

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, and heals. Sold for 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a regular preserver to me. It brought me through a severe attack of pneumonia, and I feel that I owe my life to its wonderful curative properties."—WILLIAM H. TRUITT, Wawa, Pa.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Sarsaparilla, Pills, Hair Vigor.

Hasten recovery by keeping the bowels regular with Ayer's Pills.

LE ROY

Over a hundred tickets were sold from here to the state fair. We helped to crowd the fair grounds. Next comes the Mower County fair and we'll all be there.

Mrs. A. R. Thomas and daughter of Austin visited relatives here last week.

Officer Carmichael was down from Austin Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stone of Rock Island, Ill., are visiting his brother, Rev. G. W. Stone and family. The lady is a sister of Mrs. Rev. Stone.

Mrs. Martha Thomson, who spent the summer with friends here, returned to her home in Springfield, Mo., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Whitecomb go to Winona this week to visit O. T. Caswell's folks.

Their first child was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Madison Aug. 31. A lusty son.

C. A. Smart of St. Paul was in Le Roy a part of last week.

Rev. Raymond of St. Cloud came Thursday for a visit with his many friends here. Rev. Raymond had charge of the Presbyterian church here twenty five years ago and always receives a hearty welcome.

Miss Mary Lukens visited in Austin last week.

Mrs. S. J. Bacon, Mrs. A. C. Scarlett and two children and Miss Mabel Bacon left last week for Rock Island, where after a short visit at the home of Mrs. Scarlett, Mrs. Bacon and Mabel will return to their home in Yates Centre, Kansas.

Wildwood Park is the great point of attraction these warm summer days. If you have not attended one or more picnics at Wildwood Park you have missed much. Many of the adjoining towns are also taking advantage of its many attractions.

Mrs. Emily Rosaan has returned from her trip to Europe.

C. S. Bryan of Oakdale shipped his goods Monday to N. Dak., where he will reside in the future.

Olin Louden of Riceville was in Le Roy Monday.

Mrs. John Hubbard and daughter Frances have returned from their summers visit at Two Harbors.

L. M. Daily and family now occupy their fine new residence.

Miss Jennie Diddams is visiting relatives in Decorrah.

The LeRoy public school opened last week with following corps of teachers: W. O. Lippitt, Principal, Miss Kemp, Miss Norton, Miss Boudrye, Miss Harden, Miss Wallace, Miss Hubbard and Miss Kumm. Enrollment 197.

Miss Lois Garvey went to Minneapolis Thursday to take a course at the business college.

Mrs. Sarah Knutson, wife of Mons Knutson died Sept. 3. She was born in Norway July 11, 1868 and has lived in LeRoy 22 years. She leaves a husband and two small children, Mamie and Conrad. She had been a long and patient sufferer with consumption. Funeral services were conducted at the residence in English by Rev. Sherman of the Presbyterian church and at the Bethania Lutheran church by Rev. Berg her Lutheran pastor. Mrs. Knutson had many friends both Norwegian and American as the abundance of the beautiful flowers and the large attendance at the funeral would testify.

Austin Steam Laundry. Patronize home institutions and have your laundry work done at the Austin Steam Laundry in the highest style of the art. No chemicals used. Laundry delivered free of charge. Give us a trial.

T. M. FINEGAN Proprietor.

WALTHAM

Very warm weather of late. Great many of our people visited the state fair and pronounced it fine.

Geo. Ziemer and A. T. Kezar left Tuesday for their respective farms in Crow Wing and Clay counties.

Rev. Schlutz of Elkton made his son here a short visit Monday.

Several of our people attended the funeral of Mr. Rollings of Brownsdale Sunday.

A. A. Ziemer returned Sunday from the fair where he was well represented in his poultry, bees etc and it goes without saying, he secured many blue ribbons. Alfred certainly has the stock.

School began Monday, Miss Mabel Johnson, grammar; Miss Katharine Murphy, primary.

OAKLAND

Mrs. E. J. Harris was an Albert Lea visitor Friday.

Miss Ora Dearmin visited her sister, Mrs. Lowry, several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith and son of New York and Mrs. Mayne Morgan of Austin were callers here last week.

Sadie Norton of Austin spent several days with her brother, Miles, last week.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. James Taylor Wednesday.

Mrs. R. G. Guy and Mrs. James Guy were visiting relatives in the village last week.

T. R. Morgan returned home from Wisconsin Thursday after visiting relatives there a week.

Misses Martha Buchanan, Percis and Lucille Bennett returned to Austin Sunday to resume their school duties.

Miss Carmen Gudavison spent Sunday at the parental home.

Last Friday evening many friends of Rev. J. W. Beard, who had charge of the Presbyterian church of this place for the past four months, tendered him a farewell reception at the home of R. G. Guy. About 100 were present. After a very interesting program by the people, Mr. Aleck Roulston in a few well chosen words presented Mr. Beard with a purse of $60. Refreshments were served after which the crowd left saying they enjoyed a good time.

GRAND MEADOW

School opened last week with fine prospects and with the following teachers: M. F. Baker, Supt.; Miss May Frazer, principal; Miss Winifred Gillis, assistant in high school and musical director; Miss Myra McCue, 7th and 8th; Miss Nellie Keenan, 5th and 6th; Miss Warren, 3rd and 4th; Miss Ethel James, 1st and 2nd.

Editor B. A. Johnson helped to run the state fair last week.

Next Market day here Saturday, Sept. 15.

Miss Anna Skifter is attending the S. M. Normal college.

The W. R. C. will serve dinner at G. A. R. hall next Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wislie will teach at Adrian for the coming year. Miss Mabel Goodsell at Olivia, and Miss Matie Bohn at Spring Valley.

R. E. Crane and sons attended the state fair last week. Mr. Crane met his boyhood chum, Hon. A. L. Cole, candidate for governor.

Edward Bratrud of St. James has bought a half interest in his brother's hardware store. The new firm name is Bratrud Brothers.

A party in honor of Miss Lydia Schlegel was given at her home Tuesday evening by the Eastern Star of which organization she is an efficient member.

Dance at M. W. A. hall next Saturday evening, Market day.

Carroll Bush has resumed his studies at Hamline university.

Miss Lydia Schlegel left for Lisbon, N. D., Wednesday on an extended visit.

SARGEANT

Henry Hahn transacted business in Blooming Prairie Thursday.

Sargeant is going to have another Market Day soon, the last being a big success.

Miss Emma Bendlage of Rochester is the guest of Miss Emma Schwartz this week.

We are glad to see that John Pfull is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Straend returned from the state fair Sunday.

Henry Hahn had his driving horse cut up in the barb wire. Dr. Leffingwell of Austin was up taking care of the wound.

C. A. Russell, our city barber, went to Minneapolis Monday to take the state barbers examination.

Henry Hanson is hauling the mail on route 2 until the regular carrier is appointed from Washington.

Mrs. Nels Dahle and children of Brownsdale visited at the B. C. Stoddard home on Sunday.

Mr. Coble of Hampton, Iowa, is putting up some buildings on his farm one half mile east of town. A good chance for some one to rent.

Sargeant is going to have a machine shed in the near future and the party will keep a complete line of farm machinery.

Work has been commenced on taking down the village windmill and erecting the new gasoline engine.

—Highest market value paid for all kinds of farm produce at the Hub Grocery Department.

LANSING

Miss Mary Nelson of Blooming Prairie came Saturday to visit at the Weber home.

Mrs. Truesdell of Austin visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Vaughan last week.

D. H. Johnson and daughter Veta went to Owatonna Tuesday morning. Veta will attend Pillsbury Academy the coming year.

Mrs. Salzgeber returned Saturday eve from the cities, where she visited friends the past week.

Mrs. H. R. Soule went to Minneapolis Tuesday to visit her friend Mrs. Lizzie Tompkins and to attend the State Fair, returning home Friday.

Mrs. Cronan went to Northfield Tuesday, Sept. 11, to visit her mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Salzgeber and Joe Benish took an automobile trip into Iowa Sunday.

Mrs. Osbourn of Otter Tail, Minn., and Mrs. Palmeter of Austin spent Monday with H. B. Roe's family.

Miss Hattie McIntyre spent a few days last week in Austin, guest of Miss Helen Shepherd.

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Hargar Lyons Thursday afternoon. A picnic supper will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. LaBar returned from Minneapolis Sunday eve.

Roy Chaffee and Nellie Vaughan Sundayed in Otranto.

SAINT'S REST

School commenced Sept. 3 with Miss Callie Loucks of Spring Valley as teacher.

The new telephones will soon be placed in and around here.

Miss Sadie Philbrick attended the reception for Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Sayles at Austin Friday.

Frank R. Scripture, recently butter maker here, has gone to Houston to take charge of the new creamery there. Mrs. Scripture has also gone to be with him.

Thomas Savage is improving slowly from the effects of the runaway in which he was hurt about two weeks ago.

The Saint's Rest creamery is in fine running order under the management of A. Burkey recently of Adams, who is an up to date butter maker. He takes in either milk or cream from five o'clock until eleven every forenoon.

LONDON

Mrs. Jack Connor and daughter of Austin called here on friends Tuesday last week.

Mr. Sate made a business trip to the Dakotas recently.

Henry Campbell and family of Austin visited here at the former's home a few days of last week.

Fred Lang of the University of Minn., is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. M. Sharp of Austin will return home Wednesday after having spent a week here visiting old friends and relatives.

Among those who attended the state fair from here were Mr. and Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Crisman, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mr. Hyatt, Tillie and Emma Foss, Nordahl Nelson and George Fundy.

Mr. and Mrs. August Fialka gave a party Thursday evening in honor of Miss Irene Boyington of Austin Games were indulged in, refreshments served, and all those present report a fine time.

Misses Mae Watkins of Austin and Bernice Edgerton of Fargo, N. D. stopped on their way to Northwood, Iowa, Wednesday returning Thursday and in the evening attending the party at August Fialka's.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Goslee of Auburn, Neb., came through here in their automobile last week.

Mrs. Henry Goslee and son Harold of Austin were guests of Mrs. J. H. Goslee, a few days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook drove to Austin Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kesler of Austin spent Sunday here at Alba Bump's.

Mrs. Meadowcroft of Austin, visited her daughter here, Mrs. W. C. Goslee, from Thursday until Saturday.

Those who attended the party at Louis and Martin Anderson's Saturday evening report a good time.

Will Hanson left for the Dakotas Monday.

ADAMS

Mrs. K. L. Niles and son visited her parents at Kasson last week.

Social dance in the hall next Friday evening. Music by Knutson's orchestra.

Regina Gilligan, Abby and Mary Carroll entered the Winona normal last week.

Miss Kate Bertram went to Albert Lea Thursday on a visit.

J. H. Carey left for Bryant, S. D., Tuesday to look after his farm.

The Willing Workers will meet with Mrs. Joseph Carey Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Thos. Conway of Inkster, N. D., came Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Krebsbach. A large number of our citizens took in the state fair last week making it a quiet week here.

ROSE CREEK

Dr. J. S. Beagle left last week for Sidney, Mont., for a few days trip.

Mrs. Frank Jungblut who has been under the doctor's care is somewhat improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens A. Jensen went to the state fair Thursday and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bemis kept the ranch during their absence.

The hunters report a light catch of chickens this season. Four went out Sunday and bagged seven.

School commenced last week with Prof. Jenkins of Minneapolis principal, and Miss Grace Cronan intermediate and primary.

A large amount of unthreshed flax has been received here this season. Considerable complaint comes of potatoes rotting in this locality.

Charles Eastman, one of our old settlers, has been critically ill.

John Ulwelling has been making improvements on his meat market.

An addition has been put on the rear of the store building occupied by E. C. Keefe & Co.

The Hunting elevator here has been overhauled and can handle grain very expeditiously.

Hot here for the past few days. Next thing will be a frost.

Monday was chicken day here and all the old hens were here.

A good many of our citizens took in the state fair last week and all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. St. Clair of Adams were callers in Saint's Rest last week.

Joe Lux returned from Hayfield Saturday and has started again to tend bar for John Smith.

Tony Mechenich and family moved from Austin to Rose Creek Sunday and intend to make this place their future home.

Henry Helgeson of Adams was in town Monday on business.

W. C. Bennett of Concord was in town Monday on business.

Miss Maggie Enright departed for Twin Lakes where she will again take up her old position as school teacher.

Mrs. E. L. Brown who was on the sick list last week is up and attending to her duties at the Merchants Hotel.

John Lux departed for Hopkins, Wis., Friday on business.

Master Glen Brown has severed his connections with A. R. Sutton as farmer as he intends going to school.

BROWNSDALE

Reuben Rollings, one of our oldest and best esteemed citizens, died at his home Sept. 6 aged 81 years. Funeral services under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Brownsdale were held at the residence Sunday afternoon. All the children came to see their father before his death.

Mrs. W. G. Weisbeck returned last week from her Dubuque visit.

Misses Pearl and Ethel Clark have returned to school duties at Mankato Normal school and Miss Edith B. Palmer to Hamline university.

Wm. Yenter has moved back from Geneva, Iowa, where he went a year ago.

Rev. and Mrs. I. B. Wood returned from St. Paul Saturday.

Presiding Elder F. M. Rule will hold quarterly conference next Saturday evening at the M. E. church and will preach Sunday morning.

Rev. Thos. B. Frizelle returned Monday to his school duties at Pillsbury academy but will continue to preach in the Baptist church here every Sunday. He is a promising young minister and has much endeared himself to the people here during his brief pastorate.

Those who attended the state fair from this vicinity are too numerous to mention by name. They report a fine time and a fine fair.

LYLE

Rev. J. M. Eggen attended the Ministerial convention at Minneapolis last week.

A son was born to Mrs. R. J. Gordon Thursday.

Miss Laura Sherman and Jay Frazer resumed their studies at Carlton college this week.

Ora Waite, was struck on the leg by a handle of handcar Tuesday injuring him so that he went to his home at Nassau, Iowa.

School commenced Monday of this week in the new school building with the following teachers: Miss Carrie Ruddock, principal; Miss Edith Ruddock, assistant; Miss McGovern, 7th and 8th; Miss Ethel Cobb, 5th and 6th; Miss Nellie Hill, 3rd and 4th; Miss Palma Lee, primary. A complete high school has been arranged.

Dan Walthers of Shell Rock, Iowa, visited his sister, Mrs. C. E. Gilbert, last week.

Mrs. Earl Loughrey and children are visiting in Elbow Lake.

OUR MOTTO:

Courtesy, Promptness, Accuracy, Satisfaction.

FOR

General Blacksmithing,

Plow Work and Horse-Shoeing.

BE SURE AND SEE

PAULSEN

at Taopi for

GOOD WORK.

FURNITURE

T. W. DONOVAN.

H. A. GOSLEE.

The grandest display to be seen at the Mower County Fair will be at

DONOVAN & GOSLEE'S

FURNITURE STORE

Where you are all invited to make your headquarters; plenty of chairs to sit in and we will be pleased to see you and show you our complete line of goods now ready for the fall and holiday trade.

Don't Miss This Grand Display.

DONOVAN & GOSLEE

Phone 198.

Main St., West of Court House.

Just A Moment of Your Valuable Time With Our Underwear Dept.

ESSEX

That's the name. It means something to see this name and its found only at

Murphy's

If you love dainty, neat Underwear, just as fine a fit as you ever saw. Get an Essex. We have had our eye on this for the past few years but the quantity kept us back this year. We managed to use the quantity and, Oh, the price just from the mill, no medium, means profit just off the iron; that is why the price is low.

Just a moment and you can save from 5 to 10 per cent on your underwear purchases. Special values during the week.

September 12th to 19th, 1906.

DANISH CLOTH—One case of assorted Colored Danish just the goods for Sunday or school garments, all colors 10c
LONSDALE MUSLIN—The genuine, bearing the stamp of the mill on every piece. We know some will say it cannot be done, we have it at per yd. 7c
FLEECE GOODS—A case of assorted fleeced goods, light or dark colors, single or double fold, worth 10c, 12½c, 15c and 18c
 Some very choice patterns while they last 10c

If you want to spend a little pleasant and profitable time and really enjoy yourself just call at Murphy's and look up the fall Cloak question. It's a very pleasing sight to see the array of fall and winter garments now on exhibition.

CARPETS, RUGS AND LINOLEUMS—We are not spending time or money tooting you around in our auto to induce you to buy of us. We are not using bait to catch business people who know good cold facts when they see them. We have the line that has no equal in Carpets, Rugs or Linoleums. We make the price that others refuse to meet when you are a business person who knows how to push a fair proposition. We know and you know some people never stop at decency. They use any and all kinds of dope if you take it, even the auto is put in use to capture your wants but you must pay the price.

Trade at Murphy's and your savings will soon buy an auto of your own. You will find this week worth dollars to you. Every line is full to the limit. Dry Goods, Silks, Cloaks, Underwear, Millinery, Carpets.

R. R. MURPHY.

J. F. FAIRBANKS

DEALER IN

Hard and Soft Coal,

A MAN

WOOD, LIME, SEWER COMBINATION FENCE, BRICK, ETC.

Across the street lugging a water melon always attracts attention. So does a man showing up the superior qualities of the PAGE Fence. Why? Because man like a good thing. Manufactured by THE PAGE WOVEN WIRE FENCE CO., Adrian, Mich. We keep it. The only fence fully guaranteed by the manufacturer.

Office corner Bridge and Franklin Street AUSTIN, MINN.

M. J. SLAVEN, Vice-Pres. JOHN W. SCOTT, Pres. B. J. MOREY, or. ALEX. S. CAMPBELL, Vice-Pres. J. E. CRIPPEN, Asst. Cashier.

4847

The Citizens' National Bank

AUSTIN, MINN.

Capital, $50,000. Undivided Profits, $15,000.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.