

Mrs. C. D. Belden arrived home Monday evening from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. Earl Varco, at Sidney, Mont. She was gone just a month. She says the crops around Sidney are fine.

Will Bennett is having a delightful vacation trip in the west. He went through Yellowstone park and thence to Seattle to take in the exposition. He will return by the Great Northern and expects to get home next Saturday. He saw Leon West and Geo. Briebach at Missoula and spent part of two days with the Waldrons in Billings.

Mrs. G. W. Benton left Saturday for Fairmount, N. D. to visit the families of Homer Hubbard and Winnie Benton. She will also visit her brother T. K. Johnson at Richfield, Minn. She expects to be gone about six weeks.

Herbert Benton left Saturday for Fargo, N. D. where he has a fine position in a jewelry store.

Mrs. S. H. Harrison left Sunday evening for New York City and will sail this week for her home on the Panama Isthmus where Mr. Harrison is in the government employ in connection with the canal. She has been away three months and has had a delightful visit with Minnesota friends.

Mrs. M. Majors and daughter, Ruby of Sterling, Ill. who have been visiting friends here went to Clear Lake, Iowa, with H. E. Catlin's folks by auto on Friday to visit friends there.

Ed. W. Marsh and family spent Sunday with friends at Clear Lake, Iowa.

Roy Adams preached his farewell sermon at Kasota last Sunday. The church will unite with Sleepy Eye in support of a pastor. Roy will continue his studies at the U. of M. the coming year studying for the Ph. D. degree.

Light shower yesterday morning. It is getting very dry in this locality and corn, pastures and late potatoes need rain badly.

Ed. Bemis took in two loads of new barley Monday evening from the Dave Watkins farm. Quality good.

Dr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Phillips are enjoying an outing at the lakes near Alexandria, Minn.

Fred and Fay Rayman, both graduates in the dental course at the State University are opening up a first class dental office in this city with rooms in the Rayman block on Main street. They are fitted to do all kinds of dental work in up-to-date and satisfactory manner. Success to the new firm of Rayman & Rayman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Eichler and two sons of Dixon, Ill. came Saturday and stayed until Tuesday noon with friends here. Mrs. Eichler was formerly Miss Emma Gunz of this city. She has been spending six weeks with her brother, Dr. Abe Gunz, of Centre City, Minn. He has a fine practice there. He was married last February. Mrs. Eichler's father, H. Gunz, formerly of Austin, is living with her in Dixon and has charge of one of the departments in Mr. Eichler's store.

Rev. P. G. Ostby, well known here, and Mrs. Ranveig Gavle were married July 21 in the Lime Creek church near Emmons, Iowa, Rev. H. C. Brun officiating.

Walter J. Rice and family and Frank Dearborn and family will leave tomorrow for Clear Lake, Iowa, for a ten days outing.

The True Cause

Of headache among children—yes grownups too—many a time is eye strain. How are you to know? Consult a specialist, one who thoroughly understands the eye and its defects. We won't ask you to buy a cents worth, we will tell you the exact trouble and you can do as you choose. If you need glasses we will sell them to you at a moderate price.

The little three year old son of L. L. Hockitt, living five miles east was kicked in the face and knocked senseless last Wednesday. The boy was playing among some loose horses in the yard. He does not seem to be seriously injured.

Thaddeus Thompson, city mail carrier, begins a two weeks vacation today. He will visit in LeRoy and La Crosse and will spend most of the time at home.

G. Seebach of Dexter was in Austin Tuesday.

The F. O. E. will hold their regular meeting tomorrow evening.

Will Chapman found a pearl Sunday worth $25.

The Maccabees will meet Wednesday evening.

Don't fail to hear Dr. Frank Doran at the Methodist church Friday evening in his talk to men. Remember the lecture is free. You can come in your shirt sleeves if you want to.

The Danish Brotherhood will meet Saturday evening.

The union services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Rev. Howard L. Johnson of the Christian church will preach the sermon.

County Attorney Frank G. Sasse of Fairmont, Minn., has formed a law partnership with Lafayette French of Austin and will remove to this place soon after September 1.

Mrs. Harley Reynolds went to Minnesota Lake Monday to visit her mother.

There were 108 applicants for certificates who enrolled Monday to take the first grade teachers' examinations. Yesterday 98 additional enrolled for the second grade list and more are expected this morning. This makes a total to last evening of 206 applicants.

W. W. Hanson of Conde, S. D., was here Monday on probate business.

Miss Marie Sterling arrived home Friday from a visit with relatives in Madison, Wis.

Poc sale four registered Shorthorn bulls three yearlings and one two year old. Milking strain C. E. Fairbanks, Dexter township, Austin rural 1.

Valder College, at Decorah, Iowa, has trained more than 8,000 students. It has placed more students in banks than any other Business College during past 20 years. $45 pays for 8 mos. in business or shorthand. Send for catalog.

Work horse for sale. Peter Felton Rural route 1, Austin. 21-2

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Malloy returned Friday evening from their wedding trip.

Rev. J. H. Bicknell of St. Paul preached last evening at the Christian church.

Miss Palma Lee of Lyle was a guest of Miss Angele Cronon Friday.

Lafayette French, Jr., spent Sunday at Cresco.

J. J. Rugg arrived home Friday from his trip to Seattle and other western points. He was gone about three weeks.

Thos. Guy and daughter, Clara, left Saturday for Seattle and will visit at Salt Lake City and other points.

Mrs. Ida Myatt returned from Rochester Saturday. She consulted with Dr. Mayo about her health.

Mrs. Emily Earl went to Manley, Iowa, to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey of California have been spending the past week with his sister, Mrs. R. Hobson near Brownsdale. They have been visiting in New York state and are on their way home to their California fruit ranch.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will meet this afternoon with Mrs. L. P. Nelson.

The city water supply is getting low so that the streets were not sprinkled yesterday or today.

Henry J. Minar shipped his household goods Monday evening to his new home near Tolly, N. D. Mrs. Minar will visit her mother at Stewartville for a few days before going out.

William Richards arrived home Saturday from the west where he has been for the past three months. He was at Tacoma, Seattle and other points.

E. H. Smith went to Northern Minnesota Thursday on a trip down the Red River valley. He returned Sunday.

The Gazooks went to Clear Lake, Iowa, Monday for a week's outing with Mrs. Clara Anderson as chaperone. The company consists of Margaret Avery, Helen Banfield, Leah Crane, Viola Dinsmoor, Maurine French, Gertrude Kline, Edna Letherland, Marion Smith, Jessie Stimson, and Hazel Webber.

Mrs. John Michie of Cottonwood is expected to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Marsh and other relatives this week.

The Progressive League will meet this evening. Special business.

Miss Juanita Buck left for Chicago Sunday night to take a special teacher's course of study.

Ernest Sharpstone, M. O. clerk at the postoffice, is taking vacation and visiting at Chatfield.

We publish elsewhere a display ad concerning the Winneshiek County Homing Coming Festival and County Fair to be held at Decorah an entire week from August 23 to 29 inclusive. Special train arrangements on the Milwaukee road. It will be a good chance for a pleasant outing.

An Eastern Star pin was lost July 24 between the Fox hotel and the residence of Mrs. W. H. Adams on River street. Will finder return to Mrs. Adams?

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fairbanks arrived home Saturday from their trip to Seattle and other western points.

Mrs. Frank Holgate went to Houston Saturday to spend a week with her parents.

Going Out of Business

Our entire shoe stock is on sale saving our customers from 15 to 50 per cent. If you need shoes, here is your chance to buy them at the wholesale price. Get busy before the best sizes are sold out.

Will solicit your offer for the whole stock; also a fine row boat for sale. J. E. PITZEN.

Wanted—Lady cook at once. Feed from ten to twenty per meal. Pay $25.00 per month for six months Ticket advanced. Address Wallace Restaurant, Wallace, So. Dak. 22

$85 pays for complete course in Shorthand and business and all supplies furnished 1 year at Valder College, Decorah, Iowa. Tuition in Normal school $9 per term. Illustrated catalog free.

Young women, if you wish to become independent learn shorthand and typewriting. A stenographer always demands a good salary. Send to Makato Commercial College, for their year-book and you will learn all about it. Do it now.

Mrs. Dovenberg went to Decorah, Iowa Friday, for a few days visit with friends.

Miss Nellie Lea of Newry came to Austin Monday for a few days visit with relatives.

There were quite a few people out camping and pearling Sunday down by Officer's mill.

A son was born to Mrs. J. C. Reagan Wednesday night.

The Austin Chautauqua association has paid over to the park board $100 which was realized after all expenses of the late Chautauqua were paid. The board will purchase 25 iron settees for the parks. The association has a small balance left in the treasury.

Misses Emma Dovenberg and Hella Todd returned Thursday from Lake Minnetonka where they had a delightful outing of three weeks.

Attorney Frank H. Leonard of Moonan, N. D. who spent most of last week with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. T. F. Leonard, returned to Moonan on Saturday.

About thirty young people enjoyed a picnic at Lafayette park Saturday afternoon in honor of Warren S. Carter of Sommersworth, N. H. who is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cleifton of Owatonna spent Sunday with S. Cleifton's folks.

Mrs. Frances Loucks-Brown of Fort Dodge, Iowa, came Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abert Loucks.

Regular meeting of the city council next Friday evening.

Miss Helen Simms came from St. Paul Saturday to spend Sunday with Mrs. Fred Penton.

Mrs. Orris Hayes entertained a company of friends Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Ruby Majors of Sterling, Ill.

Mrs. Amos Makepeace of Mason City came Friday to visit at the Joe Kain home.

The rooms over Dalager's grocery and the Main Street Fruit Store are being fixed up conveniently for the use of the Progressive League. When the League moves from the C. L. West block about Sept. 1 Mr. West will fix over the rooms over his dry goods store for the enlargement of his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herzog of Lyle Center were Austin callers yesterday. He reports crops as needing rain, very much.

Sam Waintroub has put in a shoeing machine in the room next west of the Transcript office and it is a wonder. He will sew you on a pair of soles in short order. Call in and see it work. You do not have to wait. Bring in your work and take in home the same day. 22-25

Rev. F. E. Knopf is taking the month of August for vacation. He will spend three weeks at Stanley, Wis. and will also visit at Waterville.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Naess and son went to Wisconsin Wednesday for a month's vacation.

A daughter was born Wednesday to Mrs. Roy Hogan.

Dave Wright went to Madison, S. D., Wednesday for a week's visit. Mrs. Wright has spent the week with friends in Hayward.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harpman left Wednesday for Galesburg, Ill., to attend the golden wedding of her parents. They will later visit Chattanooga, Tenn., and the battle fields in that vicinity.

A Chautauqua Reading Circle has been formed here with Miss Jennie Keith, president; Miss Marie Page, vice-president; Mrs. D. Z. Robinson, secretary. They will meet at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on the first and third Tuesday of each month.

The summer school for teachers closed Friday noon. Total enrollment was 221. 50 certificates were given out for perfect attendance during the whole session and 37 additional to those who had attended 12 consecutive days without missing. The examinations for teachers certificates are on this week.

The summer term at the S. M. Normal school closed Thursday after a very successful course of study. A number of the students are taking the teachers examinations this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hermann and children of LaCrosse spent Sunday with his nephew H. O. Hermann and family. One of the daughters, Florence, is only 14 years old but has made a fine record as a child violinist. She played before some of the leading masters of Europe last year.

Miss Rosella Arndt went to Fairmont on Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wells for a week.

Veteran John C. Hawkins was taken violently ill Friday afternoon from acute indigestion and was very ill all night. He was able to get out again Monday.

Direct importation of Japanese goods sale begins Saturday Aug. 7 from 3 to 5 p. m. Your choice 10c to 25c. Now on display in our window. The Hub Department Store, next to post-office. 22

Peter Johnson, Jr. arrived home Saturday from Winona where he was on the U. S. jury.

H. O. Peck and son George went to Chicago Sunday to visit with relatives.

The alarm of fire Sunday noon came from South St. Paul street. The summer kitchen on the house occupied by Wm. Evison caught fire in the roof from a spark from the chimney. Neighbors quickly came to help and the fire was out before the department arrived. Damage light.

Miss Mattie Von Bronkhorst left Saturday evening for Forest Grove, Michigan, to spend a month with relatives.

Joseph Mayer tripped and fell on a board in front of the Harrington hotel near the Milwaukee depot Sunday dislocating his shoulder.

Leon Fischer and family have moved to Calmar to reside.

No patches, no humps, no holes. Tasma double woven finger tip Lisle gloves 19c. Tasma double woven finger tip silk gloves 39c. Tasma double woven finger tip silk gloves 16-button lengths 79c. Sale begins 1 to 3 p. m. Saturday Aug. 7. Now on display in our window. The Hub Department Store, next to postoffice. 23

Miss Olive Cornevaux of St. Paul is visiting Austin relatives.

The alarm of fire Monday noon came from south River street, where the dry grass on the marsh near Frank Hall's truck garden was on fire and threatened Zender's slaughter house and a lot of stacked hay. The fire was extinguished with little damage.

A horse owned by Peter Anderson was knocked off the railroad bridge in the south part of the city Saturday night by the Great Western train and thrown into the river. Strange to say the horse was not badly hurt. It had become frightened by a passing auto and ran away into a telephone pole breaking away from the buggy and running onto the railroad bridge. The driver was not much hurt but the buggy was smashed.

Mrs. O. W. Shaw entertained a company of lady friends at a Garden party Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughters, Mrs. Edgar I. Carter of Sommersworth, N. H. and Mrs. J. E. Jenks of St. Cloud, who are her guests. The afternoon was spent most enjoyably and delicious luncheon was served.

The K. K. K.'s enjoyed a picnic Thursday afternoon at Lafayette park in honor of Miss Ruby Majors of Sterling, Ill. and Mrs. Lou N. McWhorter of Minneapolis.

A reception for Mrs. L. M. Ober of Hollywood, Cal. was held Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Stinson. A large number of the old Austin friends of Mrs. Ober took this occasion to visit with her and renew old ties. Mrs. Ober went to Wall Lake, Iowa, Saturday to visit her daughter Lutie before returning to California.

Miss Josephine Harrison, a former Austin teacher, came Friday to spend a few days with Mrs. G. K. Hanson. She will teach at Great Falls, Mont. next year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Baird has been spending the past week at Quebec, Can. Mrs. Baird's health is better.

Mrs. Mattie Hollister left Thursday for Billings, Mont. to visit the Waldrons. She will go to Seattle before returning and expects to have an outing of about four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Catlin went to Clear Lake, Iowa, Friday in their auto returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Johnson are visiting her brother at Buffalo Lake.

Mrs. W. F. Sutherland entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. L. M. Ober.

Mrs. Mary M. Pace and daughter Ivy went to Park Rapids, Minn. Thursday to spend two weeks with Geo. D. Frisbie's family.

Marie Reding returned home Thursday from a week's visit with relatives at Stacyville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hanson of Glenn Ullin, N. D. were guests at the C. H. Moore home on south Main street last week. They left Sunday for Minneapolis.

Word comes of the death of the sister of Mrs. C. H. Moore and Mrs. O. J. Hill of Kensington, Penn. They arrived there in time to see her before she died.

The Helping Hand society of the G. A. R. met with Mrs. A. E. Carter south of the fair grounds Friday afternoon. Nearly fifty were present. A social afternoon was enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

The Yeomen of America will meet Friday evening.

The Park Rapids Enterprise says that Geo. D. Frisbie, whose sickness has been a matter of concern by his family and friends since early last spring appears to be improving. During the past two weeks he has been able to enjoy a ride out for a short time and his friends now hope that he will continue to improve until he can be about as usual. His numerous Austin and Oakland friends hope so too.

Attorney F. A. Leonard of Noonan, N. D. was visiting for a few days with his parents at the T. F. Leonard home on Oakland Ave. last week.

R. J. Gordon, the blacksmith evangelist of Lyle, will speak at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at the usual hour of service. Come out and hear him.

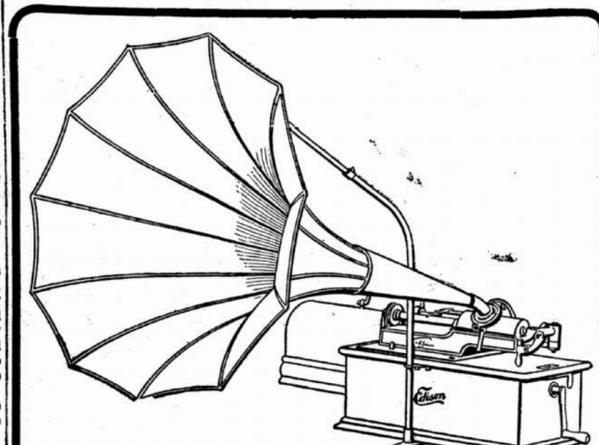

R. J. Gordon and daughter Grace of Lyle came up Monday evening in their auto and stayed over night at C. Powers's. Mrs. Gordon came by train Monday returning last evening.

Geo. Winn of Udolpho has added to his herd the thoroughbred Holstein bull Festus Cornucopia of Shadybrook, No. 57,457. This animal was raised at the state experimental station.

John Briebach THE MEAT MAN

Bacon This Week 16c Per Pound

Come to the oldest market in Austin and give me a trial and you will come again. MILL STREET. TELEPHONE 97

$22.00 Buys the Latest Type Edison

The kind that all the big Magazines tell about. New "Fireside" plays both the Amberoid and Standard Records.

Let Us Show You This Machine

When you get your Phonograph, you will then know what kind to get and where to get it.

The Bazaar BURLINGAME BROS., Austin, Minn.

A. V. Ellis was critically ill yesterday with little hope of recovery. His son Charles arrived from Mandan, N. D.

The Aid Society of the W. R. Corps will meet with Mrs. W. R. Terry Thursday afternoon. Gentlemen are invited to supper.

Dr. Victor H. Gregg of Chicago is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gregg at Columbia.

Prof. Jenkins and daughter of Fairbault spent Sunday with Prof. Geo. A. Franklin's family.

A few days ago, J. W. Peterson of Litchfield, Minn. delivered to George Winn of Udolpho a fine two-year old registered Belgian mare, Aurore, weighing 1,600 pounds. American number 933, Belgian number 61481. Mr. Peterson bought and shipped from Austin July 27 seven grade stallions and two mares.

MARRIED. LARSON-CAMBERN.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman in this city, Wednesday evening, July 28, 1909, Edward W. Larson and Miss Blanche H. Cambern of this city were united in marriage. Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. They were accompanied by the bride's sister, Mrs. C. W. Stephenson, and her husband. An interesting fact is that at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson six months ago they were attended by the bride and groom of Wednesday evening and at the same place. Mr. and Mrs. Larson went to Minneapolis Thursday for a brief wedding trip. The groom clerked for John Maurek for several years and has lately been with W. P. Lambert in the East Side Restaurant. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cambern of the East Side and is well known and popular in a large circle of acquaintances. They will be at home at Manfred, N. D., where Mr. Larson will be manager of a department store. We join in congratulations.

DIED. MRS. J. C. BYRNES.

Mrs. J. C. Byrnes, aged 45 years, died Sunday morning of cancer at her home in Wells, Minn. She had been ill for over a year. She was a sister of Mrs. Thos. Riley of this city and made her home here for a number of years before marriage. She was born at Great Barrington, Mass. She was married June 9, 1889, to Mr. Byrnes and has since resided at Wells. She leaves a husband and three children. Funeral was held at Wells Tuesday morning.

MRS. JOHN T. REEVES.

Mrs. Edna McAllister, wife of John T. Reeves, died Wednesday afternoon at her home at Dickinson, N. D., of consumption, after a protracted illness. Age 42 years. She was born at Burr Oak, Iowa, Jan. 1, 1867 and was married to Mr. Reeves at Albert Lea twenty years ago. They came to Austin to reside and their home has been here until last June when, on account of her health, a change of climate was recommended and they moved to North Dakota. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Degree of honor. She leaves a husband and five children. The body was brought here Friday and funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church Saturday morning, Rev. J. S. Budlong officiating in the absence of the pastor. Interment in Oakwood.

Washington's Plague Spots

Lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs cause chills, fever, ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used." writes R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. They cure Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Blood Troubles and will prevent Typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by K. O. Wold.