—The Dublin Agricultural Bank stopped payment on the 15th, which created a great sensation. Many opulent individuals had sent in large sums to sustain it, and among others Gresham sent in £25,000. The secretary states the liabilities of the bank at £240,000, to meet which there were assets of £680,000.—Bicknell's Reporter.

PHILADELPHIA, HARRISBURG AND SUSQUEHANNAH

Transportation Line.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs the public in general, that he has taken that large and commodious warehouse, formerly kept by Henry Walters, Esq. and recently by Mr. Burk, where he is ready to receive and forward produce of all descriptions from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, as he is prepared at the opening of the navigation to run a line of Union canal decked boats of the first class, to run from each place and deliver goods in three and a half days from the time of departure. Goods will be received at the warehouse of Jabez Haraden, recently Donsall & Rowoud, Vine street wharf, Schuylkill, Philadelphia.

N. B. Goods will also be received at the above places and forwarded by the same line in connection with the Susquehanna canal packet and freight boat company to Northumberland, Wilkesport, Danville and Wilkes-Barre, and all other intermediate places along the Susquehanna. By this line merchants may be assured of having their goods forwarded immediately instead of having them lying in the warehouse waiting for transient boats, as has been the case formerly. The subscriber will endeavor, by strict attention to merit a share of the patronage, which is most respectfully solicited.

TO PRINTERS.

E. WHITE & W. HAGER, respectfully inform the Printers of the U. S., to whom they have been individually known as established Letter Founders, that they have now formed a copartnership in said business, and from their united skill and extensive experience, they hope to be able to give satisfaction to all who may favor them with their orders.

The introduction of machinery in place of the tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand, a desideratum by the European founders, was by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine to cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority in every particular over those cast by the old process.

The Letter Foundry will hereafter be carried on, by the parties before named, under the firm of White Hager, & Co. Their specimen exhibits a complete series, from Diamond to Sixty-four lines Pica—the book and news type being in the most modern light and style.

White, Hager & Co. are agents for the sale of the Smith and Rust Printing Presses, which they can furnish their customers at manufacturers' prices. Chases, cases, composing sticks, ink, and every article in the printing business, kept for sale and furnished on short notice—Old type taken in exchange for new at 9 cents per pound.

N. B. Newspaper proprietors, who will give the above three insertions, will be entitled to five dollars in such articles as they may select from our specimens.

POTTSVILLE NATIONAL HOTEL,

General Stage Office.

Joseph Weaver, (Late of the Orwigsburg Hotel.)

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has taken the above named stand, lately occupied by J. Haugawout, situated in the borough of Pottsville, Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania. The building is very large, of brick, three stories, and situate in the centre of the town, on Main street, and ostensively built for the convenient and genteel accommodation of the public.

His bar will always be stored with the choicest wines, and purest liquors, and his tables with the best viands the country can afford; with obliging waiters to man his parlors, double and single lodging and dining rooms, and first rate cooks in the kitchen department, and with his own humble determined exertions to please, he feels confident to give general satisfaction to those who will favor him with their patronage. Large stabling and attentive ostlers, under the control of the proprietor, are attached to the establishment.

PROSPECTUS OF THE U. STATES MAGAZINE AND Democratic Review.

ON the first of July, 1837, will be published at Washington, District of Columbia, and delivered simultaneously in the principal cities of the United States, a new Monthly Magazine, under the above title, devoted to the principles of the Democratic party.

It has been apparent to many of the reflecting members of the Democratic party of the United States, that a periodical for the advocacy and diffusion of their political principles, similar to those in such active and influential operation in England, is a desideratum, which it was very important to supply—a periodical which should unite with the attractions of a sound and vigorous literature, a political character capable of giving efficient support to the doctrines and measures of that party, now maintained by a large majority of the people. Discussing the great questions of policy before the country, expending and advocating the Democratic doctrine through the most able pens that that party can furnish, in articles of greater length, more condensed force, more elaborate research, and more elevated tone than is possible for the news-paper press, a Magazine of this character becomes an instrument of inappreciable value for the enlightenment and formation of public opinion, and for the support of the principles which it advocates. By these means, by thus explaining and defending the measures of the great Democratic party, and by always furnishing to the public a clear and powerful commentary upon those complex questions of policy and party which so frequently distract the country, and upon which, imperfectly understood as they often are by friends, and misrepresented and distorted as they never fail to be by political opponents, it is of the utmost importance that the public should be fully and rightfully informed, it is hoped the periodical in question may be made to exert a beneficial, rational, and lasting influence on the public mind.

Other considerations, which cannot be too highly appreciated, will render the establishment and success of the proposed Magazine of very great importance.

In the mighty struggle of antagonist principles which is now going on in society the Democratic Party of the United States stands committed to the World as the depository and exemplar of those cardinal doctrines of political faith with which the People in every age and country is identified. Chiefly from the want of a convenient means of concentrating the intellectual energies of its disciples, this party has hitherto been almost wholly unrepresented in the republic of letters, while the views and policy of its opposing creeds are daily advocated, by the ablest and most commanding efforts of genius and learning.

In the United States Magazine the attempt will be made to remove this reproach.

The present is the time peculiarly appropriate for the commencement of such an undertaking. The Democratic body of the Union, after a conflict which tested to the uttermost its stability and its principles, have succeeded in retaining possession of the executive administration of the country. In the consequent comparative repose from political strife, the period is auspicious for organizing and calling to its aid a new and powerfully able of this character, interfering with none co-operating with all.

Consequently, the United States Magazine is to be the result of a Party point of view, honorable to the country, and fit to cope in rigor of rivalry with the European competitors. Viewing the English language as the noble heritage and common birthright of all who speak the tongue of Milton and Shakespear, it will be the uniform object of its conductors to present only the finest productions in the various branches of literature, that can be procured; and to diffuse the benefit of correct models of taste and worthy execution.

In this department exclusiveness of party, which is inseparable from the political department of such a work, will have no place. Here we all stand on a neutral ground of equality and reciprocity, where those universal principles of taste to which we are all alike subject will alone be recognised as the common law. Our political principles cannot be compromised, but our common literature, it will be our pride to cherish and extend, with a liberality of feeling an bias assayed by partial or minor views.

As the United States Magazine is founded on the broadest basis which the means and influence of the Democratic party in the United States can present, it is intended to render it in every respect a thoroughly National Work, not merely designed for ephemeral interest and attraction, but to continue of permanent historical value. With this view a considerable portion of each number will be appropriated to the following subjects, in addition to the general features referred to above.

A general summary of Political and of Domestic Intelligence, digested in the order of the States, comprising all the authentic important facts of the preceding month.

General Literary Intelligence, Domestic and Foreign.

General Scientific Intelligence, including Agricultural Improvements, a notice of all new Patents, &c.

A condensed account of all new works of Internal Improvement throughout the Union, preceded by a general view of all now in operation or in progress.

Military and Naval News, Promotions, Changes, Movements, &c.

Foreign Intelligence.

Biographical notices of distinguished persons.

After the close of each session of Congress, an extra or enlarged number will be published, containing a general review and history of its proceedings, a condensed abstract of important official documents, and the Acts of the session.

Advantage will also be taken of the means concentrated in this establishment from all quarters of the Union, to collect and digest such extensive statistical observations on all the most important interests of the country as cannot fail to prove of very great value.

This portion of the work will be separately pagged so as to admit of binding by itself, and will be furnished with a copious index, so that the United States Magazine will also constitute a Complete Annual Register, on a scale unattained before, and of very great importance to all classes, not only as affording a current and combined view, from month to month, of the subjects which it will comprise, but also for record and reference through future years; the value of which will increase through the duration of the work.

In return for a remittance of $50, eleven copies will be sent for $100, twenty-three copies. The certificate of a possessor of the remittance of a sum of money will be a sufficient receipt, all dangers of the mail being at the risk of the subscribers.

All communications will be addressed post paid, to the undersigned, the Publishers.
