

DR. DOWNING,
of Chicago and Minneapolis will visit
AUSTIN

Thursday, Nov. 30
at FOX HOTEL one day.

Dr. Downing is a physician who stands in the front rank of the medical profession of the United States. After graduating with distinction, Dr. Downing rounded off his medical education by taking special and private courses under some of the most noted specialists in the world. He has availed himself of the advantages afforded by the largest hospitals in both Europe and America to study the obscure and difficult diseases, and has no superior in the diseases to which he devoted his attention, namely, all chronic and nervous diseases. He has cured thousands of cases of this character after other physicians and specialists have failed to relieve. He has 20,000 testimonial letters from grateful patients in all parts of the United States. When sick people consult him he gives them his honest opinion of their case, be it favorable or unfavorable, believing that it is far better to know the truth than to live in dread and suspense of what the result may be. Thousands have been cured who had been given up to die.

WOMAN'S AWFUL DEED

KILLS THREE STEPCHILDREN, SERIOUSLY WOUNDS ANOTHER AND SHOOTS HERSELF.

Tragedy Occurs at Minneapolis and Is Alleged to Have Followed a Quarrel Between Husband and Wife—Victims Asleep When the Slaughter Commenced, Death Being Instantaneous for Two.
Minneapolis, Nov. 4.—Three children dead, a fourth dangerously wounded and their stepmother shot is the record of a terrible tragedy at the home of James Brennan, a member of the salvage corps. The children were murdered by Mrs. Brennan, who then tried to kill herself. The tragedy occurred at 3 o'clock in the morning. A quarrel between Mrs. Brennan and her husband the previous evening caused the awful crime.
The victims of the tragedy are Alice, aged sixteen, shot through right temple, dead; Lizzie, fourteen, shot through right temple, dead; Arthur, seven, shot through base of brain, dead; Thomas, thirteen, shot through cheek, may live; Mrs. Brennan, shot through left breast, may recover.
Mrs. Brennan is the second wife of Brennan and the stepmother of all the children. According to neighbors Brennan and his wife quarreled frequently, but she never intimated that she would harm the children.
The children were all asleep in their beds when the terrible slaughter commenced.
Girls Killed While Asleep.
The two girls were shot through the head and evidently died instantly, as their beds were undisturbed. The boys, however, evidently awakened by the shooting of their sisters, doubtless made a fight for their lives. They were found unconscious in the hall on the second floor of the building with their night clothing torn to shreds.
The tragedy was discovered by members of the family that lived on the floor next to the Brennan family. Shortly before 3 o'clock they heard a noise, followed by several shots at short intervals. The head of the family ran upstairs to find members of the Brennan family lying dead and dying in pools of blood in different parts of the apartments.
The police were notified and Mrs. Brennan and two of the boys, who were still alive, were hurried to the city hospital. Arthur, the youngest boy, died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.
The bodies of the murdered girls were taken to the county morgue.
