

No Alum

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S
CREAM
BAKING POWDER

Made from Grapes
Highest award Chicago
World's Fair

No Lime Phosphate

Handsome New Spring and Summer

Dresses
AND Waists

The Most Nifty and Up-to-Date Garments Obtainable in Silk and Wash Fabrics.

No. 417—Fine Persian Lawn Dress, in white, blue, pink and lavender trimmed with Valenciennes lace and inserting, price..... $6.75

No. 410 White Pearlina Lawn, handsomely trimmed with Valenciennes' lace and inserting, same model as No. 417, price..... $9.00

No. 406—Beautiful White Pearlina Lawn Dress, hand-on-ely trimmed with Valenciennes' lace and heavy Pointe de Venise band. Very suitable for commencement dress price..... $17.50

No. 686—Waist of good Lawn, trimmed front of Embroidery, open back..... $1.25

No. 689—Waist of fine Lawn, tucked and trimmed front; Embroidery, open in front..... $1.50

No. 686—Fine Lawn Waist, handsomely trimmed with embroidery, opens in back..... $2.00

No. 652—Very fine Lawn, tucked and Embroidery trimmed, opens in back, price..... $2.50

No. 89—Silk Waist in popular colors, hat dome model price..... $5.00

No. 815—Black Silk Waist, handsomely tucked and trimmed price..... $5.00

We are carrying a large line of Suits, Skirts and Dresses. Dresses at $1.25 to $19.50, Skirts, $1.39 to $12.50, Waists $1.00 to $5.00 and are fully prepared to meet the wants of our customers in these lines.

CHAS. L. WEST

SCHLEUDER'S
OPTICIAN'S
HOW'S YOUR EYES?

Our Transcript.

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1910

—Our city teachers were entertained Saturday afternoon by Misses Daisy Maxwell, Nettie Hall and Mrs. C. A. Hegge at the Hegge residence. A guessing contest and other recreations were enjoyed and a two-course luncheon was served.

—Gem Jr. Safety Razors, $1.00 at Schleuder's.

—The Art and travel club met with Mrs. John E. Detwiler yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Carleton Fairbanks gave a paper on Country Life in Northern Italy, Miss Hornel discussed Genoa and Mrs. Hegge presented a paper on Elba, Corsica, and Sardinia. Roll Call, current events.

—Harriet Park, on north Kenwood avenue, at the intersection with Lansing avenue, has been nicely fixed up with shrubbery and flowers and is a very attractive miniature park.

—Boys' Watches $1.00, warranted at Schleuder's.

—Fay R. Smith has his fine brick residence on north Kenwood avenue ready for the roof. It is full two story.

—Miss Jennie Nelson, a sister of Mrs. Chris Nockelby, and a resident of Austin until last year, died Sunday afternoon at the home of her sister, in Spokane, Wash. The body will be brought to Austin for interment.

—Mrs. J. Ople went to Janesville, Wis., Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Buell.

—Misses Watcher, $2.00 warranted at Schleuder's.

—Mrs. W. H. Way continues in a weak condition. Her son, Earl, came down from St. Paul Friday to visit her.

John F. Corneveaux of St. Paul and wife spent Sunday with relatives here, returning Monday.

—Mrs. J. D. Sheedy went to Sinsinawa Mound Friday to visit her daughter, Esther.

The Newest Ideas
..In Hair Combs..

Our selection comprises the latest novelties, from the finest solid gold mounted combs to the medium priced ornament.

Fine polished rounded tooth, inlaid with gold jet and brilliant sets..... $2.75

Four inch high comb, rounded teeth, dull green ornament and garnets..... 2.50

Fine quality 4 1/2 inches, polished rounded tooth, inlaid with fine brilliants..... 2.25

Carved open work comb, inlaid with beautiful inrustation..... 2.00

Finest polished comb, silvered top, rhine stone sets..... 1.50

Fancy design jet back comb, with fancy ornament, good size..... 1.00

Fancy back comb, better value than we have ever before been able to give..... .75

Schleuder's

—Mr. and Mrs. James Keenan are planning to go to housekeeping in the M. E. Varco house on Park avenue on their return from their wedding trip.

—Mrs. Martha Lohman of Seattle is visiting her mother, Mrs. James Woodson.

—The Era club met with Mrs. J. S. Young Friday afternoon and an interesting program was given. They voted to take up county organization and will organize clubs at various points. Next meeting with Mrs. Wm. Cutter, Friday afternoon, May 13.

—Rev. J. P. Davis led the meeting of the Christian Brotherhood on Sunday afternoon. Governor Eberhart will be here May 1 to address the Brotherhood.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stimson will move to Sargeant village next week and Mr. Stimson will run a barber shop and candy and cigar store.

—Charles E. Hancock went to Ogilvie, Minn., Monday, expecting to spend the summer with his son, Albert and family.

—Mrs. Minnie Belle Cochrane, formerly Miss Mudge of Austin, now of Portage, Wis., came Friday and stayed over Sunday with Austin friends.

—Eleanor Apold, aged two years and eight months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Apold, 711 north First street, died early Monday morning of pneumonia after an illness of a week. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. A. E. Naess were held at the residence yesterday. Interment in Oakwood.

—Miss Blanche Chistie was home from Faribault to spend Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Newman went to Lisbon, N. D., Monday to visit relatives.

—The Ladies' Aid of McIntyre W. R. Corps will meet at G. A. R. hall tomorrow afternoon. A ten cent luncheon will be served.

—Rev. J. F. Stout went to St. Paul Monday on a brief visit.

—The B. Y. P. U. are getting up a fine entertainment to be given at the Baptist church Friday evening of this week. Everyone should attend and enjoy "Her Old Sweethearts." Admission only 15 cents.

—John Skinnion arrived home Saturday from Arkansas, where he spent the winter.

—The B. Y. P. U. will give an entertainment at the Baptist church Friday, April 22.

—Mills' prize potatoes for sale at 25 cents a bushel at my farm 5 miles east of Austin. J. M. Vandegrift. 5-4

—Decker Bros. have for sale Red Clover seed, Alsike Clover, Timothy and all varieties of good seed corn for sale. Also garden seeds. 3-1f

—Veteran John Watkins went to Rochester Saturday for examination of his eyes. He has been blind for the past four months. Drs. Mayo decided to remove the cataract that has been growing over one eye for the past five years and it was taken off yesterday. The other will not be ready to remove for some time. Dr. Mayo anticipates that the operation will restore Mr. Watkins' sight.

—Mrs. H. A. Avery and Mrs. C. H. Decker went to Duluth Monday to attend the state Congregational missionary meetings there.

—Claire King was down from Hamline university to spend Sunday with his mother and other relatives.

—Mrs. T. H. Murphy spent Sunday with her daughter, Nellie, who is attending the academy at Rochester.

—The Auto Strop Safety Razor, the razor that strops itself, $5.00 at Schleuder's.

—Veteran John C. Hawkins returned Monday from St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, where he had an operation about a month ago. He is getting gradually stronger and was calling on some of his neighbors yesterday.

—The Knights of Maccabees will give a grand ball at Hirsch's auditorium Wednesday evening, April 27. Carpenter's orchestra.

—Are you thinking of planting any trees or shrubs this spring? If you are it will pay you to see us before you buy. We have a large stock of as fine trees as ever grow in our nursery two miles southeast of Austin. Apple trees 6 to 8 feet high. All kinds of ornamental shrubbery at almost your own price. Evergreens 18 to 24 inches at 10 cents, 2 1/2 to 3 feet 15 cents each. If in need of anything phone us. Interstate phone 417.

C. F. WOODLE, Prop.

—L. B. Griffin has bought two lots west of H. Jacobs and will move the old house now standing on Kenwood avenue and College streets upon them.

—E. A. Darger, the grocer, pays 20 cents for eggs.

—Darger pays 30 to 33 cents for dairy butter.

—The Austin Sunshine society has expended $442 during the past year for benevolence and has distributed over 2,000 garments to those in need. The society is now incorporated. The following were elected the new officers on Thursday: Pres., Mrs. C. L. West; vice pres., Mrs. Geo. Sutton; sec., Mrs. P. A. Reilly; treas., Mrs. Walter Terry; chairman work committee, Mrs. Will Mills; chairman visiting committee, Mrs. O. J. Simmons.

—H. C. Waldecker informs us that he and O. J. Simmons went to the M. W. A. headquarters at Rock Island, Ill., Thursday and explained matters so that Mrs. Frank Farrell of Lyle township will receive the $2,000 insurance which her husband carried. It will be remembered that he committed suicide last July.

—Gillette Safety Razors, $5.00 at Schleuder's.

—The Austin board of education has voted to establish a normal department in connection with the high school here and will provide an additional teacher next year. Pupils in the junior and senior classes will have opportunity to take extended work in pedagogy and methods which will be very helpful. The state will aid to the amount of $750 annually for this department.

—J. R. Howie of Brooklyn, Iowa, president of the Austin Gas company, was here yesterday looking up business matters.

—A leading banker of this county writes the Transcript: "The banks of the county are growing remarkably as shown by your statement, the increased deposits being caused largely by the large number of real estate transfers. As this year promises to see a great many buyers come in, we fancy bank deposits will keep on going up for some time."

—John Wolf and family, who have lived in Austin for a long time, moved last week to a farm south of Brownsdale.

—Mrs. Flora Ellsworth slipped Sunday on a step and fell spraining her back.

—Durham-Duplex Safety Razors the razor with the natural stroke, $5.00 at Schleuder's.

—Mrs. C. Earl Varco and daughter, Catherine, of Sidney, Mont., who have spent the past six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Belden, left for home this morning. They will visit in Minneapolis for a few days on the way. Mrs. Belden and Mrs. Mabel Lobb-Wilcox of Chicago accompanied them to Minneapolis.

—Mrs. Mary M. Burns of Waubay, S. D., came Friday to spend the summer with her brother, I. N. Howe and will work in his rug factory.

—Miss Mary E. Boyle received a parcel shower at the home of Miss Angela Fisher Thursday evening. She received many gifts, from appreciative friends. The evening was spent very merrily.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerhart of Stacyville visited at the J. Reding home Thursday.

—A. N. Kinsman went to Chicago Monday evening on business and will return Friday.

—The Congregational Ladies Aid is planning for a May Day party and entertainment at the church Monday evening, May 2.

—Banker F. W. Smock of Sargeant was in Austin Wednesday on business.

—The Austin high school base ball team will play here next Saturday with the LeRoy team.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Schottler of Dexter were Austin visitors Wednesday.

—Walter Elward, aged 11 years, rescued little Barbara Rugg from the Cedar river Wednesday afternoon. Little Barbara, who is only five years old had stumbled and fallen in and Walter went after her and with difficulty pulled her out.

—Next Sunday is Tuberculosis Sunday and it will be observed in Austin by special sermons on the subject by the pastors of our different churches.

—The splendid weather of the past five weeks changed suddenly on Friday and it turned cold. Saturday morning vegetation was frozen and ice formed. Sunday morning an inch of snow was on the ground. Monday it continued freezing but it commenced to moderate yesterday. The early blown fruit blooms, plum, apple, currant, strawberry and others are ruined. How much has escaped will be known in a few days. The cold was general and the fruit crop of Iowa and of states further south suffered badly.

—The county board will meet at the auditor's office this afternoon for business.

—Today is the date for the Y. W. C. A. county rally to be held in this city. See the complete program in another column.

—Dr. A. M. Lewis and wife left Monday night for New York city for a stay of several weeks. He will take post graduate work in dentistry.

—Bert Bump had a relapse yesterday and was much worse. He was so much better Monday that he was out doors.

—George Boulton has gone to Yankton, S. D., to work for the Success Publishing company.

—The trout season began Friday. Frank C. Willbourn made the best catch reported, four fine ones. Several others took two or one each.

—The Eclipse Lumber Company keeps just what you wish in lumber, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Roofing and fuel. They are making a specialty of the Peerless Roofing, waterproof, weather-proof, and practically fire-proof. C. M. Emmons, manager.

—Will Bump purchased a new barber chair in Minneapolis Thursday. Increasing business requires it.

—Prof. A. J. Harpman has sold his third interest in the S. M. Normal college to William Meiners of Malcom, Iowa, who is a graduate of the science department. Prof. Harpman has been a most popular teacher and as a citizen is highly thought of. We have not learned what he intends to do.

—James Z. Rogers, the expert carriage builder, has moved into the Crosson brick building, corner of Franklin and Bridge streets. He has put in new machinery and is prepared to do all kinds of carriage work in the very best and most durable manner. Repair work also done. You do not have to send away to get the best work. Call personally or telephone. 6-4

—The Guthrie elevator on the Milwaukee road here is being torn down to make way for yard extensions. The lumber will be shipped to Blooming Prairie.

—Mrs. Thos. A. Revord and children, Helen and John, went to Madison, Wis., Saturday to visit her folks.

—Claud Keenan came down from St. Paul Thursday for a short visit.

—The Varco grange will hold a meeting next Saturday evening.

—Mrs. Walter Dunning and son of Mason City came Wednesday to visit her relatives here.

A wet morning walk, but he won't catch a cold! He drank Seal Brand Coffee for breakfast.

E. A. DALAGER, The Grocer.
Sole Agent.

—The new brick chimney at the Farmers Brick and Tile works is finished and the machinery is fast being installed.

—We have received cards announcing the marriage of Oscar Ayres and Mrs. Emma A. Wheeler at Mabton, Wash., April 11. Mr. Ayres was for many years a resident of Austin and in business here, but the past few years he has spent on the Pacific coast. The bride formerly lived in Austin and at one time clerked in Hall & West's store. Both have many friends here who join in congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Ayres will be at home after June 1 at Santa Cruz, Cal.

—Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Mrs. O. G. Anderson left for Louisville, Ky., on Tuesday evening of last week to visit their children, Dr. and Mrs. Carl J. Johnson.

—The old city council met last evening and completed the work of the year and the new council organized with Mayor Campbell presiding.

—The County Medical society met at the Fox Hotel Wednesday. A paper by Dr. F. L. Adair of Minneapolis was read and discussed and Dr. Leck gave an address. It was decided to have a post graduate study course to be held the second Wednesday of each month.

—Mrs. Albert Shubert left Thursday for Grand Junction, Col., where Mr. Shubert has taken a claim.

—Miss Charlotte Snyder has organized a class for piano instruction at Albert Lea.

—Miss Eleanor Knickerbocker spent Sunday with her folks at Owatonna.

—The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet this afternoon at Woodman hall.

—The Carnegie library received from Rev. C. E. Wright during his recent visit here over a score of valuable books. Dr. Wright knew what was good literature and the gift is greatly appreciated.