MARRIAGES

BERNHARDT BUSHMAN.

Barney Bushman, aged 70 years, died Thursday morning, Dec. 1, 1910 of heart failure at his home on east Water street. He had been troubled with Bright's disease all summer but on Monday before he died he was taken with a dizzy spell resembling a stroke and was unconscious most of the time after. He was born in Hanover, Germany, Oct. 27, 1840 and was married there Nov. 15, 1862 to Miss Dena Adelaide Varsing. In June, 1878, they came to America coming west from Baltimore and locating on a farm a mile and a half west of Austin. Two years later they moved into Austin and have since resided in the third ward. Mr. Bushman worked for the Milwaukee railroad company for years and later was street commissioner of Austin for eight years. He was a man of upright life, honest in his dealing and faithful in the discharge of his duties. He was a member of the Catholic church. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. E. H. Devlin, were held in St. Augustine's church Saturday forenoon. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

DEATHS

ALEXANDER R. GREEN.

Alexander R. Green, aged 76 years, died Thursday evening, Dec. 1, 1910 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Kearns on Oakland avenue of heart trouble. He had been quite ill for two months. He was born in Streeterborough, Ohio, Sept. 29, 1834. At an early age he moved to Illinois and was married to Miss Marietta Spalding at Davis, Ill., Jan. 9 1859. They lived at Davis about four years and then came to Waverly, Iowa, and from there to Albert Lea and Pipestone, Minn., but later returned to Rockford, Ill., where they lived about 23 years in all. They have lived in Austin for the past nine years. Mr. Green was a contractor and builder and he came here about 15 years ago to work on building. He was a man highly respected by those who knew him. The widow survives and three children: Mrs. Harry S. King of Pasadena, Cal., Mrs. Chas. E. Kearns of Austin and Frank H. Green of St. Paul. Funeral services conducted by Rev. C. D. Belden, were held at the Keans residence Saturday afternoon. Interment in Oakwood.

A TRIBUTE TO REV. A. CRESSEY.

The Methodist church in this place was occupied Sunday morning and evening by the Rev. Alfred Cressey of Austin. Mr. Cressey is one of the old pioneer preachers whose chief glory lies in the fact that he faced the trials and tribulations of the early itinerant days with that courage and fortitude that knew no failure and that redounded to the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God upon the earth. The world may never know the trials and sufferings; the hardships that were borne by those old sturdy, hardy, Godfearing pioneers. Nor will the world ever be enabled to measure the full fruits of their work, and their victories that have affected the welfare of mankind for time and eternity. Mr. Cressey is one of the few remaining men of broad culture, scholarly training, indomitable energy, unbounded enthusiasm and inspired zeal whose early preaching set the world on fire with a holy desire for right living. Those great preachers are mostly gone. They have largely passed to the other shore. And there are none to take their places. Mr. Cressey is now retired. He is spending the sunset of life surrounded by children and friends at Austin in that rich contentment that flows from the consciousness of a life well spent and a duty well performed. But the old power still remains and it bursts forth occasionally as opportunity and strength may permit. His sermons here were of the old fashioned type, as deep and powerful as they were logical and convincing. They stirred the people as they had not been stirred for many years. To listen to them was a benediction to the soul and a rich heritage from the fountains of life. They were, indeed, a powerful incentive to the holier and higher life.—Janesville, Minn., Argus.

Y. M. C. A. LECTURES.

There are in this state many institutions established by law or people of benevolent motives, which few of us know much about, because we do not take the time to read about them, and do not have the opportunity to obtain first hand information from experts. Such is not to be the case in the future regarding several of these institutions, such as the factory conditions of our state, child labor problems and the Juvenile Court. The Mower County Young Women's Christian Association is arranging for a course of lectures, which shall present interesting facts in regard to these things.

Miss Sara Fitzgerald, one of the probation officers, of Minneapolis working under the supervision of Judge John Day Smith, is to be here from December 9th to 13th, to tell us of the Juvenile Court Work.

Her schedule is as follows:
Austin, Friday evening, Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

Dexter, Saturday, Dec. 10.
Grand Meadow, Sunday.
LeRoy, Monday.

The members of the Y. W. C. A., in all towns will be admitted to the lecture, on presentation of membership tickets. A nominal charge of 15c, for all others wishing to hear her, will be charged at the door, to defray expenses.

THE FESTIVAL DAYS BAZAAR.

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 9th and 10th the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church of this city will hold their annual sale of all articles made during the year as well as home cooking and home made candies. The ladies expect a large attendance as they have expended much time, work money and thought in an effort to make this bazaar and entertainment a social and financial success to the society as well as giving the public good entertainment.

The days of the week will be represented both by the decoration of the booth and the work sold in them, following out the idea of the plan at the beginning of year and culminating in this large bazaar.

A large line of hand embroidered towels and pillow cases will be for sale in the Red Cross hospital tent. Kitchen aprons as well as articles for wash day in the Monday booth. Iron holders, lunch and tray cloths in the Chinese laundry. Mending party and work bags in the Wednesday booth, Fancy aprons and hand embroidered waists in the Thursday booth, while the Friday booth will have Dust Caps, broom covers and a large line of embroidered center pieces. You are all invited to inspect and buy our excellent Norwegian Swedish and Danish small cakes as well as home made bread pies and layer cakes in the Saturday booth. Beautiful articles in knit and crochet garments and center pieces will be found in its own booth. Quilts in artistic patterns and workmanship will be on sale as well as dolls, home made candy and Christmas cards.

A juvenile room will be made attractive for the younger children where refreshments will be served to them on small tables at the small sum of five cents.
