

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER A Cream of Tartar Powder Made from Grapes NO ALUM

A daughter was born to Mrs. Loren Trenary on Thursday.

GET IN to a live service at the new Presbyterian church. Hurry.

Choice cider vinegar for pickling and other purposes at Dalager's grocery.

WOMEN'S ST. ... KIRK'S JAP ROSE transparent soap for WASHING THE HAIR. ... sold by all druggists and grocers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klitzing of Elkton were visiting friends in this city Monday.

Watermelons ten cents each. Muskmelons ten cents each, three for 25 cents at the Hub Grocery.

Get your dyeing done at the Austin steam dye and cleaning works. They do not shrink nor injure anything placed in their hands.

Flax Straw Wanted. Will pay $4 per ton. Austin Tow Mill, north of Milwaukee station. J. H. Mitchell, manager.

County fair at Austin this week. Closes Friday afternoon. Senator Clapp will speak Thursday afternoon. Do not miss it.

R. E. Shepherd of Billings, Mont., arrived here Saturday for a brief visit. Helen came down from Stanley hall, Minneapolis, to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Lottie Leslie, a teacher in the Northfield schools, came Friday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. M. C. Morgan, and other relatives.

L. M. Tollison, opposite the Carnegie library, makes a specialty at this season of house painting, paper hanging, and calceining. Surburban work solicited.

The first white frost of the season came here Sunday morning but in many spots did but little damage. It cut the vines some but did not materially injure the corn.

The cellar for Herbert Schleuder's new house on south Main street next north of Dr. H. A. Avery's is being dug and work on the foundation will begin in a few days.

Rev. A. Cressey left yesterday for Marshall to attend conference. From there he will go to Watertown, S. D., to visit his son John who is in the real estate business there.

Among those expected at the county fair this year are B. F. Nelson, president, C. N. Griggs, vice-president, and C. N. Cosgrove, secretary of the State Agricultural Society.

The glass and frames for the dome of the new M. E. church arrived Saturday and are being put in place. With this glass in, the building will be enclosed so that the plastering in the auditorium can be rushed.

A banquet will be served at Elks hall Thursday evening by the citizens of Austin in honor of Senator M. E. Clapp, the officers of the state agricultural society, Prof. Thos. Shaw, Congressman Tawney and the other distinguished visitors of the county fair. Over 125 will be present. Mayor Geo. Sutton is chairman of committee on arrangements.

It is decided that Rev. J. C. Roseland will accept the call to become pastor of the Logan Square Lutheran church in Chicago. It is an important field and his work will include the uniting of two congregations, the St. James and the Covenant, into one strong organization. He has been a very successful pastor here.

The resignation of Rev. R. E. Sayles as pastor was considered by the members of the Baptist church at a special meeting held Thursday evening and it was accepted. He will preach his farewell sermon, Oct. 13. A committee on new pastor was appointed consisting of J. E. Robinson, Dr. M. O. Anderson, L. French, E. W. Marsh and W. W. Ranney.

The live stock premium list for the Second National Dairy Show, which will be held October 10th to 19th, 1907 at the Amphitheatre, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, is now ready for distribution. There is over $7,000 to be distributed, in cash prices, besides medals, cups and diplomas. For further particulars and premium list write to Mr. E. Sudendorf, Room 307, 154 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Housekeeping is a pleasure when you cook with gas.

Chas. Wayne and wife of Fargo are visiting his parents, Mrs. W. H. Wayne.

Will F. Day and daughter of St. Paul are visiting at Park Goodwin's.

Highest official market price for butter and eggs. THE HUB GROCERY DEPT.

THE LATEST FAD is to attend the new Presbyterian church, Sunday evenings.

If you are thinking of building, let us figure on your bill. We have the stock. Eclipse Lumber Company.

For Sale by G. C. Clark of Brownsdale, a team of heavy young mares well matched.

JAP ROSE transparent toilet and bath soap is made from the whitest, purest and best vegetable oils—OILS THAT YOU CAN EAT. Made by KIRK—sold by all druggists and grocers.

THE DEVIL is still doing business in Austin. The Presbyterians are fighting. Come and help.

Dr. Ollie Bemis and wife of Bancroft, Iowa, came Monday to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bemis and daughter of Corwith, Iowa, came Saturday to visit relatives east of town.

All kinds of apples bought by R. Puccini, 125 and 127 East Mill street. No wind falls.

Miss Bertha Darrt came down from St. Paul Friday evening for a brief visit at home.

Mrs. M. L. Patterson returned Monday from Stacyville, where she visited a few days.

J. W. Martnick of Westley, Iowa, spent Thursday and Friday visiting at the home of Wm. Dantzer's.

James J. Leary, formerly of the Transcript force, is now at the cases in the Madisonian office at Virginia City, Mont.

The Shedd & Wright Company put in Saturday an elegant new two-revolution Miehle cylinder press for their increasing trade.

The Carnegie Public library reading rooms will be opened on Sunday afternoons until further notice in charge of Miss Marie Page.

At the residence of Rev. Alfred Cressey, 311 Kenwood Ave. N., Mr. Fred Dumke and Miss Mary Lincoln were married at 2 p. m. Sept. 21, 1907 both of Mower Co., Minn.

The members of the Lutheran church will meet tomorrow evening to consider the resignation of their pastor, Rev. J. C. Roseland, which was tendered to the official board on Thursday evening.

P. I. Williams of Brookings, S. D. officiated at the Christian church last Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor. Rev. Chas. Forster, the pastor, is expected back from his California trip for next Sunday's service.

Miss Mynn F. Stoddard of Minneapolis has resumed lessons in voice culture at her studio, First Congregational church, Austin, Minn. Can take a few more pupils. Kindly engage time early as teaching hours are limited. At studio from Tuesday noon until Wednesday noon of each week. Terms $1.50 per lesson.

The presbytery of Winona will meet in Central Presbyterian church Tuesday 7:30 p. m. Oct. 1. Rev. Thomas E. Sherman of LeRoy Moderator Elect. The business sessions on Wednesday which are open to the public. Wednesday evening Dr. A. B. Marshall of Minneapolis will speak.

The Silver Leaf Sewing Club had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Sam Warrington, on the bank of the Cedar in Lyle township, on Thursday afternoon. About 25 were present and they sewed for the lady of the house. A fine supper was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. S. Boales Thursday afternoon, Oct. 3.

It is rumored that Ed Barr will start up his brick yards here again next spring. It is hoped that the rumor is true. There is no doubt that Austin has ample supply of first class clay for brick manufacture if only the work is taken up with energy and proper machinery and processing.

Mrs. W. E. Hopkins of Chicago was visiting at Judge W. W. Ranney's last week. She and her husband, Rev. W. E. Hopkins, were for years missionaries in India. He was formerly pastor of the Baptist church in LeRoy. He is a cousin of Judge Ranney. She was here in the interest of the Baptist schools in India.

SALESMEN WANTED: To introduce our State Atlas of Minnesota. Absolutely new. Contains special maps, special illustrations, statistical matter and indexes. Descriptive matter of the state, Physical, Commercial, Historical, etc. A splendid opportunity. Rand, McNally & Company, Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. R. E. Shepherd of Billings, Mont., returned Thursday from Minneapolis for a brief visit here. A reception was given in her honor by the Birthday Club in the evening at the home of Mrs. R. R. Murphy on Oakland avenue. Over thirty were present. The guests were entertained for supper at the home of Mrs. C. B. Reed. It was a very social occasion. Mrs. Frank R. Preston and Mrs. Harry M. Hall of Needles, Cal., were among the guests from away.

A son was born to Mrs. Smith Davison last Sunday.

Forrest Schleuder went to Chicago Sunday night on business.

Mrs. R. S. Gamble went to Mason City Monday to spend several weeks.

Miss Marguerite Knopf left Wednesday to attend Wellesley college.

Dr. Charles Fleck of New York city arrived yesterday to visit friends.

Mrs. Isa Taylor of New York is visiting her brother, C. M. Emmons.

Miss Ethel Wold left Sunday night for Chicago to attend the University of Chicago.

Have you been to the beautiful new Presbyterian church Sunday evenings? Come.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve dinner and supper at the Auditorium tomorrow.

THE PLACE TO GO. The new Presbyterian church Sunday evenings. Cosy and comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barr of Mason City were visitors at the John Fairbanks home over Sunday.

The Austin schools will be closed Thursday afternoon on account of the county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hyde of Blooming-Prairie spent Sunday at B. E. Stimson's home.

Mrs. C. N. Beiseker arrived home Wednesday from her summer outing at Fessenden, N. D.

Dr. W. N. Kendrick of Spring Valley stopped over in Austin yesterday on his way to the Cities.

Guy Wold went to Chicago Sunday night to take a course in pharmacy at the N. W. University.

An interesting meeting of the Christian Brotherhood was held Sunday afternoon, led by N. W. Warren.

The L. A. to O. R. C. will give a grand ball at the Auditorium this evening. Gates Harp orchestra of Mason City.

John H. Anderson and a crew of men went to Preston Monday to get out the cut stone for the courthouse addition.

Mrs. Frank W. Adams returned home Saturday morning after a week's visit with relatives and friends in Albert Lea.

Dr. P. B. Peck is visiting old friends here. He has been living with his son Ernest at Madison, S. D. They are moving to Minneapolis.

Gus Merrill of Rolfe, Iowa, spent last week with his brother, George, and other relatives here and went to Fargo Monday to visit his aunt.

Miss Mamie Van Degrift has been elected teacher in the Deaf and Dumb School at Devil's Lake, N. D. and will go this week to commence her work.

N. F. Banfield has bought the G. Detwiler house on north Kenwood avenue and is having it moved to his farm north of the county fair grounds.

Mrs. A. R. Fuller of Crookston and Mrs. W. D. Fenton of Duluth, who have been visiting Carlos Fenton and family left for their homes Saturday.

Miss Ada Noble returned to Minneapolis Wednesday after visiting friends here for several weeks. Mrs. Ada M. Smith accompanied her.

R. Puccini arrived home Friday from Devil's Lake, N. D. where he has been for the past four months in the wholesale ice cream business. He reports a successful summer.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Lutz, Rev. A. Cressey, J. L. Mitchell and Prof. C. R. Boostrom are attending the M. E. conference at Marshall this week as delegates from the Austin church.

Nels Mickelson is making some superior cement culverts of all sizes and will soon put in an expensive cement tile making machine which will turn out 3000 a day. This is the coming tile.

R. P. Bray of Blooming Prairie has a fine collection of over 300 stuffed birds and animals on exhibition during the fair in the store opposite the courthouse recently occupied by E. W. Marsh. Do not fail to see it.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of Needles, Cal., was baptized at six o'clock Monday evening in the new M. E. church edifice by Rev. G. W. Lutz. The little one is a great grand child of R. O. Hall.

Arthur S. Enright, who has been working for C. F. Stillman, has bought 200 acres of land east of the city in Windom township, the old Harry slocum place and the Banfield quarter next west of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Birkett and two children came Friday from Mahanomen, Minn., to spend a few days with friends. Mrs. Ethel Lee left yesterday for her home in Madison, Wis. Her brother Miles Birkett accompanied her to enter the senior year at the University of Wisconsin.

FREE

During Fair week we will give free with each 6 months subscription to Minneapolis Tribune one $3.00 map of Minnesota, United States and the World. Our agent will be at Cronan's Cigar Store.

Those Who Know about our Munsing Underwear will not buy any other kind.

CHAS. L. WEST

We give all of our Cash Customers the benefit of our cash discounts.

The new productions for ladies' fall and winter wear are more elegant and beautiful than ever and our stock is larger and more complete than on any previous season. We have only space to call attention to a few items.

DRESS GOODS

The new productions in dress goods are more elegant and beautiful than ever. They are in plain, fancy weaves, mixtures and plaids. The colors and shades are improved, Browns, Reds and Blues, being in the lead. We invite inspection of our fine new stock.

SILKS

Special stress is laid on good serviceable silks in solid colors and black. Handsome Plaids for waists are especially desirable.

LADIES' COATS

We have taken great pains to obtain the best in style and quality in ladies' outer garments. We now have in large shipments of our new fall line and will be pleased to show them.

GIRLS' BEAR SKIN COATS

In new and elegant styles and at popular prices.

NECKWEAR

Handsome new things in neckwear in collars, stocks, and ties to please the most critical.

SILK GLOVES

Ladies' elbow length black Silk Gloves in medium sizes at only $1.50

KID GLOVES

Ladies' elbow length Kid Gloves in blk and colors, usually at $3 to $3.50 per pair... $2.75

Ladies' New Military Gloves, fine quality... $1.75

Ladies' Suede silk lined Gloves at the old price... $1.50

LADIES' AND MISSES' SWEATERS

The newest things in Northland Knit Sweaters for Ladies, Misses and Children. Very desirable for fall and winter wear.

CHARLES L. WEST

Correct Styles, Perfect Fit Superb Make, Good Value

That is what you get if you buy your Clothing from us. Many a Suit seems to fit when you buy it, but it soon loses its shape. That is on account of the cheap make and poor trimmings and linings. Our better grade of Clothing is made especially for us. We buy the cloth, we buy the linings. We have the strength tested before it is made up. We have it mechanically sponged and shrunk. It is made by the best skilled tailors. That is why you get better Clothing from us than elsewhere. Prices for this make of Clothing ranges from $15.00 to $25.00

We give better values than can be had at any other store.

We give especially good values in Boys' and Young Men's Clothing. We show a beautiful line at $7.50, $10.00 and $15.00

We Carry the Best line of Shoes in this City

Best in style, Best in Wearing Features. We sell the HANAN SHOES. None better made.

WE SELL THE KNOX HAT The best on Earth.

In every department we carry the best the market produces. Whatever we sell, if it is not as represented we refund the money.

A beautiful Rug given Free with $35 of Cash Purchases.

GEORGE HIRSH