

MARRIAGES

DAIGNEAU-SLEEPER.

At the residence of the bride's parents in Brownsdale, at high noon, Tuesday, Sept. 9, 1913, Don V. Daigneau and Miss Claire Sleeper were married, Rev. Wm. Welch officiating. They have gone to Madison Lake for an outing. The groom is the son of Dr. F. E. Daigneau and a graduate of the Austin high school. He has been in the theatre business since and is now proprietor of the Pastime theatre at Mankato. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos O. Sleeper and a most amiable young lady. She is a graduate of the Austin high school and later attended Mankato normal. She has taught some since. The wedding was a quiet one, only immediate relatives being present.

JORGENSEN-McDONALD.

At the residence of H. J. Hanson on Slavin street, Saturday evening, Sept. 6, 1913, John S. Jorgensen and Miss Estella M. McDonald were united in marriage, Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hanson. The ring service was read. Only immediate relatives were present. The bride's gown was of white lawn trimmed in lace. The groom is an employe in the Milwaukee railroad shops here. The bride's home is at Melrose, Iowa, but she has spent the past year in Austin. They will go to housekeeping. Their many friends wish them abundant joy and prosperity.

FRANKLIN-GIBBS.

At the residence of the bride's parents at the City Spring farm, Wednesday evening, Sept. 3, 1913, occurred the wedding of Prof. Hallet C. Franklin and Miss Alice J. Gibbs, Elder S. White of Wells officiating. A large company of friends and relatives were present. The rooms were prettily trimmed in green and white and the ceremony took place beneath an arch of the same banked with palms and ferns. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Rosenthal. The bride was dressed in white crepe du chien and carried white roses. After congratulations, a fine wedding supper was served. Miss Ada Brown, Ethel and May Wood, Ida Carle and Grace Martin assisting in serving. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gibbs and has been a successful teacher for several years. She is a young lady of sterling Christian character and has high ideals of life. The groom is a graduate of the Seventh Day Adventist college at College View, Neb. He will be teacher in the S. D. A. Industrial school at Maple Plain, Minn. north of Minneapolis for the coming year, and their home will be there. We join in hearty congratulations and best wishes.

BAKER-NICHOLS.

A quiet wedding took place in Austin Monday forenoon, Sept. 8, 1913, when Dr. Glenn L. Baker and Miss Bessie E. Nichols of Waltham village were married at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. D. Belden. The friends at Waltham hardly suspected that the event would come quite so soon. The ring service was read. They were unattended. The bride wore a neat going-away-gown. They went to the Cities and Wood Lake for a few days' wedding trip. They will go to housekeeping in Waltham village. The groom is a graduate of the N. W. University at Evanston, Ill. in the medical department. For the past year he has been a successful physician at Waltham. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Nichols. She is a graduate of Pillsbury academy, class of 1913, and is a refined and well educated young lady. Both are popular in a large circle of friends whose best wishes follow them. We wish for them a large measure of the best things of life.

ALLEN-MOORE.

At the residence of the bride's home in Arlington, Va., Thursday, Sept. 4, 1913, Dr. Charles C. Allen of Austin and Miss Mary S. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Moore were united in marriage. They will be at home in Austin after Oct. 15. The groom has been a practicing physician in Austin for the past two years and has made many friends. The coming of his bride will be a distinct addition to the social circles of this city.

SHAMAN-NAVRATIL.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman in this city, Wednesday noon, Sept. 9, 1913, James Shaman of Oakland township and Miss Mary Navratil of London were married, Rev. C. D. Belden officiating. They were unattended. The bride's suit was of blue marquisette. They will go to housekeeping on the Fred Crisman farm in London township. The groom is one of the enterprising young farmers of Oakland. The bride is the daughter of Joseph Navratil who lives near London village. Both have grown up in this vicinity and are respected and regarded for their worthy traits of character. Joy and prosperity be theirs.

BENNETT-NORTON.

The wedding of Will P. Bennett of this city and Miss Ida J. Norton will take place today at the home of the bride's parents in Cresco. The groom is a trusty employe of the First National bank. The bride was formerly a popular Austin teacher. They will reside here.

Joviality Out of Place.

"Your mistake was in misunderstanding your country," said Mr. Plowden, to a man and woman found dancing in the street and chagged with disorderly conduct at Marylebone. "This is not a country where people can afford to be jovial. You must cultivate a spirit of melancholy if you want to be safe. Go away and be as sad as you can."—London Tit-Bits.

Y. W. C. A. Union Meeting at the M. E. Church.

The Union meeting held last Sunday evening in the Methodist church in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. was both interesting and helpful. The music given by a chorus of young women, carried in the hymns "Father of Light," and "Publish Glad Tidings," echoes of the Geneva Conference last month, where they were favorite songs. Miss Etta Robertson sang "The Day is Ended" by Bartlett.

Several phases of Association work were discussed by the different speakers. Mr. McBride spoke of the debt of the Austin business man to the Association for its rest rooms, where the out-of-town shopper can rest and refresh herself, an opportunity which Austin merchants naturally cannot give their customers. Dr. Stout, speaking of the work from the church standpoint, showed how efficiently the association reinforces the work among young women both in and out of the church.

Rev. Knopf introduced Miss Margaret O'Connell, our Field Secretary, who spoke of several different phases of the work. She spoke of the general idea that rest rooms, cafeteria, and Travelers' Aid usually represent to people in general, the central thought of the Association. These are essential features of the work, all better understood than the Travelers' Aid work. This is just as important, more so, in the small town and country as in the cities; it is better to educate and warn the girl before she goes to the large city, than to rescue her after she has learned, all too seriously, her need. Miss O'Connell also outlined clearly the educational and social aims of the Association, and spoke in closing of the real central aim of the work, the awakening of a stronger and more effectual spiritual life.

Floral Club Meeting.

The Floral Club was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. W. R. Earl at a Russian tea. Mrs. Earl was assisted by Mrs. O. H. Hegge. This was the first meeting of the year and the subject for the year is Russia, the program Monday consisted of Map Study and Geography by Mrs. Smith Davison; A Russian Miss and Folk Lore, Mrs. H. A. Avery; Derzhaven's Ode to God by Mrs. Davison; Roll Call, Mrs. D. B. Smith; Duet, Mrs. R. A. Pooler and Mrs. O. H. Hegge.

Talleyrand and Josephine.

Talleyrand, the notorious French statesman, friend of Napoleon and ambassador at the English court, was designated for a military career, but an accident, when one year old, rendered him a cripple for life. His cunning cleverness, political penetration, adroit intrigues and ingenious subterfuges were vehemently opposed by the emperor's wife, Josephine, who energetically denounced him as a "cursed cripple."

Unreasonable Men.

"You know, my dear, men are quite impossible. If I accept Jack's proposal, he will expect me to marry him, and if I refuse it he will expect to be allowed to marry someone else."—Bystander.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Austin Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what an Austin citizen says:

R. S. Pizak, 1009 Clark street, Austin, Minn., says: "I know Doan's Kidney Pills to be a good medicine both from my own experience and their use in my home. I had attacks of backache across the small of my back that made it hard for me to stoop over. When I was bothered in that way three or four years ago, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at the Pooler Drug Co. In a few days they removed the trouble and since then I have never let myself get bad. When I felt the complaint coming on, I have quickly used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have checked the attack. Another in my home has also used Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and has had good results." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Adv.
