

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. WOODWARD, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, WALTER H. LOWRIE, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

CLING TO THE CONSTITUTION, AS THE BURNED AND BURNING CLINGS TO THE LAST PLANK WHEN NIGHT AND THE TEMPEST COME AROUND HIM.

PURPOSES OF THE WAR!

CONGRESS, BY A VOTE NEARLY UNANIMOUS, PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION, WHICH EXPRESSES THE VOICE OF THE NATION AND IS THE TRUE STANDARD OF LOYALTY.

A young man named Charles Coleman, in carelessly handling a revolver, one day last week, in Jackson township, received its contents through the palm of his right hand, and lodged them in the arm of Mr. Richie.

Well Dr. who is the agent at the Lackawanna Station, any how? You have been blowing hot and cold and making a fool of yourself generally for a couple of weeks and all the town is laughing at you.

We are under many obligations to the Misses AMELIA and MAGGIE BOMBAY, daughters of Mr. Benj. Bombay, of Hemlock township, for the presentation of a bouquet of beautiful large black cherries.

SENTENCED.—The three persons who were tried at the recent term of Court in Carbon county, and convicted of riot in assaulting Mr. Leonard, the District Attorney, by tearing a copperhead badge from his watch guard, were each sentenced by Judge Barrett to pay a fine of twenty dollars and the costs.

LACKAWANNA COUNTY.—An Election will be held on Tuesday next, the 21st instant, throughout the county of Luzerne pursuant to the Legislative enactment, for the purpose of deciding by ballot, the question of erecting the proposed county of Lackawanna out of part of old Luzerne.

PATRIOTIC.—THOS. CHALFANT, Esq., the Editor of the Danville Intelligencer, has enlisted and is off to the war. This is the man the Tories call a "Copperhead."

Dr. J. D. MENDENHALL, the indefatigable Editor of the Daylestown Democrat, paid us a social visit on last Tuesday.—He is a fearless Editor, a sterling Democrat, and very intelligent gentleman.

The Smut Machine is very fond of alluding to Democrats as being of a "copperish tinge." We do not understand the sense of the allusion, unless it be the desire of its abolition disunion editor to bring the Democracy, who are white men and for the rights of white men, as nearly as possible up to the hue of its own black skinned party.

We observe by the late speech of Wendell Phillips, who is the cat-nep Dr.'s leader, that the Abolitionists are going, "to the fullest extent," into the manufacture of persons of a "copperish tinge."—Hurra for the woolly copperheads.

There has been no trouble with the enrollment except in those townships where the party of which COLS. TATE and FREEZE are the leaders. These men are responsible for it. If they would teach their followers loyalty and obedience to the law there would be no trouble.

Dr. John, in the foregoing brief extract, is as usual, belying the record. The first named individual, about one month ago, addressed a large Democratic Meeting in Centre in which he urged upon the people the imperative duty of all, and especially Democrats, to observe and obey all constitutional laws. This will be readily attested by every man—including the republicans—who were present. Such he has always done. The second gentleman named, on Saturday last in Jackson did the same. Nay, more. He demonstrated the plain duty of good citizens, to obey the laws and not even attempt to resist the enrollment. These are truths. The Dr. added the lie.

Rev. J. R. Dimm's Lecture.

This gentleman delivered a lecture, on Friday evening of last week, before the Bloomsburg Loyal Leaguers. Hearing that Mr. Dimm was expected to address that Order, we followed him into the Court House. It was the first and the last time, we ever knowingly attended a meeting composed of disloyal citizens or encouraged secret associations.

We understood the speaker to say, most distinctly, that Abraham Lincoln had been elected by a majority of the voters of the United States. The election returns show that he lacked about 995,000 of a majority, and with the (subsequent) vote of South Carolina cast against him, he is a minority President by more than a million votes. This is the truth of history.

We pass for the present, his unconditional approval of the acts of Mr. Lincoln, his suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, the Confiscation Act, and his Emancipation Proclamation. Also the suppression of newspapers and certain citizens.—These, we believe, are matters of taste.—His efforts, however, strike us as lame and imbecile. He sorely deprecated the existence of slavery—denounced it as a sin (which is not found in his Bible) and favored the irrepressible conflict, by urging the impossibility of our country's existence part slave and part free. This is in violation of the provisions of our glorious Constitution, and against the peace and order of society, and he who disregards the sacredness of the Constitution is a disloyal man and a full-blooded Abolitionist.

He expressed a commendable degree of holy horror, at the imaginary existence of secret political associations and strongly intimated they were composed of those not of the society he was addressing. This was disingenuous. We believe that Mr. Dimm was then speaking of the only "Secret political organization" now existing in the County of Columbia.

Many other points, assumed by the speaker, we regard as untenable and erroneous. That he made a grand mistake in throwing his influence into the scale of political abolitionism, is our decided opinion, and that opinion is supported by many worthy citizens. We await the inexorable logic of events.

Mr. Dimm, who has heretofore stood high in the estimation of this community on that occasion, disappointed the reasonable expectation of every constitutional citizen who heard him, and we fear has done much to distract the Church of which he is the Pastor. Other churches have been disrupted and the usefulness of their Pastors almost entirely destroyed, by the fanatical zeal of men, afflicted by the mania of "Nigger on the brain," who deem it their first duty to preach abolitionism instead of the more wholesome precepts of the Gospel. But we read, that the time will come, when "the Shepherd shall be smitten and the flock scattered."

Democratic Sentiment.

At a barnraising in Greenwood township, on the 20th of June, the news of the nomination of Hon. George W. Woodward, for Governor, was received. It was agreed to take a vote on the question. The following was the result:— For Woodward, 43 Not voting, 6 Another gentleman informs us that at a raising recently in the same township, 50 men were engaged in carrying a log, when he carefully classified their politics, as follows:— Democrats 27 Opposition 8 Good for Democratic Greenwood.

A most terrible and destructive riot has been going on in the City of New York, during the last few days, and was still progressing at the last accounts. The Draft was the ostensible cause, but that seems to have been lost sight of by the mob. Hundreds of lives have been lost and thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed. We cannot even pretend to give an abstract of the facts. Gov. Seymour has done all in his power to quell the rioters, and before now by the aid of troops, he has doubtless succeeded. We shall try and give an account of it next week. The Draft has been postponed for the present; and the law has been declared, by Judge McCuan, to be unconstitutional.

It does not matter what was the cause of riot, nor whether the Conscription law is constitutional or not, there is not and cannot be any excuse, palliation or defense for a riot. It is to be condemned by all good citizens, and no man not lost to all sense of what is due to law and order, will defend or even excuse them.

Jackson Democratic Meeting.

A Mass Meeting of Democratic citizens, of Jackson and adjacent townships, Columbia county, convened in the Grove, near the residence of Iram Derr, Esq., in Jackson township, on last Saturday. Wm. E. Robert, Esq., in the Chair. The meeting was largely attended and comprised over one hundred Ladies.

Col. John G. Freeze, Col. Levi L. Tate, Daniel McHenry, Esq., Lieut. Alem B. Tate, and the venerable John McHenry, Sr., respectively, addressed the meeting. The proceedings were enlivened by martial music and patriotic songs.

After the adoption of the following resolution, the meeting adjourned, amid enthusiastic applause and vociferous cheers for the "Union and the Constitution, the right of White American citizens, and the election of WOODWARD and VALLANDIGHAM."

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the resolutions, in all their parts and principles, adopted by the late Democratic State Convention, and will use our best efforts to carry them out at the ballot-box, for the cure of existing evils and the political redemption of Pennsylvania.

Among the seven things spoken of by the authors of the book of Proverbs, which are "an abomination unto the Lord," is "He that soweth discord among brethren."

And undoubtedly the greatest abomination among these is the political preacher who deliberately arrays himself openly and publicly against one part of his Charge by taking the stump in favor of the political principles of the other. He willfully "soweth discord among brethren," not only according to the flesh, but between the members of the body of Christ; roasting in that body of brethren which should be the very pattern and perfection of harmony, a discord which has divided churches and destroyed their usefulness; and made the preacher a tool in the hands of a few designing politicians, until like Judas, his great exemplar, he too, for a few pieces of silver, betrays the cause of Christ.

Truly, most truly, is he "an abomination unto the Lord."

Since the invasion of Pennsylvania by the rebel forces, the Jacobin journals including the "Smut Machine," have been engaged in circulating all kinds of absurd and ridiculous stories for the purpose of injuring the Democratic party. As they expect to operate upon the credulity of the masses, insulting by their conduct, the intelligence of the people they hope to deceive, they do not hesitate to manufacture and give publicity to rumors which they know have not the slightest foundation in truth. It is almost useless to attempt a denial of these slanders; because no sooner is one of them named, like base coin to the counter, before another is fabricated and given to the public. One of the current reports stated for political effect by the unscrupulous Jacobins, was as imaginary conversation between the rebel General and the District Attorney of Franklin county. This story is disproved by the latter gentleman in a letter which we lay before our readers with great pleasure.

CHAMBERSBURG, June 22, 1863. Editors of The Age: I notice in several papers what purports to be a conversation between Gen. Jenkins and the District Attorney of Franklin county, during the recent occupation of this place by the rebel forces. It is alleged, that, among other things, the general said: "You are a regular Copperhead—Lincoln ought to have hung you and the rest of the Copperheads long ago. We would not tolerate any such men in the Southern Confederacy. We respect those who are against us in the North much more than the Copperheads."

I am the District Attorney of Franklin county. I have never spoken to General Jenkins, nor has he to me. To the best of my knowledge I have never seen him. All the slanders hurled at the Democratic party cannot prevent its success in Franklin county, nor in the State, in October. Yours, very truly, WM. S. STENGER.

SCARED.—It is positively asserted, when the report came that the rebels were marching on Harrisburg, that Wm. Forney, the editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, skeddaddled to Philadelphia, and that Berger, the Hessian proprietor, packed up his type, and left the town.—He issued no paper for two days. These are the fighting chaps that write the blood-and-thunder articles for the Telegraph; but when the danger really comes they pack up and leave, and then have the impudence to ask the country people to come to Harrisburg and defend their property.

Major Knorr.—Capt. SAMUEL KNORR, son of our fellow-citizen Henry D. Knorr, of Centre—has been promoted to the Majorship of the 35th Reg't. of the P. V. M. This is a judicious arrangement. We have no doubt, that Major Knorr, will make an excellent military officer.

Diarrhoea & Dysentery will decimate the Volunteers far more than the bullets of the enemy, therefore let every man see to it that he carries with him a full supply Holloway's Pills. Their use in India and the Crimea saved thousand of British Soldiers. Only 25 cents per box.

Capt. WM. SILVER, the Deputy Provost Marshal, has opened an office in the room immediately over the Drug Store of E. P. LUTZ, on Main street Bloomsburg.

We are very glad to observe that everywhere in Columbia county, the Democrats are forming Clubs under the Constitution submitted by the Standing Committee; taking their stand openly and boldly on the rights guaranteed by the Constitution, and in the face of clear day declaring their principles. Thus they challenge criticism and deserve and secure the public confidence.

In this they differ widely from their opponents the "Royal Leaguers," who have regular secret meetings; and are bound by oaths to do some things, which we presume they dare not openly declare. They do not come out upon the platform of the "Constitution as it is, and the Union as it was," but have secret and ulterior objects whose purposes conflict with the program above.

Upon the subject of such organizations as they have, Gen. Wilcox, commanding in the Department of the Ohio, says:—

GENERAL ORDERS No. 5.

Headquarters Div. of Indiana and Michigan.—Department of the Ohio, INDIANAPOLIS, June 30, 1863.

The peace of India has lately been disturbed by violence, murder, and other acts contrary to law, and having their origin in certain secret political societies, clubs or leagues. The common safety now demands that all such associations should be discontinued, no matter to what political party they may belong. They are a constant source of dread and mistrust; they divide and provoke hostility between neighbors, weaken the dignity and power of courts of justice, expose the country to martial law, and discourage the people from enlisting in defence of the nation.

No matter how earnest or worthy may have been the reason for such societies in the beginning, their very secrecy and the oaths they impose do enable wicked men to use them to unlawful ends, and convert them into public nuisances.

All good objects can be accomplished openly, and none but the enemies of their country ever need disguises. It is perfectly plain that such secret organizations are both dangerous and beyond the ordinary grasp of the law; they are therefore declared to be hostile, and will be put down by all the military power of the District, if need be.

I invoke against the said secret societies the good influence and active aid of all men who are friendly to the Union—to discontinue and peaceably break up such organizations within the limits of the district, and I call upon the members thereof to withdraw from their meetings, and openly show that their intentions and acts are such as may well become the true and loyal citizens of a country whose freedom and integrity they will maintain against all enemies whatsoever, and before the eyes of all the world.

O. B. WILCOX, Brig. Gen. Com'd'g. Official: Rob't A. Hutchins, Capt. and A. A. G.

The Rebel Allies.

The Richmond Enquirer, gives the following opinion of the Democratic party:—"That the Democratic party was our worst enemy, and but for its poisonous embrace these States would have been free and clear of the unnatural Union twenty years ago. It is not the Seward, and Sumners, the Black Republicans and Abolitionists, who have hurt us. They were right all along; there was an irrepressible conflict between two different civilizations, two opposite social organizations; they were no more able to live peaceably together in one government than two hands can wear one glove."

Read and ponder, ye Abolition conspirators, who were "all along right" with the rebels. See where your praise comes from. Acknowledge the compliment paid by your disunion allies in the South, and let us hear no more of your hypocritical ravings about "Copperheads." The Democratic party, the rebels say, was their worst enemy. Its embrace was poisonous, because it prevented them from getting out of the Union twenty years ago. The Abolitionists and Black Republicans did not hurt them, they were right all along; for they taught the "irrepressible conflict" doctrine, in other words, the disunion doctrine. They have been playing into the hands of the rebels, and it will require the best efforts of the Democratic party which is hated alike by these co-conspirators to defeat their hellish machinations.

Do you hear this, Oh! Dr. John? THE Philadelphia "organ" of the Administration, in commenting upon the terrible riot in New York, seeks to throw the responsibility of the fearful outbreak upon the shoulders of the Democratic party in that city. This perversion of the truth was, of course, expected from that journal but what will the public say of the editor of the Press, who in an address delivered at Lancaster, uttered the following inflammatory sentiments?

"What is there in our happy country to make men afraid of the light of day, or of honest inquiry? Have we a conscript law that tears the husbandman from his plow the father from his family, the son from his widowed mother, to go forth and act as gladiators for the amusement of a few ambitious kings? Have we a gang of hired tax-gatherers to drain the substance of the people? Is our President an Attila or a Caligula? Is our Senate a Council of Ten? Is our House of Representatives a body of tyrants, armed with power to ravish and destroy? Secret usurpation against such wrongs would be justifiable and right, for we are taught the great lesson 'resistance to tyrants is obedience to God!'"—The Age.

Our farmers are gathering a magnificent crop of Wheat and Rye. It has not been surpassed for many years. May Providence favor them with continued good weather.

COMMUNICATIONS.

For the Columbia Democrat. BRUNA VISTA, July 3, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—I notice an article in a late number of the Smut Machine, published at your place, and signed "Newkomsimon." I think the Rev. gentleman has very much exposed his ignorance by reference to the people as savages. His sermon was no more palatable to an intelligent community than sour milk. He took for his text the following words: "By the grace of God I am what I am." He applied it to himself, literally giving the time and place of his extraordinary birth; his father's name, he said, was Israel, and his mother's Elizabeth; that they never told a lie to their children, no, not even a white lie. He said that he could read four languages—that he was a self-made man—that he studied for a lawyer and doctor, but was disappointed, and that he stood before them through disappointment. The people I suppose, presume that he was still disappointed. The Divine thought he was preaching, when he was only talking baby talk. If this should succeed in awakening him, he doubtless will feel disappointed again. The people had collected to hear of the dealings of a merciful God with fallen man, and to hear such baby talk was enough to disgust any congregation. As to his being an uncompromising Union man, we think the grace of God has nothing to do with that. Union implies the concurrence of the wills of two parties; so it is clear to be uncompromising is to be no union at all. Union men of this kind do not recognize Southern rights, nor never did. That is the cause of the rebellion, and now they want the South subjugated, so they can enjoy the exercise of that will in the government. Honest men say there has been enough of such villainy. No wonder that people do hiss at such statements. I think a nigger's head must have been dazzling his vision and obscured the grace of God. If the gentleman should continue in such a course until the expiration of the year, he would not have outside of the abolition party, friends enough to bury him, if he should die.

The people of this county expect to hear the gospel of peace from preachers, instead of referring to questions of discord. I happened to be at Asbury on the evening of May 30th, referred to by "Newkomsimon," at which time the Rev. Thos. M. Rees, P. E., made his great effort. It was indeed a masterly effort, and quite astounding the people. Perhaps if his loyal soul could not have given vent to its emotions, the very stones would have cried out, "nigger," "nigger." He said this was God Almighty's war; and I suppose he preferred fighting his share at Asbury. If the people of this county were not used to seeing gentlemen who wear black cloths, they might have been frightened, and when he said he could scare a field full of them, we thought he ought to be arrested for cowardly threats. I am sorry he has so far mistaken his calling as to attempt to amalgamate parties and religion. I was always taught they were two different things, but some of our preachers have but one idea, and that is abolitionism.—Such men have brought on this war, have broken the Union and trampled the Constitution under foot. Yes, reader, such men, thin-brained superstitious politicians have talked "nigger," and the abolition of slavery," until the land is red with blood.

The Rev. gentleman, was present at the harangue at Asbury, and was so elated and made so enthusiastic, that he said he felt like lying down and rolling, if he only had a place to do so. There is a certain creature that always rolls after being caught at dirty work. I have been informed that a certain Divine who graduated away up at Williamsport, preached a harangue at Asbury, on the 21st ult. His text was, "Let the oppressed go free." In his discourse he said no man could be a christian who was not an abolitionist. We read that Abraham of old had slaves, and the Bible says that they shall come from the North, South, East and West, and sit down with Abraham in the kingdom of Heaven. The love of nigger must have eclipsed his vision so much that he is not a competent judge to know what constitutes a christian. The effects of this babbling was to set the people to quarrelling, and raise Old Nick amongst members. This same gentleman, born and reared in Fishingcreek, is ashamed that he was born in Columbia county. Poor fellow! What a pity he could not have been born in Africa. Nigger furnishes his munitions of war, nigger is his whole stock in trade, and when he goes to bed he lays his head so near his woolly-headed brother, that but one set of linens is required for them both. JUSTUS.

It will be no less gratifying to the Democrats of Fishingcreek, deservng their position; to have a true statement of affairs in this section made public. We therefore ask permission for space in your valuable paper for the insertion of a few remarks.

We have been scandalously misrepresented through the Tory smut machine of your town by some evil designers, who it appears are determined on mischief of the most repulsive character; and yet who wish to have the respect and right treatment due good honest and peaceable citizens, whose position they so malignantly falsify.

Some time since the young preacher of Orangeville circuit came to Savages' school house to deliver his first address at that place. He was accompanied by two sap-headed Abolitionists from Rohrsburg, one of whom especially, is known to possess but a very ordinary intellect, who hardly knows enough to make a cigar, yet professes to be skilled in the art of hearing; but who is styled by all thoroughly graduated physicians nothing more than a quack. The preacher in the first part of his discourse gave his political opinions, claiming to belong to no party. In concluding however he not only contradicted what he had said, but threw off the garb which conceded the nigger principles he entertained, by saying that he was for supporting this Administration, making no exceptions. Said he, also, "If being in favour of supporting this Administration causes you to withhold your support from me, do so; I do not ask it of you." Thus declaring his support in favor of abolition purposes. We as a body are resolved, that there shall be no more such abominable doctrine advanced in our section. Therefore we believe it to be his best policy to either stay at home, or come on some other purpose than to inculcate abolition doctrine. And we wish it distinctly understood also, that those Abolitionists at Rohrsburg, if they know what is good for themselves will also stay away, or come on some other purpose than to aid in spreading the abolition principle. The writer of the smut machine says "there was nothing political in all the preacher said." This assertion is a positive lie, made either willfully or ignorantly, and as such can be proven by several who were present. If this is doubted, let it be tested, that it may be known who the real is. If we did not believe him to be too ignorant to comprehend the meaning of the simplest prayer, we should endeavor to pray for him, but believing that little has been given him, and therefore little will be required of him, we feel it hardly worth while interceding for him. He calls us rebels and secessionists. If being in favor of the Constitution and the right administering of it constitutes a secessionist, we are secessionists and hail the name. A DEMOCRAT.

REBEL RETALIATION.

Two Union Officers to be shot—Capt. Sawyer, of N. J. and Capt. Flinn, of Indiana, the Victims.

From the Richmond Dispatch July 7. Retaliation—Drawing Lots for Death.

At the Libby prison yesterday, by order of General Winder, the Captains among the Yankee prisoners, numbering seventy-four, drew lots for two to be shot in retaliation for the shooting of Captains Wm. F. Corbin and T. J. McGraw by General Burnside at Sandusky, Ohio, on May last.

The prisoners were assembled in a room at twelve o'clock by Captain Turner, the commandant of the prison, and after being formed in a hollow square around a table, were informed of the order of General Winder. A slip of paper, with the name of each man written on it and carefully folded up, was then deposited in a box on the table, and Captain Turner informed the men that they might select whom they pleased to draw the names out—the first two names drawn to indicate those to be shot.

Captain Sawyer, of the First New Jersey Cavalry, suggested that one of the chaplains be appointed. Three of the Chaplains were called down from an upper room, and Rev. Mr. Brown accepted the task. Amid a silence almost death-like, the drawing commenced. The first name taken out of the box was that of Captain Henry Washington Sawyer, of the First New Jersey Cavalry, and the second that of Captain John Flinn, of the Fifty-first Indiana.

When the names were read out Sawyer heard it with no apparent emotion, remarking that some one had to be drawn, and he could stand it as well as any one else.—Flinn was very white and much depressed.

The prisoners were then dismissed, and the condemned men sent to General Winder's office. On arriving there they were permitted to write letters to their friends. Sawyer wrote a letter home, and read it aloud to the detectives standing near.

Upon coming to the last part of it, saying, "Farewell, my dear wife, farewell, my children; farewell, mother," he begged those near by to excuse him, and turning aside burst into tears. Flinn said he had no letters to write, and only wanted a priest.

Great International Wheat Show.

A great international Wheat show will be held at Rochester, N. Y., September 8th, 9th, and 10th under the auspices of the Monroe County Agricultural Society. The following premiums are offered; For the Best 20 Bushels of White Winter Wheat.....$150 00 For the Best 20 Bushels Red Winter Wheat.....75 00 For the Second Best.....100 00 For the Best 2 Bushels White Winter Wheat.....50 00 For the Second Best.....25 00 For the Best 2 Bushels Red Winter Wheat.....40 00 For the Second Best.....20 00 For the Best 2 Bus. Spring Wheat 20 00 For the Second Best.....10 00

Competitors for these Prizes will be required to furnish samples of the wheat in the ear and with the straw attached, (say 50 ears of wheat and straw,) also to furnish a written statement of the nature of the soil on which the wheat grew, method of cultivation, time of sowing, quantity of seed sown, manures (if any used,) and mode and time of application; also the time of ripening and harvesting, and the yield per acre, with such other particulars as may be deemed of practical importance; also the name by which the variety is known in the locality where it was grown.

The Wheat must be one variety, pure and unmixed. The prize to be awarded to the actual grower of the wheat, and the wheat which takes a prize is to become the property of the Society. It is hoped that the farmers in all sections of the United States and Canada, who have good examples of wheat, will compete for these prizes. We have never yet had a good Wheat Show in the United States. It is highly important that the wheat growers of the country should meet together and compare samples of wheat raised in different sections. We understand that the money for these premiums has been raised by subscription, among the friends of Agriculture in New York, and the time of holding the Fair has been fixed so as to enable farmers to purchase their seed from the wheat entered for competition. A change of seed is always desirable, and it is believed that all the wheat of good quality sent to the fair will find purchasers at a high price. Full particulars can be obtained by addressing the President of the Society Joseph Harris, Editor Genesee Farmer, Rochester, N. Y.
