The Transcript.

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY MAR. 29, 1905

Royal Arch Degree will be conferred Friday evening by the Austin Chapter.

Beginning Saturday April 1st, the Hub Department Store will be open until 9 p. m. every evening.

Over one hundred Masons, including many visiting brethren, witnessed the conferring of the third degree upon three candidates on Wednesday evening. The exercises were unusually impressive.

Seeding will commence next Monday if the weather holds good.

The special revival meetings at the M. E. church closed Friday evening.

Mrs. Ormanzo Benton went to Chicago Friday to visit her sisters for several weeks.

C. E. Fairbanks of Dexter township has seed oats, flax and timothy for sale. Free from quack and mustard seed.

Mrs. N. K. Noble and her daughter, Ada, came Friday from Minneapolis where they have spent several months with Prof. L. N. McWhorter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Webber went to the cities Monday to take in Parsival.

The county commissioners commenced a special business session yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Ada M. Smith came last week and is now settled in her residence on Oakland avenue.

Miss Nettie Belden came down from the state university Friday evening to spend Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Weber moved this week to their Lansing farm purchased from E. H. Wells.

Judge N. Kingsley and George A. Hormel returned Sunday from their trip to West Baden, Ind., where they were about two weeks.

The Town Dwelling Insurance Company and the E. H. Smith Land Company moved Monday to their new quarters over the rooms recently occupied by the Austin National Bank.

C. F. Greening of Grand Meadow brought over Monday to Eugene Wood a fine lemon grown on his tree in Grand Meadow. The lemon measured 9 1/2 inches around and is a fine specimen.

Mrs. Dr. W. S. Hudson of Salt Lake City came Saturday to spend a few days with Miss Minnie Guinney. She has been visiting her mother in Shell Lake, Wis., and leaves tomorrow for her home in Utah.

E. W. Decker and family of Minneapolis came down Friday for a brief visit with relatives. A family reunion was held at J. S. Decker's Saturday at which all the children, grand children and great grand children, 27 in all, were present.

Edward P. Kelly returned Sunday from an extended prospecting tour through Oklahoma, Indian territory and Colorado. He has been gone two months and a half but found no place that exactly suited him. He enjoyed the milder weather during the winter.

Rev. R. Edward Sayles of Chicago preached to large congregations at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. In the evening, the church was filled. Those who heard him are much pleased with his sermons. He is spending the week here making acquaintances. The officers of the church have recommended that he be called to the pastorate but no definite action will be taken until April 6.

We Supply Your Wants in Men's and Boys' Clothing and Shoes

We have this season exceptionally good values in Boys' and Children's Clothing. We show a large assortment of blue and black Suits suitable for Confirmation Suits.

Never before were we in position to show such a magnificent line of goods as this season. We buy the best that is on the market, consequently what you buy of us will outwear any goods you buy elsewhere.

We Have an Endless Variety of Men's Suits in nice, neat patterns in single and double breasted. These suits are made as well as Custom Made Clothing and will fit better and wear longer than the average ready made clothing.

We have a lot of Odds and Ends in MEN'S and BOYS' SUITS and PANTS which we are closing out for less than cost. We don't allow stock to accumulate. We mark them with green tags; put a reduced price on them and get rid of them. We think it better to sell them at a loss than to carry them over from season to season.

We Carry the Best Line of Men's and Boys' Shoes

in this city. Not having any expense connected with selling them we are in position to sell for less than regular shoe dealers

We Give a Fine ROCKING CHAIR FREE

with every dollar of Cash Sales we give a coupon. When you have bought $30.00 worth of goods you get the chair. Coupons good till September 1, 1905

ALBERT THON

Nice shirting prints 10 yards for 37cts Saturday and Monday. Chas. L. West.

Mrs. Forrest Schleuder returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Duluth.

Andrew Nelson, the painter, had the end of his finger torn off in a derick Friday.

Mrs. W. E. Waldron returned Saturday from Mapleton where she spent three weeks with her sister.

A marriage license has been issued to Earl A. Carl of Udolpho and Miss Lettie M. Vaughan of Lansing.

The Northwestern Telephone Company has leased the lower room in Dr. A. M. Lewis' building on Bridge street.

Mrs. E. B. Crane returned Friday from an extended visit with her daughters in Grafton, N. D. and Minneapolis.

Mrs. H. C. Waldecker spent Sunday in Rochester with her husband who has just had an operation in the hospital there.

Mrs. Gertrude Ellis-Skinner is at Rochester this week, occupied as assistant conductor of the teachers institute there.

For sale four young thoroughbred Aberdeen Angus bulls at prices which farmers can afford. J. Pollock, 4 miles west of Austin.

Skovgaard, the violinist, will give a concert at the Baptist church Friday evening under the auspices of the Ladies Musical Society.

C. G. Powers of Lyle returned Friday from Wisconsin where he has been visiting for two months. He says that sleighing was good around Fon du Lac last Thursday.

Farmers will do well to consult the Austin Cooperative Milk Co., before selling their cream elsewhere, as that company is offering special inducements for cream delivered in good condition.

The Columbia neighborhood club met Saturday with Mrs. M. M. Ruland in this city and spent a delightful afternoon. Games and music were enjoyed and a bountiful dinner was served. About forty were present.

W. C. Webber explained the work of the American Society of Equity at the courtroom Friday afternoon to a company of farmers. A local branch was formed with C. H. Lott, president; S. Drummond, secretary; J. E. Murphy, organizer.

It was a little late, but was a great and happy surprise just the same. A company of about fifty called upon Mr. and Mrs. John G. Moreland on Friday evening to remind them of their 26th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent merrily and a fine supper was served.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lewis went to Minneapolis yesterday to see Parsival.

Good full standard prints 10 yards for 37 cts Saturday and Monday. Chas. L. West.

Special lace sale at the Hub next Saturday afternoon. See ad. We got the price too high last week by mistake.

Embroideries and Insertings 3 to 6 inches wide worth up to 10 cents, 10 yds for 35 cts Saturday and Monday. Chas. L. West.

Mrs. Mary W. Davidson returned Saturday from a visit at Carrington, N. D. She is in quite poor health from heart trouble.

A rousing men's meeting was held at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon, addressed by Rev. J. W. Valentine, J. F. Fairbanks, F. P. McBride and others.

A delightful social session was held at Elks hall Monday evening by the Knights of Pythias and their ladies. A program was given and a banquet was served.

Roy Woodward moved his barber shop Saturday night from the temporary building in Bridge street to the elegant new quarters under the Austin National Bank.

Lieut. Col. Gerlack officially inspected Co. G. Wednesday evening at the old armory which was cleared sufficiently for use. Capt. Lee Sargent was in command of the company.

J. C. Belding and family move to Northfield tomorrow and he will take charge of the Odd Fellows Home there. We are very sorry to have them go. They will be greatly missed in lodge and social circles.

A business directory of this county with the name and address of every farmer will be the best possible club for the outside catalogue houses to use in getting their fake offers before the people. Just where the merchants of this city or county are to be benefited by paying big prices for ads in such a book is a problem.

C. J. Myhre, shoemaker for J. Schwan, was coming up from the outside cellar stairs at the rear of the store Thursday afternoon when the porch floor opposite the second story broke and came down upon him. There was about two cords of wood on the porch and Mr. Myhre was buried under this. It is a wonder he was not killed, but fortunately he was partly protected by the cellar steps. He was taken to the hospital. It was found that his left leg was broken below the knee and he was badly bruised up. He is getting along favorably.

Timothy, red clover, Alsike clover, corn and garden seeds at DECKER BROS.

Good Cheviott gingham 7 cent quality 10 yards for 45cts Saturday and Monday. Charles L. West.

Rev. J. W. Valentine of Marshall supplied the pulpit of the Congregational church Sunday.

George Duffy has at this time some very nice dwelling houses for rent, also city property and farm lands for sale or rent. If in need of such call and see him.

The executive committee of the Mower County Agricultural Society met yesterday afternoon for important business. A contract for the premium list was let.

We notice from the statement of the German State Bank of Glen Ullin, N. D. that its total resources amount to $74,575.97. A. M. Lewis of Austin is president and W. T. Moore, cashier.

Henry Bagley arrived in Austin Thursday from his trip to England. George Winn accompanied him. They were gone three months. They report many things over there as far behind American conveniences.
