Mower County Transcript

AUSTIN, MINN., SEPTEMBER 23, 1869.

Republican State Ticket.

- FOR CHIEF JUSTICE SUPREME COURT, C. G. RIPLEY, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR GOVERNOR, HORACE AUSTIN, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR LEUTENANT GOVERNOR, WILLIAM H. YALE, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, HANN MATTON, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR AUDITOR OF STATE, CHARLES McCLERATE, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR TREASURER, EMIL MUNCH, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, F. R. E. CORNELL, OF MINNAPOLIS. FOR CLERK OF SUPREME COURT, FORBES WOODHUGH, OF MINNAPOLIS.

The Coming Election - How We Stand in this County.

But little more than a month remains before the November Election. In most counties nominations have been made, but here no convention has yet been called. The reason is that the old Court House Clique in Austin has heretofore driven the people under a lash of tyranny, and this year at every corner with an emphatic No.

Malpractice.

Last week the Register, a diminutive sheet published in this place, devoted about one-half its space to the subject of Therapeutics and Malpractice. The Register evidently likes Doctors. It likes their medicines. It swallows any kind of a dose administered by a man that smells of old fashioned middle bled.

Shallowness.

Some men's brains are easily confused. They can see no difference between a principle and its advocates. Some editors are so shallow as to mistake a cause or principle for the men who represent or believe it. Hence, instead of using arguments to disprove a doctrine, they traduce those who preach the doctrine. What logic! As if to prove that a minister is bad, wicked and corrupt, would also prove the Christian religion a fraud upon the people.

Family Groceries.

There is no mining near us save the great Quick Silver Mine - the largest in the world which is in sight of our house though fifteen miles distant. Our town is in a valley nearly surrounded by mountains so that we are in a circumference about twenty miles across.

denizens of a doggerly. Go on gentlemen, your shallowness is transparent and you are cutting your own throats faster than we could do it for you should we make the attempt.

People's Movement - Who Opposes Them - They Can be Freed.

There are greater calamities which can befall a people than the disruption of a political party. One of them is the perpetuation of public corruption and fraud. In quite a large number of counties in this State, political organizations are now being formed under the name of "People's Movement."

Letter from California.

Through the kindness of J. G. Wright, Esq., we are permitted to publish a portion of a private letter received from Rev. A. J. Nelson, since he reached California. It was not intended for the public eye but it contains many interesting particulars which newspaper writers too frequently overlook.

the court very properly said she was not entitled to recover any thing. This was a very different case from the one the Register is hired to gloss over.

constantly plying. If Sister Wright was here she would not sleep any for a week, looking at the flowers and shrubs. The Winona green house would not compare with our front yard, some of these little plants kept in a cigar-box are too large here for the entire building, all grow out of doors, on high trellis, or climb the verandas and cover the roof of the houses and creep into the bed room window and twine themselves around the posts so that they fall upon the face at night and steal a kiss from the sleeper.
