AN ALLIANCE FORMED

GERMANY AND ENGLAND TO MAINTAIN INTEGRITY OF CHINA.

Ports of the Empire to Be Kept Open to the Trade of the World—Present Complication Not to Be Used to Obtain Additional Territorial Advantages in the Far East.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Germany and England have formed an alliance to maintain the territorial integrity of China and to keep ports open.

The terms of this agreement, which was arrived at Oct. 16 between Lord Salisbury and Count von Hatzfeldt, German ambassador to England, are officially given as follows:

"The German government and her British majesty's government, being desirous to maintain their interests in China and their rights under existing treaties, have agreed to observe the following principles regarding a mutual policy in China:

"First—It is a matter of joint permanent international interest that the ports of China should remain free and open to trade and to every other legitimate form of economic activity for the peoples of all countries without distinction; and the two governments agree on their part to uphold the same for all Chinese territory as far as they can exercise influence.

"Second—Both governments agree that they will not on their part make use of the present complication to obtain for themselves any territorial advantage in Chinese dominion, and will direct their policy towards maintaining undiminished the territorial condition of the Chinese empire.

"Third—In case of another power making use of the complications in China in order to obtain under any form whatever such territorial advantages, the two contracting parties reserve to themselves the right to come to a preliminary understanding regarding the eventual step to be taken for protection of their own interests in China.

"Fourth—The two governments will communicate this agreement to other powers interested, especially Austria-Hungary, France, Italy, Japan, Russia and the United States, and invite them to accept the principles recorded in it."

CAUSES SATISFACTION.

News of the English-German Agreement Well Received at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The state department here has not yet been advised officially of the terms of the alliance reported from London to have been reached between Germany and England to maintain territorial integrity of China and to keep ports open. While the move gives general satisfaction here, the officials say that it probably is a misnomer to call it an alliance. What probably has happened, they say, has been a reaffirmation of principles already agreed upon, not only between England and Germany, but between all the great powers interested in China. Again, the officials point to the note of Secretary Hay of July 8, defining the position of the United States and declaring it to be its policy among other things to "preserve Chinese territorial and administrative integrity, protect all rights guaranteed to friendly powers by treaty and international law and safeguard for the world, the principle of equal and impartial trade with all parts of the Chinese empire." The records show that all the great powers accepted the principle of this guarantee of territorial integrity. Their expressions on the point of commercial freedom were not quite as explicit as in the case of territorial integrity, and it appears from a study of the British-German agreement above referred to, that particular care has now been taken to clear up any doubt on this point.

REBELS VICTORIOUS.

Official Chinese Dispatches Admit Defeat in Kwang Tung.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Official Chinese dispatches, says the Shanghai correspondent of the Standard, "admit that the imperial troops have sustained defeats in the province of Kwang Tung. All the Chinese generals in Kwang Tung and Kwang Si are begging for reinforcements."

"The leaders of the 'Vegetarians,' the secret society whose members last July murdered the missionaries at Chu Chan, have been captured and taken to Hang Chau for punishment."

FRENCH THERE FIRST.

Allies Find an Advance Column at Foching Fu.

TIENTSIN, Oct. 22.—Advices from Peking Fu say the allies found the city had been occupied by an independent French column on the 15th. The French claim their force was really the advance guard of the allies. But the Germans and British are much chagrined at the premature climax of the carefully planned expedition.

SOME BERLIN COMMENT.

Anglo-German Agreement Encouraging For the Peace of the World.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—An inspired article in The North German Gazette regards the Anglo-German agreement as a "reassuring sign for the peace of the world," and says that England, just as Germany does, expressly denounces all ideas of making use of the complications in China for her special advantages.

JOHN SHERMAN DEAD

VENERABLE OHIO STATESMAN EXPIRES AT WASHINGTON.

Had Been Very Low for a Number of Days and the End Was Not Unexpected—Ex-Pastmaster General Wilson and Charles Dudley Warner, the Author, Join the Great Majority.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Hon. John Sherman, who for a period of 40 years occupied a prominent place in the legislative and administrative branches of public affairs in the United States, died here at 6:45 a. m. of brain exhaustion. Death came to the aged sufferer peacefully after almost 86 hours of nearly complete unconsciousness. During the last 15 hours of his life he was all the time unconscious and passed away while in this condition. A number of relatives and friends who had assembled in Washington in response to summons were at the bedside when the end came. The most devoted of them was Mrs. McCallum, the adopted daughter of ex-Secretary and Mrs. Sherman, who remained constantly at the bedside during the last hours. Funeral services over the remains will be held in this city and Mansfield, the Ohio towns, where the secretary and Mrs. Sherman spent so many of their summers. Interment will be in the family lot at that place and will occur, in all probability, on Thursday, the remains lying in state in the Episcopal church at Mansfield for about a day preceding the funeral services.

WILLIAM L. WILSON DEAD.

Former Postmaster General Dies Suddenly at Lexington, Va.

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 18.—William L. Wilson, president of Washington and Lee university and ex-postmaster general, died suddenly of congestion of the lungs. He had been failing ever since his return from Arizona. His son, Dr. Arthur Wilson of Lynchburg, visited him Sunday and left Monday. Then came the sudden change. He was confined to the house from Tuesday a week ago, but was thought to be improved when his son left him. He was conscious until the last. By his bedside were his wife, his daughters, Miss Mary and Bettie Wilson, and one

NOTED AUTHOR DEAD.

Charles Dudley Warner Succumbs to Heart Failure at Hartford, Conn.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 22.—Charles Dudley Warner, the eminent author and lecturer, died suddenly under peculiar circumstances in the home of Mrs. Robert Smith, a colored woman living in the lower part of the city. It is not known just what time he died and he is supposed to have been dead for quite awhile before the authorities were notified.

Mr. Warner's health has been poor for some time past, and recently he had a slight shock of paralysis which slightly disfigured his face. The medical examiner who visited the residant said that death was due to heart failure, and that he had been dead for an hour and a half previous to the time he viewed the body. The woman in whose house Mr. Warner's death occurred says he was passing her house, and feeling faint, came in for a glass of water. He had been there but a few moments when he expired in the chair he sat on. Although the death occurred, according to the medical examiner's theory, about 8:30, he was not notified until 5, and nobody else in the neighborhood appeared to know anything about it until after that time. Friends of Mr. Warner say that they know the husband of the woman to have been a beneficiary of Mr. Warner's charity for several years. Mr. Warner was 73 years of age.

To Cure Insomnia.

An English physician of distinction gives these suggestions for cure of insomnia: In cases where the patient sleeps for an hour or two, then awakens with a start and cannot go to sleep again the physician recommends that a hot water compress be laid on the abdomen. When one cannot go to sleep on retiring and is unable to dismiss thoughts that have occupied the day, it is advised that the patient keep his feet in water as hot as he can bear comfortably for ten minutes before going to bed. He should then put on a pair of thin cotton hose wrung out of cold water and over those a pair of woolen ones. A more powerful remedy is a mustard sitz bath, with the proportion of a teaspoonful of mustard to a gallon of hot water. He should remain seated in the bath from 10 to 20 minutes. In many cases a reclining bath in tepid water is useful as a sedative.

The Funniest Story!

Sir Wilfrid Laurier once said that he considered the following the funniest story in the world. Do you agree with him? A gentleman was once being taken over an idiot asylum. He asked an attendant how they knew when an idiot was considered to be sufficiently restored to sanity to be discharged. "Oh," said the attendant, "it is easily managed. We take them into a yard where there are several troughs. We turn on the taps and then give the idiots buckets to bail out the water and empty the troughs. Many of them go on bailing away while the tap keeps running, but them that isn't idiots stops the tap."
