REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 15.

The "regular" authorities have issued a call for a Convention to be held on Friday, October 15th. This leaves so short a time for an active canvass that the friends of good government will need to make up by extra diligence. We exhort every man to be on the watch for the primary meetings, and be on hand with a determination to secure the support of the best men. Now is the time to work. The Convention meets at Adams, on Friday, the 15th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The officers to be elected are: Clerk of the District Court. Two Members of the Legislature. County Treasurer. County Commissioner. Court Commissioner.

Republican Caucus.

The Republican Caucus for the election of delegates to attend the Republican County Convention, to be held at Adams on the 15th inst., will be held in the Court Room at this place, on Tuesday evening 12th inst., at half-past six o'clock. Come out in force, and see fair play.

Extensive.

We notice that W. S. Brown, wagon maker, Bridge street, is extending his shop by an addition to the front, of two rooms; an evidence of increasing business.

Examination.

Mr. Otis has given notice that an examination of teachers of Mower Co. will be held at Frankford, on Monday the 25th; Brownsdale, 26th; Sains Rest 27th; and at LeRoy Oct 28th and 29th.

Go with the crowd to Austin & Richardson's.

Commissioner. Hon. W. T. Rambush, of Minneapolis, and formerly of Albert Lea, has received his commission as Vice Consul from Denmark, for Minnesota, and is now Vice Consul for all the Scandinavian States.

New Store.

Mr. Truesdell, Boot and Shoe dealer, of Mill street, is getting ready to move into his new store, corner of Mill and Main streets. He will then have one of the finest stores in town, and will be able to show to the best advantage one of the best stock of goods in the State.

Shoe Tips.

The American Shoe Tip Company have introduced, this season, a new white metal tip, which by wear has the appearance of silver, and is decidedly ornamental. A metal tip adapted to first-class shoes has long been needed. This new tip meets this demand, and will come into as general use on the finer grades of children's shoes as the copper tips have on the common grade.

Correction.

Two weeks ago an item was published in this paper to the effect that the grand jury had found that nine-tenths of the crime in the county resulted from the use of intoxicating liquors. The item was taken from the Winona Republican, which paper should have received the credit, but the compositor omitted it. The statement is undoubtedly true of this county, but the jury did not make it.

Interprise.

We had the pleasure the other day of walking through the furniture ware-rooms of Hopkins & Fernald, and were very agreeably surprised at the extent and character of the business, as well as the excellence and finish of workmanship manifested. The rooms are crowded with every imaginable article of furniture in all stages of progress, from the cheapest to the most elaborate and expensive. These enterprising gentlemen are determined to go ahead and bid fair to build up an extensive and profitable business in this State and Northern Iowa.

N. S. Coners.

The regular monthly concert of the Sabbath School connected with the M. E. Church, was held last Sunday evening. The Church was crowded, and great interest was manifested through-out the exercises, which were conducted by Mayor Austin, and which consisted of recitations, singing, and brief addresses by the Presiding Elder and Mr. Alderson. These monthly gatherings of children and friends of the school cannot fail to increase their attachment to the work, and will tend to fasten upon their minds the valuable lessons imparted. The influence of such exercises upon the children, will generally follow them through life.

Immigration Agency.

Fleischer Jurgens & Co have established an immigration agency at this point. These gentlemen have for a long time conducted a Scandinavian immigration business at Madison, Wis., but their extensive dealings with this class of emigrants in this State, has rendered it necessary to open an office in Southern Minnesota, and Austin has been selected as the best location. This agency will be a great convenience to our foreign population, and will be well patronized as the best and safest way in which to transmit funds to friends abroad. Their advertisement will be found in another column.

State Teachers' Institute.

In another column will be found an announcement that on Monday, Oct. 18th, a session of the State Teachers' Institute will be held at Austin. We hope every teacher in the county will be present.

A Superb Journal for any Home.

We do not believe there is any way which our readers could invest the small sum of one dollar and a half where it would bring them so large returns, both in profit and satisfaction, as in a subscription for the elegant journal of which we have just now received the October Number—the American Agriculturist. It was originally started 28 years ago, especially as a rural journal, and its motto ever since has been "Excelsior." Its size is now increased to 44 pages, with a beautiful cover upon each number, and it is literally crammed with most useful information for all classes, upon matters pertaining to the Farm, Garden, and Household, with pleasing and instructive departments for Children and Youth. The beautiful engravings alone in each number, are worth the cost of subscription. NOW is the time to subscribe, for the publishers offer the last two months of this year, to all new subscribers received in October, for 1870. Four copies are supplied for $5. A valuable list of Premiums is offered to those securing clubs of subscribers. Address ORANGE, JUDD & Co., 245 Broadway, New York.

Good Stock.

The bull which was exhibited by M. C. Potter at the State Fair, and drew the first premium, is of the best blood in the country, as its record will show. It was culled in Kingston, O. W., June 1st, 1867. Its dam was imported for Hon. A. C. Earle, of Pierrepont Manor, N. Y., of whom the calf was purchased in June, and brought to Minnesota in July of 1867, by Mr. Potter. The possession of such a fine specimen of blooded stock, affords the farmers of Mower County a splendid opportunity to improve the quality of their cattle. Perhaps no kind of farm stock yields such quick remuneration for careful selection and breeding as hogs. Mr. Potter is also entitled to the gratitude of farmers for his enterprise in importing and breeding some of the finest hogs ever seen in this State or any other. His boar A. C. Clark attracted a great deal of attention, and took the premium. Its record is unimpeachable. It was littered June 9th, 1867, in New York; sired by the father of all Cheshires, owned and bred by A. C. Clark of Henderson, N. Y. It drew the first prize at the New York State Fairs of 1865-67, and weighed 1,100 lb., as may be seen by the New York Tribune's report of the fair at Buffalo, in 1867. Mr. Potter brought this splendid animal to Minnesota in July of 1867.

We have good reason to believe, from the indications at the Fair, that Minnesota will soon bear as high a character for the excellence of its blooded stock, as she now does on account of her splendid climate and her generous supply of the staff of life; and it is particularly gratifying that Mower County is performing so prominent a part in the accomplishment of this result. For beef, labor, and good milking qualities, no strain of blood surpasses the Durhams; and on our rich prairies they will doubtless realize their highest development. For easy fattening, good size, temper, soundness of ofal, beauty, and other good qualities the Cheshires take the lead, and farmers will find money in securing such stock in preference to that which has been raised with no reference to the best characteristics.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

In the St. Paul Pioneer of the 21st inst. we have an account of the arrest, at Rochester, of two men named respectively John Bacon and Russell Chase, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. We learn from another source that Messrs. Bacon and Chase reside at Br-wadwell, in this county, where they have both hitherto borne good characters. Mr. Bacon is about forty-five years of age, and is an old resident of this county. Mr. Chase is somewhat younger.

The particulars of the arrest, as given in the journal alluded to, we condense as follows: The counterfeiters were evidently attracted to Rochester by the superior chances of operating successfully in a crowd, but the authorities were on the alert, and after instituting a strict watch over their movements it was thought that evidence enough existed to justify the arrest, but in order to leave no chance of failure it was arranged that Edward Armstrong, (brother of the Lieut. Governor) should represent himself to the suspected men as being desirous of purchasing counterfeit money, and that the arrest should be effected while the trade was being made. Thereupon, Mr. Armstrong, accompanied by Bacon and Chase, went to the American House, where a trade was concluded, and Mr. Armstrong exchanged good money for bad. Just then an officer approached, with Mr. Paist, and arrested the three men. Bracelets were placed upon the wrists of Bacon and Chase, while to avert suspicion the officer assumed considerable severity toward Mr. Armstrong, and regretting that he had no hand-cuffs with which to secure him, handed him over to the care of Mr. Paist, with the caution to "keep a sharp eye on him; for he is the worst of the lot." Bacon and Chase were immediately taken to St. Paul and lodged in jail. On the way up from Rochester Bacon cried like a child, and explained how he came to occupy such a painful position. He told the Marshal that a short time ago a young man came to the town where he lived, with whom he became acquainted. The young man was a pleasant, gentlemanly fellow, with a very insinuating address, and Bacon became very much attached to him. The acquaintance thus formed became in a short time a very intimate one, and during its existence the young man unfolded to Bacon his business. He represented himself as the traveling agent of James Boyd, of Freelingburg, Vt., who was a manufacturer of counterfeit money, and who desired to establish agencies throughout the West, to whom this money could be sent for distribution. The young man informed him that this money would be furnished to him for thirty-five cents for each counterfeit dollar, and so plausibly did he talk, and with such success did he represent the impossibility of being detected, that Bacon finally consented to take the agency. All letters sent to Boyd, who manufactured the money, were to be marked by the corner, "P. Q." Chase was also let into the business, in some way, whether as an actual partner with Bacon or not, does not clearly appear. At any rate, in the issuing of the money for which the arrest was made, Chase, as well as Bacon, was engaged.

The above statement varies somewhat from one given to the reporter of the Pioneer. The latter is to the effect that Bacon and Chase were partners in the nursery business and had gone up to Rochester to purchase trees. They had now over 200,000 soft maple trees out. At Rochester they purchased two thousand apple trees of a Mr. Jackson, near the fair grounds. For these they paid $325. While Bacon and Chase were in Rochester, the former had a $50 bill, and was fearful that it was not good. The two were acquainted with Edward Armstrong, brother to the Lieutenant Governor, and getting into conversation with him, they consulted him as to the $50 bill, which was by him pronounced good, but as Bacon insisted that it was counterfeit, Armstrong to satisfy him took it to a bank, where it was declared good. It was, as Bacon affirms, while this consultation was going on as to the genuineness of the bill, that Brackett made the arrests.

It is said that a part of the money received by Bacon had been sent to a Mr. Albertis, of Owatonna, who was subsequently arrested. It is also stated that a lawyer of Austin had received some of the counterfeits, but whether he received them from Bacon or was made a special agent for this place, is not clear. "At any rate," says the report, "instructions were sent by telegraph to arrest him immediately, and we presume that before this the instructions have been carried out." We await further developments.

Mr. Bacon has a wife and nine children, and both have good farms, and were thought to be in prosperous circumstances. It is a painful circumstance that two such men, should expose themselves to so serious a charge as for which they have been arrested. It is to be hoped, however, that a legal investigation will materially change for the better, the aspects of the case. Later St. Paul papers are quite silent on the subject.

John Irgens.

It is now quite well understood by the citizens of the county that John Irgens, Esq., of Adams, has consented to the use of his name in the coming election as a candidate for County Treasurer on the Republican ticket. This decision has been induced by the earnest solicitation of prominent men among those of his own nationality, heartily seconded by the mass of the American voters, so far as we are able to learn.

While we do not recognize the superior claims of any one class of American citizens to office over another class, whether of native or foreign birth, yet we cannot favor any policy which virtually excludes one class from active participation in the official duties of the country. Nearly one-fourth the voting population of this county are of Scandinavian origin; yet up to this date not one of them has asked or been tendered an office. This is not the policy of other countries in this and adjoining States. Almost invariably, when this element is large, as it is here, one or more of the county offices is held by men of their own nationality.

But it was not our intention to urge this consideration. Proper qualification, intellectually, morally, and practically, is the only essential question to be discussed. This, we are informed, Mr. Irgens possesses in an eminent degree. A man of fine scholarly attainments, speaking several languages with fluency, of large business experience in important positions, strictly moral and temperate in his habits, he combines many of the essential requisites for filling the office of Treasurer successfully, fully than almost any other man in the county.

Mr. Irgens was one of the early pioneers of the county, and is well acquainted with its history and wants.

On the breaking out of the war he entered the Union army as a private, and for his faithfulness and ability was rapidly promoted, filling every position given him with credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of his superiors. We are pleased to observe that the great mass of Republicans in the county are cordially uniting in the support of Mr. Irgens, and predict that if elected he will make one of the most faithful and efficient servants the people have ever had.

LEROY ITEMS.

H. I. G. Crowell, has bought out the Lumber Yard of Messrs. Seley & Shaw, in this place. Mr. Crowell purposes to stock up the yard in such a manner as will make it second to none in Southern Minnesota. Mr. J. Wkoff will continue in charge of the business, and any one that has any business transaction with "Jim" is always satisfied.

A very singular accident occurred on Wednesday morning, to a stallion owned by James Dalton, which will result in the death of the horse. Mr. D. rode into town, and hitched him to a post in front of a store, near him was another horse, and between the two was a post with rather sharp point. Dalton's horse tried to kick the other horse, and in doing so, raised himself up so high that he came down upon the point of the sharp post, and impaled himself in such a manner, that a portion of his entrails came out. The horse was valued at $500.00.

Mr. George Swazy has bought out the wagon shop of Wm. Reid. From what we have seen of Mr. Swazy, we should judge that he will prove to be a great benefit to those in want of anything in his line, as he will turn out work that can be relied upon.

The property of any town, especially of new towns, depends very much upon the roads leading into them. We may pay good prices for wheat, have good stocks of goods to sell from, but if our roads are in such a state that farmers cannot haul loads into town, we must be the sufferers. Some of the roads leading into LeRoy are horrible, and the one just east of town, and running south to the State Line in particular. Mr. Path master Ingals, here have you been all summer? you are very much needed out on that road. Just take your team and put eight or ten hundred pounds on and try to drive through, and see how you like it. We think you would do some tall s—g.

The adulterers of good potatoes must not fail to obtain from John T. Williams, some seed of the Early Rose, which he has for sale. See his advertisement in another column.

The Public School will open next Monday, Oct. 11th, with the following teachers:

Miss M. J. Davidson, Principal. Miss Marcia Spencer, Intermediate. Miss S. A. Young, Primary.

From what we know of these ladies, we can safely say that LeRoy never had so fair a prospect for a good school as the coming term will be, and as the school is likely to be a full one, we think the teachers selected by the board are equal to the task.

State Teachers' Institute, at Austin. A State Teachers' Institute, continuing in session till the Friday evening following, will commence at Austin, on Monday, Oct. 16th, 1899.

And/or session of the Institute is to be held at LeRoy, Mower County. Each year should witness to the increased usefulness of these means of reaching the public schools of the county. Teachers over 100 in number and profession to attend the Institute. The County and State Superintendents hope to meet every teacher of Mower County at LeRoy, during the week commencing October 15th.

They need the reviews they need better methods of instruction and school management. They often fail because they have not the spirit of the Institute. Earnest work may be done. Faithful and accurate teaching is all done. Faithful and accurate teaching is all done. Teachers' Institute seeks to correct such faults. Good schools and well-qualified teachers should be our motto.

The Institute will be under the immediate instruction of Supt. Sanford Niles, and Mr. W. W. Payne.

With these gentlemen as instructors, the teachers of Mower County may be confident of a successful institute.

The Institute will be organized at 10 A. M. Every teacher should be present by noon of the first day, if possible. The citizens of the County will furnish free board to all teachers in attendance.

Mr. S. T. Otis, Superintendent of Schools, will cordially give any other information in relation to the Institute. Teachers will bring with them papers for holding notes, also the National Fifth Reader.

A PUBLIC LECTURE will be given each evening of the session.—School officers, parents, and friends of education generally, are invited to be present at the lectures, and also at the day sessions.
