

A straight, honest, healthful cream of tartar baking powder.

Made from Grapes.

Contains not a grain of injurious ingredient.

Dr. PRICE'S
CREAM
BAKING POWDER

Fifty Years
the Standard

No
Lime

No
Phosphate

SCHLEUDER'S
OPTICIAN'S
HOW'S YOUR EYES?

The Transcript.

AUSTIN WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1910

Do not miss the eclipse of the moon next Monday evening, May 23. Commences 5:47, gradually disappearing until 11:00 when it is total. Commences to emerge at midnight.

Mrs. Mary Tompkins and two daughters, Mabel and Ethel, are planning to go to New York state the first of next month to spend the summer. Mrs. Olive M. Davis will accompany them. They will attend the chautauqui and will afterwards visit relatives in Buffalo and vicinity.

Arthur Studer, who has been at the state sanitarium at Walker for the past two months to be treated for tuberculosis, returned home on Tuesday evening with present indication of complete recovery.

Dr. Claude Haney of Duluth spent Sunday with his mother at the Bowers home in Lyle township. Mrs. Haney is caring for her mother, Mrs. J. S. Blowers.

Ample showers of rain fell all Monday night doing untold good to the crops and pastures.

For Graduation

Fine Jewelry, Diamonds, Bracelets, Rings, Watches.

Our present display of Solid Gold Signet Rings is the finest we have ever shown. Beautiful new shape Signet Rings in all the latest designs and settings. Prices exceedingly low ranging at

$1, $1.50, $2, $3, $5, $10 and $15.

We shall offer a few specials in Solitaire Diamond Rings, purchased some time before the recent advance in Diamonds. You will be surprised at the size stone we are selling at $15, $25 and $30, others as low as $10.

Beautiful Novelty Rings set with Diamonds at.....$25.00 to $100.00

Handsome Bracelets, the very newest in designs and at prices much lower than formerly. $2.50, $3, $4, $5 to $25

In dependable Watches we have the Ladies' Elgin movement fitted in Solid Gold Case for...$18.50 Ladies' Elgin movement, Gold Filled case.....$10.00

Gentlemen's Elgin movement, gold filled case.....$10.00 Ladies' and Gentlemen's Umbrellas from.....$1.50 to $12.00

See Our Show Windows for Suggestions.

Schleuders

In our large assortment of Lingerie Waists you will find styles and qualities not shown elsewhere at our exceptional low prices.

89c, $1, 1.25 to 3.50

Silk Waists

In these beautiful waists we have styles of distinction, the newest colors and fine material, handsomely trimmed, tucked both front and back, excellent values at

$3.50 and $5

CHAS. L. WEST
AUSTIN, MINNESOTA

THE MOST PERFECT FITTING SHAPE

RETAINING GARMENTS MADE!

We can safely claim this for the apparel that bears "the garment label with the big reputation."

What is this assurance worth to you? Garments that possess the acme of Style and Service, and which sparkle with originality of ideas. The textures, trimmings and finish are the standards by which the highest priced custom creations are governed.

Exclusiveness hand in hand with Economy as so quickly attested by our inviting prices.

Come In—Look Around!—Glad To Explain.

Our Dressy Tailored Suits

are priced in a regular way at 12.50 to 37.50 from which Extremely low prices we will make a range of CUT PRICES at $9.98 to $29.50

Beautiful New Coats

$5, 6.50, 7.50, $10, $25

Lingerie Dresses

Disinfective style touches. Just the thing for Commencement and Confirmation dresses. Stylish Summer fabric dress at

4.50 to $25

House Dresses

Neatly made and ready to wear at

1.39 to 2.75

About 200 tickets have been sold for the Y. W. C. A. banquet at the M. E. church this evening. Only members will attend the banquet but the general public is invited to the lecture by Dr. Gillies in the auditorium at 8:30 tonight. He is one of the ablest orators in the northwest.

The Austin Automobile club met the Albert Lea club Thursday afternoon about midway between the two cities, near the Lutheran church and enjoyed a picnic lunch together. Each club spent the afternoon in repairing bad places in the roads as they went out. There were 18 Austin cars loaded with road workers and 19 cars from Albert Lea. A few such expeditions ought to accomplish big results.

Veteran John Watkins returned Thursday from the Mayo hospital, Rochester, where he had a cataract removed from one eye. He is much improved and can see quite readily. The cataract on the other eye will be ready for removal in about four months if improvement continues.

The Hub Department store is putting in new goods to supply the needs and tastes of their customers. Hyman Kaufman went to Chicago Thursday for further purchases.

Dr. J. F. Stout went to Milwaukee Friday to take part in the program of dedication of a new church edifice there.

We see by the Mantorville Express that Rev. F. E. Knopf of this city was elected one of the delegates to the national Congregational council and that his name will also be presented before the American Board as a nominee for corporate membership. He represented the Austin church at the annual meeting of the S. E. Minn. Congregational conference.

Calvin D. Kinsman, a missionary at Nuevitas, Cuba, arrived in Austin Thursday to visit his parents and other relatives and will spend most of the summer north. His wife is visiting her folks at Burlington, Iowa and will come here later.

Miss Helen Banfield left for the East on Thursday and will attend the commencement exercises at Vassar college and visit relatives in New England.

Frank Hillam and Mrs. Mabel Hayes were married Thursday at Minneapolis.

There was a basket ball game at the high school gym Saturday evening between the Y. W. C. A. team of Brownsdale and that of Austin. Score 23 to 2 in favor of Austin. The winners afterwards entertained the visitors at a fine spread in the gym.

Miss Mayme Robinson, state secretary, and Miss St. Amour attended a student cabinet council at Albert Lea college on Saturday. Miss Robinson spent Sunday in this vicinity.

There were about 35 Austin Yeomen who went to Owatonna Wednesday to take part in the initiation of candidates there. They report a royal welcome. They were taken about the city in autos and enjoyed a fine banquet after the degree work was finished. The Austin team gave an exhibition of fancy drill work.

Dr. Jesse W. Phillips and wife arrived home Monday from their winter's stay in Louisiana and Texas. He is much better.

The children who are to take part in the Memorial Day exercises are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall at 2:30 next Saturday afternoon for practice and drill.

S. Harrison of LeRoy who had an operation at St. Olav hospital was able to be taken home Monday.

Mrs. D. H. Stimson went to Northfield on Sunday to visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson spent Sunday in Rose Creek.

G. I. A. to B. of L. E. dance tomorrow evening at Woodman hall. Tichy's orchestra.

A company of about 150 Austin Knights of Columbus went to Owatonna Sunday to attend the initiation of a large class of about 60 candidates. A banquet was served in the evening.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will give an entertainment at the church Friday evening. A fine program will be given by the young folks appropriate to the month of May.

The McCulloch Printing company is moving its plant this week to the old Fleck hotel building east of the court house. The linotype machine will be moved Friday. The new quarters will be much more commodious.

Mrs. R. Ruess left yesterday for her new home at Devil's Lake, N. D. She leaves many warm friends in Austin. She will visit her sister in Wisconsin en route.

The Art and Travel club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. O. H. Hegge. Mrs. J. H. Skinner read a paper on Naples. Mrs. A. W. Wright one on Mount Vesuvius and Capri and Mrs. G. A. Hormel gave extracts from the Last Days of Pompeii. A social session was enjoyed. This will be the last meeting until fall.

Miss Margaret Zender was home from Albert Lea for Sunday.

We recently made mention of the death of Alfred Cutler Thayer March 6, at his home in Chateaugay, N. Y., aged 79 years. Word has come of the death of his widow, Mrs. Hulda Hall-Thayer, aged 73 years, at her home on April 30. She was married to Mr. Thayer Dec. 31, 1858. She was a woman of beautiful character exemplifying the Christian virtues in a marked degree. She was well acquainted with the Hiram S. Smith family in Austin and often visited here and in Spring Valley in earlier years.

The Maccabees meet tonight at Woodman hall.

Strawberries are coming to Austin from districts nearer home, insuring good quality and prices are reasonable. Missouri and Tennessee are now forwarding their crop and the receipts in the past few days give every promise of the finest berries of the season.

The Sons of Norway meet tonight at Woodman hall.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church was entertained by the May committee with Mrs. August Damm as chairman, on Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. A fine supper was served. The attendance was good. The proceeds were $19.00. An interesting program was rendered.

The B. of L. F. & E. meets Sunday at Woodman hall.

Yesterday was Norway's Independence Day, the anniversary of the promulgation of the constitution of Norway by a popular assembly which convened at Eidsvoll, declaring Norway a free and independent nation. The day was widely celebrated.

The Brotherhood of American Yeoman meets Friday evening at Woodman hall.

Halley's comet will give its next performance in this hemisphere next Saturday evening at 8 p. m. in the western sky. It may be two or three days after next Saturday before it gets far enough out of the afterglow to be plainly seen, according to Professor E. E. Barnard of Yerkes observatory of Chicago. The sooner it is seen after Saturday the better the view that will be obtained; as it will diminish rapidly as it rushes away from the sun and the earth.

The Eclipse Lumber Company keeps just what you wish in lumber, cement, lime, plaster, roofing and fuel. They are making a specialty of the Peerless Roofing, waterproof, weather-proof, and practically fire-proof. C. M. Emmons, manager.

Decker Bros. have for sale Red Clover seed, Alsike Clover, Timothy and all varieties of good seed corn for sale. Also garden seeds. 3-1f

The right kind of Bee Keepers' supplies for sale, including hives, if engaged in season. 1st door south of postoffice, Austin, Minn. F. A. TICKNOR.

The firm of Anderson & Brown has dissolved partnership. Mr. Anderson assuming all bills and having all the collections of the old firm.

Fred Baach of Waltham has bought the Con Wessel cottage on Lansing avenue near St. Olav hospital.

A daughter was born to Mrs. Wm. Coogan Wednesday night. Frances Carter spent Sunday with relatives in Lyle. Mabel Baudler accompanied her.

A lad came into an Austin store recently and said that his ma wanted a pound of civic tea. He was accommodated.

At the special council meeting held May 10 it was decided after a long discussion to adjust the matter of power to be furnished to the Minnesota Farmers Brick & Tile company by furnishing it at the rate of 1 1/2 cents a kilowatt for the term of three years. Cheap enough.

The group of bankers of the First district of Minnesota will meet at Albert Lea next Monday and Tuesday, May 23 and 24. F. M. Beach of Lyle is president. A large attendance is expected.

Editor J. H. Skinner left for his old home at Holyoke, Mass., Wednesday to see his brother, who was badly burned in an accident.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, who have been visiting his sister, Mrs. C. F. Cook, for about three months, left Wednesday for their home at Berne, N. Y. They will visit at Rockford, Ill., en route.

J. J. Rugg was reported quite ill Monday with erysipelas, from which he has been suffering for the past week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davison, south Kenwood avenue, May 10.

Fred Baird and family moved for the summer to the A. O. Hollister house on south Kenwood.

Rev. A. J. Croft of Spring Valley preached in the M. E. church as the pastor was at a dedication in Milwaukee.

Rev. J. H. Carstens will preach the closing sermon on the Holy Spirit next Sunday morning at the Baptist church. Subject: "Power Through the Holy Spirit."

Mrs. Guy Edmondson of Chicago came Friday to spend several weeks with her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Carstens.

The Era club met with Mrs. Wm. Cutter Friday with a good interest and attendance. H. C. Waldecker gave an elaborate talk on Socialism. Prof. Boostrom spoke on Conservation of Forces, and an article from the Woman's World regarding the work of Dr. Edith Lowry, formerly of Austin, was read. Refreshments were served. June meeting will be held at the Elmer farm.

Miss Frances Lewis spent Sunday with friends in St. Paul.

Col. C. L. West led the meeting of the Christian Brotherhood Sunday afternoon and a very profitable meeting was held.

F. W. Kimball, railroad contractor, was home from Chicago to spend Sunday with his folks.

Wm. Saterbo left for Brown's Valley Monday looking after lands. Mrs. Dan W. Hogan and Mrs. Henry Stockwell, widows of veterans, recently deceased, have been granted each pensions of $12 monthly.

An alarm of fire Saturday came from one of Mrs. W. H. Adams' tenants on South River street. Cause gasoline stove. Damage very slight.

Mrs. F. M. Porter of Forest Grove, Oregon, came recently to spend three months with her son and other relatives here. She formerly resided in Austin.

Three alarms of fire Saturday—all of them, fortunately resulting in slight damage.

The freight platform at the Milwaukee station is being widened and extended south to accommodate increasing business.

Miss Mabel Ryan spent Sunday at her home in Moscow.

John Maurek is building a large addition to his house on the East Side.

There was a large gathering at Concord hall Friday evening as a sort of reception for the new families that have recently moved into that locality. A program was given by the Columbia, Oak Grove and Rugg schools.

Col. A. W. Wright and Major N. Nicholson are the recipients of handsome gold badges received from the State of Minnesota in token of 25 years of acceptable service in the M. N. G.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pettigill spent Sunday with relatives in Pipestone.

Miss Eula Terry spent Sunday with friends in Minneapolis.

Albert Palmer came from Chicago Friday to visit his father, Joseph Palmer, for a few days.

Mrs. R. L. DeGroot left Friday for Denver, Colo., to visit her sister and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Stuart.