

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures Cuts, Burns, Bruises.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
In use for over sixty years.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
for Man, Beast or Poultry.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
Best for Horse ailments.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
limbers up Stiff Joints.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures Frostbites and Chilblains.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures Sprains and Strains.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures Spavin and Ringbone.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
heals Old Sores quickly.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
Best for Cattle ailments.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
penetrates to the very bone.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
Best thing for a lame horse.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
is a positive cure for Piles.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures all forms of Rheumatism.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
cures Caked Udder in cows.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
Best for Sheep ailments.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
always gives satisfaction.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment
drives out all inflammation.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Happenings of Interest Gathered for the Benefit of Our Readers.

LE ROY

The Presbyterian church has been treated to a new coat of shingles, and will soon be renovated and the new carpet laid.

The ball game Friday between LeRoy and McIntire on the LeRoy grounds resulted in a score of 9 to 4 in favor of McIntire.

Harry McKeon came down from the Northwest Wednesday and is visiting his mother, Mrs. G. M. Alsdorff.

Miss Nannie Blackmer is visiting in McIntire this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen Bokken, former proprietors of the restaurant west of the Opera House, were in LeRoy for a few days last week.

A. R. Thomson has secured a position as stockbuyer for the Hormel Packing Co. of Austin. His family were pleased to note will remain in LeRoy for a time at least.

Mrs. E. S. Garvey departed Thursday for Charles City where she expected to meet her husband and accompany him to Minneapolis and from there to Lisbon, N. D.

Miss Nina Knapp returned Thursday from Madison, Wis., where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. M. E. McKee went to Lime Springs Monday for a few weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Magee.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Angewille, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

OAKLAND

Martha Nasby, living west of this village died July 4, of consumption, after a long illness, her death being not surprise to her friends. Deceased was 30 years of age and was a young woman of many excellent qualifications and was loved and respected by all who knew her. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the United Lutheran church of Oakland. The relatives have her sincere sympathy of all in this bereavement.

John Register was an Albert Lea caller one day last week.

Among those who attended church here Sunday from Austin were Mrs. C. D. Belden, Mrs. Fairbanks, and Mrs. Alta Scullin.

Miss Nellie Lightly returned home Wednesday after visiting friends at Alden.

T. T. Weum returned home Saturday after visiting his parents in North Dakota.

Clayton Frisbie spent a few days in Albert Lea last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Pettit and Ray Pettit of Austin spent Sunday with L. E. Hardy.

Miss Laura Karch is home spending her vacation.

Henry Hendrickson is working for J. L. Weber.

Miss Ava Lea of Albert Lea is visiting at Frank Morgan.

Miss Esther Banks of Austin, spent Saturday and Sunday with Misses Alice and Nina Frisbie.

Mrs. Francis Rogers and children of Austin are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nyant were Harvard visitors Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Davison and Miss Carmen Gusdavidson of Austin visited at the paternal home here Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Earl of Austin is keeping house for J. L. Weber.

John Buchanan returned home Thursday from his Dakota trip.

Mrs. Sam Harrison and daughter Vera visited the former's sister Mrs. Geo. Hogan last week.

ROSE CREEK

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stowe south of Rose Creek an eleven pound boy July 4, 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Baker and daughter, Helen, departed Saturday for Carpenter, Iowa, to visit friends over Sunday.

There was quite a number from here went to Adams Sunday to witness the ball game between Adams vs. Chester.

Chas. Gibbert and family of Brownsdale visited friends here Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolson a son July 4.

Jos Lux commenced working for Charles Gibbert in Brownsdale Monday.

We understand that George Kirtz is to be our next coal dealer. He is buying out Wm. McBride.

Johnnie Lagas severed his connection with the C. M. & St. P. railway Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Meinert a boy July 6.

Felix Riley returned to Rose Creek Saturday.

A. G. Larson visited his family in Adams Sunday.

George Hall was in Adams Sunday. George Wise returned from the twin cities Thursday.

Martin Kiefer of Adams visited friends here Thursday.

Carl Johnson visited friends in Saint's Rest Sunday.

Thos. Logue and son of Owatonna visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cronan and their niece, Miss Grace, started on quite an extended trip on Tuesday morning the 11th inst. After spending several days in the Twin Cities, they go to their ranch at Dickenson, N. D., then on to Portland to attend the Lewis & Clark Exposition. They will also visit in Tacoma and Seattle and expect to make the trip by water from Portland to San Francisco where they will also visit, returning home via Salt Lake City and Kansas City.

News comes of the death of Mrs. R. F. Engle of cancer at her home in Paia, Hawaii Islands, May 27, age 51 years. She formerly lived south of this village and was a most estimable woman. The family went to Hawaii about 17 years ago. She leaves a husband and four children. She was a graduate of the Boston high school.

Racine spent the Fourth largely at Spring Valley and Stewartville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glover left Thursday for the Portland exposition. Their son, Ben, is there.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Green are visiting her brother, John Neill.

Henry Simonson and family moved back to the village Wednesday.

Considerable interest was awakened recently by the discovery of an old inscription in the quarry east of town reading as follows: Ytnu crew omnire paptse behtsit piresnar teht. It sounds like Welsh. A copy has been sent in to Minneapolis for interpretation.

GRAND MEADOW.

Torval Torgrimson of the firm of Torgrimson Brothers died Thursday at the Rochester hospital where he was treated for meningitis.

Miss Alice Paddock is home for vacation from Mazepa where she has been teaching.

Mrs. A. G. Dalen died July 2 of cancer, aged 42. She was married June 22, 1877, and has since resided in Racine town.

Jens Olson Brager, aged 83 years died July 3 at the home of his daughter northwest of this village. He was born in Norway in 1822 and came to this country in 1859. They settled in Grand Meadow township in 1861. The widow and one daughter survive.

The baseball score at the Fountain game July 4 stood Fountain 12, Grand Meadow 11.

New cement sidewalks are going in here which make a decided improvement.

H. C. Njess is at Colfax Springs, Iowa, for relief from rheumatism.

Miss Christine Fauble of Austin came down to spend the Fourth with relatives.

G. A. Wright and W. R. Peyton attended the meeting of the Mower County Business Men's Association at Austin Wednesday.

A Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz: Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure, for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at K. O. Wold's drug store.

BLOOMING PRAIRIE.

Miss Mary Leehy has been appointed one of the teachers in St. Paul for next year.

Regina, Lavina and Derina Guthrie are attending the summer school at Owatonna.

Rev. C. A. Parks of the anti-saloon league addressed a union meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell went to Neenah, Wis. last week to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. John Whitson and children are spending the month with her parents at Stillwater.

A stereopticon lecture was given at the Catholic church Monday evening by H. A. Starkweather on the Dogmas of the Faith.

Dr. L. G. Lemley has sold his dental practice here to Dr. William A. Kubat of Owatonna, who has taken charge of the office.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. J. C. Brainerd Tuesday afternoon.

N. N. Hagna is visiting his brother in Gunder, Iowa.

Perry H. Tallman has sold his photograph gallery to Otto Foster.

The Baptist Young Ladies Club will serve icecream on the church lawn Thursday evening.

RACINE.

Miss Mina Wilson went to Austin last week to attend the summer school and spend the month with her grandmother, Mrs. M. E. G. Wilson.

John Payne came home last week from the Rochester hospital where he had an operation. He is using crutches for a while.

George Babcock, who has just completed a three years course in the Boston university, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Babcock.

News comes of the death of Mrs. R. F. Engle of cancer at her home in Paia, Hawaii Islands, May 27, age 51 years. She formerly lived south of this village and was a most estimable woman. The family went to Hawaii about 17 years ago. She leaves a husband and four children. She was a graduate of the Boston high school.

Racine spent the Fourth largely at Spring Valley and Stewartville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glover left Thursday for the Portland exposition. Their son, Ben, is there.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Green are visiting her brother, John Neill.

Henry Simonson and family moved back to the village Wednesday.

Considerable interest was awakened recently by the discovery of an old inscription in the quarry east of town reading as follows: Ytnu crew omnire paptse behtsit piresnar teht. It sounds like Welsh. A copy has been sent in to Minneapolis for interpretation.

BROWNSDALE

Adner Sweet is visiting at Tomah, Wisconsin.

Daniel McCartone and his sister, Susan McCartone are visiting at C. O. Sleeper's.

Miss Dora Clark has returned to Blooming Prairie where she is employed as stenographer by the Campbell Milling Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campion of Fairbault were visiting W. H. Lawrence last week.

Julian M. Palmer of Blue Earth spent Sunday at the home of his father, W. H. Palmer.

Arthur D. Ellsworth of St. Paul is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Flora Ellsworth of Austin is a guest at the home of Charles Knox.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shortt and Mrs. Sauborn spent the Fourth at Spring Valley.

Miss Minnie Iverson visited in Spring Valley last week.

Last month our creamery shipped over 14,000 pounds of butter. The creamery is being fixed up in line shape.

The Austin and Hayfield Lutheran congregations under Rev. J. C. Roseland's charge met at Brown's park here on Sunday and held a joint mission service. About 75 were present from Austin and nearly the same number from Hayfield. The day was beautiful and the exercises were of much interest.

In the morning, Prof. M. Boeckman of the U. C. Theological Seminary of St. Paul preached a mission sermon and in the afternoon, Mrs. Dahl, wife of the president of the United Norwegian Lutheran church of America spoke on Women's Work in Missions. A basket lunch was enjoyed at noon. About $60 was taken up for a missionary offering. Many of the Brownsdale people attended the exercises.

AUSTIN CEMENT WORKS.

Mrs. Day is spending a few weeks in Mankato.

Miss Jessie Riley and sister, Esther, visited their aunt in London Saturday evening and attended the Lutheran young people's aid society at Mr. Moen's.

Mrs. C. H. Lott and daughters, Ruth and Virginia, also Mrs. Riley Brooks Jr. and little son visited at Mrs. J. Fraser's Thursday.

Mrs. L. S. Mitchell of Austin visited at C. H. Lott's Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Holte visited in London Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hill and family of Red Rock were callers in this place Sunday.

There was quite a number of the young people of this place attended the dance at Mr. Blyton's Friday evening. All report a splendid time.

Mrs. Eric Erickson's sister, is spending a few days here.

Will Fraser is working at Elmer Deremer's for a while.

A letter received Monday from Orin Fraser of Modesto, Cal., tells us he got his foot quite badly hurt by jumping on a nail, but was getting along nicely at the last report.

Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Lyon and Miss Jessie Riley attended the Degree of Honor lodge at Austin Friday evening. On the road home about twelve o'clock they met an automobile stuck fast in the mud. Miss Riley came down to the Works hitched up the company team and went and hauled them out. We are glad to say at the present writing they are working the road.

Mrs. Fleming was a caller at J. A. Fraser's Sunday afternoon.

Something wrong with some of the horses down south of here. They won't go by the Cement Works without turning in.

The ladies of the Rose Creek Cemetery can certainly be proud of the improved appearance of the cemetery. We think they deserve great credit for their work and should have the help of all who have an interest in the cemetery.

Misses Maggie Connor and Rena Boe spent the afternoon of the Fourth at J. A. Fraser's.

RAMSEY

A number of young folks from Red Rock enjoyed a picnic dinner at the home of P. J. Walsh on the Fourth. The tables were decorated in flowers and flags. In the afternoon boat riding and walking rails were enjoyed. Everyone reported a good time. Among those who attended the picnic were Miss Pearl Braley and Miss Nina Clow of Winona.

Mrs. E. J. Whalen and daughters and Mrs. Steveson went to Morristown, Minn., to spend the Fourth.

Anna Subaska is visiting friends in Oakland.

John Herzog of Austin called on old friends here Sunday.

The old saying is the early bird catches the fly. If that is true Will Huss of Austin caught all the flies in Ramsey Sunday morning at five-thirty.

LANSING

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. LaBar returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives.

Miss Hattie McIntyre spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Miss Hazel Warren of Brownsdale.

Messrs Salgeber and Lee Thompson started for the Twin Cities Thursday in the automobile delayed here for a few days for repairs.

Asaph Wiseman of Austin visited his brother one day last week.

Mr. Saxton left for Spring Green, Wis., Friday eve.

R. A. Carl who has spent some time at Eagle Bend building on his farm there returned Sunday eve.

Rev. A. L. Holden of Brownsdale will preach at the church here next Sunday afternoon at the usual hour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson of Austin visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Enney went to Rochester Wednesday where Mr. Enney had another operation.

Mrs. Julia Bloss of Chicago arrived here Wednesday for a short visit with relatives and friends, leaving for Chamberlin, S. Dak., Monday eve, accompanied by Miss Mabel Vaughan, where they expect to spend a few weeks.

Geo. Winn, who is a patron of the Lansing creamery received for the month of June a check amounting to over a hundred dollars this being the income from 16 cows.

The Lansing Union Sunday School will give a conundrum social Friday eve at the home of Miss May Wiseman. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Mary Howells and little daughter of Austin spent Wednesday with her brother.

Dr. Frank Roe of Chicago visited relatives here the last of the week.

Mrs. Will L. Wells and daughter May of Austin came up Monday for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kezar of Waltham visited D. H. Johnson's folks Sunday.

Lost Sunday July 2 a parrot. Finder please return to Mrs. Herbert Hurft and receive reward.

LYLE CENTER

Everyone is wishing that this fine weather will continue.

Edith Vest is attending the summer school at Austin.

Miss Erma Green of Austin visited at Will Pace's Sunday and Monday.

Miss May Padelford of Austin is visiting her uncle, Warren Padelford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Aultfather, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gregg and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and family held a picnic in the woods by the river Sunday.

Mrs. Gutherless and son Bert are visiting old friends in this neighborhood this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Aultfather spent Sunday at Austin.

A few have commenced haying, others expect to begin this week.

There was a ball game Sunday between Lyle Center and London, score 10 to 7 in favor of Lyle Center.

School meeting next Saturday night Everyone should attend.

LONDON

Miss Cora Butts was a passenger for Lyle Friday.

Hans Rasmusson drove to Austin Saturday.

Roy Goslee was a Lyle caller Saturday.

Percy and Earnie Dunn left for northern Dakota Monday.

Prof. and Mrs. Tucker of Mason City visited at Prof. Robertson's recently.

Miss Abbie Roberts of Dundee, Minn., after spending several weeks here visiting Florence Lang, returned to her home Wednesday.

Henry Gilbertson and Fred Tresselt Sundayed at their parental homes in south London.

Miss Minnie Nelson is attending the Mankato Normal summer school.

Several from here witnessed the ball game at Enterprise Sunday.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Miss Florence Lang next week Wednesday, July 19, 1905.

Fred Lang of the U. of Minnesota is here to spend the summer. All are glad to see him again.

Laxative Bromo Quinine
Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days on every
C. H. Brown box, 25c

DEXTER.

The Dexter celebration was a success in spite of the unfavorable weather. The oration was given by Rev. E. J. Durham of Spring Valley. There were games and contests in the afternoon and a general good time. The score of the baseball game stood Dexter 13, Austin 2.

The Swan hotel is closed for the present. Mr. Bassett still runs the livery but plans to go to Dakota soon.

Soren Sorenson has bought out the photograph gallery here.

Mrs. George Hayes and Mrs. J. T. Miller plan to go to Minot this week to visit relatives.

The telephone service in connection with the Austin line is being greatly improved.

Mrs. Cora Phillips-Wheelock of Salem, Mo., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fairbanks, southwest of town.

Miss Etta Renslow is visiting at G. W. King's.

VARCO

A good program has been arranged by the young people of this place for the home talent entertainment to be given July 12 at the school house. They have been practicing every evening. All come and hear their orchestra consisting of four pieces with a lady violinist. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Proceeds for the cemetery.

Miss Erma Green visited her aunt, Mrs. E. DeRemer on Friday.

Miss Mabel Allen is attending summer school in Austin.

Mrs. M. J. Parmenter was down to the farm one day last week.

The telephone men have begun work setting poles in this place.

Miss Jessie Pickett of Magnolia, Minn., came the third of July to visit with her uncles Messrs. Riley and Abe Brooks.

Mr. Abe Brooks went with Co. G to camp at Lake City, Minn., on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Compton and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pike and daughters visited at Henry Stockwell's at Otronto on Sunday.

The fourth of July was very quiet in this place this year on account of the rain. A few family parties in the day time, and a bowery dance at night at Riley Brooks' was enjoyed by about fifty.

The fine weather of the past week is favorable for haying. A good many farmers are improving their time.

WALTHAM

Mrs. L. W. Lewis and children left Friday for an extended visit at Pine River, Minn.

H. Rumble and I. A. O'Gordon left Monday for Dodge Center.