The COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT will be published on SUNDAY, the 7th of JULY next, with TWO DOLLARS for a year, payable in advance. The price of the Fifty Cents, if paid within the year. No back numbers will be sold, and the subscribers will receive that number period once a month and any discounts allowed will be charged.

ADVERTISEMENTS not occupying a column, and not numerously inserted, One Dollar for the first three insertions, and Fifty Cents for every subsequent insertion. 5½-§ Advertised names must be those to whom the advertisement by the subscriber.

OFFICE OF THE DEMOCRAT. New York, July 4, 1836.

The M. E. CHURCH of this city, by virtue of a resolution passed at the last Annual Meeting, has been extended to the 11th street, A. M. Brown, on motion of Mr. Bray, was appointed a District Commissioner.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of Mr. Hamilton of Dupont, R. O. CHILDRESS, of the Genesee, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

The following letter was received at the Board's office, at noon, Friday, July 1, 1836.

To the President of the Democratic Young Men's Convention.

Sir - We, the undersigned committee of enumeration, respectively in the several counties of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby acquaint you with the fact that the convocation of the Young Men's Convention at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, was called to order, and that the business was transacted as follows:

The Vice-President declared the meeting open, and appointed a committee of three to invite the presence of the members of the convention, and that the convention adjourn.

The committee then reported as follows:

The convention was adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and the convention reconvened at 6 o'clock.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

The following letter was received at the Board's office, at noon, Friday, July 1, 1836.

To the President of the Democratic Young Men's Convention.

Sir - We, the undersigned committee of enumeration, respectively in the several counties of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby acquaint you with the fact that the convocation of the Young Men's Convention at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, was called to order, and that the business was transacted as follows:

The Vice-President declared the meeting open, and appointed a committee of three to invite the presence of the members of the convention, and that the convention adjourn.

The committee then reported as follows:

The convention was adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and the convention reconvened at 6 o'clock.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

The following letter was received at the Board's office, at noon, Friday, July 1, 1836.

To the President of the Democratic Young Men's Convention.

Sir - We, the undersigned committee of enumeration, respectively in the several counties of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby acquaint you with the fact that the convocation of the Young Men's Convention at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, was called to order, and that the business was transacted as follows:

The Vice-President declared the meeting open, and appointed a committee of three to invite the presence of the members of the convention, and that the convention adjourn.

The committee then reported as follows:

The convention was adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and the convention reconvened at 6 o'clock.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

The following letter was received at the Board's office, at noon, Friday, July 1, 1836.

To the President of the Democratic Young Men's Convention.

Sir - We, the undersigned committee of enumeration, respectively in the several counties of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby acquaint you with the fact that the convocation of the Young Men's Convention at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, was called to order, and that the business was transacted as follows:

The Vice-President declared the meeting open, and appointed a committee of three to invite the presence of the members of the convention, and that the convention adjourn.

The committee then reported as follows:

The convention was adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and the convention reconvened at 6 o'clock.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.

The following letter was received at the Board's office, at noon, Friday, July 1, 1836.

To the President of the Democratic Young Men's Convention.

Sir - We, the undersigned committee of enumeration, respectively in the several counties of the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby acquaint you with the fact that the convocation of the Young Men's Convention at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, was called to order, and that the business was transacted as follows:

The Vice-President declared the meeting open, and appointed a committee of three to invite the presence of the members of the convention, and that the convention adjourn.

The committee then reported as follows:

The convention was adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and the convention reconvened at 6 o'clock.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Brown of Shadyside, C. R. MILLER, of the Exeter, was appointed a delegate to the Convention at 6 o'clock, P. M.