The Lever That Raised Him.

A young man who is now well up the list of high salaried officers of a big manufacturing company said several days ago that he owed his ability to the fact that he was not afraid to sell his clothes. He was one of half a dozen young men just graduated from scientific schools who entered the shops of this company as students. They were expected to show that they were practical workmen, but most of them preferred theory to practice. The manager of the company was a self taught man, and he didn't take much stock in scientific schools. The young man who has succeeded took his measure accurately and, putting on old clothes, went to work in the shops. Whether by accident or design he was noticed by the manager one day stretched out on his back under a heavy casting with a hammer and cold chisel in his hand working away as if he had no higher ambition. A week later the manager summoned him to the office. "Didn't I see you under that casting several days ago?" he asked. "Yes."

"Well, I find that we have a vacancy on our staff now, and you may fill it if you choose."

The young man did choose, and his progress has been rapid. He does not have to sell his clothes now to prove his ability.—New York Sun.

Riley's Next Copy.

James Whitcomb Riley wrote a long poem for a New York newspaper. It was ordered in advance and was to be sent in upon a certain day. Now, most writers, especially poets, are dilatory. But the Hoosier bard is an exception to the rule. His poem arrived the day it was promised. It came by express in a formidable parcel. First were the outer wrappings of heavy brown paper, then some soft packing covers within which was the manuscript, tied together with a small ribbon, and so neat that the editor was almost afraid to turn the leaves.—Philadelphia Evening Post.

Through Her Head.

"Bugs" gets out of all patience with his wife. He says she can't get a thing through her head. "That's funny," he told me everything she said to her went in one ear and out of the other.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Only the Singer's Fee.

Does singing the song "Oh, Promise Me," at a wedding, promise anybody anything?—Arlington Globe.

Saw It First Thing.

Fuddy—Hyon went home the other day and found the house empty. He thought he wouldn't tell his wife he had been at home, but she found it out the moment she entered the house.

Duddy—Left the pantry door open or forgot to close a window or something of that sort? Fuddy—No. He sat down on a chair for a moment, and of course he missed the tid in his usual way.—Boston Transcript.

Don't Be Angry.

It doesn't pay to get angry. Anger uses up the nerve forces of the body. So does worry; so does hate. A bad temper wears you out. It makes you needless enemies. It spoils your looks. A man with a bad temper had better tie a stone around his neck and throw it into a lake. If he doesn't, it is liable to drag him—but we won't speculate about that.—Denver News.

Fatal Error.

"N. Peck's wife leads him a rather merry game, I fancy." "Oh, yes. When he was courting her, he told her one day she looked pretty when she was angry. And now it has got to be a habit."—Indianapolis Journal.

Briefs. The residence of Mrs. Alberta Tavener, situated near Bethel Church, this county, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Tavener, who is a widow and an invalid, had no companion save a small house girl, who would have been of little assistance in removing her from the burning dwelling. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time by her neighbors, who promptly went to the scene and carried her to a place of safety. The fire began in the kitchen, and it is thought was due to the carelessness of the colored girl. The house of Mrs. Tavener was a total loss, as she had no insurance on the property.

Choice Novelties, Dress Goods, Silks, Velvets, &c., at low prices, by S. L. Palmbaum & Co.

Dr. Louis M. Allen, son of Mr. R. O. Allen of this county, has been tendered the position of associate professor of obstetrics at the Maryland University Hospital in Baltimore. Dr. Allen is the youngest physician upon whom such an honor has ever been conferred by the officials of the Hospital in its history, and we join his many friends here in tendering him congratulations. We understand the attention of the officer of the Hospital was attracted to Dr. Allen's fitness for the place by a medical work he has recently edited.

New Blankets, Comforts, and Flannels, by S. L. Palmbaum & Co.

Mr. Ira Keeler, an industrious young man of this county who some time ago went into business at Middleburg, Loudoun county, was attacked recently by typhoid fever. While suffering from the disease the young man wished to be taken to his father's home in Millwood, and thither he was carried, hoping the change would do him good. Notwithstanding the careful nursing given him the disease proved fatal, as he expired on Thursday last in the 28th year of his age. His funeral took place on Friday, with interment at Old Chapel Cemetery.

New Underwear, and Hosiery, to suit everybody in size and price, by S. L. Palmbaum & Co.

Mr. Scott A. Afleck and Miss Sallie Gochenour, both of Winchester, were married in that city last Thursday morning, at the residence of Capt. J. A. Kirkpatrick, by Rev. James B. Stonifer. The groom is a brother of Mr. P. J. Afleck, of this place, and well known as the proprietor of a large agricultural emporium in Winchester. After the ceremony the married couple took the train for a visit to Philadelphia and other points in the North.

FOR RENT—Brick Dwelling House on Main Street, Berryville, with garden attached. Apply at COURIER Office.

We hear the Southern Railway Company have promised Mr. Demonet, who owns the Mount Airy Hotel near Snicker's Gap, that if he will add fifty rooms to his house they will extend the road from Round Hill to the mountain; and that Mr. Demonet says he expects to add seventy-five rooms. If this be true there is a prospect of the road being extended which will be a good thing for the mountain folks.—Telephone.

Fine Jersey Cow, Cooking Stove and Set of Harness for sale cheap. Apply at COURIER Office.

Wheat prices are lower than they were a week ago. No. 2 red being quoted in Baltimore at 68 1/2 cents per bushel. Northwestern receipts are considerably under those of the same time last year, still the visible stocks are climbing up, amounting to 49,562,000 bushels. Car load lots of new corn on cob bring $1.50@1.60 per bbl. Hogs are quoted at $4.60@4.70 per 100 lbs., gross; sheep from $2 to $4, according to quality.

The smoky appearance of the sky last week was thought to be due to the fires raging in the mountains west and east of us. To these fires will not be charged the summer temperature that prevailed at midday during the entire week.

The County School Board and the Trustee Electoral Board will meet on Thursday of this week in Berryville, official notice of which is given in our advertising columns by Co. Superintendent C. G. Massey.

Within the past week a good many apples were shipped from this place to Northern markets. The growers realized for them, after being taken from the trees, $1.20 and $1.25 per barrel.

We learn, says the Charlestown Free Press, that Mr. John C. Willson, of Summit Point, has sold his farm in that vicinity for $1,500 cash. The purchaser is Mr. John Hulver. The farm contains about 100 acres.

Briefs. The notice we have been publishing about carrying dogs free on trains was authorized by the Norfolk & Western Railway Co., showing its willingness to serve huntsmen in this manner. The law allowing the killing and capture of partridge does not go into effect, as every one ought to know, until the 1st of November. We fear, however, that there are but few partridges to kill, as the blizzard of last February wrought starvation to nearly all that survived last year's hunting season.

FOR RENT.—A Room on Church st., suitable to conduct a Harness Shop. Large Glass Show Room for keeping of Harness, with other first-class conveniences. Apply to THOMSON & OGDEN.

On Wednesday evening an accident occurred at the southern end of the trestle work on the N. & W. Railway at the Old Chapel. A freight train drawn by two engines—one of them being near its middle—was passing over the trestle when the rear engine jumped the track. Fortunately the accident occurred after the trestle work had been crossed, and but little damage was done save causing a delay of several hours to the train.

Charlestown Spirit: A drunken negro assaulted Mr. John T. Colston, of this vicinity, on the train returning from the Frederick Fair Thursday evening, but came near receiving a very serious punishment at the hands of Mr. Colston. Detective Reardon, of the B. & O. service, however, took the assailant in hand, returned him to Frederick, and he was committed for trial at the February term of court.

WANTED! WANTED! 100,000 lbs. of Milk per month, for which we will pay the very highest prices. C. P. HOWELL & BRO.

The hurricane from the West Indies reported by the weather bureau as having reached Florida from Cuba on Sunday, with a movement northward along the Atlantic coast, reached this place by northeast gales, and with heavy rains on Tuesday morning. The rains are doubtless timely, as the ground is found to be quite dry six or eight inches beneath its surface.

The young men of the White Post neighborhood gave a much enjoyed dance at "Walnut Grove" last Friday night. The affair was well attended, fully fifty persons being present.

The tea appointed to be held at Grace Church Rectory Tuesday afternoon is postponed until Wednesday evening from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Charlestown Free Press: Twenty-eight thousand dollars is the up-to-date amount paid for apples in this county this fall.

Trespass Notices For Sale.

We have some trespass notices on hand, printed upon cotton so as to stand the weather, warning the public against hunting on the lands where they are posted. They are sold at 25 cents a half dozen. The hunting season is now on.

Trapnell-Probasco.

Mr. Benjamin Trapnell, of New York, and Miss Ada Probasco, of Washington, were married in the latter city on Wednesday of last week, by Rev. Dr. Macky Smith in St. John's Church. The ushers were Joseph Trapnell, Jr., of New York, Vernon Simmons, of Hagerstown, and Eugene Morgan, of Washington. The bride was attended by Miss Natalie Magruder and Miss Eleanor Trapnell. The groom is a rising young lawyer of New York City, and is a son of Joseph Trapnell, Esq., of Charlestown.

THE BEST PLASTER.—A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by W. Richardson, druggist.

The republican committee in Ohio has called for $1,000,000 for "legitimate campaign expenses." No wonder they have so much trouble in that State to pry the people away from the political counter!

A New Hotel.

Now that our town is constructing water works that will bring us the delightful soft water of the mountain by the gravity system, what are we going to do about a new hotel? Our town has been shunned by travelling business men because of our limestone water, and next to this is the want of a respectable looking hotel. The first cause of complaint is about to be removed, and those of our citizens who are able to invest in such an enterprise ought to take under consideration the other cause and see if it can be removed.

A new hotel, centrally located, constructed with modern improvements, and showing architectural taste, would undoubtedly attract travellers to our town, as there is not a fine looking hostelry in the Virginias along the Norfolk and Western Railway north of Roanoke. After a site is chosen, it will not be necessary to start with a very extensive structure, but it should be designed so as to be added to as its business increases. A building of reasonable dimensions would doubtless be filled with summer boarders, especially if its management was in such competent hands as the present proprietress of the Virginia House. A well filled hotel in summer would increase the sales of our merchants and the business of our livery stables, since our county offers to boarders such fine roads to drive over and as lovely valley, river and mountain scenery as can be found elsewhere.

Let our people talk up this subject, and write upon it, also, and after a while we will find out that "where there's a will there's a way."

Death of M. R. P. Castleman.

A dispatch was received here on Sunday announcing the death at the hospital in Staunton of Mr. M. R. P. Castleman, of this county, which occurred early that morning from apoplexy, aged about 65 years. Mr. Castleman went to the hospital at that place for treatment several months ago, and was improving quite satisfactorily when his earthly career was suddenly terminated as above stated.

He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and for a while carried the colors of the Sixth Virginia Cavalry, and no one bore them more heroically. During the war he was elected a member of the House of Delegates by his comrades in arms. Since the war he has followed farming and milling for a livelihood. He was a member of the organizations known as the Survivors of the Clarke Cavalry and of the J. E. B. Stuart Camp C. V., both of this county. He is a brother of Mr. John R. Castleman, who was also a gallant Confederate soldier and is a prominent citizen of this county.

The deceased is survived by a widow, two daughters and two sons.

His body was brought home and interred in Green Hill Cemetery on Tuesday morning.

"The Old Farm House on the Hill"

We have just received a copy of this beautiful home song, which can be played either on the piano or organ. The words and music are by Mr. J. W. Lerman, the composer of the now famous "Conchee-Conchee Dance." The song is being sung in all the large theatres in the cities of New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, etc., and it is received with great applause and making a decided hit.

FIRST VERSE.

There's a farm house I remember, 'twas my childhood's happy home, And I'll never forget its scenes while life shall last. Oh! I often wish that I could cross its threshold as of yore, And live once more the life that now is past.

With father, kind and gentle, and dear sister, my dear mother too, Who always tried their duty to fulfill, I would that I were young again and had them with me now In that dear old roomy farm-house on the hill.

CHORUS.

To me it was a palace of grandeur unsurpassed, To me it was a home of love and cheer, I loved it when a child, I love it still, And no greater joy I covet than to visit once again And live within that farm house on the hill.

The regular price of this song is 55c, but if our readers will be sure to mention the name of this paper, they will receive a copy by sending 15 cents to the Union Mutual Music Co., No. 20 East 14th St., New York.

WHAT MORE DO YOU ASK?—On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate its great merit. Full size 50 cents.

ELY BROS., 56 Warren St., N. Y. Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I had long suffered are gone.—W. J. HITCHCOCK, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

IT SAVES THE CHILDREN.—Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has saved the lives of thousands of croupy children. It is also without an equal for colds and whooping cough.

Football News.

In a clean, sharp game of football Saturday evening last the Berryville Athletic Club wrested a victory from the Millwood eleven on the latter's gridiron by a score of 12 to 0.

The game was witnessed by about 100 persons, many of whom were young ladies who shouted ardently for their favorite eleven.

The feature of the game were Castleman's 60 and 45-yard runs around the ends, Glover's tackling and 75-yard run, Dortch's all-around playing and the effective work of the Berryville line. For Millwood Jones played a superb game.

The first game of football on the Berryville gridiron will be played on the Rosemont Stock Farm field, opposite Crown's lawn, Saturday evening next, November 4th. The local eleven will have for their opponents the strong and well-trained team from the Shenandoah Valley Academy of Winchester, which recently defeated the Berryville boys in a close game. A clean, snappy contest, devoid of all unnecessary roughness, is promised. An admittance fee of 10 cents will be charged to defray the expenses incurred by the boys in making preparations for the season's schedule. The game will commence at 3 p. m. No vehicles allowed on grounds.

The Berryville eleven has accepted a challenge from the Randolph Macdonald Academy club, of Front Royal, to play a game on the latter's grounds next Monday.

Rev. G. E. Morrison was hanged on Friday at Vernon, Texas, for wife murder. He met his death resignedly. On the scaffold he said to the select party of 20 witnesses permitted at the execution: "I am innocent. Circumstances over which I had no control placed me in this position. I have taken my trouble in private to my God. I admit that I have acted indiscreetly. I have done no worse, however, than hundreds of men who stand high in the religious, social, business and official circles of your State. I have done nothing to confess. I am in the hands of my Maker. He knows I am innocent."
