THE TRANSCRIPT

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28, 1900

—Church wedding in Austin next month.

—Take your poultry to the Refrigerator, Mill street.

—Good prices paid for scrap iron at the new foundry, River street.

—The Lady Macabees will give a Poster sociable at Elks hall this evening.

—The TRANSCRIPT from now until Jan. 1 for only twenty cents cash, on trial.

—Highest market price paid for poultry at the Refrigerator. KODYM & Co.

—Black card board for art and fancy work and for photographs on sale at this office.

—Train service commenced Monday on the new London branch between Lyle and Albert Lea.

—On Wednesday Judge Washburn appointed Allen G. Dalen, guardian for Mrs. Anna Johnson of Racine township, who is past eighty years old.

—Robert Crickmore, secretary of the State Dairymen's Association, was a caller Thursday on his way to the Buttermakers' convention at Fairmont.

—Union Thanksgiving services will be held tomorrow forenoon at the Congregational church, the sermon to be given by Rev. Mr. Brown, pastor of the M. E. church.

—OSTEOPATHY.—I have located in Austin. Office over Cressey & Donovan's store. Anyone interested in osteopathic treatment is invited to call and see me. O. S. ALBERTSON, D. O., Graduate S. S. Still College.

—All plays at the Austin Opera House will in future commence promptly at 8:15 p. m. sharp. Patrons should be in their seats by eight o'clock. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction at the tardiness of audiences hitherto.

—The most important group of papers which the Atlantic Monthly will offer to its readers during 1901 is a series of scholarly, unpartisan studies of the Reconstruction Period. The various authors represent both the South and the North, and many shades of political opinion. The following are a few of those who will contribute papers: Prof. Woodrow Wilson, Thomas Nelson Page, Hon. D. H. Chamberlain, and ex-secretary of the Navy, Herbert.

—The city council held a special meeting Thursday evening and voted to give eight feet of the jail lot for an alley way north and south through the block. All the owners of buildings in the block have given perpetual right of way except K. O. Wold on the corner north and the necessary land has been purchased of him so that the alley will extend from Bridge street to Maple. We wish that there was an alley across every business block in the city.

—Take your poultry to the Refrigerator, Mill street.

—The fine family horse of W. H. Adams died Saturday.

—Miss Ida Michaels is entertaining two cousins from Tomah, Wis.

—Dr. B. Shaw, an experienced nurse, 103 River St., is ready for call.

—Leave orders for Alfred Hill's one horse express at Wold's pharmacy.

—Mrs. J. McDonald entertained the Calendar Club Saturday evening.

—The Normal college senate held an interesting session Friday evening.

—Lou Mallory of Hampton, Iowa, is visiting his brothers John and William.

—Highest market price paid for poultry at the Refrigerator. KODYM & Co.

—Miss Ethel Birkett arrived home last evening from her long visit in Ottawa, Canada.

—The ladies of the Lutheran Society held a social Friday evening with Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Jr.

—Mrs. C. A. Litchfield and children of Dodge Centre came last week to spend Thanksgiving with relatives here.

—The firm of Hallman & Kennedy of the Ideal restaurant has dissolved. S. P. Hallman, the senior partner, buying the entire interest.

—C. D. Belden and family moved into their new house Wednesday. They are living upstairs for a short time while the first floor is completed.

—Alex S. Campbell is shipping an average of three carloads of his high grade flour every week to England and Scotland, a splendid advertisement for Austin industries.

—E. Hunziker of Milbank, S. D., has rented the Weisel building on Mill street, formerly occupied by King's restaurant, and will open a first-class restaurant, having a grand opening tomorrow.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Furtney celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Friday evening at the home of their son, J. S. Furtney on Water street. A number of relatives were present and the evening was spent very pleasantly.

—At the meeting of Austin Lodge No. 32, A. O. U. W. held Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: M. W., John Rustad; Foreman, Gorm Hansen; Overseer, Martin Kelly; Recorder, O. H. Harris; Financier, A. E. Hall; Collector, K. O. Wold; I. W., D. Tubbs; O. W., J. W. Jensen; Trustee, J. D. Bugg.

—Rev. F. L. Anderson has accepted the unanimous call to become the pastor of the First Baptist church of this city and will enter upon his duties next Sunday. He has rented the Lott residence next south of the Baptist church, recently occupied by B. J. Dowdall. He is expected here tomorrow and his family will come Saturday.

—C. A. Martin's parents of McGregor came Friday to visit him.

—The Austin Elks will hold appropriate Memorial services next Sunday.

—All kinds of book work and binding done at this office. Bring in your orders.

—Ochs Bros. have a full-page ad. this week filled with interesting news to bargain hunters.

—The K. K. K. was entertained Friday evening by Miss Lottie Ober at a chafing dish party.

—Rev. John Treloar, pastor of the Christian church, will occupy the O. Ayers residence this winter.

—The alarm of fire early Thursday evening came from the residence of Dr. Flester, came by fire catching around a wood stove. Damage slight.

—Sneak thieves stole an overcoat and other wearing apparel Saturday afternoon from Al Reed and Barney McMahon which were in their rooms over McMahon's saloon.

—Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Dorr and daughter spent a part of last week with friends in Rochester, returning Thursday. The doctor is now on the way to his official duties in North Carolina.

—The editor of an Iowa paper the other day was blessed with a baby boy. A little later, after examining the baby, went to her father and asked: "Did we get him on advertising, too, papa?"

—An editor recently offered a prize for the best definition of money and this is what one of his subscribers sent in: "A universal passport to anything and everything except heaven." Next.

—The county has purchased the book typewriter which has been on trial in the register of deeds office for some time. It is a very useful investment as by its use the records are typewritten on the large record books of the county.

—Pictures, 50c. and $1.00 per dozen at E. H. Austin's Art Studio. All platinum finish, the best in the land. The greatest opportunity ever offered to the public. No cheap John affair. Come early and bring friends.

Died.
STEWART.
At his residence east of Brownsdale, Sunday, Nov. 25, 1900, James H. Stewart, aged 75 years. He was born in Dauphin county, Penn., Jan. 7, 1825. When an infant his folks moved to Wayne county, Ohio, where he grew up. He was one of the old timers who made the overland trip to California in 1850, remaining there two years. He returned to Ohio for a year and then took a second overland trip to California. He came from Ohio to Red Rock township, just east of Brownsdale in 1855 and settled on the place which he has ever since occupied. He lived unmarried until he was nearly sixty years old. In 1864 he was married to Miss Anna Brown. She died about six years ago. Two children, a son and a daughter, survive. Funeral services were held yesterday forenoon at the M. E. church at Brownsdale. Rev. C. D. Belden of Austin officiating. Thus another of our early settlers has left us and the remaining pioneers who helped to make this county what it is are getting few in number.
