

The Calendar Club was entertained by Mrs. Fred Fenton Thursday afternoon in a delightful manner.

Mrs. Herman Olson and daughter left for their new home at Knox, N. D. on Saturday. They will visit relatives in Windom, Minn. on the way.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Krupicka of the east side died Saturday.

A training school for nurses has been established at St. Olaf hospital in this city. Here is a good chance to get training without the expense of going to a large city.

A special election is called for Tuesday, July 26, to vote on bonds for the Sargeant's spring water extension.

Frank Cronan was appointed city recorder Friday evening as Fay R. Smith declined the position. Bond was fixed at $2,000.

Under the new Great Western time table the trains to Minneapolis now leave Austin at 4:30 a. m. and 6:12 p. m. Night train south leaves 11:43 p. m. train leaves at 12:10.

The second squadron, Fourth Cavalry, enroute to Spara, Wis. are scheduled to camp in Austin for the night on Saturday, July 23. There will be 200 horses with the company.

Rev. and Mrs. Bronson of Laverne came Thursday to visit daughter, Mrs. Guy H. Burlingame.

Fay W. Greenman moved his law business Wednesday to the offices formerly occupied by L. French over the Citizens bank.

J. E. Robinson's house on Main street which he recently bought of C. H. Coats, and has extensively remodeled is finished for occupancy except the hard wood floors which will be in shortly.

Miss Lillian Baldwin of Minneapolis came Saturday to spend the week with Miss Georgia Drost and is enjoying the Chautauqua.

The first two car loads of tile were shipped from the new Farmer's Tile plant last Friday. The factory is fast getting into shape to turn out a large product.

Prof. F. J. Shriden of St. Paul assistant state entomologist, was here Friday and thoroughly inspected the nursery stock of the Turtle Creek Nursery south of the fair grounds. He says that Mr. Lindsay's stock is clean and that his grounds compare favorably in care with any nursery he has visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Johnson left Tuesday for a month's outing at Buffalo Lake, Minn.

Mrs. Eva A. Smith left Friday evening for Fort Ann, N. Y., to visit her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Al. M. Smith accompanied her.

Stephen Cook arrived home Monday evening from Park Rapids where he spent a week with his family who are camping there. His son Neal is hale and hearty and much improved.

Mrs. J. Jasperson and children of Albert Lea came Saturday and spent Sunday with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Mann, returning Monday. Lucille Mann went with them to Albert Lea for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Solen Wood left Saturday evening for Detroit, Mich., to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Elks to which Mr. Wood is a delegate. Mrs. Wood will go from there to visit at her home at Savannah, N. Y. One of the features of entertainment at Detroit will be a parade of 7,000 automobiles. The oldest Elk, aged 104 years is present.

G. Ed Norton of Santa Ana, Cal. visited friends here the last week leaving on Saturday.

Repairs. Honesty of purpose and fidelity to it, combined with accurate painstaking workmanship—these are the cardinal principles that have entered into our work for more than forty-eight years.

The right kind of Bee Keepers supplies for sale, including hives, if engaged in season. 1st door south of postoffice, Austin, Minn.

F. A. TICKNOR. Reserve July 9 to 15 and attend every program of the Austin Chautauqua. Twenty programs for $1.50 if you buy your tickets at once. See ad.

Mrs. Albert Corson received word Monday that her brother, Alfred Harrington formerly of Austin has been found dead at Canton, S. D. He was also a brother of Mrs. Geo. Churchill.

Mrs. R. J. Gordon and daughter Grace came up from Lyle Sunday and will spend this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powers. They expect to leave for their new home at Gull Lake, Saskatchewan, next Monday.

A one cent street addressed to L. A. Clark, 511 Baldwin street, Austin, Minn., will bring to your home a competent repairer of organs and sewing machines, with 20 years experience in this business. Guaranteed best of work. Also repairer and finisher of all kinds of furniture. Try him and smile at results. 17-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bushman left Sunday night for Toledo and Detroit.

The automobiles at the Chautauqua come and go by way of Garfield street and the River street bridge leaving Main street for teams. It is a very nice arrangement.

Mrs. O. H. Hegge and children went to Buffalo Lake yesterday for an outing.

Claude Hall while swimming above Campbell's dam Sunday afternoon got beyond his depth and became exhausted and was rescued from drowning by Emil Anderson who saw his danger in time.

Mrs. Aug. Briebach went to Hudson, Wis. Thursday to visit her daughter.

Mrs. A. M. Eccleston arrived Thursday from Los Angeles, Cal. to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. H. French in Windom township.

Louis W. Powers of Minneapolis came down last evening and will assist his father in erecting silos in this vicinity.

Percy Rogers of Minneapolis sold the Elk hotel last week to Edwin B. Kelly of Fremont, Neb. C. R. McKee continues as manager. Bert Churchill who has had charge since the hotel opened last fall has gone to Montana.

There was an immense crowd present at the band concert given Wednesday evening in City Park. The concert will be omitted this evening on account of the Chautauqua.

Marriage licenses were issued to Melvin David of Grand Meadow and Mrs. Sarah Williams of Austin; and to Alva Garvey and Flora Dagle of Mason City, Iowa.

Miss Millie Philbrick of Saint's Rest is spending the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hawkins and attending Chautauqua.

Fred Hall of Parsons, Kas., was visiting relatives here Thursday on his way to North Dakota.

Miss Nettie Adams operator for the Tri State Telephone company in S. Paul came home Monday on a two weeks vacation.

F. R. Eckhardt, district court reporter, has handed in his resignation and will return to Rochester to go into law business again with his brother.

Miss Alta Fisch returned Thursday from Minnesota Lake where she spent two weeks with relatives.

Lafayette French, Jr., left for Ann Arbor, Mich. Wednesday to take a summer course in law study.

Herbert Benton is down from Fargo on a two weeks vacation and is visiting friends in this city and vicinity.

School meetings in all districts next Saturday. Get out and do your duty.

There was a good shower here Saturday morning which greatly revived vegetation. The hay crop is very light, and many fields of small grain will be short.

Barley harvest is being rushed and some oats are cut. Mr. Cassidy on the old Judge Kingsley farm southwest is cutting oats that he figures will go fifty bushels to the acre. John A. Thompson in the southeast part of town cut barley on the Fourth of July and was stacking yesterday. He cut barley on the Fourth in the years 1895, 1901 and 1910. Early harvest all right.

Mrs. W. T. Mandeville arrived here Thursday for a brief visit. She and her husband are living with their son, Bonnie at Rocky Ford, Col. Mr. Mandeville recently visited in Seattle and Montana. Mrs. Mandeville spent several weeks with her daughter in Minneapolis on her way here.

Mrs. C. A. Pooler and daughter Dorothy returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Cresco.

Thos. K. Dahle of Duluth was here Friday on a brief business trip. He returned Friday afternoon.

Word comes from J. Solner who is visiting his son Nordahl at Seattle, Wash. that he will not make along stay in the west. He has visited a number of old Austin friends including Hans C. Anderson at Port Orchard. He will visit Mr. and Mrs. Haldor Torsen on his return trip.

For sale, fine German millet seed at Pooler's drug store. 19-2

Miss Clara Kolpin went to Minneapolis Thursday and remained until Sunday on a visit with friends. She resumed her duties at Schleuder's Monday.

Mr. Carl Juselson of Blooming Prairie called on Austin friends Sunday.

Will Miner had a thrilling ride down Main street Sunday afternoon when his team of heavy blacks became uncontrollable. He went down south Main street with automobile speed but fortunately at the bridge the team was stopped by two men without serious damage to property or limb.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Syck of Brownsdale came to Austin Sunday to attend the Chautauqua.

Sunday afternoon while the crowd was going into the Chautauqua the little daughter of J. B. Howells stumbled and fell right in front of a slowly moving auto. The wheel caught the dress of the child and held her so that the wheel ran hard against her hip. Fortunately the machine was stopped before anything worse than a bad bruise was experienced.

Chas. E. Fairbanks of Sutton went to Duluth Monday to serve on the U. S. jury.

Lawyer Ed Kelly of Carrington, N. D. came Sunday to visit with his folks.

E. B. Crane and daughter of Minneapolis are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Frank Dixon of Lisbon, N. D. is visiting friends here and at Otranto.

The Carnegie public library is closed afternoons and evenings during the Chautauqua. Open every forenoon from 9 to 12.

Mrs. J. D. McCormick went to Chicago Thursday to spend a week with friends.

Thos. Dagan went to Fargo Friday to spend several weeks with relatives.

H. L. Banfield took his three children to Minneapolis Friday and sent them east over the Soo line to New Hampshire to spend the summer with relatives.

Ray Johnson, quartermaster sergeant of Company G went to Lake City today.

O. E. Nicholson returned Saturday from Newry.

Mrs. J. W. A. Jensen and children went to Lausung Wednesday.

The summer social committee of the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church serve ice cream and cake Wednesday on the lawn of Mrs. C. J. Erickson on East Water street. The receipts were $14.00.

The Workmen meet tomorrow evening in Elk's hall at 7:30 p. m. A large attendance is desired.

Today is circus day and of course you will go, with your uncles and your cousins and your aunts. There may be those who do not enjoy a good circus but they are the exception. The young man will want to take his girl and the old folks will want to go to see how the young man and his girl are behaving. The small boy will want to take his grandfather to see the animals and mother will go along to look after both of them. Even the minister and the magistrate will watch the parade, admire the wild animals and the sleek horses and smile at the antics of the trick mule and his rider.

The Woodmen meet tonight at 7:30 p. m.

Some of our young people will enter Maukato (Minn.) Commercial College at the Fall Opening. A good time to enter and a fine school to attend. If interested send for free Year Book.

The Modern Samaritans meet to night.

Miss Tellovine Ness came up from Lyle Sunday to visit Austin friends. She returned to Lyle Monday.

The Degree of Honor meets tomorrow evening in the Woodman hall, 7:30 p. m.

John Myhre returned Monday from a trip to St. Paul.

The Danish Brotherhood will hold their regular meeting Saturday at Harmonia hall.

Union services at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. Sermon by Rev. J. P. Davis.

Rev. J. H. Carstens will preach on the Atrophy of Conscience at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. James E. Jenks of St. Cloud has been spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Shaw.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Mrs. E. B. Crane et al to Jacob Weisler, 1/2 of se 1/4 of section 28, Lansing, (quit claim) $1.

Johann Schafer to Wm. Gildermeister, lot 7, block 4, Elkton village, $32.50.

John J. Corneveaux to C. J. Weisler, lot 12 and w 1/2 of lot 11, Woodlawn Park addition to Austin, $650.

W. H. Pierce to H. D. Gee, lot 7, Dexter village, $2,500.

Mrs. Philip Keough to Lewis F. King, 1/2 of ne 1/4 of section 7, Pleasant Valley, (quit claim) $200.

Elmer D. Tanner to Delphine R. Tanner, w 1/2 of w 1/2 of se 1/4 of section 11, Red Rock, $2,000.

Delphine R. Tanner to Elmer D. Tanner, e 1/2 of sw 1/4 of section 12, Red Rock, $4,800.

Maitland E. Varco to Fannie B. Murray, lot 2 and w 45 ft. of lot 1, block 4, Galloway's second addition to Austin and 16 ft. on w side of lot 2, $3,500.

Arthur G. Scullin to Clyde E. Weber, lot 4, block 3, Bolcom's addition to Austin, $1,800.

Mrs. Clarence Condit to Catharine Blowers, lot 6, block 27, Yates and Lewis addition to Austin, $1,600.

Mrs. R. J. Gordon to Mrs. Marie Gullickson, lots 2 and 3, block 1, P. Knutson's addition to Lyle village, $1,550.

W. C. T. U. Convention. The 20th annual convention of district No. 30, W. C. T. U. will be held in the Christian church in Austin, July 26, 27, beginning at 3:30 a short session will be held Tuesday afternoon. A fine program will be rendered Tuesday evening. Business meeting will be made interesting all day Wednesday. On Wednesday evening Miss Rozette Hendrix, the state president, will give the address. You are invited to any and all of these meetings, no secret services. Gentlemen especially invited.

KNOCK-KENNEDY.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Kennedy, in Austin township, Sunday morning, July 10, 1910, at nine o'clock occurred the wedding of Oscar A. Knock of Garrison, N. D., and Miss Gertrude L. Kennedy of Austin. Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. A company of about twenty-five were present. The ring service was read. Bride and groom were unattended during the service. The wedding vows were spoken beneath a bower of green arranged in the south bay window. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white batiste trimmed in lace and insertion. After congratulations a bountiful wedding course breakfast was enjoyed and Mr. and Mrs. Knock took the noon train for Omaha and Denver. The bride, who is a trained nurse, has been in this locality for several years and is possessed of many sterling traits. Her folks came here from West Washington, Maine, about two years ago. The groom for the past five years has been a prosperous farmer in North Dakota, where he has recently proved up on his claim. His former home was at Perry, Ia. They will reside in Denver, Colo., for a while. We join in congratulations.

BELKNAP-BROWN.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman in this city, Thursday afternoon, July 7, 1910, William E. Belknap and Miss Elsie A. Brown of this city. Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. They were unattended. The ring service was used. Mr. and Mrs. Belknap took the afternoon train north and will visit at Sandstone and other points before returning to Austin. The bride's folks live at Sandstone. She has recently lived here and has many friends to wish her joy. The groom is an employe at the Austin packing house.

FELCH-MADISON.

At the residence of Nate N. Palmeter in Brownsdale, at high noon, Wednesday, July 6, 1910, George E. Felch of Shevlin, Minn., and Miss Iva E. Madison of Palermo, N. D., Rev. C. D. Belden of Austin officiating. They were unattended. The ring service was read. The bride wore a gown of mulberry colored Messaline silk trimmed in old rose and white roses and carried white roses. Miss Ethel Syck played the wedding march. About twenty guests were present. After the ceremony a fine wedding dinner was served in courses, and Mr. and Mrs. Felch took the afternoon train for their new home at Shevlin. The groom is a son of Austin Felch and was reared in this locality. He has lived in North Dakota for several years and has proved up on a valuable claim near Palermo. He is one of our substantial young men. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Madison and was born in Lyle village, where she lived until she went with her folks to Palermo about four years ago. She is a bright and winsome young lady and will make a worthy life companion. It is an interesting fact that the officiating clergyman at her wedding officiated at the wedding of her parents 22 years ago. She is a granddaughter of Nate N. Palmeter of Brownsdale. The many friends of bride and groom in this vicinity will wish them an abundance of life's joys.

MEINERS-WOLDEN.

The wedding of Prof. Wm. W. Meiners, who recently bought an interest in the S. M. Normal college here, and Miss Hilda K. Wolden took place in the N. E. L. church at Spring Grove, Minn., June 29. A reception was afterwards given to a company of about 400. The bride is an accomplished musician and the groom has proven himself a successful school man. They will be at home in Austin after Aug. 15.

DEATHS

MRS. E. GILLOTT.

Mrs. E. Gilloft died Sunday, July 10, 1910, at her home on Grant street after a brief illness aged 59 years. Her maiden name was Amanda Blunt. She was born at Floyd, Iowa, on Christmas day in 1850. She was married to Mr. Gilloft at Charles City and they came to near Blooming Prairie eleven years ago and to Austin two years later. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church for years and was highly respected by those who knew her. She leaves her husband and twelve children. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. F. Stout, were held at the residence yesterday morning and the body was taken to Charles City for interment.

MRS. TIMOTHY BULSON.

Mrs. Harriet, widow of Timothy Bulson, died at her home northwest of Rose Creek village Monday morning, July 11, 1910, of ulceration of the stomach. Her maiden name was Hildreth. She was born in Michigan in May, 1845. Her folks came to Monticello, Iowa, in an early day and later came to Sumner township, near Moscow. She was married to Mr. Bulson in 1869 and the family home has since been on the old farm near Rose Creek. Mr. Bulson died in October, 1907. She united in an early day with the Presbyterian church. She has been in poor health for several SPECIAL advertisement for John M. Briebach, The Meat Man, featuring prices for Bacon and Lard.

Low Round Trip Rates advertisement for Union Pacific, featuring dining car meals and service.

THE GREENING REUNION. Hon. and Mrs. C. F. Greening of Grand Meadow arrived home Sunday night from the annual reunion of the Greening family at Mazomanie, Wis.

COUNTY PROHIBITION CONVENTION. The county prohibition convention met in the court house Friday afternoon. Dr. W. A. Frazer of Lyle was elected chairman and Alex. Halvorson of Nevada clerk.

Fisch's Specials For Friday and Saturday. All 50c to 75c Wash Goods... 1/2 Price. All 25c to 30c Wash Goods... 15c.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING. The annual school meeting in this independent district will be held at the high school building next Saturday, 16th, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

W. A. Nolan and wife arrived in Grand Meadow Monday from Mazomanie. Elgar and Jessie went to Beaver Dam to the other grandpa's home. Elgar arrived home Monday night.

That the very best business men we have should be elected as members of the board. The work of both the members whose terms expire has been acceptable.