

RAIDERS OF ADVERTISING... One Square Column, one year $18.00...

Cards of five lines or less, five dollars per year... Legal notices at the rates prescribed by law.

TERMS $2.00 per Annum. NO. 26

Mower County Transcript

A. A. HARWOOD, Editor and Proprietor

"With Malice toward None: with Charity for All."—Lincoln.

AUSTIN, MOWER COUNTY, MINNESOTA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1876.

ADVERTISING CARDS

DENTISTRY. RABE & AVERY, ESIDENT DENTISTS. 215 N. Main St., Austin, Minn.

F. A. ELDER, CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT. Austin, Mower County, Minnesota.

JOHN WALSH, GROCER. MILL STREET, AUSTIN, MINN.

D. R. W. L. HOLLISTER, Corner of Main and Winona Streets, Austin, Minnesota.

D. EXETER HOTEL. Good accommodations for Man and Beast. TERMS REASONABLE.

W. M. HOWE, REGISTER OF DEEDS, Mower Co. Will examine titles, pay taxes for non-residents, etc.

ORANDELL & FRENCH, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Austin, Minn. Office in Bank Block.

J. W. RAMSEY HOUSE, JOHN L. MORRISON, PROPRIETOR. At the junction of the Milwaukee & St. Paul and Southern Minnesota Railroads.

S. M. JENSEN, M. D., GRAND MEADOW, MINN. Physician & Surgeon.

M. D. BEDAL, M. D., Physician & Surgeon. Office and residence on Main Street, Brownsville, Minn.

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL, AUSTIN, MINN. The building is the finest in the city, is new and elegantly furnished.

R. F. RAYBOLD HOTEL, AUSTIN, MINN. J. F. ATHERTON & SON, PROPRIETORS.

J. N. WHEAT, M. D., Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon. Office and Residence, Corner of St. Paul and Mill Streets, 251 Austin, Minn.

AUSTIN AND RAMSEY STAGE LINE. Stage leaves Austin daily, making close connection with Passenger Trains over the Southern Minnesota Railroad.

HALL HOUSE, ALBERT LEA, MINN. W. G. FOSTER, PROPRIETOR. Everything First-Class.

WITHEAM & ROBINSON, House, Sign, and Ornamental Painting, GRADING & PAPER HANGING. ORDERS SOLICITED.

C. B. STAPLES, DENTIST. Office over Clumner & Pooles' Drug Store, Corner of Main and Mill Streets, 714

D. B. SMITH, DEALER IN AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS. Farm Machinery and Produce.

DORR & WOLD, DRUGGISTS and Pharmacists. Stationery, School and Blank Books, and fancy articles.

H. LUTHELEN, DEALER IN CONFECTIONERY, of all kinds, including Sweet Meats. Also Ice cream of the best.

DINING PARLOR in the city, where persons or parties can be accommodated with all the delicacies of the season, on the shortest notice.

H. GUNZ, GENERAL MERCHANDISE. HE SELLS CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST!

STORE ON MAIN STREET, Adjoining Jones' new Block.

Geo. E. Wilbour & Son, MERCHANT TAILORS, and dealers in Ready-Made Clothing, GENTS' Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, &c., &c. 11-13 AUSTIN, MINNESOTA.

BAKEN & JENKS, DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS, AT GRAND MEADOW.

Compounding of Medicines, And the preparation of Prescriptions.

R. DUNKELMANN, Has received a large stock of Ready-Made Clothing.

MAKING AND REPAIRING OF MACHINES. WOOD OR IRON WORK.

MANUFACTURE LAND ROLLERS, DRIGS, DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOWS, EQUALIZERS, MILK SAFES, &c.

CASTINGS of all kinds made to order.

Planing Mill! I have in connection with my Foundry a Planing Mill, and will plan one or both sides cheaply and better than can be done by hand.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE, at all charges reasonable.

SUPERIOR FLOUR, Made at the MOWER CO. MILLS.

ON THE CEDAR RIVER, Four Miles Below Austin.

Latest Inventions in milling are used by us.

MIDDLINGS, and use it in RAISING THE GRADE of the Common Brand.

WE MARK Custom Work A Specialty.

AND BUY WHEAT TO MANUFACTURE. GIVE US A CALL.

W. H. OFFICER.

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS.

Crimes, Criminals and Casualties. The steamship Rebecca Clyde, was wrecked off Cape Hatteras on Sunday morning, and twelve lives lost.

The Dardanelles, from Melbourne to Sydney, foundered near Jervis Bay, owing to a hurricane, on the 11th. Sixty of the crew and passengers were drowned.

Louis Emerson, a young man who resided in Cleveland, Mass., died on Saturday of inflammation of the brain, caused by a blow from a base-ball.

The British ship Lammernaur, bound from Demora, is posted at Lloyd's as missing. It is believed she was foundered with all her hands and 300 coolies.

A party of four men entered the house of Patrick Caffery, about twelve miles from Watertown, Minn., on the 12th inst., took him out of bed and, threatening to kill him if he moved, demanded and obtained $420.

Four of the Northfield robbers were captured near Madelia, on the afternoon of the 21st inst. One man was killed and the others seriously wounded.

A curious accident occurred to Mr. Charles Krenka, of Stevens Park, Wis., the other evening. While crawling for lead, the hammer of a revolver which he carried in his trousers pocket was in some way raised, and falling, a ball was sent into his right breast between the fourth and fifth ribs, one of which was broken. He will recover.

Wm. A. Gavett, United States Internal Revenue agent, has unearthed in Chicago several illicit whisky stills, similar to those he discovered in Louisville, Evansville and other western cities.

There was a general knock-down among lawyers and officers in a West-End restaurant on the 23rd inst., in a dispute over the Galveston News. Judge Gerid left the bench, after repeated trials to bring them to order, seized a six-shooter, rushed into the struggling crowd, and, after a few minutes, which was finally restored.

A family moving from Prairie du Chien to Winona in a skiff encamped on an island near Le Crosse on Friday night. During the night the child died of exhaustion. Upon inquiry it was found they were in very destitute circumstances, without food or money.

There is no epidemic in Charleston, S. C. There have been four scattered yellow fever cases traced to persons who communicated with the quarantine, and refugees from Savannah. The fever shows no signs of spreading.

A magnificent firm at Spirit Lake, Iowa, has adopted a new method of doing business. No books are kept. When a customer desires credit he goes to the desk and borrows money, for which he gives his note, payable with interest. He then buys his goods and pays for them.

The superintendent of general recruiting has been directed to forward three hundred recruits to the department of the north as follows: 100 to the 5th and 6th Infantry, 100 to the 3rd Infantry, and 100 to the 6th Infantry, at Huntsville, Ala.

The Savannah benevolent association, formerly the metropolitan fire company, which was organized in 1852, has been re-organized and is now in a flourishing condition.

Winslow Castle was struck by a meteoric stone, on Thursday, September 6, between Henry the Eighth's Gateway and the Garter Tower, and a portion of the stone par- tially knocked off. The stone is said to have been of the size of a small cannon ball, and to have exploded on striking the castle with a noise like that of a shell and a shower of sparks.

A terrible accident occurred on the Erie canal, on the 10th inst., at 12 miles from Columbus, Ohio. A passenger train swinging around a corner, at the rate of forty miles an hour, was thrown from the track and four cars went down a high embankment, killing four and wounding over thirty. The cause was a defective switch, which was caused by rapid running around a corner.

A four-year-old boy, son of Mason Sage, of Wardsborough, Vt., was lost in the woods last week, and after a search of two black bears, they came up to him as he sat on the grass in an open glade and snuggled him. He patted them on their heads, thinking that they were dogs, and they licked him affectionately. Their footprints disclosed that they were the "dogs" the boy told about encountering.

A Boston letter says that the restriction against the Old South church is only 30 days, and that persons are likely to prove the legality of a perpetual stipulation of this sort. Of course, the money has only begun to be raised yet. The property has been secured in such manner as to be held for public purchase by the city of Boston.

There was a serious disturbance at a Republican meeting, in Cincinnati, on the night of the 21st, and Col. Carter, of Indiana, and Lieut. Gov. Young were rotten egged.

A Fort Sully telegram says chief Bull Eagle is reported, when called upon to surrender his arms and ponies, to have sent word to General Buell at Chyenne agency, that he would do nothing of the kind, and that he wanted all the soldiers to cross the river and keep their rifles.

The Indians would take care of themselves. William S. Stokely, mayor of Philadelphia, has been a criminal agent for Philadel- phia, and has been arrested by the Philadelphia Times, for printing an interview with Dr. John C. Buchanan, the bogus diplo- ma man, charging the mayor with receiving bribes of gold-mining stock as a bribe from Dr. Buchanan.

Ex-Secretary of War Belknap has old his residence in Washington for $2,000, Congressman Walker of Virginia being the purchaser. Belknap preferred to remain in Washington but Mr. Belknap having been a leader in society at the Capital is not content to remain upon the scene of their more pros- perous days, and they accordingly go to Cal- ifornia for a permanent residence.

Joshua Montgomery Sears, the young Boston millionaire who has recently succeeded in breaking his father's will, says his Boston estate pays an annual tax of $60,000. He is 22 years of age, a student of Yale College, and has been rejected "the best Christian influence." No mamma would re- fuse him for her daughter.

Theodore Tilton is mixed up with a sleeping car scandal. It is alleged that a New York man went to Albany to meet his wife and found Theodore occupying a sleeping berth with her. Husband was indignantly threatened to shoot—Theodore said he was asleep and got in the wrong berth by mis- take—husband hit him in the nose, etc. Here the matter seems to drop so far as the public are concerned, and a general air of mystery surrounds the tale, all parties to the affair refusing to talk.

A yellow fever patient in Savannah, was married in his bed on Thursday of last week. The Chicago Exposition is in full blast, and attracts great crowds. Thirty thousand people were present one day during the current week. The United States steamship Franklin left Gibraltar yesterday for Vigo to embark William M. Tweed and his companion, Horace D. Dole, of the United States. There are 600 cases of yellow fever at Brunswick. The people are in a most de- stitute condition, without food, physicians and nurses. A dispatch states it is impossible to exaggerate their frightful condition. Fifteen fighting newspapers in New Orleans is a lively business. A few days ago one editor killed his assistant, and now the editor of the Bee has had a thump on the head with a tin. The city editor is not possible with a large list of subscribers. The school question is being vigor- ously agitated in New Jersey. One hundred and fifty Catholic children have been with- drawn from the public schools at Bayonne, and six parochial schools established. The same is being done in other parts of the State. A family moving from Prairie du Chien to Winona in a skiff encamped on an island near Le Crosse on Friday night. During the night the child died of exhaustion. Upon inquiry it was found they were in very destitute circumstances, without food or money. There is no epidemic in Charleston, S. C. There have been four scattered yellow fever cases traced to persons who communicated with the quarantine, and refugees from Savannah. The fever shows no signs of spreading. A magnificent firm at Spirit Lake, Iowa, has adopted a new method of doing business. No books are kept. When a customer desires credit he goes to the desk and borrows money, for which he gives his note, payable with interest. He then buys his goods and pays for them. The superintendent of general recruiting has been directed to forward three hundred recruits to the department of the north as follows: 100 to the 5th and 6th Infantry, 100 to the 3rd Infantry, and 100 to the 6th Infantry, at Huntsville, Ala. The Savannah benevolent association, formerly the metropolitan fire company, which was organized in 1852, has been re-organized and is now in a flourishing condition. Winslow Castle was struck by a meteoric stone, on Thursday, September 6, between Henry the Eighth's Gateway and the Garter Tower, and a portion of the stone par- tially knocked off. The stone is said to have been of the size of a small cannon ball, and to have exploded on striking the castle with a noise like that of a shell and a shower of sparks. A terrible accident occurred on the Erie canal, on the 10th inst., at 12 miles from Columbus, Ohio. A passenger train swinging around a corner, at the rate of forty miles an hour, was thrown from the track and four cars went down a high embankment, killing four and wounding over thirty. The cause was a defective switch, which was caused by rapid running around a corner. A four-year-old boy, son of Mason Sage, of Wardsborough, Vt., was lost in the woods last week, and after a search of two black bears, they came up to him as he sat on the grass in an open glade and snuggled him. He patted them on their heads, thinking that they were dogs, and they licked him affectionately. Their footprints disclosed that they were the "dogs" the boy told about encountering. A Boston letter says that the restriction against the Old South church is only 30 days, and that persons are likely to prove the legality of a perpetual stipulation of this sort. Of course, the money has only begun to be raised yet. The property has been secured in such manner as to be held for public purchase by the city of Boston. There was a serious disturbance at a Republican meeting, in Cincinnati, on the night of the 21st, and Col. Carter, of Indiana, and Lieut. Gov. Young were rotten egged. A Fort Sully telegram says chief Bull Eagle is reported, when called upon to surrender his arms and ponies, to have sent word to General Buell at Chyenne agency, that he would do nothing of the kind, and that he wanted all the soldiers to cross the river and keep their rifles. The Indians would take care of themselves. William S. Stokely, mayor of Philadelphia, has been a criminal agent for Philadel- phia, and has been arrested by the Philadelphia Times, for printing an interview with Dr. John C. Buchanan, the bogus diplo- ma man, charging the mayor with receiving bribes of gold-mining stock as a bribe from Dr. Buchanan. Ex-Secretary of War Belknap has old his residence in Washington for $2,000, Congressman Walker of Virginia being the purchaser. Belknap preferred to remain in Washington but Mr. Belknap having been a leader in society at the Capital is not content to remain upon the scene of their more pros- perous days, and they accordingly go to Cal- ifornia for a permanent residence. Joshua Montgomery Sears, the young Boston millionaire who has recently succeeded in breaking his father's will, says his Boston estate pays an annual tax of $60,000. He is 22 years of age, a student of Yale College, and has been rejected "the best Christian influence." No mamma would re- fuse him for her daughter. Theodore Tilton is mixed up with a sleeping car scandal. It is alleged that a New York man went to Albany to meet his wife and found Theodore occupying a sleeping berth with her. Husband was indignantly threatened to shoot—Theodore said he was asleep and got in the wrong berth by mis- take—husband hit him in the nose, etc. Here the matter seems to drop so far as the public are concerned, and a general air of mystery surrounds the tale, all parties to the affair refusing to talk. A yellow fever patient in Savannah, was married in his bed on Thursday of last week. The Chicago Exposition is in full blast, and attracts great crowds. Thirty thousand people were present one day during the current week. The United States steamship Franklin left Gibraltar yesterday for Vigo to embark William M. Tweed and his companion, Horace D. Dole, of the United States. There are 600 cases of yellow fever at Brunswick. The people are in a most de- stitute condition, without food, physicians and nurses. A dispatch states it is impossible to exaggerate their frightful condition. Fifteen fighting newspapers in New Orleans is a lively business. A few days ago one editor killed his assistant, and now the editor of the Bee has had a thump on the head with a tin. The city editor is not possible with a large list of subscribers. The school question is being vigor- ously agitated in New Jersey. One hundred and fifty Catholic children have been with- drawn from the public schools at Bayonne, and six parochial schools established. The same is being done in other parts of the State. A family moving from Prairie du Chien to Winona in a skiff encamped on an island near Le Crosse on Friday night. During the night the child died of exhaustion. Upon inquiry it was found they were in very destitute circumstances, without food or money. There is no epidemic in Charleston, S. C. There have been four scattered yellow fever cases traced to persons who communicated with the quarantine, and refugees from Savannah. The fever shows no signs of spreading. A magnificent firm at Spirit Lake, Iowa, has adopted a new method of doing business. No books are kept. When a customer desires credit he goes to the desk and borrows money, for which he gives his note, payable with interest. He then buys his goods and pays for them. The superintendent of general recruiting has been directed to forward three hundred recruits to the department of the north as follows: 100 to the 5th and 6th Infantry, 100 to the 3rd Infantry, and 100 to the 6th Infantry, at Huntsville, Ala. The Savannah benevolent association, formerly the metropolitan fire company, which was organized in 1852, has been re-organized and is now in a flourishing condition. Winslow Castle was struck by a meteoric stone, on Thursday, September 6, between Henry the Eighth's Gateway and the Garter Tower, and a portion of the stone par- tially knocked off. The stone is said to have been of the size of a small cannon ball, and to have exploded on striking the castle with a noise like that of a shell and a shower of sparks. A terrible accident occurred on the Erie canal, on the 10th inst., at 12 miles from Columbus, Ohio. A passenger train swinging around a corner, at the rate of forty miles an hour, was thrown from the track and four cars went down a high embankment, killing four and wounding over thirty. The cause was a defective switch, which was caused by rapid running around a corner. A four-year-old boy, son of Mason Sage, of Wardsborough, Vt., was lost in the woods last week, and after a search of two black bears, they came up to him as he sat on the grass in an open glade and snuggled him. He patted them on their heads, thinking that they were dogs, and they licked him affectionately. Their footprints disclosed that they were the "dogs" the boy told about encountering. A Boston letter says that the restriction against the Old South church is only 30 days, and that persons are likely to prove the legality of a perpetual stipulation of this sort. Of course, the money has only begun to be raised yet. The property has been secured in such manner as to be held for public purchase by the city of Boston. There was a serious disturbance at a Republican meeting, in Cincinnati, on the night of the 21st, and Col. Carter, of Indiana, and Lieut. Gov. Young were rotten egged. A Fort Sully telegram says chief Bull Eagle is reported, when called upon to surrender his arms and ponies, to have sent word to General Buell at Chyenne agency, that he would do nothing of the kind, and that he wanted all the soldiers to cross the river and keep their rifles. The Indians would take care of themselves. William S. Stokely, mayor of Philadelphia, has been a criminal agent for Philadel- phia, and has been arrested by the Philadelphia Times, for printing an interview with Dr. John C. Buchanan, the bogus diplo- ma man, charging the mayor with receiving bribes of gold-mining stock as a bribe from Dr. Buchanan. Ex-Secretary of War Belknap has old his residence in Washington for $2,000, Congressman Walker of Virginia being the purchaser. Belknap preferred to remain in Washington but Mr. Belknap having been a leader in society at the Capital is not content to remain upon the scene of their more pros- perous days, and they accordingly go to Cal- ifornia for a permanent residence. Joshua Montgomery Sears, the young Boston millionaire who has recently succeeded in breaking his father's will, says his Boston estate pays an annual tax of $60,000. He is 22 years of age, a student of Yale College, and has been rejected "the best Christian influence." No mamma would re- fuse him for her daughter. Theodore Tilton is mixed up with a sleeping car scandal. It is alleged that a New York man went to Albany to meet his wife and found Theodore occupying a sleeping berth with her. Husband was indignantly threatened to shoot—Theodore said he was asleep and got in the wrong berth by mis- take—husband hit him in the nose, etc. Here the matter seems to drop so far as the public are concerned, and a general air of mystery surrounds the tale, all parties to the affair refusing to talk.

THE OUTLAWS CAUGHT.

Four More of the Northfield Bank Robbers Secured.

After it was generally supposed that the Missouri outlaws who attempted to rob the Northfield (Minn.) bank had escaped, the people were gratified by the intelligence that the hunt had been renewed resulting in one robber being killed and three more wounded.

It appears that on the morning of the 21st, four of the gang called at the house of a farmer named Ole Saun- burgh, in Linden, Brown county, and bought some bread and butter. As soon as they had gone, the farmer sought the boy and sent him to the nearest village, which was Madelia, eight miles distant. The boy reached Madelia between 9 and 10 a. m., and notified Sheriff Glispis of Watonwan county, that he had information of the whereabouts of the robbers. A party was instantly organized to pursue them and in one hour from the time the boy arrived with the news his pistols. This robber led the citi- zens to the place where lay his three companions. Glispis had the dead and wounded placed in a wagon and brought to Madelia, where Dr. Overholt and Cooley dressed the wounds of the liv- ing, and they were placed in beds in the Vaughn hotel.

The excitement and rejoicing over the capture of these outlaws is in- tense. The remaining two bandits supposed to be the James brothers, are in the vicinity of Sioux City, Iowa, with a large party in close pursuit, and their capture seems probable.

Another account. (Report of J. C. Wise of the Mankato Review.) Soon after arriving at Madelia we were fortunate in capturing Captain W. W. Murphy, one of the gallant captors, who rendered valiant services in the memorable fight. After speaking of the news brought by the boy Oscar Suborn, the account continues.

Sheriff Glispis was one of the first to receive the intelligence, and within five minutes he and several others were mounted and started. Others were directed to go in other directions to intercept them in their retreat.

The first sight Glispis' party had of them was at the right hand outlet of Hanks Lake, six miles west of Madelia. Here Glispis called out to them to sur- render, but continuing to retreat, the first shots were exchanged.

A horse in the pursuing party owned by a Norwegian, was wounded, and it is thought fatally. The robbers then made a slough. Glispis and his party being mounted could not follow them, but had to round a distance of several miles. After crossing the slough the robbers made straight for the Watonwan river, which they struck at the bend, six miles west of Madeli.

and near the house of Andrew Ander- son, where they crossed. Glispis and party crossed about a mile east and in front of them. Saw the robbers and drove them back into the brush of willows and palm trees lining the banks in that vicinity. By that time the horsemen and teams from town had arrived, and there was probably fifty persons occupying the bluffs. Here the horsemen were dismounted, and recruits called for to charge the brush.

Only seven persons responded, and their names are James Glispis, sheriff, Ben. Rice, son of the ex-governor, of St. James; Capt. W. W. Murphy of

Madelia; Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took

Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers. This line of brave men then wheeled, following the west, and moved up the river, the right flank resting on the river. Hardly ten rods of ground had been passed when one of the robbers rose from the thick brush, only a distance of fifteen feet from the line advancing, and opposed the robbers, who were all shot to the line were next the river. The rob- ber drew his revolver upon Glispis, Glispis drawing at the same time his pistol on the robber, both firing at nearly the same instant. Glispis bring- ing down his man. Glispis dropped to his knees to reload, when Captain Murphy advanced and fired five shots at the stooping robbers, who were all lying rapidly at the advancing line. All of Glispis' men opened fire at the same moment and the engagement be- came general. In five minutes the rob- bers' vest pockets, and thus saving his life. George Bradford had been struck on the wrist with a slight flesh- thimble shot, but the fire of the other boys are so hot to pieces." He ad- vanced to the citizens and surrendered himself to Captain Murphy, who took Madelia: Geo. Bradford, Clerk; Chas. Pomeroy, Jr., T. L. Vought, of Flan- ders House, and James Severson, clerk in Yate's store. Others were called for, but they refused to respond, and the gallant little band of seven, charged the robbers, passing through the thick brush in a northerly direction until striking the river, when they deployed as skirmishers, their line being formed about five feet apart. Then moving westward up the river, after going about seven rods, they ran upon the four men, secreted in thick willows. Glispis was on the extreme right of the line, advancing in an open path, and being seen by the robbers, he shot striking the river without stirring up the robbers.