

Cook with Gas.
—Mrs. Jane E. Gleason is recovering from her recent accident.

—Co. G. commenced their regular weekly drills on Monday evening.
—Mrs. Fay R. Smith went to Minneapolis Saturday to visit friends.

—Miss Ethie Hall went to Alexandria Friday to teach for the ensuing year.
—Choice cider vinegar for pickling and other purposes at Dalager's grocery.

—Miss Anna Watkins commenced her fall term of school at Anoka on Monday.

—Rev. F. E. Knopf arrived home Wednesday from his vacation trip to Billings, Mont.

—Miss Lillian Gilbertson left for Lake Geneva, Wis. to attend the Y. W. C. A. convention.

—Girl Wanted for general housework, No cooking. Inquire of H. Kaufman, 500 S. Kenwood.

—If you are thinking of building, let us figure on your bill. We have the stock. Eclipse Lumber Company.

—The second annual picnic of the Austin Club was held at Tacoma, Wash. Monday. There is a large membership.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Ward and son are taking in the state fair this week.

—The tile roofing is being put on the new M. E. church edifice and work on the interior will then be rushed.

—That fifty cent tea at Dalager's grocery is the best ever for the price. Those who have used it will have no other.

—George R. Hough of Clinton, Ill. came last week to visit his sister, Mrs. Jane E. Gleason. His wife and daughter accompanied him.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Holgate returned Monday from St. Paul where they visited their daughter Belle. Mr. Holgate spent Sunday there and Mrs. Holgate was there three weeks.

—For Sale 320 acre farm fair improvements, all under cultivation, 4 1/2 miles south Grand Meadow, $45 per acre. Easy terms. Address Lock box 277, Hampton, Ia. 28

—The fall term of the S. M. Normal college opened yesterday with a gratifying attendance. The main building has been improved and thoroughly renovated during the recent vacation.

—A large number of our people are at the state fair this week taking in the best fair on earth. Among the visitors is J. Z. Rogers, secretary of our county fair, who is looking up attractions for our own fair which occurs Sept. 24-27.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Peck, mother of O. N. Peck, died at the home of her son Friday morning. Age 78 years. Since her husband died ten years ago she has spent part of the time with her son here. The body was taken to the old home in Wisconsin for burial.

—Labor Day was observed in this city by several of the firms. The office force of Shedd & Wright Company went to Blooming Prairie in the afternoon for an outing, returning in the evening. Mrs. H. M. Brown accompanied them as chaperone.

—SALESMEN WANTED: To introduce our State Atlas of Minnesota. Absolutely new. Contains special maps, special illustrations, statistical matter and indexes. Descriptive matter of the state, Physical, Commercial, Historical, etc. A splendid opportunity. Rand, McNally & Company, Chicago, Ill.

—To keep posted on all the latest advancements is to keep abreast of the times. This is especially true in medicine, where such rapid progress is being made. Dr. Addison Jones was asked how he managed to keep up with all of his clinical work and at the same time make his monthly visits so regularly. The doctor laughed and said, that system was the secret, if there is any secret.

—Judge H. N. Lane arrived home Monday from his Missouri trip. He spent about two weeks in the Ozarks and other parts of southwestern Missouri. He saw nothing that tempted him to leave Minnesota. The apple crop is a total failure on account of the May frosts. The corn crop, which is the main dependence, is dried up with drought so that it is only three feet high and is being cut up for fodder. Corn is 65 and 70 cents a bushel. There will be a scarcity of Illinois and Iowa apples also. Judge Lane was accompanied by his son, W. O. Lane, and Justice G. W. Geesey of London.

—Towels and toweling, 10c up at the Bazaar.

—10c Hose at the Bazaar.
—Pure cider vinegar at Dalager's grocery.

—Housekeeping is a pleasure when you cook with gas.

—Our city schools open next Monday with a corps of excellent teachers.

—Mrs. D. Z. Robinson took charge of the Y. W. C. A. rooms Monday.

—G. Fred Baird went to Lake Minnetonka Saturday to spend a week with his family.

—Miss Emanier Reed of Minneapolis was a guest of Miss Cora Bell of Lansing last week.

—Frank Cronan and family arrived Friday from their visit with relatives at Rockford, Ill.

—Miss Lottie Torrens left Saturday for Hills, Minn. where she will teach for the coming year.

—R. E. Shepherd's family are expected here this week from Billings, Mont., for a visit.

—Miss Grace Gardiner returned Wednesday evening from Winona where she visited relatives.

—H. B. Haroldson and S. O. Wall of Kennett were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

—Prof. A. J. Harpman of the S. M. Normal college has bought the Drummond residence property on Winona street.

—The south abutment of the bridge at the Ramsey mill has been replaced and the bridge is now in good condition.

—Miss Alma Cragin of St. Joseph Mo. came last week and will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. George W. Bucklin.

—Mrs. Mayphene McKenna Ferguson went to Medford, Wis. Wednesday to become supervisor of music and drawing.

—Rev. J. S. Budlong gave a Labor Day sermon at the Episcopal church Sunday morning. Subject, The Church and Working Man.

—Walter Gleason and wife of Cresco came yesterday to visit friends. He was formerly operator at the Milwaukee depot here.

—Rev. J. C. Roseland and several members of the Luther League attended the convention at Northwood last week returning Friday.

—O. J. Thompson a large cattle buyer of Meltonville was here yesterday with two carloads of stock for the Hormel Packing company.

—Mrs. Annetta Ellingson left yesterday afternoon for Albert Lea to spend a few weeks with her parents and other relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Iver Barlow of Cresco were calling on Austin friends yesterday. Mr. Barlow was formerly butter-maker at the Austin creamery.

—Misses Addie, Clo and Jennie Teeter arrived home Saturday from their European trip. They were gone three months and had a delightful and instructive journey.

—Henry J. Drost returned Monday evening from St. Paul where he took in the state fair. He spent several days with Chas. J. Sargeant at Red Wing.

—We are glad that Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Trowbridge of St. Paul have decided to locate in Austin. Harry has been engaged as clerk in I. T. Tollison's drug store.

—Wilmar Evans of this city and Miss Phyllis M. Calahan of Brainerd were married last week and will make their home here. The groom is a brakeman on the Milwaukee road.

—Horace Newman of South Tacoma, Wash., left yesterday for St. Paul where he will spend a week and take in the state fair and other attractions. He will then go to Tacoma. He visited in Austin over two weeks.

—The old soldiers with their families and friends had an enjoyable picnic at Lafayette park Wednesday. The day was spent socially and a launch ride and other recreation were enjoyed.

—Double wedding at the Central Presbyterian church this noon, the parties being Henry Guy and Miss Kittie Forrestall and Stuart Evans and Miss Nellie Forrestall. The brides are sisters.

—The Austin Council, Yeomen of America, celebrated the anniversary of the establishment of their lodge by a fine program on Saturday evening. Addresses were made by several of the grand lodge officers and a musical program was enjoyed followed by a social session.

—Erick Anderson who was let out of jail Monday after a thirty day term for drunkenness was again in court yesterday on the same complaint. He was given sixty days in jail but will be required to serve only five days. The saloon keeper who sold him the liquor was fined $50 and costs which was little enough.

—Mrs. S. H. Harrison left last evening for Panama where Mr. Harrison is clerk under the Isthmus Canal Commission. She will be on the water seven days from New York. Her numerous friends here regret her departure and their best wishes will follow her. Vera Harrison will enter Pillsbury academy at Owatonna next week.

—Miss Tanie Burgess has gone to Windom Minn., where she will teach this year.

—The W. R. Earl family broke camp Saturday morning.

—Miss Agnes Cronan went to Slayton Minn., Saturday morning where she will teach the coming year.

—Miss Mabel Mculloch returned Friday night from a three weeks visit at DeKalb and Chicago.

—Mrs. T. E. Hanson of Blooming Prairie came Saturday to visit her son Ed. Hanson.

—Mrs. R. S. Holmes returned Saturday morning after an extended visit in her old home in New York.

—Ruby Ferris went to St. Paul Saturday morning for a few days visit.

—Mrs. Will Bennett went to Minneapolis Wednesday to visit Mrs. J. E. Manchester.

—Miss Carrie Vaughan is spending a few days at the Phillips home in Rose Creek.

—Miss Nellie Wilder went to Chicago Friday night where she is studying to be a trained nurse.

—Nels Sodergren left for Valparaiso, Ind., Monday to attend the Commercial college there.

—Bishop Cotter of St. Paul confirmed a class of 142 at St. Augustine's church Sunday Sept. 1.

—Chester Johnson returned to Minneapolis Friday after spending his vacation at home.

—Miss Sadie Norton arrived home last week from Clyde, N. Y. where she spent the last year.

—Mrs. T. Nemitz and son Walter arrived home Wednesday from Pine River, Minn., where they spent two months with her brother and other relatives.

—Mrs. Norman S. Gregg was taken to the hospital at St. Paul Sunday for special treatment. She was very ill last week with kidney trouble.

—Miss Helen Sodergren will go to Winona Saturday to attend the Normal. Her sister Margie will attend the public school there and Amanda will keep house for them.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cerouse of Shawnee, Okla., arrived Saturday to visit their niece, Mrs. J. E. Snyder. They went to the state fair Monday.

—Mrs. Harry Hopkins who has been a guest of Mrs. W. C. Page for two weeks, returned to her home in Omaha, Saturday.

—Miss Ada Holmes of Illinois who has been visiting her cousin Mrs. A. J. Harpman, has gone to the twin cities for a few days.

—C. D. Belden returned Monday from his outing at Park Rapids and reports a very enjoyable two weeks of recreation. Mrs. Belden and Nettie are expected home the last of this week.

—Davis Wilder, who formerly worked for the Austin Furniture Co., left Friday morning for Sidney, Montana, where he will take a position in Earl Varco's store.

—Dr. Rodgers of this city has been elected president of the M. E. Home Mission convention for the Winona district and Mrs. Harry M. Furtney secretary of literature.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Phillips of Louisiana who have been visiting his brother Dr. Jesse W. Phillips and other relatives for several weeks left for Chicago Thursday evening on their way home.

—W. F. Blalock has sold his feed business to I. S. VanHouse who last year moved here from London. Mr. Van House has had a successful business experience and customers will find it satisfactory to deal with him.

—Miss Ruth Dalager who has been visiting friends here for the past three weeks left yesterday for her home in Minot, N. D. where she will trim during the fall season. She stopped in Minneapolis en route.

—C. Hemstreet will sell at public auction at his farm in section 16, town of Lyle on Sept. 18, all his horses and cattle and farm machinery, and some household goods.

—The Social Twelve met with Mrs. C. B. Dibble north of Austin Wednesday afternoon. After a pleasant afternoon and supper the members enjoyed a pleasant ride homeward.

—The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church held a pleasant meeting at the Crane and Mitchell camp Wednesday afternoon. The gentlemen came out for supper.

—The Woman's Guild of Christ church held a pleasant meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Williams on Oakland Ave. on the east side. A fine supper was served at six o'clock. About fifty were present.

—Paul Knopf met with an accident Saturday morning while going to his work at the Packing House. He was riding his wheel and ran into a wagon and received a bad fall. Dr. Daigneau was summoned, but found no bones broken.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pettengill left last Wednesday evening for their trip in the east. They will visit in Amsterdam where Mr. Pettengill's relatives reside and in Buffalo, Jamestown, New York City and other places.

FINAL CLEARING SALE

One Fact Better Than a Ton of Talk.

CHAS. L. WEST

Butterick Patterns are Better Than Ever. Prices 10c and 15c.

A Few Things That Must Be Sold if Prices Will Do It

Silks

One lot Fancy Silks 50c at..... 25c
One lot Fancy Silks 75c at..... 37 1/2 c
One lot Fancy Silks $1.00 at..... 50c
Size of pieces 2 1/2 to 25 yds.

Corsets

One lot Ladies' Corsets, $1 quality sizes 18, 19 and 20, choice..... 25c

Gloves

One lot Girls' White Cotton Gloves, per pair..... 5c

Lawns..... 4c
Dimities..... 7 1/2 c
Batiste..... 10c
Organdies..... 15c
Girls' 25c Union Suits..... 15c
Girls' 50c Union Suits..... 25c
Girls' 50c White Lawns..... 25c

Ladies' Worsted Skirts

10 Ladies' fancy mixed Worsted Skirts, priced at $3.50 to $6.50 choice to close..... $2.25

Shirt Waist Suits

Ladies' Gray Chambray $3.50 at.. $2.00
Ladies' Blue Chambray $3.50 at.. 2.00
Ladies' Check Gingham $3.50 at.. 2.00
Ladies' Shrunken Cotton $3.25 at... 2.00

Ladies' White Skirts

15 Ladies' White Shrunken Cotton Skirts $1.75 at..... $1.00

Ladies' Belts

One lot Ladies' Belts, priced up to 75c, your choice for..... 10c

Men's Laundered Shirts

One lot of Men's White Laundered Shirts, $1 quality, sizes 14, 14 1/2 and 15 1/2 neck band, to close at.. 50c

Men's Unlaundered Shirts

Excellent quality, sizes neck band 14, 15 and 15 1/2, to close at..... 50c

Ladies' Tailored Suits

1 Blue Mixed, size 36 at..... $2.98
2 Light Mixed, size 34 at..... 2.98
1 Tan, size 34 at..... 2.50
1 Gray, size 36 at..... 2.50
1 Black, size 32 at..... 2.50

CHARLES L. WEST

Quarter Centennial

OF THE

Mower County

Agricultural Society

Annual County Fair to be held at Austin

Sept. 24, 25, 26, 27, 1907

Horse Racing Each Day

The great Bell Family will be seen each afternoon. Three great Aerial, Acrobatic and Tumbling Feats.

ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR JOHNSON

Base Ball Game for Purse of $50.00

Three Bands of Music

Complete Program will be published later.