

LE ROY

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brownlow, R. H. Woodburn and Miss Bessie Hayes left last week for St. Louis to view the sights at the exposition.

Miss Cora Harden, teacher in the Albert Lea schools was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism and her sister, Mrs. Redfield, went to Albert Lea and accompanied her to her home in LeRoy last Monday. We are pleased to note that she is improving somewhat.

Mrs. E. Diddams who fell and broke her arm, is doing as well as could be expected, though on account of her years it will be slow in healing.

Miles Maxfield now rides in superb grandeur in his new automobile, and Oh! the hearts that palpitate.

Temperance Sunday was observed in both the Baptist and Presbyterian churches. The pastors gave a rousing temperance address in the morning, followed by temperance exercises in the Sunday school.

There are good prospects for a reading room to be established in LeRoy in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedar Presdegard have begun housekeeping in the Con Penderghast house on Reade street.

The little Misses Jennie and Sadie Nelson entertained a large party of their girl friends Friday afternoon at Sadie's birthday.

A. B. Roper died at 5:30 p. m. Monday, Nov. 23. Mr. Roper has been a sufferer for many months with a complication of diseases and for several weeks has been a great sufferer.

ADAMS

James Dixon was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, last week Tuesday for treatment.

W. W. Dean and cousin, Miss Evelyn Carter, left Wednesday to attend the St. Louis exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carr and daughter of Austin were here Thursday evening.

Several from Adams went to Austin Thursday to witness the football game.

The Willing Workers were very successful with their sale Thursday and the dinner and supper which they served.

The A. O. U. W. dance at Carey's hall Thanksgiving night was largely attended and a fine time was enjoyed.

Miss Sarah Carr has gone to Kimberly, Utah, to visit her sister for the winter.

R. M. Larson spent Thanksgiving with his folks at Ridgeway, Iowa.

The Benefit dance at Sabel's hall Thursday night drew a large crowd and all seemed to have a good time.

Children like Cole's Cough Cure and wise mothers know it is the best thing for a cough. A word to the wise is sufficient. Get Cole's it's guaranteed. 25 and 50c., by all druggists.

LYLE

Miss Iva French of Austin spent Thanksgiving with friends here.

Mrs. Will Nordland went to Chicago Wednesday to visit Miss Myra Wright of Austin, now in the M. E. training school in the Windy City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordes of Welcome were visiting old time friends in this vicinity last week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Cobb spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. N. C. Putnam, at Blooming Prairie.

A large quantity of flax straw has been hauled to the tow mill of late by the farmers in this locality.

A movement is being pushed for a winter lecture course in this village. It is a most commendable idea.

Mr. and Mrs. Tostenson of Glenville spent Thanksgiving at the Gould home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Conroy are back from their California trip and will remain here indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller were in Austin last week visiting friends.

Miss Lee spent Thanksgiving in Grand Meadow visiting her friend, Miss Bloom.

Misses Cronon and DeRemer spent Thanksgiving at their homes.

Miss Ethel Cobb visited her sisters, Mrs. Putman and Mrs. Olson, in Blooming Prairie and Northfield.

Messrs Cook and Frazer left last Tuesday for the World's fair. They returned Monday morning.

Miss Nora Nelson was in Austin Friday.

Mr. Ahren of Mason City visited his sister, Mrs. Hedemark, last week.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Active Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25 cents.

ROSE CREEK

P. M. Beach of Lyle was here Friday looking after the business of the Rose Creek bank while A. Vaux was away.

Miss Nellie Jensen departed on Saturday for Winnebago City where she will teach school for the winter.

The dinner and supper given by the Willing Workers at St. Peters church here was well attended Thursday and the receipts were large.

John Schummel departed Monday for the northern part of Minnesota to work in the woods.

John Lux and Peter Keisel of Taopi attended the Catholic Foresters meeting here Friday night.

Ole, Martin and Ed Nelson and Ole Anderson returned from the Worlds Fair Monday and they all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Phillips visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hay Sunday.

Thomas Hines was seen hauling out of town last Monday a new wind mill to be erected on the old home place, G. W. Phillips doing the work.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c. at K. O. World's drug store.

DEXTER

W. M. Young has moved into the G. D. Pearce house.

The Dexter Dramatic Club will give the popular drama "The Unequal Match" at the opera house Friday evening, Dec. 2.

Mrs. Nellie Payne has been spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bolen at Faribault.

The Dexter Dancing Club gave their second ball Thursday evening at the hall. Music by Queen City Harp Orchestra. These dances are very enjoyable.

The ladies will give a pumpkin pie supper at Mrs. Kenerson's building Friday afternoon for the benefit of the pastor's salary.

Miss Octavia Mastler spent Thanksgiving at her home in Wykoff.

Henry Weber, Jr., was in Grand Meadow Wednesday conducting a law suit.

The Swan house is now open under the new management, Fred Carstebrook, manager.

OAKLAND

The Oakland village school carried out a successful Thanksgiving program at the school house Wednesday afternoon, consisting of songs, recitations and reading. A number of visitors were present.

Mrs. Phil Norton of Redwood is a welcome guest at the home of her father, A. P. Wiseman, in Austin.

Miss Ashley was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Morgan Saturday.

J. E. Lugg is running as mail clerk between Sioux Fall and LaCrosse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Venness of Albert Lea spent Thanksgiving at G. D. Frisbie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dearmin will work for J. L. Weber winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Severson spent Thanksgiving with their son, S. Severson and family in Hayward.

Katie Plummer of Austin was a guest of Miss Mable Jones Friday.

Mrs. Anna Swedberg, Miss Ida Greig and Miss Sadie Williams of the Austin Normal college were the guests of Miss Nina Frisbie Thanksgiving day.

Postmaster and Mrs. Walker and daughters, Mildred and Hazel, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Will Andrews in Austin.

The hunters broke camp on the upper Turtle bringing home their outfit Saturday.

W. J. Lyle, Bradley Lightly, John Sheedy and Michael Estby delivered cattle in Austin Friday.

Mrs. J. E. Davison and little sons and Miss Carmen Gustavison of Austin partook of Thanksgiving at the parental home in Oakland.

George James is back from North Dakota and was a guest of his brother, John, in Moscow Thanksgiving.

Ernest E. Little and Miss Minnie M. Jaquet were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Ballard, in St. Paul, Thursday, Nov. 24. Miss Jaquet was well known in Oakland social circles a few years ago and has many friends here who wish life's choicest blessings. Mr. and Mrs. Little will reside in Mankato.

John and Martha Buchanan are attending school at the Normal college in Austin.

J. Gregg spent Thanksgiving with his folks in London.

Miss Lena Wangen went home for Thanksgiving.

Miss Adella Williams spoke Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church on work among the Hopi Indians. It was much enjoyed.

The children and grand children of Mr. and Mrs. John Lightly spent Thanksgiving with them at their home in the village. Great was their surprise and delight when their children presented them with two elegant easy chairs in token of their loving esteem. The gift was meant as a birthday present to their parents as their birthdays will occur soon and on the same day of the month. A bountiful dinner was partaken of and a jolly good time enjoyed.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lightly to the number of about one hundred successfully surprised them at their home Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, it being the sixth anniversary of their married life. A right royal time, was enjoyed by all. Games and music helped to pass the time, Mrs. Bert Mann singing the beautiful sacred song "Just For Today". At 11 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, after which John G. Howe presented Mr. and Mrs. Lightly in behalf of the company a handsome couch in honor of the occasion. At a late hour the guests took leave of their host and hostess expressing their delight with the entertainment.

GRAND MEADOW

Frank and Cassius Moore are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moore.

A. L. Bush had a stroke of apoplexy Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton entertained a social at their home Friday evening. There was a good attendance. The proceeds will be used to pay for the organ in M. E. church.

Mr. Criswell is having new lights put in his store.

B. A. Johnson is having new lights put in the Record office.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Higbie are visiting at Alden and Elmore.

Elliott Freeman who is teaching school in Fillmore spent his Thanksgiving with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. Stephen Anderson is on the sick list.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by all druggists."

Another Week of Bargains in Furs

FISCH BROS.

On account of the mild weather this fall has left us with too many Ladies' Fur Garments which must be sold and we know of no better way than to cut the price. Here is an opportunity for every one who wants to buy a good Fur for Xmas. No cheap trashy goods but the North Star Brand which is second to none and our guarantee as well as the manufacturer's is back of every garment. In addition to our regular line for

Thursday, Friday, Saturday December 1, 2 and 3,

We will have a complete line of high grade Jackets such as Beavers, Otters, Persian Lamb and Seal which will be sold or orders taken much below the ordinary prices; also a fine line of Scarfs and Boas, most anything you want. Everything in the Fur line at special prices for one week. Compare our prices with other lines.

Table listing fur items and prices: 24 inch Astrachan Jackets, a fine coat worth $30.00, sale price $22.50; 26 inch Astrachan Jackets, worth $37.50, sale price $28.50; 26 inch Astrachan Jackets, worth $45.00, sale price $36.00; 30 inch Astrachan Jackets, worth $47.50, sale price $37.50; 110 sweep fine Astrachan Capes, worth $35 special $28.50; $35 Wool Seal Capes at $27.50; 24 inch Gray Krimmer Jackets, a fine garment worth $55 for $42.00; Wool Seal Jackets worth $45. $36.50; 22 inch, good quality Electric Seal Jackets, with blended Mink Collars and Revere facing and cuffs, worth $50 sale price $39.00; 24 inch extra quality Near Seal Jackets, good imitation or genuine seal, blended Mink Collar and Revere facing and cuffs, worth $60.00 sale price $48.00; 27 inch Beaverized Nutria Jackets, good imitation of Beaver for $39.50.

Every Garment Lined With Skinner's Satin. Some exceptional good values in Scarfs, Boas, Muffs, and Children's Sets, during this week's sale. Don't forget to come and see fine Furs Saturday, Friday, Saturday. Every Fur Sold Guaranteed to Give Satisfaction.

FISCH BROS., Always the Cheapest. AUSTIN, MINN.

VARCO

Miss Mable Allen came home Wednesday from her school duties at Adams to spend Thanksgiving.

Leslie Pike began school at the S. M. N. college on Monday.

Enterprise school closed on Wednesday for two days. The teacher spent Thanksgiving at her home near Oakland.

Will Aultfather went to Albert Lea Monday Nov. 21, to attend a banquet given by the Masons at that place.

The Varco and Hart families ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Amy Hart in Austin this year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Carter went to Rochester to visit their daughter, Edith, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Green of Austin visited at Ed DeRemer's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodson lost a child with diphtheria last week.

About forty of the Carter family gathered at the old homestead to eat Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Carter for the last time before they move to their new home east of Austin.

LANSING

Veta Weber Sundayed at home.

Lettie Vaughan left Saturday for Minneapolis to visit Mrs. H. S. Palmer.

Frank Phillips Sundayed at home.

Wyrtle Weber spent Thanksgiving at home.

Birdie Phillips Sundayed at home.

Artie Bacon spent Thanksgiving at home.

Mabel McCulloch of Austin visited at the Weber home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Salzgeber went to Spring Valley last week to visit parents and Mr. Salzgeber went down Thursday for Thanksgiving dinner.

E. H. Wells returned from St. Louis Wednesday.

S. H. and J. G. Vaughan and family and Mrs. A. B. Vaughan and children went to Blooming Prairie for Thanksgiving.

John Saxton and Mary Beadell went out to A. E. Beadell's Thursday.

Mrs. C. L. Soule came Saturday from St. Paul, where she arrived from Presho, S. D., the fore part of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson and children of Austin spent Thursday with M. E. Burton's family.

B. Y. Fuller who has been visiting relatives in New York, Illinois and Minnesota for the past two years left for his home in north Yakima, Wash., Tuesday Nov. 22.

Frank Pace was calling on friends Friday.

Parties began invoicing the stock of goods in W. J. Subra's store Monday.

The birthday club met with Cassie Weber Friday afternoon.

Truman Dennis went to Brownsdale Wednesday evening to spend a few days with his grand parents returning Saturday.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are becoming a favorite for stomach troubles and constipation. For sale by all druggists.

BLOOMING PRAIRIE

Miss Rena Brainerd came home Wednesday from Carlton college and Miss Florence Guthrie from the state university to spend Thanksgiving and stay over Sunday.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid netted $46 at their entertainment at the opera house Tuesday evening. It will be used for installing electric lights in the church.

Alex. S. Campbell and family spent Thanksgiving day with L. G. Campbell's family.

J. G. Vaughan and family of Lansing spent Thanksgiving with J. F. Beatty's.

Miss Lulu Guthrie gave a Thanksgiving dinner to a company of young friends including guests from Owatonna and Austin.

Mrs. Ed Morton spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor, in Mantorville.

Regina Guthrie, Mary Leebly and Ella McAdam came home from the Winona Normal school Wednesday for a brief vacation.

The wedding of Frank J. Quinn, local agent of the Reliance Elevator Co., and Miss Mabel Hollywood was solemnized at the Catholic church Wednesday morning. They went to Waverly on a wedding tour and will be at home here after Dec. 20.

Rev. D. L. Murray held services to Owatonna on Thanksgiving day.

The Ladies Altar Society will meet with Mrs. M. J. Keenan Friday evening.

Carriage Painting.

I am prepared to do all kinds of fine carriage painting, also interior work in residences. Shop over Rogers' Carriage Works, Bridge St. Bring in your buggies and cutters and have them painted right. W. E. HARRIS.

Most Startling and Biggest Sale

At One Price Ever Instigated.

SALE ON ALL WEEK.

Right now, before the extreme cold weather sets in; right now, in the very height of the season's demands; right now, when you want new garments; right now, when a harvest of big profits is sought by other dealers; right now, when our stock contains the richest fashions and the great assortments of styles to choose from, Austin's great home store gives a potent illustration of its buying and selling power.

1000 garments, including Men's Suits, Men's Overcoats and Men's Ulsters, in all the newest fashions and popular fabrics, ranging in to day's market value up to twelve dollars will be sold for

$7.50

Just such suits as would cost you 25 per cent more in other stores. Just such suits as you want, correct in every detail of fit, fashion and fabrics, and all brand new.

GOLDEN EAGLE CLOTHING HOUSE.