

DR. PRICES' CREAM BAKING POWDER

Greatest Aid to Cookery

With least labor and trouble it makes hot-breads, biscuit and cake of finest flavor, light, sweet, appetizing and assuredly digestible and wholesome.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

The Transcript.

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1905.

—The K. K. K.'s met with Mrs. Chas. J. Sargent Wednesday evening.

—Dr. F. L. Banfield of Worcester Mass., arrived Monday to visit his son H. L.

—Jesse Simmons graduates this week in the law department of the University of Michigan.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFarland and daughter, Sadie, left Monday for the Portland exposition.

—State evangelist Neal of the Christian church will preach again next Sunday in the Advent church.

—George Potts, the afflicted veteran, went to the Soldiers Home in Milwaukee last week for treatment.

—Mrs. C. F. Cook and children left Wednesday for her old home at Berne, N. Y., where they will visit for several weeks.

—Paul McKenna is home on a summer vacation from the Kentucky school of medicine at Louisville where he is studying.

—A company of the K. K. K.'s went to Blooming Prairie Thursday and spent the day delightfully with Mrs. Alfred E. Johnson.

—August Smith's team was frightened by the storm Sunday noon as he and his wife were driving home. Both were thrown out and he had an arm broken.

—The class of 1905, A. H. S. held their picnic on the banks of the Cedar south of town Monday going down on hay racks. They had a merry day of it.

—Rev. A. Cressey and grand daughter Grace Gardiner left yesterday for Spokane to visit his daughter, Mrs. Hattie Child. They will visit the Portland exposition before returning.

—The Congregational Ladies Aid gave a very successful Cook's Carnival yesterday. They have issued a valuable cook book. A freak museum was the attraction last evening.

—Mrs. M. J. Paddelford left for Sunnyside, Wash., the first of this week to visit her son and other relatives. She will make an extended visit if her health improves as is hoped.

—The M. E. Ladies Missionary Society met with Mrs. A. O. Dinsmoor Wednesday afternoon. About sixty were present. A program was given including a paper on Japan by Mrs. C. H. Moore. Supper was served on the lawn.

—A very pleasant reception was given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ticknor at their home in honor of Rev. W. E. Stanley, a former pastor of the Baptist church here. The reception was held after the exercises at the church and a goodly number was present. Ice cream and cake were served.

—E. Joseph moved yesterday to his new location next south of Horribin's grocery. It would be a splendid idea to put in a first class wholesale grocery store in the block which he has vacated. There is plenty of room with a fine basement and with the best of shipping facilities.

—Campbell's Circus in Austin tomorrow.

—The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met with Mrs. C. C. Leck Friday afternoon.

—Mrs. Whit Watkins and Mrs. Ed Watkins went to Chicago Saturday to visit relatives.

—Mankato Commercial College sends its catalogue to any one interested in business education. Send for one.

—Harry Blalock returned home to Cheyenne, Wyo., Friday evening after an enjoyable visit with relatives here.

—D. A. Wright went to Milwaukee Saturday as a delegate to the big Woodman meeting held there this week.

—Mrs. Otis H. Robinson and children expect to leave for Watertown, S. D. this week to reside. Mr. Robinson is now there.

—Will Teeter, north of Brownsdale, had two head of cattle killed by lightning Friday evening and we hear of two horses killed near Sargeant.

—The mission at the Catholic church closed Sunday. It drew large crowds and the speakers were able men who discussed religious problems fearlessly.

—Mrs. J. E. Gutherless and son of Brown's Valley arrived June 13 to spend six weeks with relatives. She was formerly a faithful employee of this office.

—Homer A. Weaver of St. Paul, a student in the dental course at the state university, came Monday to spend the week with his classmate, Robert Barnitz.

—A son was born to Mrs. G. Fred Baird Monday evening and we suppose that nothing short of Frederick the Great will be a fitting name for the youngster. All doing well.

—Rev. Jens C. Roseland of this city was reelected secretary of the United Norwegian Lutheran church by acclamation on Thursday. He makes a very satisfactory and efficient official.

—Clarence Wedge, the Albert Lea nursery man, was married Saturday morning to Mary B. Cutter, at the residence of the bride's mother in Decorah, Iowa. They left Monday for Portland, Oregon, to visit the fair.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones attended the wedding of her brother at Cedar Rapids Wednesday. They also attended the old settlers association of Benton county held at Shellsburg Thursday. This is near their old home. Mr. Jones returned Saturday and Mrs. Jones will be home today.

—The Christian church of this city has just purchased the Waldron lot on Oakland avenue just east of the Ormanzo Allen place and will proceed to build a convenient house of worship as soon as needed funds can be raised. The location is a very desirable one. There is a frontage of 65 feet and a depth of 145 feet.

—The merchants and bankers of the city played ball Friday afternoon on the Lafayette Athletic field resulting in a score of 12 to 3 in favor of the merchants. We supposed that the bankers would be satisfied with what the printers recently gave them but they evidently are an ambitious lot and anxious to retrieve.

—The Central Baptist association opened its annual session at Owatonna yesterday and closes today. A good sized delegation is present from the Austin church. Rev. F. L. Anderson has a prominent part on the program. This evening at the closing session, Rev. B. Edward Sayles will speak on the subject "Where There is no Vision the People Perish."

—A daughter was born to Mrs. Phillip Lembrick, June 12.

—A son was born to Mrs. O. C. Hellman Friday evening.

—Miss Addie Young is home from her school duties at Granite Falls.

—C. R. Neal, state evangelist, preached for the Christian church Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bartlett went to Lake City last week to visit her mother.

—The Christian Science church and Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at Lafayette Park Friday.

—Mrs. L. W. Decker went to Minneapolis Wednesday and remained over Sunday with friends.

—C. R. Varco and Chas. Lacy expect to leave for Cuba today to look up real estate investments.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Epler and children arrived here from Ottertail county Friday to reside in Austin.

—Mrs. Eva A. Smith went to Motley Wednesday to spend several weeks with her niece, Mrs. Julia Merrill.

—James Douglas, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. D. Decker, returned to Carthage, S. D. Friday.

—The annual meeting and banquet of the Austin High School Alumni Association will be held Friday evening, June 30.

—George A. Hormel returned yesterday from his European trip. He has been gone about two months. He had a delightful trip.

—Sam L. Young has the foundation in and the lumber on the ground for a new house next east of his present house on Oakland avenue.

—A daughter was born to Mrs. George Jorpenon of Ceylon, Minn., June 15. This is Frank Haney's first grandchild and of course he feels quite elated.

—Baptist Juniors had a delightful picnic with a good program at Lafayette park Friday afternoon. The heavy shower caught some of the late ones on their way home.

—There was a family reunion of the Birkett family over Sunday. Mr. Birkett was home from Mahanomen, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lee and Miles Birkett came Saturday from Madison, Wis.

—A drizzling rain came almost without warning just before noon Sunday while our churches were crowded with people unprepared for such weather. We are having an abundance of rain and crops in places are commencing to feel its injurious effects.

—A reunion of the L. D. Carter family was held Sunday at the family home at Officer's mill. Mr. and Mrs. Carter and all of the children, two sons and five daughters, were present besides the wives, husbands and children. A day of rare social enjoyment was spent and a bountiful dinner was served.

—Mrs. P. Bump and daughter, Mrs. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. H. N. Wilder, Mrs. E. W. Wilder and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Mary A. Davidson and daughter, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell and Margaret Mitchell, were among those who went to Chicago Saturday for visits with friends.

O. C. LaBar Loses Heavily By Lightning.

The severe electrical storm of Friday evening was especially heavy north of Lansing and towards Waltham and Sargeant. About seven o'clock, lightning struck the large barn, 52 x 52, on O. C. LaBar's river farm in Udolpho and totally destroyed it burning 17 cows, seven calves, about twenty tons of hay and other property. Will H. Ward is the renter. George Ward was knocked down by the shock but not seriously injured. There was $500 insurance on the barn, $100 on the cattle and $50 on the hay all in the Mower County Farmer's Mutual.

Fine Instruments.

The Gibson Mandolin and Guitar Co. of Kalamazoo Michigan, makers of those beautiful new patterns of Mandolins and Guitars have kindly forwarded three of their best toned instruments for use at the Home Talent entertainment in the Baptist church on Wednesday evening, June 28th. With these additions the Orchestra of ten on this occasion will be equipped throughout with the best instruments.

A Free Ticket to the Circus with Every Cash Purchase of $10.00 or more at

DEPARTMENT STORE

MARRIED

LEONARD-FAWCETT.
At the residence of Dr. C. E. Fawcett, the bride's brother, in Stewartville, Wednesday, June 14, 1905 George E. Leonard of Itasca and Miss Myrta Fawcett of Stewartville, Rev. C. L. Lawrenson officiating. Miss Alice Leonard was bridesmaid and Curtis King groomsmen. Lois Payne and Frances Fawcett were flower girls and Lois Fawcett ring bearer. The bridal gown was of white tulle. About one hundred guests were present. The spacious rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion. A wedding luncheon in three courses was served. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard took the afternoon train for Portland, Oregon, to visit the exposition and will be at home on their farm near Racine after July 15. Our hearty congratulations to these estimable young people.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Were issued to Monte L. Halling and Lena Hawkins; Reinhold F. Dorow and Etta L. Patterson of Osage, Iowa.

—If you are particular about your laundry work telephone No. 131 and have Mr. Keyser call for it. 17

—Cedar City Cemetery Association will meet Friday, June 16, to fix up the grounds and transact such business as may come before the meeting. 14

—French Dry Cleaning will not injure the finest or most delicately colored silk or satin fabric, and this process cleans beautifully. Try it. Telephone No. 131. 17

—Harry Keyser's customers are the particular people of Austin. That's why he has them. Particular people want the best laundry work. Telephone No. 131. 17

—Excursion rates are announced on all railroads during the Big Mid-Summer Festival and Fourth of July Celebration at Mankato July 3rd, 4th and 5th.

—"Liquid Glass" invisible cement for mending fine cut glass, common glass, china, marble, ivory, woodenware etc. For sale by W. J. Urbach & Bro., Hardware dealer, and F. O. Hall, Grocer. Try it. 20

DIED

SPEER.
At the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Register, in Moscow, Saturday evening, June 17, 1905, of old age, Mrs. Mary E. Speer, aged nearly 85 years, Mary E. Hutchinson was born in Canada in 1820. At the age of 18, she united with the Christian church and has always been an earnest Christian. On Feb. 22, 1847, she was married at Lodi, Mich., to Robert G. Speer. In 1853, they moved to Wisconsin and in 1855 to Moscow, Minnesota, becoming territorial pioneers of southern Minnesota. After enduring the hardships of pioneer life they still continued to live in the same place. Mr. Speer died Jan. 29, 1903. Seven children were born to them, four of them surviving: Mrs. Marietta Whaley of Janesville, Wis., who has been at her mother's bedside for the past three weeks, George W. Speer of St. Paul, Mrs. Jane Lincoln, Austin, and Mrs. Amanda Register of Moscow. There was a large attendance of old settlers and friends at the funeral services held Monday afternoon at the residence of John Register, Rev. C. D. Belden of Austin officiating. Interment at Fairview. Thus another of the early pioneers of this locality has fallen asleep and the number is fast diminishing.

MILLS.

George T. Mills, died at the hospital at Rochester, Friday morning of cancer of the tongue aged 54 years. He was a native of New York state. He lived in Austin for about 20 years and for years had a greenhouse in the northwest part of the city. He lived in Dexter for a time. His home for the past few years has been at Minneapolis and the body was interred there.

OLSON.

In this city, Sunday June 18, 1905, of pleuropneumonia, Hans Siefert Olson, aged 23 years. He was sick but a week. He was born in Clinton county, Iowa, Dec. 24, 1881 and afterwards moved with his folks to Miles. He came to Austin about two years ago and worked in the Hormel Packing house. He enlisted in Co. G., M. N. G. in December, 1903, and was a member at his death. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. S. Budlong, were held yesterday afternoon at Oakwood chapel under the charge of Co. G. The pall bearers were from the packing house employees. A military salute was fired over his grave.

10,000 Bushels of Oats Wanted.

Guthrie's Elevator on the Milwaukee tracks is again open for business, Ira C. Pickett Manager. Will pay highest price for all kind of grain. Farmers, attention. 16

Austin Steam Laundry.

Patronize home institutions and have your laundry work done at the Austin Steam Laundry in the highest style of the art. No chemicals used. Laundry delivered free of charge. Give us a trial. T. M. BURNHAM, Proprietor.

Nels Mickelson

Manufacturer of

Concrete Brick and Building Blocks....

Yards at old Foundry Stand on River Street.

The Catholic Total Abstinence Union and the Southern Minnesota Normal College will give an

EXCURSION

TO

Wonderland

AND THE

Twin Cities

Friday, June 22,

$1.50

For Round Trip,

Good returning June 24.

For Further Particulars See Great Western Agent.

A Good Crowd. A Good Time...

If Taken This Month Keeps you well all summer. It makes the little ones eat, sleep and grow. A spring tonic for the whole family.

HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA.

SOLD BY C. A. POOLER.

West's Locals.

Mother Don't Always be Darning.

Children do wear holes in Pony Stockings but not every day or every week. Pony Stockings wear before they need attention. That's why mothers buy them more and more every year and save mending and money.

Pony Stockings wear so well because of quality, all around merit, yarns, dyes, fit and finish are all superior to what you get for the same money, and you get a guarantee too.

Pretty new printed organdies worth 15 and 25c at 12 1/2c and 19c.

Pickaninny fine, soft black mercerized hose for children and Misses, made of fine combed Egyptian yarn and coal black, price 25c.

Ladies Super Lisle Lace Gloves 25c quality 19c. Ladies Lisle Lace Gloves 50c quality 35c.

Just received, some fresh, new ladies white waists bought at a reduction, $1.25 quality 98c, $1.75 quality $1.25.

Underwear—Now you are safe in buying some of our soft, cool, gauzy underwear, sleeveless and comfortable. All sizes, with prices beginning at 10 cents apiece.

Umbrellas—We sell a nice umbrella for $1.00. Handsome, fancy silk rain or shine umbrellas all colors at $2.25.