Bloomsburg, Thursday, Sept. 5, 1850.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, W. T. MORISON.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, EPH. BANKS.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, J. P. BRAWLEY.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, Reuben W. Weaver.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR, Solomon Neyhard.

FOR AUDITORS, John Keifer, 3 years, Gilbert C. McWaine, 1 year.

REPEAL Meeting.

The citizens of Columbia County are requested to meet in COUNTY MEETING the Court-House in Bloomsburg on Saturday the 7th day of September next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating repeal candidates for MEMBER of the LEGISLATURE and COUNTY COMMISSIONER, to be supported at the coming fall election by the people of Columbia county favorable to the repeal of the law erecting Montour County.

Wm. McKelvey, E. Lazarus, Daniel Keller, Geo. W. Lott, John F. Deer, George Hughes, HARMAN LABOUR.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

The meeting of the delegates in this place on last Monday was characterized with the utmost harmony and good feeling. A few delegates were prevented from reaching here on account of the storm and high water, but their votes would have made no material change in the result.

It will be noticed that delegates were in the convention from the lower end of the county, thus showing that the true Democracy of Columbia recognize no division of the county, and have the utmost faith in the repeal movement.

For Congressional Conferees, Messrs Derr and Funston understand the feeling of the county, and, as the Congressman is conceded to Luzerne, will concur in the nomination of any good Democrat who shall be fairly the choice of that county through its Democratic Convention.

While Columbia concedes the Congressman, she claims the Senator, and presents to the District a man unexceptionable as a Democrat, and of the most eminent ability. Mr. Buckalew was the unanimous choice of the Convention, and those who know him best feel that his thorough knowledge of public questions, and the character he has won for himself, are the best guarantee that their interests will be well sustained by him in the Senate.

At Nescopeck the storm poured down from the mountains, like a terrible avalanche. The dam above Westler's forge was partly torn away, and the flood covered every thing so soon that people were surprised by it in their houses, and drowned before they could escape. Twenty-three persons were missing. Two, (one colored the other white) have since been found in safety. Six dead bodies were taken from the scene of ruin on Tuesday morning, and it is feared that most of the yet missing 15 are drowned.

The small bridges on the south side of the river in this county are many of them torn away. A gentleman who was at Mainville, five miles from here, on Monday morning, tells us he was compelled to travel 25 miles around to get here.

The Schuylkill must have been very high, for at this writing (Wednesday noon) we have received no Philadelphia mail since last Saturday, also no Wilkesbarre mail since Saturday, and no Danville mail on yesterday.

The Montour Democrats last Monday met in county convention, and nominated Daniel Frazer of Mahoning for Sheriff and George Measur Jr. of Franklin for Treasurer. We are also informed, that they were queer enough to select Senatorial and Congressional conferees. Better wait, gentlemen, until your county once has a separate existence. The Senatorial Conferees are instructed for Valente Best! Wonder whether they will ask to go into the Whig or Democratic Conference. If their Senatorial Conferees go for Felly Best, we suppose a delegate from Montour to the State Convention would go for the Native American candidate for Governor.

POSTMASTERS CONFIRMED.—The Senate has confirmed the following appointments of Postmasters in this State—John McGraw, at Allegheny city; Benjamin F. Arndt at Easton; Andrew Mortimer, at Pottsville; Henry Rhoads, at Reading; Samuel Ware, at Kingston; Thomas H. Sill, at Erie.

THE PAMPHLET LAWS.

The pamphlet laws for 1850 have at last reached us, and we find a book of over 1100 pages, containing 478 new laws, which the people are supposed to understand without ever seeing them. Many of these laws also are compounds, or omnibus bills, each covering a dozen subjects of legislation. Thus, on page 629 we find an act which runs over 8 pages and covers thirty-seven distinct and independent subjects. It begins upon the subject of bail given by an executor, talks about colored convicts, then of the statute of limitation, next of ground rent, of married women, of law, and pedlars in Butte and Union counties, of the Schuylkill county poor-house, and so on ad nauseam. On page 623 is a law incorporating the "Cecilian musical beneficial association of Philadelphia," and on page 1057 we learn that the wheels of legislation were stopped to decree that the name of this corporation shall be Cecilia and not Cecilian. On page 1056, the legislators mark out the manner in which the people of Sullivan county shall hunt deer; and, say these Solons, if you do not shoot them just according to the act of Assembly it will be a dear business for you, and we shall fine you five dollars, for your fine sport. Oh dear! Hereafter let no nice young man go hunting the fine deers of romantic Sullivan, for he shall surely be fined if he finds them.

In these days deer are killed according to act of Assembly, music is manufactured by law, and ere long we may expect the air, water and bread of our lives to be doled out to us in scanty pittance by the expert legislators of the state.

Very few of these 478 new laws are of a general character or interest; most of them, being acts of incorporation, or supplements to such acts. The Sheriff's proclamation in which we publish to-day points out the alterations which have been made in the elections laws relating to our locality. We have been told that an act was passed changing the place of holding the election in Roaringcreek township to Karnaville, but if such an act did pass, we suppose it must be tied to some omnibus bill of a private character upon which the tax has not been paid, and which is hence not yet in force, for we do not find such a law by the hasty glance which we have given the book. An act passed for the benefit of one of the churches of this town does not appear, we suppose for the same reason.

By one of these published laws, the citizens of Catawissa township are hereafter to elect only one supervisor in stead of two as heretofore, and the repairing of roads in that township shall be given out by contract for the year. Proposals are to be received by the supervisor on the first Monday of April at the place of holding the election for the township.

By another act the President of the Bloomsburg Railroad iron Company is authorized to subscribe to the stock of the Catawissa, Williamsport and Elmira railroad Company an amount which shall not exceed one eighth of the stock of said Company.

DESTRUCTIVE FRESHET.

Scarcely have the public works of our state been repaired, when we are called upon to record another storm and freshet, and the fear that most serious damage has again been done to the line of public improvement in this region. On last Saturday a great quantity of rain fell in a series of showers, and during the whole of the following night the storm poured down in torrents and threatened to sweep off every thing. Fishingcreek was nearly as high as at the freshet of a few months ago. The river overflowed its banks and above Berwick river, canal and flats were one sea of frightful ruin. Houses, sheds, grain-stacks and boats were carried down by the boiling stream.

At Nescopeck the storm poured down from the mountains, like a terrible avalanche. The dam above Westler's forge was partly torn away, and the flood covered every thing so soon that people were surprised by it in their houses, and drowned before they could escape. Twenty-three persons were missing. Two, (one colored the other white) have since been found in safety. Six dead bodies were taken from the scene of ruin on Tuesday morning, and it is feared that most of the yet missing 15 are drowned.

The small bridges on the south side of the river in this county are many of them torn away. A gentleman who was at Mainville, five miles from here, on Monday morning, tells us he was compelled to travel 25 miles around to get here.

The Schuylkill must have been very high, for at this writing (Wednesday noon) we have received no Philadelphia mail since last Saturday, also no Wilkesbarre mail since Saturday, and no Danville mail on yesterday.

The Montour Democrats last Monday met in county convention, and nominated Daniel Frazer of Mahoning for Sheriff and George Measur Jr. of Franklin for Treasurer. We are also informed, that they were queer enough to select Senatorial and Congressional conferees. Better wait, gentlemen, until your county once has a separate existence. The Senatorial Conferees are instructed for Valente Best! Wonder whether they will ask to go into the Whig or Democratic Conference. If their Senatorial Conferees go for Felly Best, we suppose a delegate from Montour to the State Convention would go for the Native American candidate for Governor.

POSTMASTERS CONFIRMED.—The Senate has confirmed the following appointments of Postmasters in this State—John McGraw, at Allegheny city; Benjamin F. Arndt at Easton; Andrew Mortimer, at Pottsville; Henry Rhoads, at Reading; Samuel Ware, at Kingston; Thomas H. Sill, at Erie.

MICHIGAN.—At the next general election by a resolution of the Constitutional Convention of the State, the question of negro suffrage is to be decided by the people.

A Railroad for Sale.

By a resolution of the Legislature, the President of the Board of Canal Commissioners, has advertised for sale that part of the Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad, extending from the Eastern end of the Schuylkill inclined Plane, (including the Schuylkill bridge,) to the corner of Vine and Broad streets, in the city of Philadelphia. This part of the road is well useless to the State by the new one to avoid the inclined plane, and hence the sale. It cannot be sold for a less sum than two hundred thousand dollars.

The Reading Railroad Company is the same which last winter obtained a dispensation from our late Legislature, absolving it from the payment of its honest debts for twenty years. The Corporation which was granted the privilege of scouting its honest creditors, and which legally turned off its honest tollmen unpaid and in want, can now purchase magnificent Railroads and Bridges. Last winter it had not a cent to pay the sweat and toil upon which its stockholders grew sleek and fat, but now it has $200,000 to invest in a new speculation.

Shame upon the legislation which thus tampers with the cause of Justice! Shame on the law which thus holds labor by its hard-earned reward, while the unfeeling debtors revel in the riotous luxuriance of their rich spoils. When such Corporations apply to the legislature for special favors let them be told to go and pay their workmen before they indulge in purchases of $200,000 Railroads. When these fellows talk of "protection," with their oily grace, let the people examine how the Corporation protects its subsidiaries. When these demagogues prate about the "pauper labor of Europe," see whether they are not themselves the most grinding and oppressive of taskmasters. When they attempt to prejudice and seduce by "free soil" mania— inquire whether it is not their own system which, when carried out, grinds down the hard-fisted laborer to be the bondman who must bow at the bidding of the "Company," and wait its pleasure, mayhap for twenty years, for the bread which his hard toil has earned. Judge these loud-mouthed tricksters by their fruits rather than by their promises; and look at their practice rather than their profession.

The Census.

Deputy Marshalls Cook and Ellis are now engaged in taking the census in this county, and for the benefit of our readers we give the questions which will be asked of the farmer. It will be well to cut them out and prepare answers in advance of the Marshalls call, for these questions are sometimes not so easily answered at a moments notice.

Productions of Agriculture.

Name of owner, agent or manager of the farm. Acres of land—improved—unimproved; cash value of farm; value of farming implements and machinery. Live stock, June 1, 1850.—Horses, mules and asses, working oxen, milch cows, and cattle, sheep, swine; the value of live stock.

Repeal Meeting.

The citizens of Franklin township met at Thomas' School-house on Saturday evening, Aug. 24th, when, on motion LLOYD THOMAS Esq. was called to the chair, DANIEL ZARR, Jacob Yetter and Peter Kline were chosen Vice Presidents, and B. P. Fortner Secretary of the meeting.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sense of the meeting viz: B. P. Fortner, Reuben Knittle and Jacob Kosteborder, who, at the conclusion of an address to the meeting, presented the following report: Resolved, That our county has been divided by (readers), thereby subjecting us to support two county organizations instead of one, in a county which ranks among the smallest, and at the courts of which the whole legal business has frequently been done in four days.

Resolved, That we will use all honorable means in endeavoring to have the law erecting Montour county repealed at the coming session of the legislature. Resolved, That we will heartily support the candidate for member who may be chosen by the Repeal Convention, irrespective of party, as well as the candidate for Senator in favor of repeal. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published in the papers of the county friendly to the repeal of Montour county.

Signed by the officers. Nomination in the XIXth Congressional District. We have before us a telegraphic message dated Greensburg, Aug. 30, announcing the nomination of John Snodgrass, as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Westmoreland, Bedford Cambria district.

THE AMERICAN LIVE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY.—A company with this title has been chartered in Indiana, with a capital of $50,000. It is organized for the insurance of horses, mules, and all descriptions of live stock, against all the combination of risks, fire, water, accidents, and diseases. Property of this kind is as liable to injury as ships, steamboats, houses, furniture, and is as proper an object to secure by insurance from risks as any other species of property.

Democratic County Convention.

PURSUANT to notice of the Democratic Standing Committee the Delegates elected in the several election districts met at the Court House in Bloomsburg on Monday September 2d 1850.

On motion the Convention organized by choosing the following officers: President, JACOB EVANS. Secretaries, Alfred Howell, Geo. B. Runyan. The following Delegates appeared and took their seats in the Convention—Bloom—Wesley Roat, Leonard B Rupert, Catawissa—Isaac S Munroe, Reuben Stambauch.

The following Standing Committee was chosen for the ensuing year, viz—Hiram R. Kline, Charles Kahler, Isaac Yetter, John H. Quick, John Keller, Isaac S. Munroe and Franklin McBride.

Adjoined.

ROYAL MARRIAGE.—The King of Denmark, Frederick VII, has married a dressmaker, the last foreign intelligence says. This makes the third wife the king has had; and, as his two former were princesses, with whom he lived unhappily and was divorced, he has gone to the ranks of the people in hopes to find a temper more congenial to his own, his experience in royal tempers not being favorable to further experiments in those quarters. His first wife was his cousin Wilhelmina, whom he married in 1828, when he was Crown Prince. After living with her several years, they quarreled so that his father banished him from Copenhagen; in 1837, they were divorced, and the year after she married another man. The Crown Prince waited three years before following her example. His second wife was the Princess Caroline of Mecklenburg Stralitz. From her he was separated in 1846, their marriage being of about five years' duration.

THE PEACH TRADE.—The growers of peaches in Jersey and Delaware are now reaping their harvest. On Monday, about 32,000 bushels arrived in New York, in seven steamboats, four of which were from Washington, N. J., two from New Brunswick, and one from Amboy. On Tuesday, some 70,000 or 80,000 baskets arrived, the greater part of which were of middling quality, and sold at from 12 1/2 to 37 1/2 cents per basket. The better qualities, which have just begun to come in, command $1.25. Farmers from New Jersey say that the crop, this year, in that State, will be larger than ever before known.—Public Ledger.

A telegraphic despatch from Pittsburg announces the nomination of Salisbury and McClintock for Congress. Resolutions were passed recommending Col. Wm. McCandless for United States Senator.

The Pasha of Egypt is said to be rapidly converting the ancient ruins on the Nile into materials for building factories and other similar works.

The names of Hon. Robert Dale Owen and the Hon. John Pettit, are announced as candidates for the office of U. S. Senator in Indiana.

Another Plainfield.—The Baltimore Sun, alluding to the explosion of the Havre de Grace Bank, the moment the law in this State against small notes drove the worthless issues of that institution back, says that a larger amount of bills were in circulation in Baltimore at the time of the failure than ever before, and mechanics, small storekeepers, and people who generally earn their money by hard labor are the sufferers. At the same time the amount of the money in circulation was unprecedented, and but two persons are known to have entirely escaped. Some had as high as $300 on hand, and others smaller sums down to one dollar. A number of poor laborers and females, in that vicinity had saved small sums of money, and suddenly found its value to have diminished to one-fourth of what it purported to be. The resident directors at Havre de Grace are men of good standing, and state that, so far as the books of the Bank show its condition is not beyond rescuscitation and the redemption of the liabilities. They have taken possession of its assets. A box supposed to contain specie reached there on Thursday, and was also taken possession of by the directors. A large majority of the stock of the Bank is held in Wall street, New York, and Moses Y. Beach was one of the principal founders.—Ledger.

A Century Ago. On the 14th of April, 1743, says the Pennsylvania, Benjamin Franklin, postmaster of Philadelphia, noticed the public that the northern post would set out for New York every Thursday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, until Christmas. At this time the communication between the cities is so continuous that if a passenger is "left" it's a matter of little consequence. He can take a seat for a few minutes till the next train starts, and will hardly have time to smoke a segar before the bell rings. Besides the fine boats going round by sea—the Camden and Amboy R R Co., and its connections, runs five trains a day between Philadelphia and New York—at 6—7 and 9 o'clock, A. M., and 3 1/2 and 5 o'clock P. M., the average running time being about four hours and a half.—Pottsville Emporium.

Execution of Dr. John White Webster at Boston.

Boston, Aug. 30. This morning, Professor John White Webster suffered the extreme penalty of the law, for the murder of Dr. George Parkman in the Boston Medical College, on the 23d of November, 1849.

The execution took place in the yard of the Levee street Jail, in presence of about three hundred persons, who were invited to attend by Sheriff Eveleth.

Long before the time fixed for the execution, the streets in the vicinity exhibited an extraordinary excitement, and thousands congregated on the roofs and in the windows of all the buildings in the vicinity, in the hope of getting a view of the prisoner, either as he stood upon the scaffold, or as he passed through the yard to it. Premiums were freely offered and given for choice places where the scaffold might be viewed.

Strangers poured into the city by thousands, and vied with the citizens in exertions to get a good view of the last sad scene. A large awning was erected over the scaffold, which to a considerable extent obstructed the view. It was announced that the execution would take place at nine o'clock, though the persons admitted were notified to be present at eight o'clock.

Among those admitted to the jail yard were several reporters for the press of this and other cities. The prisoner was attended in his cell, before the execution, by Rev. Dr. Patman and a few others, and appropriate and deeply affecting religious services were held.

Considerable time was consumed by these and other causes of detention. The prisoner was at length conducted from the jail through the yard to the scaffold, walking firmly and conducting himself with the composure that he has all along exhibited.

He ascended the scaffold, the rope was adjusted by Sheriff Eveleth, and at precisely twenty minutes before ten o'clock, the drop fell, and he was swung into eternity.

He died without a struggle, and after being suspended for some time, the body was taken down and carried into the prison again.

Professor Webster's bearing up to the time of the execution was firm as ever. He expressed the deepest penitence for his crime, and his sense of the full justice of his sentence and execution.

No new confession was made, as was reported would be the case, and no new statements have come to light as yet, since the execution. The report that he left any other statements, to be opened after his death, is not believed.

In compliance with one of the last requests of the unhappy man, his body will be laid out in the prison, and remain there until to-night, when it will be removed to his late residence in Cambridge, from whence it will probably be interred privately at Mount Auburn.

Mrs. Webster and her daughters are as yet unacquainted with the fact of his execution. Their last visit to the prison was yesterday, the usual day for their visits, and as they always parted as if they were never to meet again, nothing unusual occurred to indicate to them that the day of execution was so near. The sad intelligence will be communicated to them as quietly as possible, to-day, to prepare them, in a measure, for the reception of the corpse to-night.—Evening Bulletin.

Pennsylvania Californians Supposed to be Murdered.—We learn from the Pottsville Emporium that it is feared in that place that two young gentlemen from Schuylkill county, Peter K. Aurand, son of Capt. Peter Aurand of Tamaqua, and Solomon W. Miller, son of Jacob W. Miller, Esq., of Minersville who went out to California, last year, have fallen victims in that country to the dagger of the assassin. The San Francisco papers mention the murder and robbery of a Mr. Miller and a Mr. Orlando, and it is believed that they are the two persons first named who had formed a partnership in business, and opened a store in the neighborhood where the murder is said to have occurred.

A. Best, Esq., of this place, has received a letter from S. S. Wilson, formerly of Danville, now in California. It is a long and interesting letter, and enclosed specimens of California gold. Mr. Wilson says he would not advise any of his friends to go to California with the expectation of making their fortunes by mining. Still, he says a man can make more there than he can in the States. Wilson, Alexander Frick, John Cowden, and John D. Pettrikin, are doing tolerable well.—Danville Intelligencer.

THE JENNY LIND HALL, which is being constructed in New York, is to be 11 1/2 feet high. The entrance hall, fronting on Broadway and Mercer streets, is to be 25 feet wide, 30 feet high, and 200 feet long. The stairways occupy 70 feet, and will be very imposing in their general effect. It is designed to have the Hall complete by the first of October.

The Census in Schuylkill County.—The borough of Minersville, 2,964 souls. In 1840 this borough numbered 1,266, and in 1845, 2,180, showing an increase in the last five years of 780. The number in Branch tp., according to the present census, is 2,663, and in South Manheim, 766.

BANK FAILURE.—The failure of the Havre de Grace Bank (which was founded principally by a gentleman of New York), has caused considerable excitement. The citizens of Baltimore, are heavy losers; one firm of brokers losing $5,000. Many merchants and quite a number of poor people are sufferers.

New Roman Catholic Church.—The Corner Stone of a new Church about to be erected in the Borough of Mouch Chunk, will be laid in accordance with the ceremony prescribed by the Roman Ritual, on Sunday, the 8th day of September.

Wyoming County

The Democratic Convention for Wyoming county, met on the 26th inst., at Lees' Old Stand, in Eaton, and nominated the following ticket:

For Senator, S. S. Winchester; for Representative, E. Mowry, Jr.; for Commissioner, Josiah Rogers; for Prosecuting Attorney, Wm. M. Platt; for County Auditor, P. O. Dunlap; for Treasurer, James Fitzgerald; for County Surveyor, Alfred Hine.

Their delegates to the Congressional Convention were instructed to vote for Col. H. B. Wright.

Admin in Pittsburg. Pittsburg, August 29.—The Democratic Convention yesterday nominated Mr. Salisbury, the working men's candidate for Congress the full term. Gen. Moorehead was nominated for Assembly.

A resolution was passed by the Convention, recommending Col. S. W. Black for Governor and Colonel Wilson McCandless for U. S. Senator.

There were five deaths from Cholera in Allegheny city yesterday. The disease now assumes a milder form.

Erie Congressional District. The Democratic Convention met here on the 22d, and nominated C. B. Curtis, Esq., of this place for Congress. The prominent competitors were Gen. Seth Clover, of Clarion, and D. Barley, of Jefferson county. The nomination was made by the casting vote of Erie County.

A FATAL AFFRAY.—We learn that last week a quarrel arose between two men living near Sloyers in Luzerne county and about three miles from Berwick, which turned into blows, and finally resulted in the death of John Henry, one of the disputants. George Hoffman was the name of the other. The subject of the quarrel was some land in controversy between them. Hoffman has been arrested, we are told, and is now in the Luzerne county jail.

A Woman in male attire.—In Providence, on Saturday, a woman named Maria Pierce, was fined $20 dollars and costs for parading the streets in male attire.

Question for a Debating Society.—Which is the most proud, a girl with her first beau, or a woman with her first baby?

Love.—A passion that causes young women to spoil their work and young men their appetites.

Talking of "enlarging" newspapers, the editor of the Chicago Journal suggests that it's not the largest calf that makes the best meat!

CURE FOR BAD FITS.—Not by any patent medicine, but by a good suit—not such a suit as a man can get into at court, but such a neat, well-made and fashionable suit of clothing as every body should wear; just such as you can find at A. H. Ellis, if you will call and examine his stock of coats, pants, vests, and other articles of dress at the lower door of the new Exchange Block nearly opposite the Court-House, in Bloomsburg. His stock of ready-made clothing is not the "shop-worn" made up for sixteen cents a day, but is cut with attention and made up to rear and not only to sell.

Mr. Ellis has also on hand an assortment of cloth, cassimeres, satinetts, and suitable trimmings; so that he is prepared to make up clothing to order at the shortest notice. He will pay particular attention to cutting out.

MARRIED. On the 29th ult., by the Rev. H. Frank Miller, K. McCOLLUM, of Sugarloaf township, to Miss LAURENCE, of Fishingcreek township.

On Saturday Aug. 31st, by Thomas Painter Esq., Mr. JOHN LLOYD, to Miss ELIZA BULLOCK, all of Bloom township Columbia county.

DIED. In Wilkesbarre, on Monday morning of last week, after a protracted sickness, Mr. ROBERT PORTER, aged 43 years.

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Dr. Josiah Jackson, in Cherry, Sullivan Co., Pa., on the 19th inst., Miss ANNA AMBOTT aged 70 years, formerly of Wilkesbarre, and daughter of the late Mr. Philip Abbott, of Kingston.

In his residence in Hanover, on Friday the 23d inst., at 9 o'clock A. M. GEORGE KOENIG, in the 82nd year of his age.

Bridge Letting. Proposals will be received by the County Commissioners on Tuesday, the 10th day of September, A. D. 1850, between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock, P. M., at the Mill of J. N. Jones in Fishingcreek township, for building

An Arch Bridge, over Hanington Creek, of the following dimensions, to wit: Length 80 feet between abutments, width 18 feet from out to out, abutments 14 feet high, from low water mark.

Proposals will also be received on Wednesday, the 11th day of the same month, between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock, P. M., at the Furnace of Fincher & Thomas, in Catawissa Township, for building

An Arch Bridge, over Catawissa creek, of the following dimensions to wit: Length 100 feet between abutments, width 18 feet from out to out, abutments 15 feet high from water mark. Plans and specifications to be seen on day of letting. By order of the County Commissioners. WESLEY ROAT, Clerk. County Office, Bloomsburg, Aug. 23, 1850. Administrator's Notice. Notice is hereby given that letters of Administration have been granted to the undersigned upon the estate of John L. Jones, late of Fishingcreek township, Columbia co. All persons having claims against the estate will present them to the administrator, and those indebted are requested to make early payment to him. JAMES S. WOODS, Administrator. Bloomsburg, August 29th, 1850.—81
