

THE TRANSCRIPT

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1900.

—The Baptist state convention will meet at Montevideo Oct. 10-14.

—The TRANSCRIPT from now until Jan. 1 for only forty cents cash, on trial.

—Black card board for art and fancy work and for photographs on sale at this office.

—New milch cows for sale at farm six miles east. A. MILBRAD.

—Houses and lots for sale. Inquire of F. LaCom 713 College street.

—M. Asher returned Wednesday from his long outing on his farm near Canby.

—Go to O. A. Sime's, Odd Fellows' block, for lunches, oysters and first class meals.

—Tait's grand millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Do not miss it.

—FOR RENT.—The Catherine Merry house in the west part of the city. Inquire at this office.

—Prof. C. R. Bostrom spent Friday at the county fair at Kasson in the interest of the S. M. Normal college.

—Four drunks arrested Monday to say nothing of those not arrested. Where is the enforcement of our ordinances?

—Dennison A. Dunning and Miss Anna Belle Clark were married by Justice Lane Saturday and went to Alden to reside.

—Read the big ad in another column giving a list of attractions for the Austin street fair next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

—The Baptist Ladies' Aid society will serve a six o'clock supper in the church dining room on Friday evening of this week. Supper 25 cents.

—The first hard frost of the season came last Monday morning, Sept. 17. The corn is all out of the way and an immense crop. There has never been a more favorable fall season in Mower county.

—Austin street fair next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Don't miss it. It will be the great event of the season. All kinds of fun as well as exhibits.

—A large number of our citizens took in the Albert Lea street fair Friday. There will be a chance to reciprocate next week when the Austin street fair is held.

—O. A. Wyman and bride arrived from their wedding trip on Wednesday and are temporarily boarding with Mrs. G. C. Adams while their house is being remodeled.

—Mrs. N. I. Johnson goes to Minneapolis this week to keep house for her sister-in-law for the winter. The D. of R. gave her a banquet Monday evening and presented her a fine blanket robe and a pair of slippers.

—Leave orders for Alfred Hill's one horse express at Wold's pharmacy.

—Take your eggs to the Refrigerator and get 11 cents cash for them.

—Good prices paid for scrap iron at the new foundry, River street.

—Many men of many minds—Wear the hat of many kinds—The Gordon.

—Tait's grand millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Do not miss it.

—Harry Mandeville and family went to Mont Vista, Col., to reside, hoping to improve his health. His brother resides there.

—Buy your fuel and building material from the Austin Lumber Co. and get piano tickets. Phone 16-2 Geo. W. Buchanan, agent.

—The prohibition clubs will rally at Lansing Friday evening of this week at 7:30 at the church. Music and singing. Everybody invited.

—The new Home Bakery, P. H. Zender proprietor, opened up across the street from this office last week and will be very popular with his former patrons as well as with new ones.

—Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Bishop of Orange, Cal., came Wednesday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. F. A. Ticknor. They will go east next week to Washington and other points.

—Rev. R. Cruikshank, D. D., of Denver, Col., came Wednesday to visit his old friend, Rev. A. Reynolds, whom he had not seen before for forty years. They were old friends in New York State.

—Mrs. John F. Robinson of Steele, N. D., visited friends here last week, going to Stewartville Saturday to visit her mother. The K. K. K. gave a reception in her honor Friday evening at the home of Miss Lurie Ober.

—Sam Regua and family expect to leave next Saturday for Everett, Wash., for their future home. He is employed in the bridge building department of the Great Northern road. We are sorry to have them go.

—We have received a photo of the pleasant home of J. C. Kaiser in Puyallup, Wash. His many friends here will be pleased to learn that he and his family are well. Melvin is running a harness shop and Myron C. Miner is proprietor of a furniture store.

—The date printed on the label of your TRANSCRIPT shows the time up to which you are paid. Please look it up and see if you are in arrears and send in promptly. Until further notice we will allow five cents for expense of sending all sums of $1.50 or over.

—Austin Steam Dye and Cleaning Works—Suits steam cleaned and pressed, $2.00; dyed, $3.00. Our customers are saving half of their clothing bills by having their old clothes fixed up. Ladies' and children's clothes and household goods cleaned and dyed in first-class manner, at 303 East Water street.

—Every Gordon hat is warranted perfect.

—Wanted, a fireman. Inquire at Kinsman's greenhouses.

—Come in to hear Senator Nelson at the armory next Saturday evening.

—The city street lights are expected to be ready to turn on this week.

—The Redmen have rented the use of the Woodman hall, in the Joseph block.

—Charles Rensberger, foreman of St. Cloud Journal-Press, was a caller yesterday.

—Charles Noble is appointed postmaster at Corning, in place of John F. Aldal, resigned.

—The Austin Prohibition club claims a membership of ninety members, all voters.

—Miss Laura Crane leaves tomorrow for Colorado Springs to resume her school work there.

—Mrs. F. B. Wood returned Saturday from Dubuque, where she has been visiting for several weeks.

—Tait's grand millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Do not miss it.

—FOR SALE, grade Shropshire ewes and also some full blood Shropshire rams. Inquire of E. A. WELCH.

—Miss Allie Van Eman, of Fairbault, came down yesterday to attend the Haussamen-Crane wedding.

—Rev. S. McMillon of West Concord will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

—The interior of W. C. Horrobin's grocery is being remodeled with steel ceiling and new calomining and floors.

—C. L. West returned the first of the week from Chicago, where he selected an immense new stock of the latest and finest dry goods.

—Frank Waterman, of Delevan, Wis., visited old friends here last week, going to Merriam Park to visit his aunt, Mrs. Geo. H. Fish.

—Mrs. S. H. Judd, who has been sick at the home of her daughter in Albert Lea, is recovering and expects to start for Washington state in a few days to remain several months.

—OSTEOPATHY.—I have located in Austin. Office over Geo. Hirsch's store. Anyone interested in osteopathic treatment is invited to call and see me.

O. S. ALBERTSON, D. O., Graduate S. S. Still College.

—The state association of the Congregational churches of Minnesota met at Northfield yesterday, and will close tomorrow. The delegation from the Austin church are Rev. E. F. Wheeler and wife, J. S. Decker and wife, Stephen Cook and wife, Mrs. J. J. Hayes, Mrs. W. T. Mandeville.

—The matter of the resignation of Rev. J. G. Reintz came up officially before the Central Presbyterian church Thursday evening and after a full discussion it was decided by a vote of 57 to 3 to request Mr. Reintz to withdraw his resignation and remain as pastor.

GRAND OPENING

At Our New Store,
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1900.

We will make the occasion a day of long remembrance. It will be a day of the greatest values that have ever been offered. Suits, Overcoats, Shirts, Underwear and Hosiery will be sold at prices that will interest the buyer. These prices will apply to strictly cash sales for that day only.

Suits strictly all wool, good Italian Lining, well tailored, nice dark patterns, excellent wearers, sold everywhere at $7.50 grand opening price..... Fine Suits, Frocks, Sacks, Straight Cut, in stripes, plaids, and nice neat figures, make and fit equal to custom made, sold everywhere at $10.00 grand opening price.....	Very newest style, worsted Suits, made from fine imported fabric, choice patterns, very nobby, cheap at $15.00 grand opening price..... Fine all wool Fall Overcoats, newest shades, the regular $15.00 value grand opening price..... $10.00
---	--

We show the largest and handsomest line of BOY'S and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING in this city. We show styles and patterns that can not be found at other stores. Our prices are less than you pay elsewhere. We show good Children's Suits at $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3. Good young Men's Suits at $3, $4, $5, $7.50.

We have the largest store and the largest stock in this city. We give the largest values. Attend this great opening next Saturday. A fine Souvenir will be given free to every caller on our opening day. Reception Friday evening, September 21, from 7 till 9. EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED.

NEW STORE, NEW STOCK.

BEST QUALITIES, LOWEST PRICES.

On Monday, September 24th,

OCHS BROTHERS,

The Bee Hive Dry Goods Store,

will open for business in the store room opposite the court house, three doors south of Horrobin's grocery, with a full line of Dry Goods, Notions, Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings and Tinware. We cordially invite the public to inspect our line of goods and we feel satisfied that they will agree with us in what we say. Our aim is to give good service and the best qualities at the very lowest figures. Remember that we do not intend to carry all lines such as Groceries, Clothing, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, etc., but the lines we carry are to be of the best qualities and at the lowest figures.

OCHS BROTHERS,

The Bee Hive.

—If you win a hat on the election insist that it be a Gordon.

—Hon. John Mathieson and nephew from St. Paul called Thursday.

—Billier's bakery and Marsh's meat market are to have a new modern front with plate glass.

—Miss Lettie Bathrick, the "hello" girl at Rushford, is visiting at H. G. Willson's in Frankford.

—Tait's grand millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Do not miss it.

—Shorthorn bulls, Poland Chinas pigs and Cotswold buck lambs from imported sire for sale by J. J. Furlong, Austin.

—FOR SALE.—Nice suburban residence property on north Kenwood avenue. Good house and over an acre of land. Inquire at this office.

—Mrs. M. A. Bascomb, who spent the past few months at the home of her son, E. G. Bascomb, on Kenwood avenue, returned to Rochester, Minn., yesterday.

—The ladies of the Lutheran church will hold an ice cream and cake social at the house of Nels Nordland, North Lansing avenue, Friday evening, September 21st.

—Mr. C. D. Douglas and wife and E. S. Hoppin and wife, of Pleasant Valley, and Dwight Rowley, and wife of Rochester, were here Tuesday on probate business.

—W. M. Corbitt, recently of Marshall, who bought three acres of the Asher tract, will soon commence a residence. He has the whole Kenwood avenue frontage.

—C. J. Berryhill, editor of the St. Paul Review, and Charles F. Staples, republican candidate for railroad commissioner, were callers Friday, on their way to Fairmount to make addresses in the evening.

—At the state competitive shoot of the M. N. G. at Lake City last week, Sergeant Chas. Elmer of Co. G qualified as one of the members of the state rifle team. The Third regiment won the regimental trophy.

—My place on the corner of College and Main streets, Austin, Minn., and occupied by Mr. Emmons, is for sale for cash or on time. Address H. V. GLAZIER, Wauwatosa, Wis.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church have purchased of the Austin Music Store an elegant Clough & Warren organ. This much-needed instrument will be appreciated by every member.

—The city council met Wednesday evening. A resolution licensing hotels and restaurants in the city was defeated. The alley east of the Hirsch-Joseph block, presented to the city by L. D. Baird, was accepted. Wm. Stussy was appointed superintendent of the street electric light wiring in place of Mr. Swain resigned. Maggie Taylor put in a claim of $500 for alleged injury from defective sidewalk.

—Another hard rain yesterday.

—Born to Mrs. A. B. Hunkins on Thursday, a baby boy.

—Mrs. J. E. Robinson went to Carlington, N. D., yesterday, to visit her daughter.

—Gentry's famous dog and pony show at Austin, Friday, Sept. 21. Free street parade at 10:30 a. m.

—Frank Mayer and Miss Bertha Gates were married yesterday morning, Rev. E. H. Devlin officiating.

—At the annual election of Austin Royal Arch Chapter, held Friday evening, the following were appointed for the ensuing year: E. L. Johnson, high priest; George Doehne, king; Geo. E. Anderson, scribe; Wallace Gregson, captain of the host; Thaddeus Thompson, P. S.; W. M. Crane, E. A. C.; Wm. Todd, treasurer; Parke Goodwin, secretary.

—The Democratic-Independent committees met Thursday for consultation. Thomas Kough withdrew from the nomination of auditor, and Frank J. Hill, of Waltham, was substituted. J. H. Krebsbach withdrew from the nomination for county commissioner in the third district, and it was decided to put up no substitute to run against F. E. Hambrecht. A central executive committee was appointed, and the candidates were assessed $10 each for preliminary expenses.

Married.

MEDBERY-VERMILYA.
SCHOTTIER-VERMILYA.

At the residence of Mr. Abram Vermilya in Dexter village, there occurred a double wedding last Wednesday morning, Sept. 12, 1900, the two brides being sisters and the only daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vermilya. Dwight W. Medbery, one of the leading merchants of Dexter and a member of the firm of Medbery Brothers, wedded Miss Olive Maud, and Dr. George J. Schottier, the popular and successful Dexter physician, wedded Miss Ida Kathleen. They were unattended during the ceremony. Rev. C. D. Belden of Austin, officiated. Only a few relatives were present. The brides wore their traveling suits of castor broad cloth, with white satin bodices. Soon after the congratulations were over, the wedding party took the Great Western train to Chicago for a week's trip, and on their return Dr. Schottier and bride will go to housekeeping in their elegant new home and Mr. Medbery and bride will for the present have rooms at Mr. Vermilya's. Both brides are very popular. They are excellent singers and musicians and Mrs. Medbery has been for several years a very successful and capable teacher in the county. Both have been reared in this locality and combine sterling characters with a dignified self-respect. We extend our heartiest congratulations and wish them a double portion of life's blessings.

HAUSSAMEN-CRANE.

At five o'clock this afternoon, the wedding of Mr. H. L. Haussamen of Grafton, N. D., and Miss Eugenia Abbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Crane, will take place at the residence of the bride's parents on Kenwood avenue south, Rev. D. J. W. Somerville officiating. About forty relatives and intimate friends are invited. The Paradise Club will sing. The wedding march is to be played by Dr. Fred Farmer of Spring Valley. Will M. Crane is groomsmen and Miss May Crane bridesmaid. The rooms are tastefully decorated in palms and white for the occasion. The bride's gown is of white silk tulle over taffeta. Ralph Crane and Win. Carter will usher in the wedding party. After the ceremony, a wedding supper will be served, the Paradise club serving. Mr. and Mrs. Haussamen will take the evening train south for Denver and Colorado Springs for a two weeks' trip. They will be at home after Nov. 1 at their first home in Grafton, N. D. The groom was reared near Toronto and has been for years a successful druggist and pharmacist in North Dakota. The bride was born and reared here and graduated from the Austin High school in the class of '90. She took one year in the scientific course at the state university, and has taught very successfully for several years, one year in Austin and four in Grafton. She is a fine musician and artist and holds a high place in the social circles of Austin. She represents that which is purest and best in womanhood. Our best wishes follow her and hers.

Cash for Chickens.

We will pay the following prices delivered at PACKING HOUSE for week ending September 8: Spring Chickens 7c per pound, Hens 5c per pound, old Roosters 10c a piece. We are heavy buyers of poultry and want all we can get. GEO. A. HORMEL & Co., Austin, Minn.

—The greatest offer of the year: The TRANSCRIPT and the daily Dispatch of St. Paul from now to Jan. 1, 1901, for one dollar cash. One dollar takes them both for the rest of 1900.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH,
Cor. St. Paul and Mill Sts.
Services of Special Interest at 10:30 a. m., 12 m., 6:45 and 7:45 p. m. Every Sunday.
Seats are free and Strangers Especially Invited.
Musical and sociable, Friday evening, Sept. 21st.
People's gospel and praise service Sunday evening. Theme, Why do Christians have so much trouble in the world?