The funeral was held Saturday. Interment in Oakwood.

—Bart's Minneapolis Journal cartoons under the title of "A World of Trouble" are put out in colors this year and constitute the most striking edition of the Journal's cartoon books yet published. The title fits the book, as the old world has had a good deal of trouble of late, and the cartoons in the book cover these leading features of the year's news and comprise some of the best work from Bart's graphic pencil. The book may be had for 25 cents by mail from the Journal office.

—The Century is to have a serial story by Irving Bacheller, the author of that popular novel, "Eben Holden." It is a border tale of 1812. Two types of the men who have helped to make America are set forth in it; one, a Northern Yankee, quaint, rugged and wise; the other, a man who has the hardy traits of a Puritan, with the romantic temperament of a Cavalier. The scene of the story is in the neighborhood of Lake Champlain, and the title is "D'ri and I." It will begin in the March Century and run for six months.

Weddings.

MILLS-BECKEL.

At the residence of Thede Bailey on College street, Monday, Feb. 11, 1901, Edwin Mills of Windom township and Miss Helena Beckel of this city, Rev. S. G. Briggs officiating. Charles A. Mills, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Margaret Beckel bridesmaid. They left on the noon train for Cresco, where they will visit friends. On their return they will go to housekeeping on the H. D. Mills farm at Saint's Rest. Many congratulations.

WHITCOMB-KERSTE.

At the residence of Mrs. L. L. Hudson, at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, Feb. 12, 1901, Dr. Morton Stebbins Whitcomb and Miss Agnes Anna Kerste, Rev. D. J. W. Somerville officiating. They stood in the bay window during the ceremony. There was a background of evergreen and the parlors were decorated with potted plants, carnations, smilax and ferns. They were unattended. The bride wore a beautiful fabric of light gray imported Venetian with silk and chiffon applique. The bride carried roses. The Episcopal service was read. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends were present. A wedding supper was served. The presents were numerous and beautiful. The bride has lived here for the past six years and has been an efficient teacher in vocal and piano music. Her home formerly was in Albany, N. Y., and several congratulatory telegrams were received from relatives there. She is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of music and also graduated under Prof. Fellows in Carnegie Music hall, New York. The groom, who came here from Northwood about nine years ago, has also made many friends here who rejoice in his prosperity. He is a graduate from the Chicago Veterinary College. Dr. and Mrs. Whitcomb will take a trip to St. Paul and Minneapolis and several Iowa points and will be at home to friends at the residence of Mrs. Hudson after March 15. We unite in kindest wishes.

ENES-DORR.

At the residence of the bride's parents on Chatham street, at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 12, 1901, Mr. Hans Enes of Henderson, Minn., and Miss Margie E., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Dorr, Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. They were unattended during the ceremony. The beautiful ring service was used. The bride was attired in her going-away gown. On account of the recent death of the groom's father the wedding was strictly private, only a few relatives being present. A bountiful wedding supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Enes took the evening train for Chicago. The bride is one of Austin's brightest and most winsome young ladies. She excels in music and in art, having completed her studies in these at Sissinwa Mound. She is one of the K. K. K. and gave to the club a pre-nuptial banquet at the Fox hotel last Wednesday evening. We have known her from her childhood and know of her sterling worth and excellence. The groom has been a resident of Henderson for the past twenty years and is one of the substantial business men of that place, being engaged in milling and enjoying the confidence and esteem of all who know him. They will be at home to friends in Austin after March 15th at the residence of Dr. E. C. Dorr and will subsequently go to housekeeping at Henderson. We extend personal and hearty congratulations.

DIED.

BELL.

At the residence of her son William in this city, Friday, Feb. 8, 1901, of old age and lagrippe, Mrs. Mary Bell, widow of William Bell, aged 76 years. She was one of the earliest settlers of Newry. She was born in Tipperary county, Ireland, and at an early age came to Illinois. She leaves four sons, William and Mike of Austin and John and Charles of Blooming Prairie. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church Monday morning. Interment at Newry.

CARTER.

At Sioux City, Iowa, Thursday, Feb. 7, 1901, George A. Carter, aged 63 years. He was taking a load of grain to market on Tuesday when he slipped from the load and the wheels passed over his body causing death two days later. He formerly lived in this city and was a carpenter by trade. His first wife was a sister of Mrs. E. C. Dorr. He leaves a widow and four children. He was a brother of L. D. Carter, J. A. Carter and Mrs. Abe Watkins of Austin. These three attended the funeral at Sioux City.

Interesting Lecture.

Dr. Alexander Cameron will deliver a lecture on "The Education of the Blind" in the Baptist church, Tuesday evening, Feb. 19 at 8 o'clock sharp. Dr. Cameron lost his sight at the age of five. After finishing the course at Faribault he entered Carleton college where he graduated in the classical course in June 1896. Then he entered Yale University to pursue post-graduate work in philosophy receiving the degree of Ph. D. last June. He is the only blind man who has received that degree. Dr. Cameron plans to complete his course in divinity at Yale for which he is raising funds by lecturing in this state. All the proceeds of his lecture in Austin will be given to him. The lecture is given under the auspices of the local ministerial association.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the lot owners of the Austin Cemetery Association will be held in the City Clerk's office in the Court House Austin, Friday, March 1, 1901 at 2:00 o'clock p. m. At this meeting a full report of all receipts and payments during the year will be made, showing who paid and what, to whom money has been paid and for what, also amounts due the association and by whom, and two trustees will be elected in place of A. Frederick and F. P. McBride whose terms expire. F. P. McBride sec.

The Hospital Bazaar.

The grand bazaar at the Armory for the benefit of St. Olaf's hospital Monday with very bright prospects. The several booths are beautifully arranged and a large display of fancy work, valentines and other articles are on sale. At the evening program given by the Ladies Musical Society there were over 500 present. The program last evening was a play given by the Temple Company. This evening, Delsarte poses will be given by a number of young ladies under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Mitchell. Interesting programs will be given every evening. There is no charge for admission during the day. Ten cents admission each evening. Dinners and suppers are served daily by different societies at 25 cents each meal. Children's tickets 15 cents. Refreshments at booths 10 cents. This is a very worthy object and our citizens of all classes should take hold and make this bazaar a grand financial success. Get your meals at the armory, attend the evening entertainments, drop in and spend a little in purchases. A good many of our most efficient helpers are assisting and the call and need are for all to rally at this time. Remember at the armory all this week, day and evening, closing Saturday night. It is hoped to raise a large part of the indebtedness on the hospital building and this can be one if every one cooperate liberally.
