—The malicious gossip published by a few scandal mongers about Rev. J. P. Davis pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city comes with poor grace from some of those who are peddling it. The simple fact is that the question of Mr. Davis' remaining with the Austin church has not yet been settled by the Presbytery. It came before the Synod at St. Peter last week and was remanded to the Presbytery for final action. He preached to large and gratified congregations last Sunday at the Presbyterian church and will preach again next Sunday.

MARRIAGES

DOWNEY—SARGENT.
At St. Augustine's church in this city, Wednesday morning, Oct. 12, 1910, occurred the wedding of Thomas J. Downey of Austin and Miss Amy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mate Sargent of Nevada township, Rev. E. H. Devlin officiating. Miss Mary Heffner was bridesmaid and Peter Heffner groomsmen. The groom is a son of Con Downey and clerks at the Urbatch hardware store. The bride has lived some time in Austin. Both have many friends to wish them joy and prosperity abundant. They have gone to housekeeping in Mill street.

KNOFF—MCBRIDE.
At the home of the bride's parents on south St. Paul street Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 12, 1910, Paul C. Knopf and Miss Alice Louise McBride were united in marriage, Rev. F. E. Knopf, father of the groom officiating. About sixty relatives and friends were present. The reception rooms were prettily decorated in autumn leaves and dahlias and in the dining room with salvia, rose and smilax. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of smilax. Elinor and Frances Knopf were bridesmaids and Howard Hengstler of Minneapolis and Kenneth Knopf groomsmen. The ring service was read. Preceding the ceremony Miss Alice Hayes sang "A Song of Waiting." The Lohengrin wedding march was rendered by Miss Lucy Thomas and Dr. Fred Rayman. At the close Miss Thekla Knopf sang "The Life Road." Miss Lucy Thomas accompanied. The bride's gown was of cream colored satin with winks of hand made lace sent by her brother from Bombay, India. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. After congratulations a course wedding supper was served with Mrs. S. A. Emerson caterer. The Gazoos assisted in serving. Many beautiful presents were received including a purse of $100 in gold from the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Knopf took the evening train for Minneapolis for a brief visit and will for the present be at home at the McBride home in Austin. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McBride, a graduate of the Austin high school and a young lady of Christian graces and charming personality. The groom is one of the office force at the Hormel packing plant and stands for the best there is in ideal young manhood. Both of them enjoy the confidence and esteem of many warm friends here who will be interested in their future welfare and success. We join in hearty congratulations. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Harry P. McBride and family of Minneapolis; Mrs. Wm. Hengstler and son of Wilmar; Miss Sarah Cook of St. Paul; Miss Viola Dinsmoor of Benson and Miss Hazel Maine of Tacoma.

MUSICAL FEAST ASSURED
Minneapolis Orchestra Will Come for Date Decem- 1st, Under Auspices of Commercial Club.
The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra which will soon be heard here for the first time, has during its eight years of existence won a position as one of the two or three really first class orchestras of America. In Emil Oberhoffer, the Minneapolis Orchestra has a conductor, who, in the opinion of many critics, has no superior in this country, and its due to his remarkable genius that the orchestra under his direction has reached such an exalted plane. The guarantee of upwards of Fifty-five Thousand Dollars per year, subscribed by the people of Minneapolis to maintain the orchestra, has enabled Mr. Oberhoffer to secure the finest musicians to be obtained and the personnel of the orchestra has been recruited from the musical centers of Europe and America. The appearance in this city on December 1st, of this superb organization, will be hailed with enthusiasm by the people of Austin and surrounding country.

DEATHS

MRS. CECELIA MATTER.
Mrs. Cecelia Matter of Mason City, Iowa, died Oct. 11, aged 28 years of typhoid fever.
Cecelia Bencke was born the 28th day of May 1882. She was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bencke, then residents of Mower Co. May 28 of 1902 she was married to John G. Matter of Waltham. To this union two children were born: Gertrude, who died in her infancy and Harold aged 4 who survives. Mr. and Mrs. Matter made their home in Waltham until the time of his death, which occurred two years ago.
The sorrowing young wife and little two year old son then went to Mason City, where she has since been making her home with her parents there.
Mrs. Matter has had much sorrow in life, but always had a sunny smile for all and ready to sympathize with those who sought it. She will be greatly missed in her home and by her many friends.
Three weeks ago she was taken sick with a bad cold which developed into typhoid fever. She was taken to the hospital where death claimed her early Tuesday morning, Oct. 11.
Mrs. Matter was a Christian worker of the Lutheran church and was liked by all who knew her for her kind and loving disposition.
The remains were brought from Mason City Thursday and burial took place Friday at 2 o'clock at the St. Michael's Lutheran church, where she was laid to rest by the side of her husband.

DISTRICT W. R. C. CONVENTION CLOSURE.
The convention for Dist No. 1, Dept. of Minn. W. R. Corps, closed Wednesday afternoon after a very enjoyable and profitable meeting. The following officers were elected: pres. Mrs. Sarah Hessler, Red Wing; S. V. P. Mrs. Isabel Stevens, Rochester; J. V. P. Mrs. Madge Smith, Austin; treas. Mrs. Josephine Seaman, Rochester; chaplain, Mrs. Clara Greening, Grand Meadow; delegate to National convention at Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. Neva Kalb, Spring Valley; alternates Mrs. Ella Mason, LeRoy, Mrs. Ella Holland, Winona; member of Soldier's Home Board, Mrs. Ella Mason, LeRoy. Next meeting will be held at Red Wing a year later. A pleasing incident to the convention was the presentation of a beautiful gelatine spoon to the Department President, Mrs. Lucy C. Lewis of Minneapolis by Mrs. A. F. Mattice, past president. Wednesday afternoon, memorial services were held for departed members of the various corps in this district. The presiding officer during the Austin convention was Mrs. A. F. Mattice and she received from McIntyre Corps a beautiful W. R. C. pin. Mrs. Miles Smith was also presented with a fine pin.

REV. J. H. CARSTENS RESIGNS.
Rev. J. H. Carstens, pastor of the Baptist church in this city, read a letter of resignation Sunday morning in order to take up the pastorate of the Baptist church at LaGrange, Ill. a suburb of Chicago. The new field is only twelve miles out from Chicago and is a larger church. The opportunity to come in touch with denominational affairs in Chicago will be of great advantage. Mr. Carstens came to Austin May 1, 1909, and will finish his work here Nov. 15. He is an able preacher and has made many friends while here.

MOWER COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.
The Mower County Medical association held its annual meeting at the Fox Hotel Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. Dr. H. F. Peirson read an instructive paper on "The Health Officer's Work in Mower County." Reports from the state convention were given by delegates. The following were elected officers: pres. Dr. C. F. Lewis; vice pres. Dr. G. M. F. Rogers; sec. Dr. C. C. Leck; treas. Dr. G. J. Schetter.
